

Index

- Affective commitment (AC), 42
- Alternative types of mentoring
  - anonymous mentoring, 28
  - international mentoring, 27
  - peer mentoring, 28
  - reverse mentoring, 27, 30, 90, 95, 121
- Artificial Intelligence (AI), 131
- Baby boomers, 4, 8
- Benefits to a mentor, 29–31
  - objective vs. subjective outcomes, 30
- Career functions, 28–29
  - challenging assignments, 87
  - coaching, 87
  - exposure and visibility, 86
  - sponsorship, 86
- Career outcomes, 29
  - objective career outcomes, 30
  - subjective career outcomes, 30
- China, 3, 7, 9, 10, 12, 55
- Coaching
  - executive coaching, 24, 119
  - mentoring vs. coaching, 24
- Coding, 60, 69
- Continuance commitment (CC), 42, 43
- Control variables, 53
- Cronbach's Alpha, 53

- Data collection, 55, 59
- Dependent variable, 51
- Direct supervisor, 23, 84, 90, 92, 134
- Drafting, 110

- Electronic direct mailer (EDM), 111
- Employee turnover
  - turnover vs. turnover intentions, 35–36
  - voluntary turnover models, 37–41
  - voluntary vs. involuntary turnover, 36–37
- Explanatory sequential design
  - mixed methods, 47
  - reasons, 47
- Fast moving consumer goods (FMCG), 58
- Formal mentoring, 19–22
- Generational cohorts
  - birth years, 7
  - characteristics, 5–8
  - definition, 5
  - traits, 5
- Generation X, 4, 8
- Generation Y, 4, 8
- Generation Z
  - decision-making ability, 130–132
  - information technology, 128
  - multi-tasking, 132
  - passion vs. process, 129
  - relationships, 132–133
  - short-term pain vs. long-term pain, 129–130
- Hypotheses, 45–47

- Independent variable, 51
- Informal mentoring, 19–22
- Initial meeting, 103–104
- Initiation
  - accepting and rejecting, 102
  - mentor initiates, 101
  - protégé initiates, 101
- Internet of Things (IOT), 130, 131
- Interviewees, 57, 59, 87, 95, 96
- Interview sample, 48–49, 58–59

- Kathy Kram, 28–29
- Kram's mentoring functions
  - career functions, 86–87
  - psychosocial functions, 87–89
- Limitations, 53–55, 83, 95–97
- Meeting procedures
  - asking questions, 105
  - 1st meeting, 104
  - subsequent meetings, 104–105
- Mentoring
  - benefits, 29–31
  - career advancement, 28
  - career functions, 28, 86, 87
  - crises, 105–106
  - definition, 15, 16–17
  - female mentoring, 25, 124
  - gender and behaviours, 102–103
  - gender preference, 51, 90
  - human resources management, 25–27
  - initiation, 22–23, 32
  - internal vs. external, 23–24
  - non-mentored vs. mentored, 4
  - psychosocial functions, 2, 26, 29, 86–89
  - training and development, 27
  - turnover and turnover intentions, 35–36
- Mentoring myths, 99–100
- Mentoring styles
  - duration, 89–90
  - formal mentoring, 19–22
  - informal mentoring, 19–22
- MentorMe, 112, 114, 119, 124
- Mentor relationship, 31–33, 107
- Millennial, 8, 127–133
  - attributes, 11, 12
  - definition, 10
  - dissimilar behaviours, 10
  - materialism, 11
  - organisational socialisation, 11, 26
- Mixed methods, 47, 55
- Moderating variable, 52–53
- Multi-national corporations (MNC), 58
- Normative commitment (NC), 43
- Objective career outcomes, 30
- OCBC Bank, 109–126
- Organisational commitment
  - affective commitment, 42, 64
  - continuance commitment, 42, 43, 64
  - normative commitment, 42, 43, 64, 96
  - theory of side bets, 42
  - three component model, 42, 52, 53, 92
- Organisational commitment questionnaire (OCQ), 52
- Organisational socialisation, 11, 26, 31
- Permanent Residents (PR), 59
- Phases of the mentor relationship
  - cultivation, 32
  - initiation, 32
  - redefinition, 33
  - separation, 32
- Problem-Based Learning (PBL), 119
- Psychosocial functions, 28–29
  - acceptance and confirmation, 88
  - counselling and friendship, 88–89
  - role modelling, 87–88
- Qualitative section, 55–62
- Quantitative section, 47–55
- Questionnaires, 46, 49–51, 54, 95, 116
- Reliability, 52
- Research questions, 45–47, 74, 81, 83, 84
- Sampling procedure, 49, 57–58
- Singapore, 109–126
  - employee turnover, 3
  - millennials, 2, 3, 10, 58

- turnover intentions, 1
- unemployment rate, 3
- workplace, 92
- Singapore Armed Forces (SAF), 27
- Slip-streaming, 110
- Small-medium enterprises (SME), 58
- Study design, 46–47
- Subjective career outcomes, 30
- Supervisor, 4
- Turnover
  - economic turnover model, 37
  - employee turnover (See Employee turnover)
  - image theory, 39
  - intent to stay, 35
  - job satisfaction, 40
  - Lee and Mitchell, 39
  - March and Simon, 40–41
  - Mobley, 38–39
  - process and content models, 38
  - psychological turnover model, 37–38
  - sociological turnover model, 38
  - turnover intentions vs. turnover, 35–36
  - voluntary turnover models, 37–41
- Variables
  - control variables, 53
  - dependent variable, 51
  - independent variable, 51
  - moderating variable, 52–53