INDEX

“Americans with Disabilities Act”, 1
Artifacts, 28

Benefits and Compensation Administration (B/C Admin), 87

“Black box” system, 57–58
“Black Box” theory, 19–20
“Bricks of Boston” activity, 77–79

Business Roundtable, 17
Business strategy, 3, 26, 91

“C” leadership theory, 18, 21
envision style behaviors, 98 research, 97 task focused, 99
traditional leadership theory vs., 18–21

“Carbon footprint” reduction, 81
“Cash and fear” approach, 54
“Casual Friday”, 26–27

Classic physics, 97
Collective cultures, 31
Collectivism, 28–29

“Community Woes”, 43–44
Corporate culture elements, 28
Corporate strategy, 3
“Country culture”, 26

Creative thinking, 21, 55
“black box” system, 57–58
differences between creativity and innovation, 56
duality thinking, 58–59
Creativity, differences between innovation and, 56
Critical thinking skills, 28

Decision making in HR, 22
Delta Group Network, 93
Demographics, 45
Directors, 31
“Duality plus thinking”, 58–59
duality thinking, 58–59

Employees, recruitment and development system for, 93
HR department, 95
staff needs, 94

Employment development strategy, 7 manager, 14
strategy, 7

ESG development and planning, 88–89

Espoused values, 28
Executive Committee, 33
Executive Team, 33–34

Financial strength, 6 “Five Why” approach, 35
clarifying situation, 36 continue to narrow focus of discussion, 36 getting closure to identification of cause of problem, 36–37 pose unacceptable situation, 35–36 probe deeper, 36

“Green Climate” initiatives, 88
Green strategies, 81–82

HR staff development
IDP for strategic HR team members, 40–41 levels of evaluation of IDPs, 50
motivation of staff, 40
nontraditional challenges, 39
primary elements of good IDP, 45–47
project-centered learning activity for individuals, 48–49
reward systems, 52–54
scenarios for strategic thinking skills development of HR talent, 41–45 strategic HR team, 40
team project-centered learning activity, 47, 51–52
tracking HR development plans, 49–50
HR talent development scenarios common HR functions, 87
ESG development and planning, 88–89
queries, 91–92
strategic challenge to human resources, 89–90
strategic HR focus on strategy, 90–91
Human resources (HR) building strategic HR teams, 8–11
department, 1–3	house corporate strategy, 4
new HR strategy, 5
roles of HR managers, 7
scenarios for strategic thinking skills development of HR talent, 41–45 strategic role of V. P. of HR, 7–8 strategic thinking, behaviors, and actions, 4–7
team, 3–4, 82
types of strategic decisions, 3
Human Resources Information Services (HRIS), 5–6
In-depth leadership programs, 30 Inclusive stakeholder satisfaction system
analysis of stakeholder value creation, 68–69
“death” of organization, 70–73
identifying key stakeholders, 62
linking mission, goals, and strategy, 65–68
measuring stakeholder satisfaction, 73–74
proposed model for, 69–70
stakeholder satisfaction, 62–65
Individual cultures, 31
Individual development plan (IDP), 40–41 levels of evaluation, 50
primary elements of good IDP, 45–47
for strategic HR team members, 40–41
team project-centered learning activity, 47, 51–52
Individualism, 28–29
Innovation, differences between creativity and, 56
Internal analysis, 30
Intrinsic rewards, 40
Job descriptions, 66
Key success factors (KSFs), 46, 66–67
Leadership and the New Science, 97
Leadership styles, 97
Legal strategy, 7
“Lose/win” task, 19
Maintenance Department, 33
Management theories, 97
Modern physics, 97
Motivation of staff, 40
“New HR” integration within organization “bricks of Boston”, 77–79
changes from HR, 75
high-quality mission statement, 77 workable mission statement, 76
Non-profit organizations, 3–4
Observation, 30–31
Organizational culture, 26–27
on HR strategies, 25–29
Outsourcing manager, 6–7
Problem-solving scenarios, 41–45
Profit organizations, 3–4
Project-centered learning activity for individuals, 48–49
Quantum mechanics physics, 97
Recruitment and development system for employees, 93
HR department, 95
staff needs, 94
Reward systems, 52–54
“Rules of Road”, 32, 34
Security strategy, 7
Senior manager, 31
Shared basic assumptions, 28
Shareholders, 6, 82
“Showcase” reward approach, 53
“Smart phone”, 56
Spina, Lori J., 93, 101–102
“Spiral thinking”, 57–59
Staff motivation, 40
Stakeholder
“duality thinking” to meet Stakeholder needs, 58–59
identification, 62
identifying key, 62
over-simplified stakeholder needs, 18 value creation, 68–69
Stakeholder Satisfaction System (SSS), 61, 82
analysis of stakeholder value creation, 68–69
“death” of organization, 70–73
green strategies, 81–82
human resources team, 82
identifying key stakeholders, 62
linking mission, goals, and strategy, 65–68
measuring stakeholder satisfaction, 73–74
proposed model for, 69–70
shareholders, 82
stakeholder satisfaction, 62–65
win/lose management style, 83
Strategic business unit (SBU), 91
Strategic cultural considerations for HR business strategies for organization, 28 organizational cultures on HR strategies, 25–29
root causes of cultural challenges, 29–37 Strategic HR
focus on strategy, 90–91
strategic connections to HR functions, 13
synergistic team structure, 14–15
team, 40
win/win thinking, 15–16
Strategic thinking, 4 behaviors, and actions, 4–7
community woes, 43–44
lost market share, 41–43
scenarios for strategic thinking skills development of HR talent, 41–45 strategic challenge for human resources, 44–45 Success, 18
Succession strategy, 7
Suppliers, 6
Synergistic team structure, 14–15
“Task focused” manager, 20–21
Team project-centered learning activity, 47
for all IDPs, 51–52
revisiting development activities, 51–52
Texas State Technical College, 64
Tracking HR development plans,
49–50
Traditional leadership theory,
18–21
Traditional management theory models, 18
Transparency, 52
Two forces theory, 71
Unified leadership model, 97
V. P. of HR, 1
strategic role of, 7–8 Value, rarity, imitated, organize method (VRIO method), 30
Wall Street Journal, The, 17
Wheatley, Margaret, 97
Win/Lose communication styles, 23
Win/lose management style, 19, 83
Win/win thinking, 15–16
“Win/win” leadership
“C” leadership theory, 18
levels of thinking for win/win managers, 23–24
managements skills, 21–23
purpose for organizations, 17–18
traditional leadership theory vs.
“C” leadership theory,
18–21
Wortman, Max, 97