Index

Action research model (Deming), 6
Adventures program, 51–52
After-school programs,
Ages of HPS respondents, 90
Anxiety, 101–106

Backpack Buddies program, 4
Baylor Collaborative on Hunger and Poverty (BCHP), 144
Black families, 85
Black homeschoolers, 92
Black parents, 91
Black students, 84
Brown v. Board of Education, 92
Burnout, 65–66

Cafeteria director and staff, 8
Canvas, 155, 187
Caring School Community, 188
Caring teacher–student relationships, 46
Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools (CMS), 172, 175
  Board of Education, 172
Child nutrition staff, 8
Childhood hunger, 140–141
Children, 103
ClassDojo, 185
ClassTag, 186
Cognia Climate-Culture Survey for Students and Teachers, 10, 12–13
Collaboration, 162
Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional Learning (CASEL), 23–25, 42 framework, 45
Colonias, 147
Communication
  spreadsheets, 183 tools, 62–63
Community projects, 144–145 teams, 8
Connection, 175
Core values, 178
Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Securities Act, 146
COVID-19, 124 infections, 60
  pandemic, 3, 60, 70, 84, 93, 100, 124–125, 139–140, 172 recommendations, 75–78 relief measures, 142 shift to new skill sets, 60–65 teaching profession, 65–75
  virus, 40

Digital natives, 100
Digital tools, 27
Disability categories, 155 approach to planning, 157–158 Disadvantaged learners, 7 Distance learning, 153, 155 determination of distance learning services & guiding questions script, 164–166

Education, 85, 104, 126
Educational institutions, 133
Educational technology, 100
Educator health concerns, 69–70
Educators, 178
Electronic meal replacement benefits, 142–143
Elementary school children, 105

Emergency Meals-to-You (eMTY), 144
Emotional intelligence, 41
Emotional wellness, 15
Emotions, 48, 178
End of Course tests (EOC tests), 7
Equity, 179
Exceptional Children (EC), 154

Face-to-face learning, 8
Families, 84, 186
Families First Coronavirus Act (FFCA), 142
Food banks and pantries, 145–146
Food insecurity, 140
Free appropriate public education (FAPE), 154, 156, 161, 162
Freedom Life Church, 147

Google Chat, 126
Google Hangout, 133
Google Scholar, 127
Great Recession, 93

Homeschool, 84
Homeschoolers, 84
  typologies, 86
Homeschooling, 84–85
  among black families, 90–92 definitions and typologies, 85–86 implications, 93–94
  trends in, 86–90
Household Pulse Survey (HPS), 84
Hybrid and online instruction, 63–64

In-person learning, 186
Individualized Education Program (IEP), 154, 156 implementing IEP in COVID environment, 158–159 Individuals with Disability Education Act (IDEA), 154 foundational principles, 154 next generation of tool, 164–165
Inequalities disparity, 133
Instructional technology (IT), 128 lack of, 133
Isolation, 40

K-12
  educators, 40
  schools, 139
  teaching and learning, 100
Kahoot, 27

Learning management systems (LMS), 26, 62
Learning new technology, 60–62
Local government fills gaps, 146–148

Maslow's Hierarchy
  in education, 3 of Needs, 2, 7–9
Meals-To-You program, 144
Measure of Academic Progress test (MAP test), 184
Medical demands and skills, 64–65
Mental and physical wellbeing to support teachers, 75–76
Microsoft teams, 61
Mixed reality simulations (MRS), 49–51
Mother teachers, 132
Mursion, 50

National Center for Educational Statistics (NCES), 85
National Panel Study of Coronavirus Pandemic (NPSC-19), 102
National School Board, 73
National School Lunch Program (NSLP), 141
Nearpod, 27
No Child Left Behind Act, 163
"Normalcy" pattern for virtual learning, 24
North Carolina Department of Public Instruction (NCDPI), 7
Nutrition, 140

Online education, 124
  tools, 133
Online instruction, challenges with, 27–29
Online learning, 6, 60, 100 psychological effects, 104 Online teaching and learning, 2, 101 (see also Social emotional learning (SEL)) limitations, 8 literature, 2–3 recommendations for future studies, 16 results, 8–15 study design and methodology, 6–7 study scope, 7–8 theory, 4–6

Pakistan, 124
Pandemic, 5, 40, 124
  online learning, 106
  trends, 87–90
Pandemic electronic meal replacement benefits (P-EBT), 142–143 Pandemic whiplash, 172 lasting changes, 185–190 lens of elementary school principal, 173–178 success and shifting to a whole child approach, 179–185 Parental support, 106
Parental/family concerns and impact on educators, 71–73
Parents, 164
  support, 112
Partnerships, 146–147
Perceptions of Online Teaching and Learning Instrument (POTLI), 116–117 follow-up survey, 118 responses to survey, 119–122
Physical wellness, 5
Plan–do–study–act (PDSA), 6
Playbook, 160–164
Positive school learning environments, 46
Pre-pandemic trends, 86–87
Pre-service teachers, 60
Presentation platforms, 26
Private school divide, 133
Professional development, 77–78
Professional learning community (PLC), 177
Programs for families, 42
Promoting alternative thinking strategies (PATHS), 48–49
Proportionate time to maximize general education, 159
Public school divide, 133
Public-school educators, 153

Race/ethnicity, 88–89
Rand Corporation study, 67
Relationships skills, 42
Remind, 185
Remote learning, 85, 182
Responsible decision making, 42
Retention, 65
RingCentral, 61
Rio Grande Valley (RGV), 147
Rural schoolchildren, 132

"S.A.F.E." program, 44
School Breakfast Program (SBP), 141
School choice, 88
School closures, 132, 140 additional barriers faced by families, 141 community projects, 144–145
  electronic meal replacement benefits, 142–143
  food banks and pantries, 145–146
  increased childhood hunger, 140–141 increases in supplemental nutrition assistance program benefits, 143–144
  local government fills gaps, 146–148
  Meals-To-You program, 144

school districts, 145
state and federal programs, 142–144 waivers provided flexibility, 142
School districts, 145
School leadership, 177
School lockdowns, 40
School-aged students, 93
School-based interventions, 42
Schoolchildren, 125 challenges, 128–131 impact of COVID-19 on, 125 and families during pandemic, 132 lack of IT skills and technology poverty, 133
literature review, 125–127
methodology, 127–128 private and public school divide, 133 rural schoolchildren and social norms, 132 thematic analysis, 128
SeeSaw, 185
Self-awareness, 42
Self-control unit, 49
Self-management, 42
Service providers, 159
Simulation specialist, 50
Social awareness, 42
Social distancing, 40
Social emotional (SE), 40, 43 competency instruction, 47–48 Social emotional learning (SEL), 22, 40, 188 application of SEL model, 45–48 challenges with online instruction, 27–29 competencies, 45
framework, 46
lessons learned, 33–35 norms, 29–30
planning for learning, 23–26 programming, 42 programs, 48–52 research on, 23
"S.A.F.E." program, 44
student experiences with digital tools, 26–27
support, 30–32
teacher impact, 32–33
Social Emotional Teacher, 22
Social isolation, 5
Social norms, 132
Social-emotional learning opportunities, 10
Social-emotional wellness, 184
Socioeconomic status, 89–90
South Texas Community Partnership, 147–148
South Texas Juvenile Diabetes Association (STJDA), 147
Special education, 154
teachers, 159
Specially designed instruction (SDI), 154
State educational agency (SEA), 161 Student(s), 21–22
of color, 91
in elementary school grades, 105 experiences with digital tools, 26–27
Students with disabilities (SWD), 154–157
Sub-groups, 7, 14
Sub-questions (SQs), 6
Summer Food Service Program (SFSP), 147
Summer Meals-to-You program (sMTY program), 144
Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), 143 increases in supplemental nutrition assistance program benefits, 143–144
Swansboro High School (SHS), 4–9 Maslow's strategies, 15 social-emotional learning opportunities at, 10

Teach-LivE, 50
Teacher burnout, 65
  pre-COVID and cost on profession, 66
Teacher(s), 60
  early days, 100–101 findings, 110–111
  implications, 106–107
  literature review, 100–107
  methods, 108–110 modifications in teacher preparation programs, 76–77 parental roles and anxiety, 101–106 perceptions on parental engagement, 100 research study, 107 study overview, 107 workload impacts, 70–71
Teaching profession, 65
  educator health concerns, 69–70
  parental/family concerns and impact on educators, 71–73
  replacing teachers during COVID era, 66–67 teacher burnout pre-COVID and cost on profession, 66 teacher perceptions, 73–75 teacher workload impacts, 70–71
Technological pedagogical content knowledge (TPACK), 76–77 Technology, 26, 60, 100 poverty, 128, 133 technology-based interventions, 51–52
Texas Education Agency (TEA), 158
Transparency, 177

US Department of Agriculture (USDA), 142

Van Galen's typology, 86
Virtual counseling sessions, 5, 10
Virtual instruction, 60
Virtual learning, 25, 106 experiences, 27

Wellbeing, 69
Whole child approach, 179–185
World Health Organization (WHO), 124

Zoom, 61, 126, 133
Zoom Bombings, 24, 61