

Index

- Abstracting, future of, 41–42
- Access
- database, 48
 - provided by acquisitions librarians, 149
 - electronic, to scholarly books, 34–35
 - to electronic archive, 47
 - government information, 15–16
 - Internet, filtering, 184–185
 - open, to information in Russia, 218–219, 221–222
 - public, National Trust, 96–97
- Accessibility
- academic library space, 63–64
 - library, to public, 82, 96
- Accreditation, national approaches, 120–121
- Acquisitions librarians
- and changes in scholarly communication, 148–149
 - collections acquisition, 142–145
 - education: historical perspective, 140–141
 - electronic journals, 153–154
 - as library spokesmen, 145
 - skills, 139, 150
- Adaptability
- academic library space, 62–63
 - professional education, 129
- Aggregators, publishers responses to, 42
- ALIA, see Australian Library and Information Association
- Amazon.com, 33, 36
- American Council of Learned Societies, 42–43
- American librarianship
- influences in Russia
 - current, 220–222
 - during Perestroika, 218–220 - Russian attitudes toward, 215–216
 - Russian librarians learning from, 210–214
- American Library Association, 104, 123, 144
- America Online, as publisher or aggregator, 44
- Approval plans, early development, 143–144
- Architects, communication with librarians, 54
- Archiving, electronic, 46–47
- Artifactual value, books, 89–91
- Atkinson Norms, academic library space, 71–72
- Atria, in new academic libraries, 60
- Australia
- colleges of advanced education, 110–111
 - curriculum development, 117–118
 - debates about computing and library professions, 113
 - development of library training, 108
 - library schools and courses, 126–127
 - standards setting by professional associations, 106
- Australian Library and Information Association, 113–114, 121–122
- Authors
- cost of publishing shifting to, 38
 - and publishers: changing relationship between, 30
- Belgium, IAML branch, 195
- Benign neglect, and preservation of collections, 95
- Bibliography, practice of, 84
- Bibliothèque Nationale de France, 56
- Bibliotheca Alexandrina (Egypt), 57
- Biographisch-bibliographisches Quellen-Lexikon der Musiker* (Eitner), 190–192
- Birmingham City Libraries Web site, 175

Books

- database, Columbia University Press, 35
- E-books, 42–43
- educational, as publishing niche, 35–36
- history of, as study realm, 88–89
- increased awareness of, 97–100
- physical damage, 89–94
- professional, sales in US, 36
- repairing for future, 94–95
- role in child development, 159–160
- Russian philosophy of, 221–222
- scholarly, electronic access, 34–35
- separation from readers, 85–88
- surrogate, 83–84, 95–96
- trade, online marketing, 36
- use of, 81–83
- Bookstart project, UK, 171
- Boxing, in book preservation, 99
- Bristol City Libraries Web site, 175–176
- Business models
 - and electronic publishing environment, 30–32
 - including Web delivery mechanism, 47–48
 - publishing industry sectors, 28
- Cabling infrastructure, academic library
 - space planning for, 69–70
- California, Berkeley Public Library Web site, 180
- Cambridge University, new libraries, 58–59
- Canada, Brantford public libraries Web site links, 178–179
- Capitalism
 - and direction of information, 21
 - foundational tenets of, 10
- Carnegie Corporation, funding by, 107–109
- Cataloging
 - Anglo-American
 - adopted by Derman, 212
 - implemented by Shamurin, 213–214
 - with book preservation in mind, 100
 - limitations of, 84–85
 - music collections, 192
 - code for, 193
- Censorship, issue regarding Internet filtering, 184
- Centre for Child, Birmingham, UK, 169–170
- Charters, children's libraries, 165

Children

- innovative ICT services for, 172–185
- reading aloud to, 158–159
- Children's libraries
 - development of
 - ICT resources, 166–169
 - literacy, 160
 - innovative services, 169–172
 - Library Association guidelines, 161–162
 - management of services, 164–166
 - Portugal, 162–163
 - research: A Place for Children, 163–164
 - UNESCO Public Library Manifesto, 161
- Children's Library Information Animation Skills, see CHILIAS project
- CHILIAS project, European Commission initiative, 172, 181–183, 185
- China, Shanghai Library, 57
- Classification, Soviet systems of, 214
- Collections
 - acquisition of, 142–145
 - historic, see Historic collections
 - library policy revision regarding, 94–97
 - "lost," effect of publicity, 91–92
 - music, cataloging, 192
 - preservation and benign neglect, 95
 - rare-book, 86–87
 - use and handling of, 97–98
- Colleges of advanced education, Australia, 110–111
- Columbia College School of Library Economy, 105, 116, 140–141
- Columbia University Press, book databases, 35
- Commercialization, information, 15
- Communication
 - by acquisitions librarians, 152
 - architects with librarians, 54
 - scholarly, acquisitions in relation to, 148–149
- Competency-based standards
 - library industry in Australia, 122
 - professional education, 114
- Competition, in journal publishing, 37
- Competitive procurement, by acquisitions librarians, 150–151
- Computers, wired-up study places, 70–71
- Conservation
 - books, 85, 90
 - Swaffham Parish Library collection, 92

- Continuities, of market imperatives over time, 10–11
- Curriculum development
 ALIA, 121–122
 American Library Association, 123
 Australia, 117–118
 emphasis on management, 130
 United Kingdom, 118–119
 United States, 119–120
- Database
 access to, 48
 provided by acquisitions librarians, 149 book, Columbia University Press, 35 building, by PubScience, 38
 online, 44
- Deep-plan cube design, UK university libraries, 58–60
- Derman, Henrietta, effect on Russian librarianship, 212
- Digital library project, bilingual, 222–223
- Disabilities
 academic library space planning for, 63–64
 addressed in Centre for Child, 170
- Discussion lists, as library conferences, 147–148
- Distance learning, 17–18, 43, 127, 133–134
 Australia, 111
- Distribution infrastructure, see also Electronic distribution publishing industry, 32–33
Documenta Musicologica, 202–203
- E-Books, 42–43
- E-Commerce, role in scholarly publishing, 42
- Economics
 electronic services for publishing industry, 29–30 research, vs cost of research papers, 39
 Web delivery mechanism, 47–48
- Educational books, as publishing niche, 35–36
- Educational magazines, 39
- Egypt, Bibliotheca Alexandrina, 57
- Eitner, Robert, 190–192
- Electronic distribution
 newsletters, 40
 scholarly journals, 37
- Electronic products business models changing to reflect, 31–32 distraction as effect on publishing industry, 29 economic costs for publishing industry, 29–30 educational, 43
 effect on author–publisher relationship, 30 professional and consumer, 44 scholarly, 41–43
- E-Mail, acquisitions in relation to, 146–147
- Environmental conditions, academic library space planning for, 66–67
- Essex County Libraries Web site, 177–178
- Ethics, library, in Russia, 219
- Filtering, Internet access, 184–185
- Flexibility
 by acquisitions librarians, 151
 Australian professional education, 126
Fontes Artis Musicae, 194, 196–199
The Foundations of Education for Librarianship (Shera), 119
- Funding cuts effect on library schools and courses, 128–129 for public libraries, 12–13
- Furnishings, academic library space planning for, 65
- Glazed envelopes, new academic libraries as, 59
- Gloucestershire County Libraries Web site, 176–177
- Government information, access to, 15–16
- Government investment, in library use of ICTs (UK), 167–168
- Government policies, effective lobbying of, 131–132
- Handling books rare books, 98
 training in, 99

- Higher education, information in, 17–18
- Historic collections
 little-used or unused, 87–88
 Ramey, 93–94
 Swaffham Parish Library, 92
- Hofmeister XIX project, musical publications, 203
- Human interaction, academic library space planning for, 64–65
- IAML
 cataloging code, 193
 communication with members, 194 early aims, 189–193
 future of, 204–205
 international and national links, 194–195 publications, 200–203 public music libraries, 195–197
 Public Music Libraries Commission, 196–197 special-interest groups and branches, 197–199
- Iconography, musical, 201–202
- ICTs expansion, 2
 impacting professional education, 116 innovative services for children, 172–185 and Library Association of UK, 122 official information and, 15–16 resource development, 185 and children's libraries, 166–169 and transformative power of information, 4–5
- Indexing services, future of, 41–42
- Infoplanet Web site, 181–183
- Information approach to professional education, 113–116 definitional diversity, 7–8 in higher education, 17–18 importance to library schools, 125–128 throughout recorded history, 8–9 loss in television programming, 19–20 and market arrangements, 11–21 official, 15–16
 quality of, 14–15, 19–20
 transformative power, and ICTs, 4–5
- Information and communications technologies, see ICTs
- Information labor, 5–6
- Information revolution, 2–3, 8–9, 160
- Information society collection and statistics and, 4 emergence of, 2 and ICTs, 6 knowledge elite and, 3 nation states and, 9
- Information technology
 academic library space planning for, 68–71
 relationship with libraries, 75
- Institute of Information Scientists, UK, 122–123
- Integrated library system, 146, 151
- International Association of Music Libraries, see IAML
- International Musicological Society, 191–192, 194–195
- Internet
 acquisitions in relation to, 146
 filtering access to, 184–185 informational value, 14
 journal deliveries by, 45
 Stories from the Web, 172–175
 usage in public libraries, 13–14
- Investment decisions, scholarly publishers, 41
- Join In, home page option of Stories from the Web, 174
- Journals, scholarly acquisition of, 153–154
 investment decisions, 41
 musicological, 200–201 online delivery, 45
 shifting distribution structure, 37 university library initiatives, 38–39
- Khavkina, Liubov', study of American library education, 211–212
- Knowledge
 types, in relation to libraries, 119–120 university, commodification of, 17–18
- Kravchenko, Anna, regional library network experiment, 213

- Languages, official, for IAML, 199
- Leadbeater, Charles, 4–5
- Learning Centre at Derby University, 69
- Learning resource centers, at UK universities, 55, 59
- Lenin, Vladimir, effect on Soviet public libraries, 213
- Librarians
- academic library building planning, 53–54
 - acquisitions, see Acquisitions librarians
 - education of, see Professional education
 - electronic archiving concerns, 47
 - as knowledge experts, 5
 - as mediators, 119
 - orchestral, 203
 - Russian, 210–214
 - university, 17–18
- Libraries
- children's, see Children's libraries
 - handling of rare books, 98
 - mobile, 170–171
 - music, see IAML
 - national, 56–57
 - neglect and preservation, 92–94
 - as "place," 73–76
 - for children, 163–164
 - policy revision regarding collections, 94–97
 - public, see Public libraries
 - relationship with
 - information technology, 75
 - publisher, 33–34
 - role as repository, 82
 - schools
 - and courses, 125–128
 - US closures, 116
 - social role, worldwide, 60, 73–74, 113, 161
 - university, 58–60
 - initiatives regarding journal publishing, 38–39
 - virtual, 181–183
- Library and Information Commission, UK, 115–116, 167–169
- Library Association, UK, 104, 106–109, 111–113, 118, 122–123, 161–162
- Library Association of Australia, 108, 110–111, 113
- Library buildings, academic
- architects and librarians, 54
 - British Library, 51, 56
 - future proofing, 54–55
 - principles and qualities, 61–71
 - space planning, 52–54
 - space standards and norms, 71–73
- Library consortia, and acquisitions librarians, 149–150
- Licensing, and publisher–library relations, 34
- Lifelong learning, 6, 13, 74
- Lighting systems, academic library space planning for, 66–67
- Linking, scholarly electronic products, 41
- Literacy skills, addressed by Stories from the Web, 173
- Living on Thin Air* (Leadbeater), 5
- Magazines
- consumer, 40
 - educational, 39
- Maitland Robinson Library at Downing College, 59
- Management
- by acquisitions librarians, 151–153
 - children's library services, 164–166
 - curriculum emphasis on, 130
- Market imperatives, and continuities over time, 9–11
- Marketing
- in Russian librarianship, 219–220, 222
 - US schools adept at, 129
- Market sectors, publishing industry, 26
- Marx, Karl, 4
- Media divisions, publishing industry, 26
- Medieval manuscripts, 86–87
- Meeting of Frontiers, 222–223
- Michigan, Ann Arbor District Library Web site, 180
- Mission statements, children's libraries, 164–165
- Music Index*, 200–201
- Music Library Association, 194, 205
- Musik-geschichtliches Kommission, 191
- National libraries, 56–57
- National library associations
- adaptability, 132
 - approaches to accreditation and recognition, 120–121
 - foundation of, 104–105

- National Trust, and public access, 96–97
- Nation states, information society and, 9
- New Library: The People's Network*, 167–168
- New Opportunities Fund (UK), 168
- Newsletters
 - IAML branches, 198–199
 - unauthorized redistribution, 40
- Newspapers, consumer, 40
- New York, public libraries Web site links, 179–180
- Noise, academic library space planning for, 65
- North America, public libraries, Web site links, 178–181
- Northern Ireland, promise to children, 165–166
- North Lincolnshire Libraries Web site, 176
- Official information, access to, 15–16
- Online information services, 15
- On-Lion for Kids, 179–180
- Open University, UK, 112
- Organizational culture, and library goals, 152
- Part-time study
 - with on-job learning, 105–106
 - return to, 133–134
- PC clusters, in academic libraries, 70–71
- Perestroika
 - librarianship under, 217–218
 - reappearance of American influence, 218–220
- Periodicals, professional, categories of, 39–40
- Pierpont Morgan Library, 93
- Player Piano* (Vonnegut), 3
- Portugal, children's libraries, 162–163
- Practitioner–teachers, 134
- Private provision
 - evident in performance of public libraries, 12
 - increase in, 11
- Professional books, sales in US, 36
- Professional education
 - 1951–1975: period of expansion, 110–113
 - accreditation, national approaches, 120–121
 - acquisitions librarians, 144
 - historical perspective, 140–141
 - certification issue, 133
 - current initiatives, 124–125
 - curriculum development, 117–120
 - early to mid-1900s, 105–109
 - effect of technological change, 103
 - information approach to, 113–116
 - library schools and courses, 125–128
- Programming, television, narrowing of focus, 20–21
- Promises, in management of children's libraries, 165–166
- Publicity, effect on “lost” collections, 91–92
- Public libraries
 - bypassing of, 14
 - music, 195–197
 - North America, Web site links, 178–181
 - social function, 161
 - UK, and Web site resources, 175–178
- Public library services
 - effects of government policies, 128
 - information superhighway and, 13
 - private provision, 12
- Public service broadcasting, 18–19
- Publishing industry
 - electronic archiving, 46–47
 - electronics effects
 - author–publisher relationship, 30
 - distraction as, 29
 - economics, 29–30
 - library support of, 142–143
 - new distribution infrastructure, 32–33
 - relationship with libraries, 33–34
- Publishing industry structure, 25–34
 - generalizations across sectors, 29–34
 - market size and media, 26
 - relationships among sectors, 26–28
- PubMed Central, electronic distribution, 38
- PubScience, database building, 38
- Quality of information, 14–15, 19–20
- Ramey collection, fate of library, 93–94
- Rare-book collections, 86–87
 - use and handling of, 97–98
- Reader places, in academic libraries, 71–73
- Readers, separation of books from, 85–88

- Reading aloud, to children, 158–159
 The Reading Safari, UK national project, 177
 Rebinding, approaches to, 89–91
 Repairing books, and policy revisions, 94–95
 Répertoire International de la Littérature Musicale (RILM), 201
 Répertoire International de la Presse Musicale (RIPM), 202
Répertoire International des Sources Musicales (RISM), 191, 194–196, 200
 Repurposing, publishing industry sectors, 28
 Request for Proposal (RFP), 151 Research costs, vs cost of research papers, 39 history of books, 88–89
 A Place for Children, 163–164
 Umbrian Town libraries, 92–93
 Russian librarianship American influence
 current Russian responses to, 221–222
 in 1990s, 220–221
 Anna Kravchenko, 213
 Eugenity Shamurin, 213–214
 Henrietta Derman, 212
 Liubov' Khavkina, 211–212
 Perestroika
 early, 217–218
 reappearance of American influence, 218–220
 post-1930s, 214–217
 attitudes toward American librarianship, 215–216
 Natalia Tiulina, 216–217
 20th century overview, 210–211
 Vladimir Lenin, 213
 Safety issues, academic library space planning for, 67–68
 Scholarly books, electronic access, 34–35
 ScienceDirect, delivery of full text journals
 online, 45–46
 Scotland, National Library, 57
 Security, academic library space planning for, 67–68
 Self-archiving, journal publishing, 37
 Self-services, in academic libraries, 71
 Shamurin, Eugenity, study of Anglo-American cataloging, 213–214
 Shanghai Library, 57
 Sister Libraries Initiative, 180
 Size guidelines, university libraries, 71–73
 Skills transfer, among publishing industry sectors, 28
 Social construction, of statistics, 3–4
 Social role, of libraries worldwide, 60, 73–74, 113, 161
 Software, free distribution and give-aways, 31–32
 Software and Information Industry Association, 43
 Space planning, academic library buildings
 accessibility, 63–64
 adaptability, 62–63
 environmentally suitable, 66–67 for human interaction, 64–65 for information technology, 68–71 standards and norms, 71–73 vision and communication of, 52–54
 Special-interest groups, IAML, 197–199
 Specialization, library school programs, 133
 St. John's College Library, 59
 Standing Conference of National and University Libraries, 59–60 Statistics
 official, marketization of, 16 social construction of, 3–4
 Stories from the Web, UK, 172–175, 185 Storybuilder, interactive application of Infoplanet, 182–183
 Study environment
 academic library space planning for, 64–65
 wired-up, 70–71
 Study leave, in Australia, 132
 Study realm, history of books as, 88–89
 Surrogate books, 83–84, 95–96
 Swaffham Parish Library, conservation program, 92
 Technical services courses, acquisitions as part, 141
 Technological advances, acquisitions in relation to, 145–148
 Television
 digital, 13–14
 loss of information and content, 19–20
 narrowing of programming focus, 20–21
 public service broadcasting, 18–19

- Thermal chimney, St. John's College Library as, 59
- The University Licensing Program (TULIP), 45
- Tiulina, Natalia, observer of American librarianship, 216–217
- Topics, of Infoplanet Web site, 182
- Trade books, online marketing, 36
- Training
 in handling books, 99 programs in post-war UK, 108–109
- UK Office for Library and Information Networking, 172–173
- Umbrian Town libraries, fragile collections, 92–93
- Undergraduate courses, generalist, 130–131
- UNESCO
 London Declaration, 159–160
 Public Library Manifesto, 161
- United Kingdom
 Centre for Child, 169–170 children's libraries and ICT resources, 166–169
 curriculum development, 118–119
 European study programs, 115 libraries, and Web site resources, 175–178
 library schools and courses, 127–128
 post-war training programs, 108–109 professional education: graduate programs, 111 standards setting by professional associations, 106–107
 Young Book Trust, 171
- United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation, see UNESCO
- United States, see also American librarianship closure of library schools, 116
 curriculum development, 119–120
 library schools and courses, 128
 library staff, supply and demand for, 112 master's programs, 109 professional education, current initiatives, 124–125 public libraries Web site links, 179–181
 standards setting by professional associations, 107
- Universities, alliances of, 17–18
- University libraries, see also Library buildings, academic initiatives regarding journal publishing, 38–39
 UK, design, 58–60
- Unopened book, 96
- Ventilation, academic library space planning for, 66
- VERITY project, children's electronic library, 183–184
- Water, in university library design, 58
- World Congress of Music Libraries, 190–192
- World Wide Web
 acquisitions in relation to, 147–148
 IAML site, 198
 Infoplanet site, 181–183
 resources, and UK libraries, 175–178
 Stories from the Web, 172–175