

Index

- Academy of Saint Louis, 10–11
Accreditation, 63
 and teacher education quality, 67–70
Alliance for Progress, 42
Amunátegui, Gregorio, 78
Amunátegui, Miguel Luis, 18, 78, 82–83
August Comte, 18
Aymara people, 3, 101–102
 teacher preparation for, 106–107

Bachelet, Michelle, 66
Balmaceda, José Manuel, 18, 20
Bello, Andrés, 12, 79
British Comprehensive School system,
 43–44
Bulnes, Manuel, 12, 15
Bustamante, Brunequilda, 90

Camilo Henríquez, 8–9
Caroline School (Convictorio Carolino), 8, 10–11
Centre for Curriculum, In-service, Experimentation and Pedagogic Research
 (CPEIP), 41–42
Cerdeña, Pedro Aguirre, 29–30, 45
Cervelló, Mercedes, 16–17
Chilean ‘criollos’, 7–8
Chilean economy, changes in, 28–30
Chilean educational system, 75
Chilean National Education Prize, 89–90
Chilean public education system, 11
Civil society concerns, 64–70
 Colegio Versin, 76–77
Completion, 58
Compulsory Primary Education Law,
 24, 25, 89–90
Concepción, 83
Curriculum changes, 58–59

De Educacion Popular, 78
de Salas, Manuel, 8–11, 24
de San Martín, José, 7–8
Decroly, Ovide, 24
Delayed state action, 84–86
Delegated authorities, 45 Democracy, teacher education in civil society groups, 65
 from policy void to public management and quality control policies, 58–60
 re-building teacher education, 56–60
 research evidence, civil society concerns and new legislation, 64–70
Dewey, John, 1
Domeyko, Ignacio, 12

‘Economically free’ women, 88
Education, 11
 issue, 23–24
 planning for education change, 35
 reform, 34–35
Education Law, 55
Egaña, Juan, 8–9
Enrolment, 58
Erfazurriz, Zañartu Federico, 17–18

Female teacher preparation, 75–80 institutional changes in preparation of female teachers, 80–89
 institutionalisation, 78–80

- post-1973 period, 91–93
- women teacher voices, 89–93
- ‘Feminisation’ of teaching and public
 - recognition, 86–89
- Ferdinand VII, 7–8
- Ferrière, Adolphe, 1, 24
- FFID project implementation,
 - 58–60
 - curriculum changes and
 - innovations, 58–59
 - enrolment and completion, 58
 - student learning through practicum
 - experiences, 60
- First Education Conference, 32
- Ford Foundation, 42
- Frei, Eduardo, 39, 57
- Froebel approach, 84–85
- Gender differentiation, 75
- General Association of Chilean
 - Teachers, 81
- General Law for Primary Education,
 - 80
- General Public Education Convention,
 - 85–86
- General Rulings for Primary
 - Education, 81
- German pedagogy, 25–26
- Government commitment to expand
 - and improve teacher
 - education, 15–20
- Great Depression (1929), 28–29
- Higher Humanities, 32–33
- IEA Teacher Education Study,
 - 64
- 169 ILO Convention, 102–103
- Import-substitution policy, 29
- Indigenous Law, 3
- Indigenous populations, teacher
 - education for
 - early education opportunities for
 - indigenous people, 99–102
 - indigenous people in Chile, 98
 - intercultural education future,
 - 107–109
 - paradigmatic change, 102–103
 - teacher education for inter-cultural
 - bilingual contexts, 103–107
- Information Communication
 - Technologies (ICT), 59
- Innovations, 58–59
- Institutional broadening of teacher
 - education
 - growth and development of teacher
 - education institutions,
 - 28–33
 - social changes, teacher
 - organisations and teacher
 - education, 23–28
 - tranquillity, 33–35
 - Institutional building of Chilean public
 - education, 15–20
 - Institutional changes in preparation of
 - female teachers, 80–89
 - Institutional re-structuring of teacher
 - education institutions, 30
 - Institutionalisation of female teacher
 - preparation, 78–80
 - Inter-cultural bilingual contexts,
 - teacher education for,
 - 103–107
 - Intercultural Bilingual Education
 - (IBE), 3, 102–103
 - International TEDS-M test, 64–65
 - Jaraquemada, Liceo Paula, 83
 - ‘Juntas’, 7–8
 - Kennedy, J. F., 39
 - Kerschensteiner, Georg, 24
 - Labarca, Amanda, 25–26, 88–89
 - Lancaster, Joseph, 9–10
 - Lancaster method, 10
 - Lancaster Schools, 8–12
 - Le Brun, Isabel, 82–83

- Legal basis for improved system of
 teacher education, 65–67
 Letelier, Valentin, 1, 19–20
 Liberating Expedition, 7–8
 Light entrance examination, 12–13

 Madrid, Juan, 84–85
 Maluschka, Leopoldina, 85–86
 Mann, Horace, 15–16
Manuel de Salas Experimental School, 33
 Mapuche people, 3, 99–101
 teacher preparation for, 104–105
 Marin, Gladys, 2–3, 91
 Metropolitan Education University,
 55
 Mistral, Gabriela, 2–3
 Montessori, Maria, 1, 24
 Montt, Manuel, 12–13, 15, 20, 78–79
 Mourgues, Noemí, 88

 National Accreditation Agency, 66
 National Association of Teachers, 24
 National Corporation of Indigenous Development (CONADI),
 102–103
 National Education Association,
 85–86
 National Institute (Instituto Nacional),
 8–9
 National unified school, 43–44
 Neoliberal economics, 48–51 changing institutional setting of
 teacher education, 49–51
 New Chilean education system, 41
 New legislation, 64–70
 ‘New public management’ policies, 61
 1928 education reform, 36
 agreements, 26–27
 reversal of, 28
 short-lived, 25
 1931 Reform, 29
 1965 education reform, 39–43
 primary teacher education raising to tertiary level, 41–42
 university teacher preparation, 42–43
 Normal School for Male Teachers, 12–15
Nuevos Rumbos, 88
 Núñez, José Abelardo, 1, 17–18, 20

 O’Higgins, Bernardo, 7–10

 Pedagogic Institute, 2, 19, 27–28,
 89–90
 Pedagogic Institute, 82, 88–89
 Penguin revolution, 61
 Pinochet, Augusto, 1–2
 Planning Committee, 40
 Political map of Chile, 97
 Portales, Diego, 77
 Preschool educators preparation,
 84–86
 Presidential Directives for Education, 49
 Primary Education Law, 16, 76
 Primary teachers, 86–89
 education raising to tertiary level, 41–42
 preparation, 25–27
 preparation development, 30–32
 Problem-Based-Learning (PBL), 58–59
 Project funding, 63–64
 Public education, 100–101
 Puebla, Belarmina, 78

 Quality improvement through control mechanisms, 61–64
 attracting suitable candidates for teaching, 62–63
 teacher education quality, 63–64

 Re-building teacher education, 56–60
 Research evidence, 64–70
 Research on teacher education quality, 64–65

- Revista de Instrucción Primaria*
(Primary Education Review), 86
- Sarmiento, Domingo Faustino, 12–15, 78
- School Inspectorate (Visitadoras de Escuelas), 88
- School teacher preparation development, 15–20
- Secondary education, 10–11, 98
- Secondary school teacher preparation, 82–84
- Secondary teachers, 86–89
preparation, 27
preparation development, 32–33
- Social changes, 23–28
- Social issue, 23–24
- Soto, Viola, 89–90
- Soviet polytechnic education, 43–44
- Spanish Reconquest, 7–8
- Student learning through practicum
experiences, 60
- Tarragó, Antonia, 82–83
- Teacher Association, 25
- Teacher Development Law, 2
- Teacher education, 1, 7, 23–28
changing institutional setting of,
49–51
in Chile, 2
development of school teacher
preparation, 15–20
early education policies of military regime, 44–48
educational developments between 1830 and 1849, 11–15
towards end of 2000s decade, 67–70 towards end of colonial period and early Republican One, 8–11 institutional building of Chilean
public education, 15–20
- ‘military government policies’ impact, 45–48
under military regime, 43–48
reform, 34–35
- Teacher education institutions
in Chile, 7
growth and development of, 28–33
institutional re-structuring of, 30
- Teacher education quality, 63–64
accreditation and, 67–70
research on, 64–65
- Teacher Education Strengthening
Project, 57
- Teacher organisations, 23–28
- Teacher preparation for Aymara people, 106–107
for Mapuche people, 104–105
- Teacher Professional Development
Law, 1–2, 66–67
- Teachers for Indigenous Population, 98
- Teachers of First Instruction (Reglamento para Maestros de Primeras Letras), 9
- Teachers Vocation Scholarship
programme, 62
- Thompson, Diego, 10
- Traditional educators, 103, 108
- Tranquillity, 33–35
- 2016 Gratuity Law, 62–63
- UNESCO, 35, 39–40
- University of Chile, 2, 23, 28, 55, 78
- University of Concepción, 43
- University of San Felipe*, 8, 12
- University teacher preparation, 42–43
- University-based Teacher Education, 47
- Urrutia, Abdolomira, 88
- Valdivieso, Joaquín Larraín, 76–77
- Women teacher voices, 89–93