Index

Able-bodiedness, 4–5, 73–75
Accumulation of aesthetic capital, 32–33, 39, 57–58
Activism in social media, 152–153
Admiration, 5–6
Aesthetic capital, 8, 10, 24, 28, 103, 106, 117–118, 135, 138
  externalised forming of, 78–80
  grammar of exchanging, 30–33 mechanisms, 106
  sociological conception, 103
  theory of, 149–150
Aesthetic labour, 28–29
Ageing, 71
  age-based collective consciousness, 72 body, 71–72
  gender and appearance-related consumption, 72–73
Anti-ageing products, 75 Appearance. See also Physical appearance appearance-related consumption, 72–73 different formulations of appearance-related capital, 26–29 dissatisfaction, 169
  as medium for inclusion and exclusion, 109–111
  norms, 136–137
  relation to psychological well-being, 111–112
  as symbol of making an impression, 107–109 Appearance satisfaction, 119–121
  on different social media platforms, 121–122
  social media platforms and gender, 122–123
Appearance work, 39
  belief in appearance as currency, 40–41
  significance of gendered appearance work, 41–43
Attention economy, 122, 154–155
Authentic self-presentation, 95
Authenticity, 73, 79, 81, 95 care brands, 1
  fake mask, 159
  ideals, 120, 150
  ideology, 41
  logics, 6
  myth, 41
  perks and penalties, 8 physical attractiveness, 4–5
  skin care and hair, 75–76
  standards, 5
  Western beauty ideal, 135
  work, 45–46
Belief in appearance as currency, 40–41
Benevolent sexism, 41
Bodily capital, 24, 26–27
Body hair as classed aesthetics, 160–161
Body management, 72–73
Bourdieu, Pierre, 4, 7, 24–26, 28, 31, 39, 103–105, 152
  Bourdieusian capital metaphor, 23
  Bourdieusian tradition, 4–5
  forms of capital and body, 24–26
  theory, 105
Capital. See also Aesthetic capital, 24, 30 Bourdieu’s forms of, 24–26
economist approach to, 27–28
metaphor, 24
Capitalisation of physical appearance, 3–6
Clothing, 78–80
Colleagues monitoring, 96–97
Commodity culture in social media, 152–153
Content creation, 119–121
on different social media platforms, 121–122
social media platforms and gender, 122–123
Conversions of aesthetic capital, 32–33
Cosmetic procedures, 13
non-surgical cosmetic interventions, 73
Cultural capital, 25–26, 32, 81, 99, 149–150, 159, 167

Decontextualisation, 155
Deep acting, 95
Dialogic thematic analysis, 138
Diet, 76–78
Disgust, 5–6
Distancing strategy, 74
Doing fatness wrong, 141–142
Dreaded otherness, 161

Economic capital, 8, 25, 167
Economist approach to capital, 27–28
Emotional labour, 28–29
Employer, 92–94
Exclusion, appearance as medium for, 109–111

Facebook, 119, 121–122, 125, 135–136, 140

Fat
activism, 135, 137–138, 140
activists, 140, 145
good fatty, 136–137
stigma, 136–137

weight discrimination, 136–137
Fatphobia, 136–137
Femininity, 40–41
Finland, 1, 6, 10, 43–44, 51, 61, 168, 170
class structure, 11
ethnic diversity, 12
Finnish context, 7–8, 10, 13, 170
Finnish culture, 45–46
streetscape, 13
Finnish culture, 45–46
Flaunting, 139

Gender, 7, 24, 27–29, 46, 72–73, 122–123, 166
‘non-market’ activity, 42 differences in, 10
gender-comparative perspective, 63 gendered capital and labour, 28–29
gendered form of capital, 6–8 inequality, 41
studies, 4
Generational habitus, 72
Geographical peculiarities, 11–13

Goffman, Erving, 2, 88
dramaturgy, 90–91
framework of impression management, 98–99 Goffmanian lens, 8–9
Goffmanian theatre metaphor, 87–88
Goffman-inspired methodology, 91

Grooming, 4, 29, 41–43, 50, 58, 166
skin care and hair, 75–76

Habitus, 105
Hagen, Sofie, 9, 135–142, 169
Hairless beauty ideal, 149
(un)hairy female body, 150–152
activism and commodity culture in social media, 152–153

Hairlessness, 149, 158, 160
(un)hairy female body, 150–152
activism and commodity culture in social media, 152–153

hairless beauty ideal, 149
norm, 149, 158, 160
Hakim, Catherine, 3–4, 23, 28, 33, 68, 165–166 idea of erotic capital, 28
theory, 28

Impression management with work costumes, 88–90
Inclusion, appearance as medium for, 109–111
Instagram, 121–122, 127

#Januhairy, 149–150, 152–154

Luxury-act, 11

Masculinity, 41, 57
female, 160
hypothesis, 58
idealisation of performative masculinity, 76–78 traditional man, 59–60 traditional masculinity, 59–60
Mears, Ashley, 4, 6–8, 23, 27–30, 33, 43, 50–51, 104, 165–166, 168–169
Metrosexual, 57, 59, 61
Metrosexual Masculinities, 57–58
metrosexuality, 57–59, 68

Non-surgical cosmetic interventions, 73
Norms, 5, 87, 156
normative aesthetic regulation, 168–169
normative body, 135
norm-breaking fat body, 135
social norms, 24

Objectification theory, 119, 122–123
Offensive resistance, 138, 140–141

Performative masculinity, idealisation of, 76–78
Physical appearance, 1, 103–104, 165
as aesthetic capital, 166
capitalisation, 3–6
in Finnish Context, 10–13
importance, 1–3
physical appearance-related traits, 167
Physical capital, 26–27
Physical exercise, 76–78
Psychological well-being, appearance relation to, 111–112

Self-projection, 95
Selfies, 2, 119–121, 128–129, 152, 154, 156
Sexual capital, 26–27
Shame, 5–6, 122–123, 129, 150, 159
Social capital, 25, 32–33, 113, 149–150
Social comparison theory, 119, 122–123
Social movements, 152

Social media. See also Facebook;
Instagram, 2–3, 117–118
activism and commodity culture in, 152–153 appearance satisfaction and content creation on, 121–122
effects of, 119
gender, 122–123
platforms, 122–123, 169–170
social network site, 125

Social movements, 152

Working life, 8–9, 33, 87, 169–170
aesthetic norms in, 93–94
effects of, 4
everyday, 87, 98–99, 110
experiences, 6–7