

Index

- Ad-hoc
 - company immersion program, 34
 - semi-structured interviews, 158
- Administrative tasks, 203
- Affordable loss principle, 54
- Alliance, 84–85
- Auctoritas*, 3, 31–32

- Bi-directional confidence, 10
- Bird-in-hand principle, 53
- Board of directors (BoD), 4, 22, 23, 34, 132, 161, 162, 201, 206
- ‘Brother–sister siblings’ relationships, 157–158
- Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS), 61, 65
- Business model innovations, 50–53, 55–56

- Case Firm, 46–48
- Child-rearing, 54–55
- Co-evolution, 13–14
- Collaboration & collegiality, 12–13
- Collaborative negotiation (see Integrative negotiation)
- Competitive negotiation (see Distributive negotiation)
- Confidence, 9–12
- Consensus building, 31–32, 205
- Consulting, 2, 4, 7, 23, 26, 32, 33, 40, 168
- Corporate boards, female directors in, 24
- Corporate governance executive program, 34
- Crazy-quilt principle, 53
- Culture, 114
- Current Population Survey (CPS), 63

- Daughters, 136
 - as engaged owners, 146–147
 - in governance roles, 143–146
 - in operating roles, 141–143
 - as owners, 138–141
- Daughters inclusion, 114
 - Cecilia and David’s succession case, 118–120
 - Chloe’s succession case, 116–118
 - gender challenge in family business succession, 114–115
 - Katia and Mark’s succession case, 120–122
 - Lea and Luke’s succession case, 124–127
 - Melinda and John’s succession case, 127–129
 - Sophie and Laurent’s succession case, 123–124
 - succession cases, 116
- Daughters’ inclusion challenge, 1
 - conditions, 3
 - families-in-business, 1, 2
 - women inclusive environment, 4–14
- Decorative SFO, 210–211
- Deinstitutionalization of marriage, 63–65
- Denomination of Controlled Origin (D. O. C.), 159
- Descriptive stereotypes, 138–139
- Distributive negotiation, 78
- Dyad’s shared leadership, 164
 - dimensions strengthening, 164–169
 - dimensions weakening, 169–174
- Dynasty, 192
 - analysis and findings, 197–201

- female next-generation members, 196
- motivation to SFO, 201–202
- new business ventures, 203–206
- SFO activities, 202–203
- SFO global cases, 201
- SFO governance structures, 206–207
- SFO strategy and vision, 207–211
- SFO typologies, 208, 213
- SFOs, 193–195
- The SFO as a Legacy School, 207
- The SFO as an Entrepreneurship School, 209
- The SFO as a Community School, 210
- The SFO as an Investment Arm (Decorative SFO), 210–211
- women leadership and involvement in SFOs, 195–196

- Educational and employment opportunities, 65–66
- Effectuation theory, 50–53
- Emotional interdependence, 78
- Engaged owners, 136
- Entrepreneurs, 205
- Entrepreneurship strong-minded actions, 203
- Ethnographic field studies, 45
- Event-time techniques, 29
- Evidence of competence strategy, 85–86
- External individuals, sharing emotions with, 99–102

- Family business, 22, 27*n*3, 44, 96, 114, 136–137, 158–159
 - gender challenge in, 114–115
 - inclusive trends, 215–220
 - social sharing of emotions in, 99–108
 - threatened identities in, 97–98
 - women in, 24–26

- Family enterprise, 136, 137, 143, 144
- Family firms
 - changing age of unpaid family firm women workers, 70–72
 - changing nature of American economy, 67–68
 - CPS, 66–67
 - deinstitutionalization of marriage, 63–65
 - economic shocks and trends, 66
 - educational and employment opportunities, 65–66
 - gender-equality drive for change, 65–66
 - industry variations in unpaid family firm women workers, 72–73
 - unpaid family firm women workers, 69–70
 - unpaid family workers, 68–69
 - women's in, 62
- Family members, 10
 - sharing emotions with, 102–104
- Family offices, 185, 194
- Family-in-business, 1, 2, 25–26, 10, 192, 205
- Family-like relationship, 56
- Family-related events, 203
- Female anthropological traits, 32–33
- Female board member identity
 - construction, 36–38
 - evolution, 38–39
- Female boardroom capital
 - development framework, 31
 - Auctoritas* 31–32
 - consensus building, 31–32
 - female anthropological traits' significance and impact, 32–33
 - phases of, 33–39
 - Potestas*, 31–32
- Female directors in corporate boards, 24
- Feminine management, 158

- Finnish family offices (FFOs), 178
 Finnish females, 178
 Founding house concept, 56–57
 Freedom & acceptance, 8–9

 Gender challenge in family business succession, 114–115
 Gender-equality, 65–66
 Genuine relationships, 181
 Governing owners, 136
 Great Recession, 69

 Hindu Undivided Family (HUF), 80
 Household, 44
 inclusiveness in, 56–58
 Householding perspective, 44–45
 business model innovations, 50–53
 effectuation theory, 50–53
 narrative interpretations, 45–46
 Sanada's family, 46–47 stable relationship and collecting narrative, 48
 Householding practices, 53 business model innovation and, 55–56 of child-rearing, 54–55 of collaborative survival, 53–54

 Identity, 140
 Inbetweener approach, 26
 Inclusion, 1
 Inclusiveness in householding, 56
 family-like relationship, 56
 leadership as role in house, 56–58
 Inspire and nurture family business stewardship, 33–36
 Integrative negotiation, 78
 Interpersonal cognition, 8
 Investment-focused activities, 202

 Kinship, 44–45

 Leadership as role in house, 56–58
 (see also Shared leadership)

 Learning, 6–8
 Love, 5–6

 Masculine management, 158
 “Mimesis de praxis” approach, 37
 Multi-family offices or Multiple-family offices (MFOs), 178, 181, 194

 Negotiation, 78 challenges, 82–84
 classification of strategies, 90 data at glance, 81
 gender differences in, 78–79 opportunities and challenges for women in, 80 strategies to overcoming challenges in, 84–88
 Next-generation women, 23
 North American Industry Classification System (NAICS), 28
 Nvivo software, 115

 Operating owners, 136
 Owners' office, 185
 Ownership, 2–4, 7, 17, 21–22, 29, 31, 32, 34–36, 56–57, 124, 131, 132, 136–140, 146, 149, 161, 186, 200–201, 217, 219–220
 Ownership identity, 96, 97, 99

 Positive stereotypes, 88
 Potestas, 31–32
 Power, 2, 7, 24, 31, 35–36, 40, 82–86, 88, 107, 120, 162, 185, 194
 Prescriptive stereotypes, 138–139

 Redundant human resources, 56
 Role conflict, 83–84
 Responsible owners, 8, 17, 35, 185, 203, 207–209, 212, 219
 Role modeling, 88, 90

- Senior leadership, 143
- Sensemaking process, 96
- “Shadow of the future, The”, 10
- Shared leadership, 114, 156
 - BoD, 161, 162
 - Dyad’s shared leadership, 164–174
 - family business, 158–159
 - financial management of family business, 160
 - masculine management, 158
 - next generation of family members, 163–164
 - and siblings relationships, 156–157
- Sharing partners, 99, 100
- Siblings relationships, 156–157, 165, 171
- Single-family offices (SFOs), 178–179, 181–182, 192–195
 - activities, 202–203
 - global cases, 201
 - governance structures, 206–207
 - motivation to SFO, 201–202
 - new business ventures, 203–206
 - strategy and vision, 207–211
 - typologies, 208, 213
 - women leadership and involvement in, 195–196
- Social interaction, 180–181
- Social leaders, 210
- Social sharing of emotions, 98–99
 - family business system on, 96–97
 - in family businesses, 99–108
 - threatened identities in family business, 97–98
- Sound practice-oriented training approach, 23
- Spanish Gender Equality Act, 29
- Stewardship, 178
- Stewardship theory, 179–180
 - family office concept, 185
 - Finnish SFOs, 183
 - SFO and activities, 181–182, 186
 - social interaction, 180–181
 - theory-assisted empirical exploration, 183
 - trust, 187
 - trust building, 180–181
- Strategic business units (SBUs), 34
- Top management team (TMT), 196
- Trust, 187
 - building, 180–181
- Unpaid family firm women workers, 69–70
 - changing age of, 70–72
 - industry variations in, 72–73
- US Current Population Survey (CPS), 61
- “Win-lose” compromises, 78
- “Win-win” compromises, 78
- Women boardroom capital development, 25–26
- Women directors’ governance succession
 - analysis, 27–29
 - data and findings, 30
 - female boardroom capital development framework, 31–39
 - female directors in corporate boards, 24
 - inbetweener approach, 26
 - next-generation women, 23
 - sample data, 27
 - women in family business, 24–26
- Women in family business, 24–26
- Women in family enterprise daughters, 136
 - daughters as engaged owners, 146–147
 - daughters as owners, 138–141
 - daughters in governance roles, 143–146

daughters in operating roles, 141–143
Women inclusive environment, 4
co-evolution, 13–14
collaboration & collegiality, 12–13

confidence, 9–12
freedom & acceptance, 8–9
learning, 6–8
love, 5–6