Index

Advanced Research Foundation, 148–159

Bank for International Settlements (BIS), 69

Basic skills, 170, 171
BATs. See Best available technologies
Best available technologies (BATs), 276 municipal solid waste, utilization of, 291
BIS. See Bank for International Settlements
Borrower risk, 33
BRIICS countries, ranks’ dynamics of (2007–2017) by financial market development series, 4 by Global Competitiveness Index, 3 br-SCMM (Brazilian smart city maturity model), 251 Budget consolidation policy, 91–92
Budget deficit, 204, 206, 210, 212, 219–220, 222, 230 Budget expenditure for education and the educational achievements of Russia, non-linear relationship between, 192–193
Budget expenditures, 67, 68–69, 81, 86–90
Budget revenues, 67, 68–69, 81, 86–90
Business environment, 100
ByTerg, 105, 118–121
customer orientation, 120–121
description, 106–107
engaged team of highly professional employees, 121 high level of service, 119–120 innovative technologies, 119 local market knowledge, 120 profile and financial data, 108 reliability of the equipment, 119–120
strategic capabilities of, 123–126

Capability development in Russia, theoretical framework of, 102–103
Center for Strategic Research
“Global Human Capital – 2017”, 191
Central banks natural function of, 35–37 performance, 34–35
Certificates of deposit, 32–33
Classical learning paradigm versus modern learning paradigms, 177
“Clean Air” project, 277
“Clean Water” project, 277
Cognitive skills, 183–184
Communal service projects, regulatory framework for, 284–285
Communication policy, 39–40
Consolidating innovation policy model, 146
Consumer price index (CPI), 114
CPI. See Consumer price index
De-dollarization of deposits, 40
Digital modernization, 241–243, 245
EAEU. See Eurasian Economic Union
EBRD. See European Bank for Reconstruction and Development Ecolab Inc., 104–111
description, 106–107
localization and M&A projects, 110–111
profile and financial data, 108
research and development, 110
strategic capabilities of, 123–126
sustainability, 109
unique technologies and business diversification, 109
Economic development, 8
Educational and economic failures, 195
Education and inclusive development
background of, 170–171
empirical evidence, 194–199
human capital transformation into endogenous economic growth factor, necessary conditions for, 171–185 Crisis in learning, manifestations of, 171–173 theory of psychological and cognitive barriers, applications of, 175–185, 178–182 theory of psychological and cognitive barriers, conceptual foundations of, 173–175 results, 191, 193–194 sufficient conditions to increase return on well-educated human capital, formation of, 185–193 budget expenditure for education and the educational achievements of Russia, non-linear relationship between, 192–193 human capital quality, 190–192
international educational ratings, Russian education in, 185–190
knowledge economy, 190–192
Equal opportunities, 170
Eurasian Economic Union (EAEU), 249–250
Eurobond borrowings, 38
Euro-dollar loans, 32–33
European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD), 205 Evolutionary of innovation-based growth, 129–131
conventional innovation policy framework, 131

FDI. See Foreign direct investment
Federal Center for Project Financing (FCPF), 290
Finance category, essence of, 69–71
Financial depth, 52
Financial Market Development indicator, 2
Financial stability
background of, 67–69
elasticity of GDP by fiscal policy instruments, 76–80
empirical evidence, 81–90
finance category, essence of, 69–71 fiscal policy of state, instruments of, 74–75 gradual instability reintroduction, 71–72
institutions, as means of uncertainty, 72–73
as kind of public good, 73–74 results, 80–81 risks minimization, 72–73
safeguarding, 67, 69, 76–78, 80–81 in scientific research, 69
Financial sustainability, maintenance of, 39
Financial systems, 3–4, 5, 6–7, 24
Fiscal consolidation, 204,
Fiscal multipliers’ models, 67, 68, 80, 91
Fiscal policy, 66, 67–68, 81, 90, 91 instruments, elasticity of GDP by, 76–80 of state, instruments of, 74–75
Floating exchange rate regime, 38
Foreign direct investment (FDI) inward, 100–102
  outward, 100–102
Foreign exchange channel, of transmission mechanism, 44–46
Formal institutions, 204,
  206–209, 214–215
Formula Edy, 104–105, 117–118
customer orientation, 118
description, 106–107
profile and financial data, 108 relationships with suppliers, 118
strategic capabilities of, 123–126
strong team of professionals,
  117
Foundational skills, 183–184

GCI. See Global Competitiveness
  Index
Global Competitiveness Index
  (GCI), 2
  ranks’ dynamics of BRIICS countries (2007–2017) by, 3
Gradual instability reintroduction,
  71–72
Green agribusiness, 291–292
Green Climate Fund, 275
Green construction, 291
Green investment
  as driver of economic growth, 278–279
  environmental safety, investment projects for ensuring, 288–292
  municipal solid waste, utilization of,
    289–292
renewable energy, 287, 288–289
green economy, national policies in, 274–288
PPP mechanism in green
  economy development,
  regulatory framework for, 285–288
renewable energy projects,
  regulatory framework for, 282–285
housing and communal service projects,
  regulatory framework for, 284–285
state agenda, 274–279
green investment, as driver of economic growth, 278–279
transition to a green economy, transformations necessary for, 280–281

HCl. See Human Capital Index
Herfindahl-Hirschman Index, 50
Higher-order skills, 183–184 Housing projects, regulatory framework for, 284–285
Human Capital Index (HCI), 190
Human capital quality, 190–192
Human capital transformation into endogenous economic growth factor, necessary conditions for,
  171–185
  crisis in learning, manifestations of, 171–173
  theory of psychological and cognitive barriers,
  applications of,
  175–185, 178–182
theory of psychological and cognitive barriers, conceptual foundations of, 173–175

IDI. See Inclusive Development Index

IFDI. See Inward foreign direct investment

IMF. See International Monetary Fund

Inclusive Development Index (IDI), 205–206, 207–208

Industrial Development Fund, 148–159

Inflation expectations channel, of transmission mechanism, 46–47

Inflation targeting strategy, 38, 39–40, 42–47, 51

InfraONE, 219

“Infrastructure for Waste Management of I and II Hazard Classes” project, 277

Innovation-based economic growth basic indicators, dynamics of, 134 factors impeding, 135

lessons for the future, 162–165

limitations of, 136

modern role of the state in, 129–133

evolutionary and neoclassical models, 129–131

innovation development, 131–133

primary indicators, 135

research and development, 133–137

state policy to fostering, 138–162 instruments. See Instruments of Russian innovation policy stages and features, 138–147, 142–145

Innovation culture, 135

Innovation development, features of modern stage of, 131–133

Innovation policy development, 132

Innovative Science and Technology Centers, 148–159

Institutions, as means of uncertainty, 72–73

Instruments of Russian innovation policy, 147–162 advantages and disadvantages of, 160–161

consolidating model, 146

period, types, and goals and accents, 148–159

search-oriented model, 146

Interbank loans (IBL)

interest rates, 42–44

Interest rate and credit channels, of transmission mechanism, 42–44

International educational ratings, Russian education in, 185–190

International Monetary Fund (IMF), 68–69

Internet Initiatives Development Fund, 148–159

Inward foreign direct investment (IFDI), 100–102
Kaspersky Lab, 101–102
Key rate, 38–39, 42–43, 44, 46–47, 51
Knowledge economy, 190–192
Kurchatov Institute, 148–159
Learning failures, 130
Lender risk, 33
Liquidity management, 38–39
Liquidity risk, 6–7
Ministry of Finance, 39
Ministry of Industry and Trade of Russia, 291
Minsky’ financial instability hypothesis, 32, 33, 51
Modern learning paradigms versus classical learning paradigm, 177
Monetary aggregates, 31–32, 34, 36, 52, 54
Monetary policy implementation, 40–42
Money emission, as public goods, 34–35
Money multiplier, 36
Multinational companies, 104
Municipal solid waste, investment projects in utilization of, 289–292 best available technologies, 291
green construction, 291
organic farming, 291–292
Neoclassical models of innovation-based growth, 129–131
conventional innovation policy framework, 131
Non-competitiveness of the product, 35
Non-excludability, 73–74
Non-exclusivity of the good, 35
Non-rivalry, 73–74
OECD, 188, 189
OFDI. See Outward foreign direct investment
Off-balance sheet activities, 32–33
Opportunities equality, 170
Organic farming, 291–292
Organizational capabilities, 97–98
Outward foreign direct investment (OFDI), 100–102
Paris Climate Agreement (2015), 276
PCBs. See Theory of psychological and cognitive barriers Physical capital accumulation channel, 3–4
Pinsky triad, 168–169
PIRLS. See Progress in International Reading Literacy Study
PISA. See Program for International Student Assessment
Poincaré hypothesis, 169
Policy mix, 163
“Preservation of Lake Baikal, The” project, 277–278
Program for International Student Assessment (PISA), 185, 189–190, 195
Progress in International Reading Literacy Study (PIRLS), 185, 189–190 Public goods, 66, 67–69, 74, 80–81, 91 financial stability as kind of, 73–74
Public infrastructure projects, 225, 228
Public–private partnerships (PPP) in green economy development, regulatory framework for, 285–288 green economy in, 275 projects, in infrastructure background of, 205–207 budget consolidation and hybrid forms, 210–215 empirical evidence, 220–228 government expenditures’ efficiency, means of, 215–217 institutional attitude, 208–209 results, 217–220 in scientific research, 207–208 state, as a governor, 210 state, as an economic agent, 210 smart projects, implementation of, 256–263

Quality of human capital, 195

R.B. See Reckitt Benckiser
Russian National Rating of the Investment Climate, 100
Russian Science Foundation, 148—159
Russian Venture Company (RVC), 148—159
RVC. See Russian Venture Company

Sberbank, 49
Search-oriented innovation policy model, 146
Securitization, 32—33
Skolkovo Innovation Center, 148—159
Smart cities, and economic growth effective management, modelling, 252—256 implementation in PPP, 256—263
Russian experience, 251—252 sustainable economic development, 263—269
Socioemotional skills, 184
Special Investment Contracts, 148—159
State
agenda, green economy on, 274—279
as an economic agent, 210
as a governor, 210
State support of innovation evolutionary and neoclassical models, 129—131
innovation development, 131—133
Strategic capabilities of Russian emerging economy, 103—105 comparison of, 121—127, 123—126 development of, 105—121

multinational companies, 104
sample description, 104
Russian companies, 104—105, 106—107
Structural liquidity deficit/surplus, 50
Supplier orientation, 102—103
Sustainability
banking system, 47—51
Sustainable economic development, through smart city projects, 263—269
SWILAR, 104, 106—107, 115—116
description, 106—107
profile and financial data, 108
strategic capabilities of, 123—126

Taper Tantrum, 38
Technical skills, 184
TFP. See Total factor productivity Theory of psychological and cognitive barriers (PCBs), 172—175
applications of, 175—185, 178—182
conceptual foundations of, 173—175

TIMSS. See Trends in Mathematics and Science Study

Total factor productivity (TFP) growth channel, 4—8, 19, 20—21, 24, 25
Transaction costs’ minimization, 210
Transmission mechanism channels, 31—32, 33—34, 35, 42—47
Index 305

Transparency, 100
Transparency International, 100
Trends in Mathematics and Science Study (TIMSS), 185, 189–190
Twenty-first-century skills, 185–186, 187–188

United Nations Organization Development Program (UNODP)
Combined Indicator, 189–190

VEB. See Vneshekonombank
Vneshekonombank (VEB), 148–159, 215

Volatility management, 38–39
Wealth maximization, 210
WEF. See World Economic Forum
World Bank, 69
“Doing Business 2017: Equal Opportunity for All” report, 100
World Development Report, 171, 183
World Economic Forum (WEF), 2, 185–186, 205–206, 207–208
Zhukovsky Institute, 148–159