

INDEX

Note: Page numbers followed by “n” indicate notes.

- Academy of Management Journal*, 65
Academy of Management Review, 65
Ad hoc allocation rule, 221
Added value, 91
Agency of the Republic of Slovenia for
 Legal Records (AJPES), 104
Agenda 21, 15
Allocation rules, 221
Altruism, 214
Annual work unit (AWU), 38
Asset-based reallocations (ABR), 210
Autoregressive distributed lag bounds model (ARDL bounds model),
 246
- Bankruptcy/liquidation, 116
Bibexcel, 62
Bibliographic coupling, 60
Bibliometric
 analysis, 59
 methodology, 60–61
Bibliometrix (R-tool), 62
Biological cycle of economy, 24
Board members, 176
Budget, linking sustainable policies to,
 309–310
Budgetary process, 309
Business models (BM), 23, 134–135 (see also Market(ing))
 innovation, 136
 reconfiguration, 136
Business practices, 83
 of outsourcing, 150
Business-logistics services, 149
 GLPs and environmental sustainability, 151–152
 policies and recommendations with emphasis on European Union, 162–164
 research design and methodology,
 152–155
 research results, 155–162
 theoretical background, 150–151
- Capital accumulation, 275
Capital structure (see also Human capital)
 theory, 108–116
 trade-offs, 115
Carbon dioxide emissions
 (CO₂ emissions), 242–243
Child mortality, 15
Circular economy, 2–3, 23, 82–83
Circular material use rate (CMU), 47
Cisco, 135
Citation analysis, 59–60
Civil servants, 176
Clean water and sanitation, 51
Co-author analysis, 60
Co-citation
 analysis, 59–60
 of journals, 67
 of references, 66
Co-word analysis, 59–61, 68–71
Collective consumption, 222
Compound annual growth rate (CAGR),
 32, 39, 41
Consciousness for sustainable
 consumption, 178–179
Conservative welfare regimes, 215, 217
Consumer perspective, 177
 sustainability orientation, 179
Consumption, 220–222
Corning, 135
Corporate bankruptcy prediction from accounting data, 102–104
Corporate capital structure, 116
Corporate reputation, 69–71
Corporate social and financial performance, 67
Corporate social performance (CSP),
 69–70

- Corporate social responsibility (CSR), 2, 58, 68–69, 82 (see also Strategic CSR)
- Corporate sustainability, 3, 82–84, 92 (see also Social sustainability)
- dimensions, 84–86
 - environmental issues in strategic management, 87–88
 - motives for corporate sustainability strategies, 89–90
 - need for inclusion of sustainability in strategic management, 86–87
 - non-substitutability, irreversibility and nonlinearity of capital depletion, 86
 - results, 90–92
 - social issues in strategic management, 88–89
 - suggestions for research, 94
- Corporations, 302
- Cost
- of capital, 67
 - reductions, 91–92
- Costliness of information, 276
- Covariates, 118
- Cox hazard model, 118
- Cox proportional hazard regression model, 118, 120, 123
- Cox regression model, 122
- Cross-country differences, 224
- Cusum stability test, 246
- Data
- acquisition and preparation, 61–62
 - analysis, 62
- Demographic dependency, 199–201
- ratio, 192
- Dependency indicators, 198–200
- Determinants, 109
- of firm survival, 116–122
- Discriminant models, 103
- statistical analysis, 103
- Disposable income, 223
- Disruptions, 307–308
- Division of labor, 275
- Donors/philanthropists, 176
- Durbin-Watson test, 246
- Eco-innovation, 132
- Eco-Innovation Index, 132–133
- Ecologically sustainable companies, 85
- Economic consequences (ECON consequences), 178
- Economic Cooperation Organization (ECO), 241
- Economic(s), 192
- capital/profit, 84
 - crises, 175
 - dependency, 210
 - development, 254
 - efficiency, 280–281
 - of federalism, 282–284
 - growth, 255
 - life cycle, 220–222
 - system, 85
- Ecosystem services, 85
- Education, 15, 254–255, 257
- funding, 264
 - importance, 258
 - investment in, 259–262
 - role of state, 263–265
 - and social aspects of sustainable development in Europe, 258
- Educators, 176
- Efficiency, 281
- Electricity use, 238
- Energy consumption, 240, 242
- Entrepreneurship, 275
- Environment(al), 148
- innovation, 302
 - issues in strategic management, 87–88
 - Kuznets curve, 250*n*2
 - management, 68
 - proactivity, 88, 91
 - protection, 23, 255
 - technological development, 128
 - thinking, 151
- Environmental consequences (ENV consequences), 178
- Environmental sustainability, 16, 151–152, 156, 159, 161 (see also Corporate sustainability)
- Equality, 254
- Error correction model, 246
- EU Statistics on Income and Living Conditions (EU-SILC), 220
- Europe
- education and social aspects of sustainable development in, 258
 - inequality and poverty in, 258–259
 - typology of welfare regimes in, 215–216

- European AGENTA project, 194, 196
- European Central Bank (ECB), 48
- European Climate Change Program, 13
- European Commission, 22, 163
- European Consensus on Development, 21
- European Union (EU), 3, 13, 24, 32, 128, 164, 192, 238, 254, 273, 299
 - challenges in progress toward sustainable development in, 24–26
 - challenges on path toward sustainability for, 3–4
 - countries, 192
 - member states, 210
 - policies and recommendations with emphasis on, 162–164
 - progress in other areas, 40
 - progress toward SDGs, 32–33
 - progress toward SDGs in old and new EU members, 40–41
 - score value comparison, 41
 - SD indicators with biggest difference between old and new EU members, 42–52
 - from SDG, 32–34
 - SDGs in EU and challenges in implementation, 12–13
 - sustainable development as policy priority in, 18–24
 - Sustainable Development Strategy, 162
- EUROPOP2018 population projections, 192, 194, 204
- Ex ante* costs, 278
- Ex post* costs, 278
- Exchange motive, 214
- Expected competitive advantage, 90
- Exploitation of renewables, 162
- Familial transfers, 210
- Families in welfare provision, 218
- Financial markets, 210
- Firm survival, 102, 301
 - capital structure theory and, 108–116
 - determinants, 116–122
- Firm(s), 102, 128, 301
 - capital structure theory, 108–116
 - dataset, 104–108
 - predicting corporate bankruptcy from accounting data, 102–104
- Fiscal policy, 267
- Fisher unit root test, 251n4
- Fixed and random effect models, 246
- Flows, 219
- Framework, 172–173
- Friedman's philosophy, 83
- Future technological development, 128
- Gehan-Wilcoxon statistics, 114
- Gender equality, 15
 - cross-country differences in gender equality promotion, 224
- Genuine intentions, 149
- Global Innovation Index (GII), 132
- Goals, 306
- Golden rule of thumb, 279–280
- Good governance, 134
- Green adaptive ability, 140n2
- Green corporate strategies, 301
- Green distribution and packaging, 152
- Green innovations, 129–133, 302
- Green logistics practices (GLP), 148–149, 151–153
 - drivers, 151
 - perceived importance and adoption rate, 157, 160–162
- Green manufacturing, 152
- Green process innovation, 132
- Green product innovation, 132, 134
- Green reasoning, 150
- Greenhouse gas (GHG), 12
- Greenwashing, 149
- Hangzhou Summit, 129
- Harmonized European Time Use Survey (HETUS), 196
- Hausman test, 246
- Hazard
 - models, 103
 - rates, 113, 124n5
- Hazard ratio (HR), 118, 121
- HIV, 16
- Human capital, 238, 275
 - data and methodological framework, 242–244
 - investment, 241
 - literature review, 239–242
 - measures, 241
 - nexus, 240
 - results, 244–249
- Human resource management (HRM), 174
- Humanity, 12
- Hunger, 15

- Implementation gap, 164
- Income quintile share ratio, 268#1
- Index of human capital, 242
- Industrial policy, 138
- Inequality, 259–262
 - in Europe, 258–259
- Information technology, 150
- Innovation
 - activities at level of companies, 133–137
 - governance, 136
 - for greener and profitable future, 128–129
 - performance and green, 129–133
 - policy for green, 137–139
- Innovation Action Plan, 129
- Institutional
 - environment, 241
 - theory, 67
- Intangible assets, 257
- Inter-household transfers, 223
- Inter-Ministerial Working Group on Development Policies, 308–309
- Inter-vivos transfers, 214
- Intergenerational transfers, 210
 - cross-country differences in intergenerational transfer systems, 224
- International Energy Agency (IEA), 242
- Intra-household transfers, 223
- Invention-oriented policies, 138
- Investment Plan for Europe, 23
- Investment(s)
 - in education, 259–262
 - in education and training, 263
- Irreversibility of capital depletion, 86

- Jabber, 135
- Jasper, 135
- Johannesburg Declaration on Sustainable Development, 17
- Journal of Business Ethics*, 64–65, 67–68, 73
- Journals analysis and references, 64–68

- Kyoto agreement, 14
- Kyoto protocol, 12–13, 20

- Labor income, 195–196, 220–222
 - profile, 213
- Law and economics scholarship, synthesis of, 279

- Legal system, 278–279
- Leverage choices, 115
- Liberal welfare regimes, 215–216
- Life cycle deficit (LCD), 193, 210, 219, 224, 227–228
- Life cycle surplus (LCS), 194, 219
- Life cycle theory, 212–213
- Life tables, 114, 123
- “Limits to growth”, 297–298, 303–304
- Lisbon goals, 19
- Logistics services, 148
- Logistics-service providers (LSPs), 148–150
- Logit/Probit models, 103

- Malaria, 16
- Market(ing)
 - failures, 279–280
 - marketing/consumer issues related to CSR, 67
- Maternal health, 16
- Maximum likelihood regression model, 109
- Mediterranean regime, 216–217
- Megatrends, 307–308
- Millennium Development Goals (MDG), 13–15, 297
- Mincer equation, 242
- Mission-oriented policies, 137–138
- Mixed-methods approach, 254
- Modern economic theory, 213
- Motives
 - for corporate sustainability strategies, 89–90
 - for reallocation and direction of flows, 214–215
- Multilateral approach, 17
- Mutual reinforcement, 255

- National development strategy, 306
 - internalizing 2030 Agenda into, 306–307
- National Innovation System approach (NIS approach), 138
- National Time Transfer Accounts (NTTA), 194
- National Time Transfer Accounts dependency ratio (NttaDR), 200, 202–204
- National Transfers Accounts (NTA), 192, 210–211

- dependency indicators, 198–200
- market part of economy, 194–200
- methodological framework, 194, 218–224
- methodology, 210–211
- results, 200–204, 224–230
- theoretical background, 211–215
- unpaid work, 196–198
- National Transfers Accounts dependency ratio (NtaDR), 192, 199–202
- Natural capital/planet, 84–85
- Natural resources, 20–21, 85
- Neo-classical economic growth models, 238
- Net public transfers, 222
- New EU members
 - progress toward SDGs in, 40–41
 - score value comparison, 41
 - SD indicators, 42–52
- New Universal Sustainable Development Agenda 2030, 304–305
- Newey West estimation, 249
- Non-substitutability of capital depletion, 86
- Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), 173, 176
- Nonlinearity of capital depletion, 86
- Old EU members
 - progress toward SDGs in, 40–41
 - score value comparison, 41
 - SD indicators, 42–52
- OpenDNS, 135
- Optimal capital structure, 113, 115
- Optimal vertical regulatory structure, 282–284
- Organizational-level CSR, 58
- “Our world, our dignity, our future”, 21
- Outsourcing non-core activities, 148
- Overlapping generations model (OLG model), 212
- Pareto-efficiency, 281
- Patents, 129–130
- Pecking order hypothesis, 109
- Performance analysis, 60
- Policy
 - framework, 21
 - policy-makers, 129
- Political
 - commitment and ownership, 309
 - political-legal framework, 89–90
- Politicians, 176
- Post-communist
 - countries, 230
 - regime, 216–217
- Poverty, 15
 - in Europe, 258–259
- Private ABRs, 223
- Private consumption, 221
- Private firms, 116
- Private reallocations, 223
- Private sector, 220
- Private transfers, 210, 214, 218–219, 223
- Proactive approach, 93
- Proactive strategies, 88
- Probit model, 103
- Profit, planet and people approach (3P approach), 12
- Profit-driven companies, 302
- Profitability, 91
- Program budget, 309
- Public concern, 90
- Public consumption, 221–222
- Public education, 257
- Public financing of education, 263
- Public goods, 280
- Public intangible capital, 255, 257
- Public policy-makers, 176
- Public reallocations, 222–223
- Public sector, 220
- Public transfers, 210, 219
 - inflows and outflows, 222–223
- Quality of education, 48
- Race-to-the-bottom effect, 282
- Reactive strategies, 88
- Reallocations, 214–215
- Regulation, 89–90
- Regulators, 89–90
- Regulatory intervention, 279
- Reputation, 67
- Research and development (R&D), 128–129
 - expenditure, 131
- Research policy, 138
- Rest of the world (ROW), 220
- Romanian system, 232*n*1
- Rule of law
 - degradation, 285–287
 - economic efficiency and wealth maximization, 280–281

- economics of federalism and optimal vertical regulatory structure, 282–284
- golden rule of thumb, 279–280
- “governance and ensuring policy coherence at all levels”, 289
- over-regulation and degradation of, 272–275
- over-regulation and excessive regulatory activity, 284–285
- reflection paper on sustainable development goals, 287–289
- sustainable development and role of legal system, 278–279
- Sustainable Europe in 2030, 287
- synthesis of law and economics scholarship, 279
- theoretical mechanisms at work, 275–278
- Rule-of-thumb truncation, 109
- Scenarios, 307–308
- Science
 - mapping, 60
 - policy, 138
- Service-oriented firms, 302
- Shareholder value, 67
- Slovenian accounting standards, 124n1
- Slovenian judiciary, 286
- Slovenian Research Agency, 6
- Social capital, 257
 - social capital/people, 85–86
- Social cohesion, 254
- Social component, 303–304
- Social consequences (SOC consequences), 178
- Social development, 258
- Social equality, 255
- Social exchange theory, 173–174
- Social issues in strategic management, 88–89
- Social sustainability, 259–262 (see also Corporate sustainability)
 - education and social aspects of sustainable development in Europe, 258
 - education investment and role of state, 263–265
 - inequality and poverty in Europe, 258–259
 - investment in education, well-being, inequality and social sustainability, 259–262
 - policy implications, 265–268
 - reinforcement, 255
 - theoretical background, 255–258
- Social-democratic welfare regimes, 215–216
- Socially sustainable companies, 85–86
- Socio-economic development, 22
- Sound innovation governance at policy level, 137
- Specialization, 275
- Stakeholders, 3–4, 71, 176–178
 - theory, 89
- Stockholm conference (see United Nations Conference on Human Environment)
- Strategic CSR, 57–60
 - co-word analysis, 68–71
 - data acquisition and preparation, 61–62
 - data analysis, 62
 - general overview of papers on, 62–64
 - leading journals analysis and references, 64–68
 - methods, 60–61
 - research and analysis, 62–64
- Strategic management
 - environmental issues in, 87–88
 - need for inclusion of sustainability in, 86–87
 - social issues in, 88–89
- Strategic Management Journal*, 65
- Strategic Management: A Stakeholder Approach*, 65
- Strategic orientations, 306
- Strategic priorities, 306
- Students, 176
- Substantial growth, 63
- Sustainability, 1–3, 70, 148, 172, 192, 238
 - challenges on path toward sustainability for EU, 3–4
 - dimensions, 174–175, 183
 - drivers, 175–176, 183
 - need for inclusion of sustainability in strategic management, 86–87
 - practices, 148
 - spheres, 176–178
 - sustainability–human capital nexus, 239
- Sustainable consumption, 179–180

- Sustainable development (SD), 12, 32, 82, 254–255, 273, 278–279
 - challenges in progress toward sustainable development in EU, 24–26
 - education and social aspects of sustainable development in Europe, 258
 - at global level, 13–18
 - indicators with biggest difference between old and new EU members, 42–52
 - key characteristics of, 297
 - as policy priority in EU, 18–24
 - tridimensional concept, 298
- Sustainable Development Agenda, 14, 16–17
- Sustainable development goals (SDG), 12, 32, 128, 254, 281, 297
 - building SDGs partnerships, 308–309
 - in EU and challenges in implementation, 12–13
 - EU from, 32–34
 - EU progress toward, 32–33
 - with moderate movement, 34–36
 - with moderate progress, 37–40
 - progress toward SDGs in old and new EU members, 40–41
 - reflection paper on, 287–289
 - score value comparison, 41
 - SDG Agenda, 304–306
 - SDG11, 38
 - SDG2, 38
 - SDG7, 39
 - with significant progress, 33–34
 - timeline of key events, 14
- Sustainable economic development, 256
- “Sustainable Europe for a better world, A” strategy, 19
- Sustainable Europe in 2030, 287
- Sustainable future, 298
 - ambitious goals and wide cross-country differences, 298–300
 - joint action of consumers and companies toward, 300–303
 - limits to growth and social component, 303–304
 - policy challenges, 304–310
- Sustainable growth, 23
- Sustainable indebtedness, 111
- Sustainable market(ing), 174
 - exchange, 173–174, 183
 - framework, 177
 - methodology, 178–179
 - proposition of framework, 173
 - results, 179–182
 - sustainability dimensions, 174–175
 - sustainability drivers, 175–176
 - sustainability spheres and stakeholders, 176–178
- Sustainable production, 180–181
- System of National Accounts (SNA), 192
- System-oriented policies, 138
- “Take-make-consume-dispose” principle, 82
- “Take-make-dispose” linear approach, 25
- Target capital structure, 114–115
- Technical cycle of economy, 24
- Technology, 275
 - policy, 138
- Third-party logistics providers (3PLs), 150
- Top management
 - commitment, 90
 - journals, 68
- Top-down and integrated approach, 308
- Trade-off theory, 109
- Transaction costs, 276–278
- Transfer systems, 217–218
- Treaty of Amsterdam, 19
- Treaty of European Union (TFEU), 273
- Triple bottom line (TBL), 2–3, 82, 84
- UN Millennium Campaign, 14
- United Nation (UN), 18, 32
 - 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, 255
 - United Nations Conference on Human Environment, 12
- Universal primary education, 15
- Unpaid work, 196–198
- Vector error correction model, 246, 249
- Volunteers, 176
- Wealth maximization, 280–281
- Web of Science (WoS), 59, 61–62, 75
- Webex, 135
- Welfare regimes, 211, 215

- characteristics, 216–217
- linkage between transfer systems and, 217–218
- typology of welfare regimes in Europe, 215–216
- Well-being, 259–262
- White test, 246
- Whole-of-government approach, 308
- World's Justice Project's Rule of Law Index, 285
- Z-score, 103