Index

Acoma Pueblo case study, 35–37
Alligators, 4
American Indian cultures, 6–8, 107
Animals, 69, 93, 200, 213
Animism, 77, 80, 187
Answerability, 41–42, 47, 187, 228, 231
Antenarrative
  of power, 148
  story, 74–76, 79
Barter economy, 60
BIA. See Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA)
Bighorn Medicine Wheel, 199 background tones contributing to songs now expressed, 201–202
  central cairn, 205
  entangled melodies, 202
  sacred numbers of, 204
  songs of roads, fences, and guards, 206–208
  stone circle, 203
Biophysical wealth, 182
BME, 75, 79
  narrative, 76
Bravery, 112–113
Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA), 55–56
Business, 128–129
  ethics education implications, 118–119
  implications, 120–121
  location, 170–171
  science, 31–32
Business ethics and current trends, 39
  answerability approach, 41–42 carry-overing tribal wisdoms, 46 comparison of approaches, 47–48
  complicit, 42–43
  equity approach, 41
  ethical contexts for businesses, 49–53
  ethics of care, 43
  example, 46
indigenous philosophies, 44
LDC, 62–63
NOVA corporation, 54–60
obligation to act, 42
overlap, 44–45
pragmatism approach, 43–44
presence of tribal practices, 45–46
rules-based approach, 39–40
shrinking world and global village, 45 utilitarian/consequential approach, 40–41
virtue ethics, 39
See also NOVA Corporation
Business of Culture at Acoma Pueblo, 35–37
Business sustainability, 23, 104
IWOK, 25–26
Maya society, 26–28
wisdom of elders, 23–26

Carma’s interpretation, 116–117
Casinos, 52, 170
gaming, 170
CCC. See Civil Conservation Corps (CCC)
Chad “Cornassel” Smith, 113–115
Characters, 78
Cherokee Nation, 113–115
Cherokee values, 113–114, 115, 121
Circle process, 221–222
City of El Paso Museums and Cultural Affairs Department El Paso

Public Art Program, 177–179
Civil Conservation Corps (CCC), 200 Clusters, 165–166, 169
advantage, 168
types, 166–168
CMS. See Critical Management Studies (CMS)
Columbus, Christopher, 129
Communication, 114, 115, 221
Comparison of storytelling genres, 78
Competitive advantage, 56, 60, 121, 168, 169
Complicit, 42–43
Confidence, 113, 114
Consequential approach, 40–41
Cooperation, 113, 114
Coyote, 70
Coyote story for business ethics pedagogy, 69
animals, 69
epitomizes situation, 70
implications of storytelling for business ethics pedagogy, 70–72 Cradle-to-cradle organization design. See Triple Bottom Line model (3BL model)
Critical ecological pedagogy, shift in critical pedagogy to, 188
Critical Management Studies (CMS), 229
Cross-cultural context, 53
Cryptic story, 90
Cultural context, 93
Culture and tradition, 59, 63
Culture-of-origin strategy, 107

Dardan enterprises
eco-benefits, 108
ethics, 104 hybrid system, 104
owner’s risk, 105
respect for cultural heritage, 107 risk for reward, 105—106
sustainable business, 104

DDC. See Dine-Development Corporation (DDC)

Deep listening, 221—222
Deep-rooted values, 117
Determination and persistence, 114
Dialogue, 221—222
Different-yet-same perspective, 153—154

Dine-Development Corporation (DDC), 54

Dispersed leadership model, 155, 158—159
Distributed leadership model, 155, 158—159
“Dupes” and “Charity Cases”, 149
Dynamism of indigenous cultures, 156

Eco-benefits, 108
Eco-sustainability, 107
Economic clusters, 169

Egalitarianism, 59, 236
hierarchy, vs., 7—8
Elders, 49—51
wisdom of, 23—26
Ensemble Leadership Theory (ELT), 144, 148, 155, 156—159
Equality, 59, 117, 157
Equity approach, 41
Ethical contexts for businesses, 49
cultural differences in ethics, 49
“elders”, 49—51
“masters”, 51
“migrants”, 51—52
storytelling model for cross-paradigm business ethics, 50
“traders” business, 52—53
Ethics of care, 43

Euro-Western business “business is business” phrase, 6—7
buyer-beware social norm in, 8—9
egalitarianism vs. hierarchy, 7—8
“Greed is Good” philosophy, 7
Tribal Wisdom values vs., 5

Euro-Western storytelling, 87

FAR. See Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR)
Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR), 57
Field Information Support Tool (FIST), 57
“5 I’s” of indigenous storytelling methods, 87–88, 96–97
Foundation of Navajo Culture, 117
Four-quadrant model, 39, 53
Fractiles, 77
Functional stupidity, 181

Genetically modified organisms (GMO), 27
Gift-giving philosophy, 236
Global village, 9–10, 45
Globalization, 45, 193
GMO. See Genetically modified organisms (GMO)
GNP. See Gross national product (GNP)
“Greed is Good” philosophy, 7
Gregg, Josiah, 138
Gross national product (GNP), 25

Harmonic resonance in Maya society, 26
“Heart of Care”, 189, 192
Heterarchical organization, 155–161
Heterarchy, 156–157
Historic Preservation Plan (HPP), 201
Honesty, 113
HPP. See Historic Preservation Plan (HPP)
Human relationship, 213–214

“Human resource management”, 193
Human responsibilities, 112, 118–119
Humility, 112, 113, 114, 115, 121
Indigenous knowledge, 24–25
Indigenous living story, 79, 80, 82
living story and indigenous story, 74–84
Tribal Wisdom, 73–74
Indigenous peoples, 226–227
Indigenous science, 31–32
business and indigenous science, 31–32 complementary world views, 32
ecological foundation of business, 34–35
mutual reciprocal behavioral process, 32
potlatch, 33
Pueblo, Acoma case, 35–37
Web of Interaction, 34
Indigenous stories, 89, 229–230
Indigenous story, 76
Indigenous storytellers cryptic, indigenous stories, 90
Euro-Western type of storytelling, 88–89
“5 I’s” of indigenous storytelling methods, 87–88
non-human-centric, indigenous stories, 92–98
participative, indigenous stories, 91
place-oriented, indigenous stories, 91–92 sacred, indigenous stories, 91
terse, indigenous stories, 89–90
time-bending, indigenous stories, 92
Indigenous storytelling, 73, 74, 75, 87 living stories, 79–83
stories and sensemaking, 74–79
transmotion, 83–84
Indigenous teaching, 71, 82
Indigenous view of nature and business relationship deep listening, talking circle, and dialogue, 221–222 entering school, 211
human relationship, 213–214
life/work relationship, 214 nature, 220
non-comparative perception, 220
relationship-centered approach, 215 remembering, 222
retreating, 214–215
tension, 212
working agreements, 216–219
working/living in relationship, 219
Indigenous ways of knowing (IWOK), 18, 25–26, 73

and business sustainability, 23 changing story lines, 228–229 European, 227
indigenous peoples, 230–231
indigenous storying, 229–230
Maya society, 26–28
organizational studies, 226
and quantum science for business ethics, 17–20
re-storying of humanity, 231–232
into storying of business, ethics, 225
wisdom of elders, 23–26
Integrity, 46, 52, 59, 113, 114
IWOK. See Indigenous ways of knowing (IWOK)

Laguna Development Corporation (LDC), 62–63
Leadership, 106, 111, 115, 147
Chad “Corntassel” Smith, 113–115 dispersed leadership, 155, 158–159
distributed leadership model, 155, 158–159
dynamism of indigenous cultures, 156
ELT, 155, 156, 158–159
organization, 155
relational approaches, 155, 158–159
traditional leadership theory, 160–161 Living story, 74, 75, 79
discipline of storytelling, 82–83
everything in creation, 81 Living Story Web, 76
stories and sensemaking, 74–79
storytelling, 81–82
transmotion, 83–84
web of, 79–80
Local clusters, 166
Location quotient (LQ), 166
Love, 112, 113, 117, 120
LQ. See Location quotient (LQ)

Master traders, 9
“Masters”, 51
Maya society, 26–28
Means, Russell, grandfather’s story, 90
Means, Russell, grandfather’s story, meanings, 239–243
Medicine Mountain, 199–202, 206–208
Medicine people, 18
“Migrators”, 51–52
Mountain Pika, 199–200, 208
background tones, 201–202
entangled melodies, 202–205
Medicine Mountain,
199–202, 206–208
sacredness, 200
songs of roads, fences, and guards, 206–208

Mutual reciprocal behavioral process, 32

National Governors Association, 165
Native American
business ethics, 106–107
Native American-owned businesses, 170 Native American-owned firms, 170 oral tradition, 18
storytelling, 87
Native American
tribal economic policy, 170

business location, 170–171 clusters advantage and, 168, 169
competitive advantage, 168, 169
economic development policy, 171 performance, 170–171
tribal economic policy, 172
tribal gaming and, 170 Native American values business ethics education implications, 118–119 business implications, 120–121
Cherokee Nation, 113–115
Sa’ah Naaghaní Bik’eh
Hózhoo principle, 115–117
Sacred Wind Communications, 118
seven grandfather teachings, 112–113
Native transmotion, 83
Natural endowment clusters, 166
Navajo Code Talkers, 56
Navajo peacemaking process, 49
New Mexico State University (NMSU), 183, 187 sustainability, 196–197
Nitsahakees segment, 116
NMSU. See New Mexico State University (NMSU)
Non-acquisitiveness, 8, 40, 236
Non-comparative perception, 220
Non-human-centric stories, 92 animal characters, 93–94
cultural context, 93
“5 I’s” of indigenous-inspired storytelling methods, 96–97 indigenous methods of storytelling, 95–96
indigenous story, 94–95
location, 97–98
Non-indigenous peoples, 226–227
Non-zero-sum negotiation, 152–153
North American trading practice and philosophy barter mechanism, 136
business, 128–129
differences in trading values, 129

Euro/American trader, 135–136 false clash of community vs. business, 127–128 focusing on exchange goods, 132–133 focusing on self and individualism, 131–132 focusing on use goods, 132
gift-giving philosophy, 134
native philosophy changes, 137 property usage, 133–134
stretching truth and cheating, 139–140
trade networks and centers, 126–127
trader benefits, 125–126
tribal traders, 126
tribal vs. business split, 128
values between Indigenous and Euro-Western cultures, 130

NOVA Corporation, 54, 237
Adolescent Care Unit, 58
barter economy, 60
building trust, 58
DDC, 54–55
Egalitarianism, 59
elders story, 55
laying foundation, 55–57
relationship, 57
usefulness, 57–58

Paradigm shift to dialectic model of sustainability, 188

Index 257
NMSU Gold Star rating from AASHE, 190–193
spiritual consciousness, 189
Participative, indigenous stories, 91
Past, present, or future orientation, 78
Patience, 113, 114
People, profit, and planet. See Triple Bottom Line model (3BL model)
Place orientation, 78
Place-oriented stories, 91–92
Plot, 78
Potlatch, 7, 33
Power and equal power relationships
different-yet-same perspective, 153–154
hazards avoidance, 150
mutual benefit, 154
mutual change, 153
Non-zero-sum negotiating, 152–153
power, 147
projecting qualities, 152
relational models, 150–151
storytelling perspective, 148
trading partners’ equal and unequal power, 154 trading partners’ unequal power relationships, 149
value diversity, 151
Win-Lose games, 151
Win-Win games, 151–152
Pragmatism approach, 43–44
Professionalism, 59
Quantum science for business ethics
medicine people, 18
Napi stories, 17–18
quantum storytelling, 19, 20
Quantum storytelling, 19, 20, 77, 80, 82
Re-storying of humanity, 231–232
Relational approaches, 155, 158–159
Relational models, 150–151
Respect, 7, 25, 46, 59, 113, 120
and acknowledgment, 115, 116
for clients, 33
for cultural heritage, 107 role of language, 12–13
Responsibility, 112, 114, 226
Risk capital, 105
Rugged individuality, 186
Rules-based approach, 39–40
Sa’ah Naagháí Bik’eh Hózhoon principle, 115–117
Sa’ah Naaghíi Bik’eh Hózhoon concept, 119
Sacred numbers of Bighorn Medicine Wheel, 204
Sacred stories, 91
Sacred Wind Communications, 118
Sacredness, 200
School of Sustainability (SOS), 181, 191
bottom-up initiative, 184
dialectic of two spirits, 183
IWOK, 185
NMSU, 187
posthumanism, 188
spiritual ecology, 186
See also Sustainability
Self-awareness, 4
“Shrinking world”, 45
SOS. See School of Sustainability (SOS)
Spacetime mattering, 73, 77, 79–82
Spiritual ecology, 73, 77, 80, 181, 183, 186, 187
Stakeholders, 108
Stone circle, 203
Stories and sensemaking, 74
antenarrative, 75
comparison of storytelling genres, 78
storytelling, 74–75
terms of storytelling theory, 75–77
typology of Western narrative, 79
Story, 76
Storytelling, 76, 81–82
antenarrative aspects, 74
implications for business ethics pedagogy, 70–72 model for cross-paradigm business ethics, 50 perspective, 148
theory, 75–77
Strength, 113, 114, 117
to strength, 216–217
Surrogate for colonization, 182
Sustainability. See also School of Sustainability (SOS)
business, 23–28, 104
eco-sustainability, 107
NMSU, 196–197
paradigm shift to dialectic model, 188–193
“T” Trust, 218
Talking Circle process, 221–222
Taylor-Fayol-Weber virus (TFW virus), 182
Teaching, 112, 113
Spiral of Development, 190–192
Terms of storytelling theory, 76
Terse, indigenous stories, 89–90
TFW virus. See Taylor-Fayol-Weber virus (TFW virus)
“Thieves” and “Benefactors”, 149
3BL model. See Triple Bottom Line model (3BL model)
Time orientation, 78
Time-bending, indigenous stories, 92
Trade networks and centers, 126–127
Traded clusters, 166, 169
Traded economic clusters, 171
“Traders” business, 52–53
Trading values differences, 129
Traditional Native American Indian tribal cultures, 3
Traditional Sustainability
Development, 183
Tribal economic policy, 172
Tribal gaming, 170
Tribal practices, presence of, 45–46
Tribal traders, 126
Tribal traditions, 46
Tribal Wisdom, 5, 40, 73–74
   alligators, 4
   aspects, 5–6
   barter economy, 5, 8
   basketball playoffs, 14 contexts, 3
   cross-cultural view, 3 disclosure, 5, 8–9
   egalitarianism vs. hierarchy, 5, 7–8
   gifting, 5, 7
   global village, 9–10
   “Greed is Good” philosophy, 7
   guideposts, 4
   language in relationships and respect, 12–13
   master traders, 9
   non-acquisitiveness, 5, 8
   relationship, 6–7
   resonances, 4
   self-awareness, 4
   in today’s business environment, 235–237 trust, 5, 8
   usefulness, 5, 8
   wealth redefined, 10

See also Indigenous ways of knowing (IWOK)
Tribal Wisdom for Business Ethics, 177
Triple Bottom Line model (3BL model), 181 corporations, 10
NMSU sustainability, 196–197
paradigm shift to dialectic model of sustainability, 188–193 reasons, 182
shift in critical pedagogy to critical ecological pedagogy, 188
SOS dialectic of two spirits, 183–188
Truth, 4, 18, 20, 112, 113, 120, 121
Utilitarian approach, 40–41
Value diversity, 151
Virginia Maria Romero’s case, 177–179
Virtue ethics, 40, 45
Vitalism, 77, 80

Web of Interaction, 34
Western narrative, 73
See also Indigenous living story
Western science, 19
Win-lose games, 151
Win-win games, 151–152
Wisdom, 112, 120
carry-overring tribal, 46
of elders, 23–26
stretching, 139
Working agreements, 216
risk to gain, 217–218
showing up ready, 216
strength to strength, 216–217
“T” Trust, 218–219
Zero-sum game, 151
Zero-sum win-lose situation, 151