Index

Abilene paradox, 51
Accounting, 89
Acquiescent silence, 32
Administration, 88–89
Agency component, 63
Aggregation, 20
Ambiguity, 3, 64
Arbitration services, 58
Attentive listening, silence of, 43

Beck Hopelessness Scale (BHS), 68 Bias, 1
Bounded-rationality construct, 8
Brundtland Commission report, 21
Business
  literature, 21
  strategy approach, 16

Capital-intensive technologies, 8
Career development, 56
Causal attribution, 62
Change management, 7, 14, 20
Chi-square tests, 47
Climate, 56
Cognitive consistency, 62
'Cohesive' public sector culture, 73–74
Communication, 17, 78
  mediums, 15
  processes, 87
Complaining, 48
Conceptualising silence (see also Paying attention to silence), 23 employee participation, 24–27 as form of workplace communication, 23–24 productive and allocative efficiency of resource allocation, 24
Conscious awareness of silence, 4 Coping behaviour classes, 58
  strategies, 55–60
Corporate Leadership Council, 10
Corporate social responsibility (CSR), 2, 8
Costs of silence, 4–6
Cronbach value, 47
Cultural/culture, 71, 87
  and communication, 91
  organisations, 20

Deaf ear syndrome, 51
Decision making, 18, 20–21, 93
  in contemporary societies, 19 context, 63
  measures of silence in, 47 policy, 20
Decision(s), 60–64
  makers, 19, 21
Defensive silence, 32–33
Diffusion, 20, 31
  of responsibility, 50
Direct action, 58
Discretionary effort, 5
Disengaged workers, 11
Dissatisfied employees, 24
Dominance condition, 28
'Domino effect' of change, 11
Drag coefficient of employee, 5

Effectiveness, 18
Efficiency, 18

Emotion(s), 14, 39
Emotional release (ER), 58
Employee assistance programmes (EAPs), 57
Employee participation (see also Women's participation), 15, 24–27, 34 curve depicting combinations of voice and silence, 29 dynamics influencing, 37 models, 28–29
  stages, 37–38
Employee silence, 1, 5–6, 13–16, 32, 45, 52, 95–96 intangible costs, 6 perception, 3
  quiescent and acquiescent dimensions, 26
Employee(s), 78
  behaviour, 31–32
  communication, 13
  dissatisfaction, 25
  elasticity of pressures, 35, 38 employee/employer relationship, 16 engagement and disengagement, 9–11 non-participation, 23 perspectives, 93
  voice, 48
Empty rhetoric, 43
Enthusiasm, 67
Environmental organisations, 20
Equal pay for equal work, 18
Equity, 18
Ethical change policy, 20
Ethics, 18, 20–21
Ethics of Silence, 14
Evolutionary nature of paradigms, 8
Exit, 39–40
Exit, voice and loyalty framework (EVL framework), 25 construct, 26
  Hirschman's framework of, 25
External forces, 36

F tests, 47
Fear, silence of, 43
Feelings of hopelessness, 39
Finance, 89

Gender
  equity, 9
  relations, 9
Gestalt's ideas and principals, 53
'Glass ceilings' for women, 9
Goal-directed behaviour, 62
Golden rules, 54
Groupthink, 50

Helplessness, 38, 58
Helplessness (Seligman), 65
Holistic processing of information, 61
Honeymoon period, 37
Hope, 37–38, 63–64, 68
  changing levels, 65 measurement framework based on, 64–65 in organisational context, 67
Hopelessness, 39, 42
  silence of, 43
Human index, 9
Human resource (HR) challenge, 21
  managers, 17, 40
  policies, 71
  strategies, 18

Impression formation, 53–55, 62
'In-between' spaces, 18–19, 31
Individual choice sets, 27, 31
Individual employees, 2, 5, 15, 17, 23, 35–37, 39–40, 61, 97, 99
Infusion, 19, 31
Innovation, 6, 9
Insolent silence, 43
Intangible costs of employee silence, 6
Internal forces, 36
Issue selling to top management, 49

Job withdrawal, 52

Labour-intensive technologies, 8
Leadership behaviour, 71
Learned behaviours, 15
Learning organisations, 13
Line managers, 40
Long-term silence shifts, 3
Loyalty, 25, 50

Mainstream human resource management paradigms, 9
Management, 85, 89
  portfolio of management skills, 13 style, 56
Managers, 2–3, 7, 11, 13, 16–17, 21, 34, 41
  five-step process, 42 in hierarchical organisations, 25 importance paying attention to silence, 14–15 line and HR, 40
  manager–employee interactions to coping with stress, 60
'#Me too' movement, 14
Meetings, 4
Modified Beck Helplessness score (mBHS), 68–69
Motivational condition, 28
Movements in workplace, 34–40
Multivector analysis of employee silence in organisations, 26
'MUM effect', 25, 51

Neglect, 50
Noise, 15
'Non-profitable' aspects, 20
Non-satiation condition, 28

OCB, 48, 51
Occupational domain factors, 58
Occupational Health and Safety, 59
Oppressed silence, 43
Optimistic action, 58
Organisation(al), 20, 62
  change, 48 creativity, 6
  culture and relationship, 93 goals, 5
  justice, 48
  learning, 48
  role in, 56
  structure, 56, 91, 93
Organisational silence (see also Employee silence), 26, 32–33, 52
Over time, 4, 25, 91 changing future perspective of employees, 78
  employees, 83, 92
  silence behaviour over time in agency, 86

Parallel constraint satisfaction processes, 62
Passive attempts to tolerate (PAT), 58
Pathways component, 63
Paying attention to silence, 13, 45 ethics and decision making, 20–21 managers, importance of, 14–15 silence, voice and pluralism, 17–20 transdisciplinary framework, importance of, 15–17
Perceptions, 1, 64
Platinum rule, 41, 54
Pluralism, 17–20
Pluralistic ignorance, 50
Positive comparisons, 58
Positivity in workplace, 62
Postpone action (PA), 58
Power imbalances, 14
Preparatory action, 58
Principled organisational dissent, 49
Privacy condition, 28
Private sectors, 71, 84–86, 88–93, 94–95
Process of recovery and preparation (PRAP), 58
Production process innovations, 8
Production-structure process, 8

Profession Review Development System, 40
Prosocial silence, 32–33
Protective silence, 32
Public sectors, 71, 93–95 agency A, 75–79
  agency B, 80–84
  agency findings, 84–86
  agency result, 86–88
  management reforms, 72–73
Public–private partnerships, 74

'Quiescent and acquiescent dimensions' of employee silence, 26
Quiescent silence, 32–33

Rational task-oriented behaviours (RTOB), 58
Real-world contexts assessment of management of silence in workplaces, 95–96 combining public sector agency result, 86–88 combining public/private sector agency findings, 84–86 commonalities between public and private sectors, 93–94 context of workplace and internal structure and process, 75 differences between public and private sector, 94–95 organisational structure, 93 private sector, 88–93 public sector agency A, 75–79 public sector agency B, 80–84
Rebuilding process, 14
Reflection, 19
Relationships at work, 56
Risks, 1

Saliency condition, 28
Scream, 40
Selective ignoring, 58
Self-actualisation, 36
Self-assessment, 36
Self-reflection, 36
Self-response, 36
Self-understanding, 36
Seminal study, 5
Silence (see also Employee silence; Workplace), 1, 3, 13, 17–21, 45, 80 of attentive listening, 43, 57 causes of, 61
  communication medium, 15 conscious awareness, 4 in contemporary workplaces, 15 coping strategies, 55–60 costs, 4–6
  decision making, 47
  decisions, 60–64
  of fear, 43
  framework for, 66–69 of hopelessness, 43
  impression formation, 53–55
  insolent, 43
  management implications, 65–66
  measurement, 45–46
  measurement framework based on hope, 64–65 multitude meanings, 48–52 need to managing, 2–4 of oppressed, 43
  possibility of using existing body of work on silence, 47 proposed changes, 53
  seven modalities, 14
  unrecognised, 4
Silent employees, 6, 16, 23
  early identification, 13
Silent killer(s), 1, 64
Slacks, 25
Social
  organisations, 20
  ostracism, 51 responsibility, 72 service, 85
  studies in social psychology, 54
Specification, 19
'Spiral of silence', 25, 51

Stress in workplaces, 56–57
'Stretched' targets, 16
Substitution of rewards, 58
'Survival' responses, 16

t-tests, 47
Talk to others, 58
Tangible benefits, 10
Task design, 56
360-degree feedback, 16
Transdisciplinary approach, 15–17, 27, 58

Uncertainties, 11
Unrecognised silence, 4
Use of home resources (UHR), 58

Value(s) creation, 7
  and management processes, 71
Voice, 15, 17–20, 25

Whistleblowing, 26, 48
Withdrawal behaviour, 58
Women's participation (see also Employee participation) as board members, 9
  in market, 8–9
Work–life balance, 57
Workplace assessment of management, 95–96 conditions/concerns, 57 dynamics influencing employee participation, 37 and internal structure and process, 75
  management implications, 40–43
  managerial responses in different silence zones, 41 movements, 34–40
  significance of managing silence in, 6–7 silence as form of workplace communication, 23–24 silence in, 31, 39, 71