

Index

- Accountability, 26–28, 212
- Accounting ethics, 24
- Administration ethics (see also Business ethics), 29
- challenges to, 31–35
  - changed conditions for, 30–31
  - issues for, 39–41
  - theoretical framework for, 36–39
  - values, 35–36
- Agency theory, 97, 101
- Aggressive gift, 106, 175, 184, 186
- Anthropocene age, 67–68, 121
- resilience management and governance at, 76–77
- Anthropocene ethics,
- epistemological foundations of, 68–70
- Anthropocentric environmental ethics, 120–123
- Authentic experience, 187, 190
- Authenticity, 199–200
- axioms, 200
- Autonomy, 27
- ethical principles of, 207, 209–210
- Banality of Evil (Eichmann), 143–152, 152, 158
- Brundtland Commission, 60, 62, 213–214
- Bureaucrat, 147–150
- Business
- integrity in, 162–163
  - leaders, 169
  - models, 62–63, 208
  - philanthropy, 215
- Business ethics (see also Administration ethics), 19–28, 51, 59, 67, 101
- Capital, 134
- tax, 135
- Capitalism, 21, 117–120, 130, 134
- of hyperconsumption, 12
- Climate change, 57, 67–68, 125
- invisibility of, 73, 119–120
- Code of ethics in business, 100
- Codes of conduct, 21
- Communitarian kantianism, 19–20, 25, 27
- Consumer
- capitalism, 81–82
  - organizations, 217
  - society, 6, 10, 194
- Corporate
- citizenship, 22, 26, 43–44, 49, 53, 63, 116–117, 170
  - governance, 27
  - identity, 26
  - integrity, 170
  - responsibility, 217
- Corporate social responsibility (CSR), 19–20, 22–23, 25–27, 43–47, 53, 61, 67, 88, 116–118, 205, 210–217
- Cosmopolitan(ism), 5–6, 29, 35–36, 75
- Creative/creativity, 188–189, 192–193
- destruction, 94
  - political thought, 157
- Decision-making, 87, 169
- Deconstructive ethics, 88
- Democratic/democracy, 6, 15
- Dignity, 27
- ethical principles of, 207, 209–210
- Economic(s), 6, 20, 32, 94
- action/actors, 101, 102
  - anthropology, 21, 105–109
  - authenticity, 200

- crisis, 83–84
- decision-making, mixed rationality
  - of, 109–110
- ethics, 111–112
- globalization, 6
- growth, 57
- liberalism, 179
- logic, 80
- man, 92–93, 105
- model of consumer society, 84
- organizations, 104–105
- rationality, 91, 98, 103
- responsibility, 46
- subjectivity, 106
- system of late capitalism, 189
- Ethical/ethics, 19, 40–41, 46
  - action, 162
  - of administration
    - (see Administration ethics)
  - balance, 13
  - of competition, 96
  - of complexity, 87
  - complexity thinking in
    - organizational decision-making, 88–90
  - conceptions and perspectives for, 136–139
  - cosmopolitanism, 15
  - in economic history, 92–94
  - out of economics, 100–105
  - economy, 111–126
  - engines, 102–103
  - equality in, 127–129
  - of experience society, 195–199
  - integrity, 162
  - judgment, 169
  - to law, 123–124
  - leadership, 21, 24, 61–62
  - liberalism, 19, 22, 27
  - management studies, 200
  - principles, 19–20, 22–25, 27
  - rationality of economic thinking, 101
  - of responsibility, 45–47, 214
  - sensibility, 123
  - subjectivity, 108
  - of sustainability, 29
  - theories, 29
- European Commission, 216
- Financial crisis, 12–14, 83–84, 118
  - economic anthropology and foundations of rationality, 105–109
  - ethics in economic history, 92–94
  - ethics out of economics, 100–105
  - mixed rationality of economic decision-making, 109–110
  - neo-liberal concept of economics, 94–98
  - to new economics of sustainability, 91
  - welfare economics and criticism of neo-classical concepts of rationality, 98–100
- Financial responsibility, 214
- Firm, 47–48, 96
- Fraser, Nancy (political theory), 179–180
- Freedom, 35, 37, 39, 95, 102, 110, 129
- Fukuyama, Francis (American political economist), 178–179
- Globalization, 3
  - critical philosophy of, 4–6
  - criticism of globalization and hope for exit from crisis, 12–14
  - as expression of hypermodernity and world culture, 10–12
  - hope of cosmopolitanism in age of hypermodernity, 15–17
  - misery of world, and struggle for recognition, 6–10
- Good citizen corporation, 20, 22–23, 26–28, 43, 46
- Good corporate citizenship, 43, 52, 210–211
- Hannah Arendt's philosophy, 143–146
- Hayek's economic theory, 95

- Hegel and Kojève philosophy, 173–175
- Hermeneutical
origins of recognition, 180
reintroduction of recognition, 182–184
- Honneth, Axel, 181 and renewal of struggle for recognition, 181–182
- Humanity, 73, 121, 174–175
- Hyperconsumption, 11, 194, 201
society, 10–11, 194
- Institutional(ization)
action, 147
of democracy, 38
legitimacy, 51
of microbiology, 70
responsibility, 26
theory, 40, 49–52
- Integrative business ethics, 20, 28
- Integrity, 26–28, 161
in business and politics, 162–163
ethical principles of, 207, 209–210
ethics of, 161
as existential subjectivity, 163–165 of legal and political system, 30 of oppressed groups, 163 as organizational integrity, 167–168 as practical judgment, 168–170 as virtue, 165–166
- International Labor Organization (ILO), 48, 57
- Justice, 171
as fairness, 23
principle of, 50
- Kantian business ethics, 22
- Kantian moral philosophy, 165
- Law of cumulative growth, 131
as integrity, 167
- Leadership, 87, 154
- Legitimacy, 26–28, 50
for corporate performance, 51–52
- Liberal culture, 10, 178–179, 193
- Locke's concept of private property, 128–129
- Markell, Patchen, 184–185
- Meso-level ethical economy, 126
- Mixed rationality of economic decision-making, 109–110
- Moral
accountability, 162
blindness, 39, 152–156 coherence, 162 commitment, 162
conscientiousness, 162
deafness, 154–156
imagination, 87–88
imperative, 189
management, 21–22, 24, 27
muteness, 154–155
norms, 100
responsibility, 45, 123
sensitivity, 158
shortsightedness, 156 sight, 156
silence, 155
thinking, 169
vision, 156
- Neoliberal(ism), 13 agenda, 6 concept of economics, 94–98 state, 31
- Nietzscheanism, 176–177
- Non-anthropocentric positions, 121–122
- Obedience, 149, 154
- Organizational integrity, 26 integrity as, 167–168
- Paine's approach, 168
- Pareto-optimality, 99, 102
- Partnerships for SDGs, 62–64
- Pasteur's techniques, 69–70

- Paul Ricoeur's philosophy, 172–173
- Philosophy of ecoethica, 212
 Hannah Arendt's, 143–146
 Hegel and Kojève, 173–175
 Marcel Mauss, 175–176
 Paul Ricoeur's, 172–173
- Plato's ethical theory, 161
- Political/politics, 185 corruption, 34
 CSR, 61
 decision-maker, 30 ecology, 73
 equality in political philosophy, 127–129
 integrity in, 162–163
 justice concept, 21
 morality, 30
- Principle of responsibility, 205 business and management for sustainability, 206–210
 new responsibility for sustainable development, 217–220 sustainability and corporate social responsibility, 210–217
- Public management, 30–31, 39
- Rational(ity), 21, 94
 action, 92, 100
 choice theory, 22
 theory of welfare economics in macro-and microeconomics, 98
- Recognition of culture, 9, 171, 182 American reintroduction of problem of recognition, 178–180
 French thought and impossibility of recognition and gift, 176–178
 German reformulation of problem of recognition, 180–182
 Hegel and Kojève philosophy, 173–175
 hermeneutical reintroduction of recognition, 182–184
- Paul Ricoeur's philosophy,
 172–173
- Rentiers*, 132–133
- Resilience, 76
 management, 76–77
 resilient infrastructures, 57
- Responsibility, 26, 43–45, 68, 88, 106,
 108, 157–158, 184, 197,
 212–213
- Risk
 management, 90
 risk-mitigation, 90
- Role behavior, 147 expectations in social system, 147 role-identification, 154 role-player, 147
 role-playing, 147
- Social
 capital, 119
 contract, 124, 173
 entrepreneurship, 116–117
 integration, 8, 206
 ontology, 77
 order, 95–96
 psychology, 147, 156
 responsibility, 46, 50, 213, 218–220
 roles and structures, 156
- Stakeholder, 119, 169 business ethics, 49 corporation, 49–50
 governance, 40
 theory, 43, 63
- Stakeholder management, 49–52, 63
 corporate social responsibility in, 47–49
- Sustainable development, 23, 32, 43, 55, 118, 213–215
 criticism of, 59–60
 new responsibility for, 217–220
- Sustainable development goals (SDGs), 53, 67, 205 challenge, 54–59
 criticism of, 59–60

- Sustainable/sustainability (see also Dark side of sustainability), 19, 29, 35–36, 43–44, 55,
57, 59, 61, 117–120, 124,
188–189, 210–217
  - application in, 22–24
  - business and management, 206–210
  - economics, 119
  - innovation, 57
  - methodology, 19–21
- Technological/technology, 153
  - age, 94
  - rationality, 35
  - society, 82
  - system, 81
- Totalitarianism, 144
- Triple bottom line, 125, 207, 220
- Utilitarian(ism), 169
  - thinking, 165
- Utility
  - maximization, 93
  - theory, 102
- Value
  - of integrity, 166
  - of professional ethics, 35
  - values-driven management, 51
- Vulnerability, 27
  - ethical principles of, 207, 209–210
- Welfare
  - economics, 98–100, 110
  - economists, 102
  - equality of, 127–128
  - policy, 57