

INDEX

- Absentee, 15
- Academia, 10–11
- Academic careers, 120, 134–135
- Academic contract, 121
- Academic culture, 20
- Academic expertise, 48
- Academic jobs, 10–11
- Academic manuscripts, 53–54, 55
- Academic relationship, 98
- Academic seminars, 21
- Academic view, 50
- Acceptance, 64–65
- Active conference and seminar presentations, 31
- Advisor
  - expertise, 35–36
  - switching, 36, 37–38
- Advisor-advisee
  - relationship, 35
  - allies, 42–43
  - career interests, 40–42
  - interest divergence, 37–39
  - interpersonal dynamics, 36–42
  - supervisor moves to a different institution, 39–40
- Age vs. experience, 8
- Alternative research committee structure, 38–39
- Annual leave, 21
- Annual Progress Review, 21
- Anxiety, 69
- Artificial social barriers, 89
- Attendance, 73–74, 78–79
- Availability, 8
- Barriers, networks
  - development, 85–91
  - attendance vs. isolation, 88–89
  - cultural differences, 87
  - fear of ‘bothering’, 89–91
  - power distance, 86
  - supervisory relationship, perceptions on, 87–88
  - tunnel vision, 89
- Blog posts, 32

- Candid conversations, 14
- Careers
 academics, 137–138
 beyond universities, 120
 development, 29
 identity, 119–120
 plans, 10–11
 workshops, 31–32
- Casualization, 119
- ‘Catch 22’, 28
- Co-advisor, 37–38
- Co-chair, 37–38
- Collegial community,
 63–64
- Collegial friendship, 18
- Common sense, 9
- Communication, 15, 30–31, 76–77
 barriers, 60
- Community support
 clarification of terms,
 65–66
 group fluidity, 80–81 purposes and processes, 75 relational, intellectual and personal growth,
 76–77
 research community,
 66–69
- Confidence, 66–67
- Cooperative ability, 48
- Co-supervision, 11–12
 aspects to navigate,
 55–62
 emotionally strong,
 61–62
 intellectually confident,
 56–58
 interpersonally sensible,
 58–61
 challenges, 50–51
 experience, 61–62
 limitations, 49–51
 merits, 47–51
 supervisees and supervisors, 47, 48–49
 trust, 74–75
- Cross-institutional study,
 135
- Cultural differences, 87
- Demoralisation, 119
- Digital disruptions,
 118–119
- Digital K-12 learning environments, 40
- Disciplinary experts, 11–12
- Discipline knowledge, 126
- Dissatisfaction, 52
- Dissemination skills,
 76–77
- Doctoral community, 21
- Doctoral completions,
 80–81
- Doctoral education, 133
- Doctoral experience,
 137–138
- Doctoral graduates, 121
- Doctoral language, 21
- Doctoral learners, 24–25
- Doctoral learning, 20–21
- Doctoral newcomers, 22
- Doctoral orphans, 48
- Doctoral-related activities,
 21

- Doctoral students' personalities, 55
- Doctorate
  - internationalization
    - international conferences, summer schools and events, participation, 109–111
    - international co-supervisor, 107–108
    - international topic or methodology, 111–114
    - mobility, 104–107
    - reference international literature, 108–109
  - succeeding beyond, 117–120
    - academic careers, 120–123
    - PhD academic supervisors, 125–127
    - university, beyond, 124–125
    - university executive leaders, 127–128
- Economic downturns, 118–119
- Emotionally strong, supervisors, 61–62
- Emotional support, 61–62
- Emotions, 64–65
- Employability, 95
  - officers, 24
  - Employability and Transitions Policy, 127
  - Erasmus Mundus programmes, 106–107
  - Ethics application, 21
  - Events and activities, 21
  - Expectations and requirements, co-supervision, 49
  - External supervisor, 32–33
  - Face-to-face conversation, 6, 50
  - Faculty developer, 40
  - Feedback and advice, co-supervision, 49
  - First quartile journals*, 123
  - Formal co-supervision, 66–67
  - Formal supervision, 98
  - Global financial crisis, 118–119
  - Graduate program structure, 44
  - Graduate Teaching Assistant (GTA) schemes, 30
  - Group, 65–66
    - fluidity, 80–81
    - meetings, 65–66
    - sessions, 78–79
    - supervision, 70, 74, 135
  - Guidance, 23–24
  - Higher education
    - conference, 117–118

- 'High-flying' supervisors, 5–6
H-index, 5–6
- Ignorance, 56
- 'Imposter syndrome', 26
- Independent researchers, 23–24
- Industry career, 137–138
- Influx of diversity, 140
- Insecurity, 14
- Intellectual disagreement, 58–59
- Intellectually confident, supervisors, 56–58
- Intercultural interactions, 87
- Intercultural methodology, 112–113
- International conference, 110–111
- International conferences, summer schools and events, participation, 109–111
- International co-supervisor, 107–108
- Internationalization, 114–115, 133, 135–136
- international conferences, summer schools and events, participation, 109–111
- international co-supervisor, 107–108
- international topic or methodology, 111–114
- mobility, 104–107
- reference international literature, 108–109
- See also* Doctorate, internationalization
- International student participant, 84–85
- International topic or methodology, 111–114
- International university rankings, 123
- Internship, 31
- Interpersonal dynamics, 36, 38–39
- Interpersonally sensible, supervisors, 58–61
- Job market, 31–32, 41–42
- Labour market, 118–119
- Laid-back supervisor, 14
- Laissez-faire extremists, 15–16
- Language buddies, 24
- Learning atmosphere, 21
- curve, 23
- Learning Sciences, 40
- Loneliness, 28
- Managing complex projects, 138
- Meetings, 71
- Memory-based Reasoning, 51–52
- Micromanager, 13–14

- Miscommunications, 59
- Misunderstandings, 59
- Mobility, 104–107

- National Open Garden Scheme, 27
- Negativity, 38
- Neo-institutionalism, 108–109
- Networking, 135
- Networks development
  - barriers, 85–91
    - attendance vs. isolation, 88–89
    - cultural differences, 87
    - fear of ‘bothering’, 89–91
    - power distance, 86
    - supervisory relationship, perceptions on, 87–88
    - tunnel vision, 89
  - before beginning, 91–92
  - during PhD process, 92–95
  - supervisors and staff, tips for, 97–98
  - transitioning, 96–97
- Non-academic job, 35–36
- Non-PhD tasks, 31
- Non-writing opportunities, 138

- Paid work, 16
- Part-time students, 69–70
- Passive-aggressive supervisor, 14–15
- Past completions, 8
- Personal judgement, 9

- Personal networks and relationships, 84–85
- Personal qualities, 9–10
- PhD candidate, guidance for, 133
  - modern PhD graduate, 139–140
  - thriving and surviving, 134–139
- PhD students
  - academic culture, reflection and expectations, 20–22
  - career development, 30–32
  - mutual support and friendship, 29
  - psychological wellbeing, 25–27
- PhD supervisors, 120
  - academic culture, reflection and expectations, 23–25
  - career development, 32–33
  - mutual support and friendship, 29
  - psychological wellbeing, 28–29
- Populism, 113
- Postdoctoral fellowships, 30
- Postgraduate employability, 117–118
- Postgraduate Research (PGR)
  - academic developer, 24

- Code of Practice, 21
  - director, 24
  - secretary, 24
- Postgraduate students, 121
  - graduate digital identity initiative, 128
- Power distance, 86
- Problem-solving, 138
- Professional conferences, 42–43
- Professional network, 48
- Program colleagues, 42
- Project outside, work on, 37
- Psychological wellbeing, 25, 27, 28
- Reference international literature, 108–109
- Relational, intellectual and personal growth, 76–77
- Research agenda, shifting, 37–38
- Research community, 66–69
- ‘Research training’ degree, 76–77
- ‘Reverse culture shock’, 96
- Scholarship and co-supervision, 55
- Scholarship community, 84
- Science Citation Index Expanded (SCIE), 129
- Self-isolation, 94–95
- Sense of isolation, 66–67
- Setting expectations, 134–135
- Short fixed-term contracts, 121
- Shortlisted supervisors, 8–9
- Short-term goals, 30
- Social environment, 105–106
- Socialisation, 28
- Social media, 95
- Social relationships, 87, 94–95
- Social Sciences Citation Index (SSCI), 109, 129
- Society and immigration, 113–114
- Student progresses, 23–24
- Students as partners, 128
- Student-supervisor relationship, 17, 93–94
- Supervision
  - expectations of, 19
    - academic culture, 20
    - career development, 29
    - psychological wellbeing, 25
  - meeting, 93–94
- Supervisor
  - absence, 59
  - doctoral research, 64–65
  - emotionally strong, 61–62
  - feedback, 60
  - intellectually confident, 56–58

- interpersonally sensible, 58–61
- Supervisor selection
  - conversations, 6–12
    - age vs. experience, 8
    - availability, 8
    - career plans, 10–11
    - personal qualities, 9–10
  - shortlisted supervisors, 8–9
  - team supervisors, 11–12
- extremes, 12–16
  - Laissez-faire extremists, 15–16
  - micromanager, 13–14
  - passive-aggressive, 14–15
  - spreadsheet, 4–6
  - step up, 16–18
- Supervisory disagreement, 59
- Supervisory records, 21
- Supervisory relationship, 16–17, 87–88
- Supervisory team, co-supervision, 50
- Switch advisor, 36, 37–38
- Team supervisors, 11–12
- Tenure, 121
- Thesis in English, 108–109
- Training managers, 24
- Trust, 73–74
- Unclear responsibilities, co-supervision, 49
- Uncomfortable working environment, 39
- University Career Centre, 128
- University executive leaders, 120
- University-organised social events, 28–29
- Vitae Researcher Development Framework, 76–77
- Working style, 17
- Work-related opportunities, 30–31
- Workshops and conferences, 21, 42–43