

Index

- Abundance of data, 45
- Affordability, 4
- Analysis of variance (ANOVA), 65,
66, 73, 74
- Arithmetic mean, 62
- Bender's decomposition, 120–122
- Benders algorithm, 122
- Business performance
 - ANOVA analysis, 65
 - hypothesis testing, 65
- Climate control, 9
- Conservation of energy, 9
- Data analysis
 - Bartlett's test, 63
 - demographic data, 61–62
 - multivariate model building,
62–63
 - principal component analysis,
63–64
 - rotated component matrix, 64
- Delphi method, 76, 79f
 - definition, 81
 - first phase results, 86
 - objectives, 84
 - panel experts selection, 82
 - questionnaire development,
82–86
 - second round results, 86–88
 - uses, 83
- Developing countries
 - green supply chain management,
13
 - literary works, 36
 - research, 34, 36
 - sustainability practices, 34–35
 - sustainable development, 4–6, 7
- Drivers, sustainable supply chain management
 - external, 28, 29–30
 - internal, 28, 29
 - regulatory, 28, 30
 - social drivers, 29
- Economic resource utilization, 33
- Economic well-being, 10
- Electrical generation systems, 76
- Energy saving, 33
- Environmental performance
 - ANOVA analysis, 66
 - hypothesis testing, 66
- Environmental sensitization, 33
- Environmental well-being, 10
- Feasibility, 4
- Global warming, 9
- Green practices
 - CSR, 66
 - drivers, 27
 - environmental performance, 49
 - factors/dimensions, 51
 - focus of, 26
 - manufacturing firms, 65, 68
 - organizations, 50, 61
 - supply chains, 27, 49
- Green supply chain, 13,
drivers, 27–28
 - environmental performance
measurement model, 62
 - financial and operational benefits, 107
- Indian manufacturing sector, 48
- multiple analytical/numerical models, 46

- practices, 26, 27
- research, 47
- Green supply chain management (GSCM)
 - Mexican industry, 113–126
 - political factors, industrial growth, 6–7
 - qualitative analysis, 75–89
 - regional factors, industrial growth, 6
 - research implications, 17–36
 - sustainability, 2–6, 37–74
- Hypothesis testing, 66
- Indian manufacturing sector, 48
- Infosys Technology, 58
- Literature review, 35, 55, 77–78, 114–115
- Mathematical model, 115–120
- Mixed-integer programming, 114
- Model building, 38, 45, 62, 63
- Multivariate analysis, 45, 46, 47
- National capital region (NCR), 44, 95
- National Center for Energy Control, 78
- National Electrical System, 81
- Organization
 - ethics, 33–34
 - operations, 95–96
 - regional complications, 95
 - sample identification, 59
 - values, 33–34
- Partial least square regression, 64, 65
- Pollutant emissions, reduction of, 33
- Qualitative method
 - case studies, 95–112
 - data analysis, 38–47
- electricity generation, Mexico, 75–89
- limitations, 68
- recommendations, 67–68
- research approaches, 39–45
- Quantitative method
 - data analysis, 61–64
 - Delphi method, 84
 - green approaches, 50–51
 - green logistics, 52–53
 - green procurement, 51–52
 - regression model, 64–66
 - regulatory frameworks, 54
 - research approaches, 39–45
 - research framework, 55–61
- Regional factors, 5
- Regression, 46, 60
 - ANOVA analysis, 65
 - coefficients, 73, 74
 - hypothesis testing, 65
 - model proposition, 64
 - partial least squares regression modelling, 65
- Research framework
 - assumptions, 55
 - data codification, 60
 - data collection, 59
 - hypothesis, 55–56
 - industrial growth factors, 57–58
 - instrument development, 56
 - measurement, 56
 - nonresponse bias test, 59–60
 - objectives, 55
 - questionnaire design, 56
 - sample organizations
 - identification, 59
- Sample area selection, 57
- Socially responsible sourcing, 31
- Social well-being, 10
- Supply chain
 - drivers, 27–28
 - practices, 27

- measuring sustainability, 37–74
- electricity generation, Mexico, 75–77
- three-echelon supply chain, 116, 122
- Mexican supply chain, 123
- challenges, 1–2
- issues, 11–12
- Sustainability
 - Alpha Tires, 107–108
 - definition, 2
 - economic development, 3
 - environmental protection, 7
 - greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions, 114
 - industrial growth, 6–7
 - literature, 17–26
 - origin, 3
 - principles, 2
 - social development, 7–8
 - supply chains, 37–74
- Sustainable development
 - business, 10–11
 - buyer–supplier collaboration, 36
 - climate control, 9
 - conservation, 9–10
 - definition, 2
 - developing countries, 4–6
 - economic growth, 30
 - education, 8–9
 - energy, 9–10
 - global warming, 9
 - sustainable society, 10
 - technology, 10
- Sustainable design, 31–32
- Sustainable inventories, 76, 78, 89
- Sustainable practices
 - China, 35
 - economic resource utilization, 33
 - education, 33
 - emission, 32–33
 - employees training, 33
 - energy saving, 33
 - environmental sensitization, 33
 - implementation, 17
 - India, 35
 - organization's ethics, 33–34
 - organization's values, 33–34
 - socially responsible sourcing, 31
 - sustainable design, 31–32
 - sustainable distribution/ logistics, 32
- Sustainable supply chain, 13–15
- Technological development, 10
- Tire industry, case studies
 - challenges, 106–107
 - environmental concerns, 106–107
 - global tire industry, 104–105
 - India, 105–106
 - quality, 106
 - sustainability, 107–108
- United Nations Department of Economic and Social Affairs (UN DESA), 7
- United Nations development programs, 3
- Variability
 - cost, 125
 - green logistics, 53
 - observed variables, 62
 - regulatory framework, 54
- Viability, 4
- World War II, 3