

Index

- American Express Global Business Travel, 99
- Antico Palazzo dei Vescovi*, 156
- Assessment of changes in company's ratings and rankings over time (ARR), 221–222
- Assessment of Web Convergence (AWC), 222
- Attitudes, 216–217
- Attributes, 216–217

- Benefits, 216–217
- Big Data, 82–83
- Big Data Analytics (BDA), 73–74
- Big Five Model, 34
- Brand, 93
 - alignment in tourism studies, 222
 - associations, 216
 - communication, 226–227
 - equity, 216–217
 - identity, 214, 216, 218
 - image, 216–218
 - loyalty, 93
 - management, 153
 - reputation, 214–215
- Brand association coverage (BAC), 224–225
- Brandsome. fi, 168
- Bridging management via 4.0 technology, 114–116

- Carlson Wagonlit Travel (CWT), 99
- Carrying capacity, 201–202
- Case study of museums, 154
- Catastrophic losses, 113
- Cognitive alignment, 225–226
- Cognitive disalignment, 226
- Communication, 92, 176–177
 - of spa enterprises on social networks, 183–185
 - of spa enterprises on website, 179–183
- Comparison with industry competitors (CIC), 221–222
- Compass Airlines, 116–117
- Constituent Likelihood Automatic Word Tagging System (CLAWS4), 224
- Consumer behavior, 30
 - shift and impact on online reputation management, 136–138
- Consumer brand associations
 - alignment (CBAA), 224–225
 - emerging effects of combining indicators, 225–227
- Consumer brand associations matching (CBAM), 224–225
- Consumer brand knowledge, 216
- Consumption, 6–7
- Conversation Prism 5.0, 13
- Coronavirus pandemic, 117
- Corporate reputation
 - and effects on companies, 53–56
 - of tourism companies, 58–59
- COVID-19
 - changes in tourists' behavior, 133–136
 - economy impact, 132–133
 - pandemic, 52
 - pandemic on reading reviews, 138–145
 - and tourism, 132–138
- Credibility, 12–13
- Cultural heritage, 152

- Data analysis, 60, 169

- Data collection, 59–60, 168–169
- Data limitations, 169
- Data overview, 203–204
- Decision-making process, 31
- Density of visitors, 201–202
- Destination, 9
 - choice, 118–121
 - hygiene and safety, 136
 - managers, 73–74
- Destination management companies (DMC), 94, 99
- Determination of publication reach and readership (DPR), 221–222
- Digital channels, 52
- Digital entrepreneurial ecosystem (DEE), 79–80
 - and dynamic capabilities, 80–81
- Digital marketing, 112
- Digital technology, 79–80
- Digital-based research proposal, 223–225
- Digitalization, 80–81, 159
- Directly via messages (DM), 184
- Distribution chain, tourism
 - intermediaries and role in, 94–99
- Distribution channels, 136
- Dynamic capabilities theory, 80–81
- Economy and tourism, 132–133
- Electronic word-of-mouth (eWOM), 4, 13–14, 29–30, 52, 93, 165, 168
 - factors influencing contribution of eWOM and motivation, 41–43
 - and impact on consumer behavior in tourism, 34–41
 - methodology, 30–31
 - prevalent characteristics of examined eWOM studies, 31–34
 - results, 31–43
- Empowerment, 76–78
- Entrepreneurs, 78–79
- Entrepreneurship
 - and digital technology, 79–80
 - in tourism, 78–79
- European Union Directive (EU Directive), 95–96
- Evaluations, 219–221
- Expedia, 32
- Facebook, 100, 168, 183
- Fake reviews, 15
- Finland, social media usage in, 167–168
- Finnish DMOs, 168
- Flybe Airlines, 116–117
- Frequency of responses, 11
- Friendly relationship, 122
- Functional quality, 7
- Global Distribution Systems (GDS), 97
- Google, 100
- Healthcare services, 122
- Hierarchy of Effects model (HOE model), 55–56
- Holidays, 95
- Horizontal cognitive alignment, 226
- Hospitality, 112, 115, 164
 - hospitality 4.0, 123
 - social media in, 164–165
- Hotel's reputation measurement model (HREPM), 221–222
- Identification of the reputation landscape (IRL), 221–222
- Image, 92
- Increasing reputational scores (IRS), 221–222
- Industry 4.0, 112
 - adoption of 4.0 technologies, 122–123
 - findings, 118–123
 - literature review, 114–117
 - pre-and post-coronavirus and tourism, 123–124
 - research methodology, 117–118

- technologies, 113
- Information Acquisition Model (IAM), 34
- Information Communication Technologies (ICTs), 97, 214
- Innovation, 159
- Instagram, 100, 168, 184
- Institut National d'histoire de l'art* (INHA), 156
- Institut national du Patrimoine* (INP), 156
- Intermediaries
 - companies, 92
 - different platforms for reputation from intermediaries' perspective, 100–101
 - roles of intermediaries in online reputation creation in tourism ecosystem, 101–104
 - specifics of online reputation management of, 104–105
- Internet, 77
- Internet marketing communication, 177
 - data and methods, 178–179
 - literature review, 176–178
 - results, 179–189
- Interpretivism, 117
- Joint topic/sentiment model (JST model), 60
- Latent Dirichlet Allocation (LDA), 60
- Latent semantic analysis, 60
- Length of response, 11
- Linguistic clues, 14–15
- Linked Travel Arrangement, 95–96
- Manipulation strategies, 14–15
- Mass customization, 115
- Mass media, 6
- Media relations, 6
- Meeting/Incentives/Conventions–Congresses/Events–Exhibitions (MICE), 99
- Metric analysis, 203–204
- Museums, 152
 - literature review, 153–154
 - management, 208–209
 - method, 154–155
 - results, 155–159
- Negative online reviews, 10
- Netnography, 218
- Offline brand studies, 217–218
- Online Brand Reputation (OBR), 214–216
 - measurements, 225–227
 - in tourism studies, 219–222
- Online corporate reputation, 56–58
- Online evaluations, 5–6
- Online reputation (see also Corporate reputation), 165, 214
 - and empowerment, 76–78
 - importance of online reputation in tourism, 7–9
 - issues, 3–7
 - strategies in online reputation management and factors influencing effectiveness, 9–15
- Online reputation management (ORM), 73–76, 93, 112–113, 176, 221
 - consumer behavior shift and impact on, 136–138
 - different platforms for reputation from intermediaries' perspective, 100–101
 - roles of intermediaries in online reputation creation in tourism ecosystem, 101–104
 - specifics of online reputation management of intermediaries, 104–105
 - technologies and, 82–83
 - tools, 176
 - tourism companies' reputation, 92–94

- tourism intermediaries and role in distribution chain, 94–99
- Online reviews, 10
 - contributors, 5–6
- Online travel agencies (OTA), 52, 97–98
- Overcrowding in tourist destinations, 201–202
- Overpopulated destinations, avoidance of, 136
- Overtourism, 136

- Package Travel, 95–96
- Palazzo Buontalenti*, 156
- Palazzo de' Rossi*, 155–156
- Palazzo Sozzifanti (see Palazzo Buontalenti)
- Participation, 6–7
- Perceived credibility, 12–13
- Perceived quality, 7
- Pistoia Museums, 154–156
- Positive online reviews, 10
- Positive reviews, 75–76
- Post-COVID tourism, 116–117, 123–124
- Pre-COVID tourism, 116–117, 123–124
- Principal Component Analysis (PCA), 204
- Production, 6–7
- Professional congress organizers (PCO), 94, 99
- Public relations (PR), 6

- Reliability, 121
- Reputation, 4–6, 92–93, 152, 214
 - management, 74–75, 92–93, 153
 - strategies and tools to improve, 156–159
- Reputators, 215–216
- Retweet (RT), 199
- Review of ranking methodologies (RRM), 221–222
- Reviews, 29–30, 179, 183, 219, 221
- Risk management, 134

- San Salvatore Church* of 979, 156
- Sentiment analysis, 198–199
- Sentiment analysis scores (SAS), 203–204
- Service delivery, 134–135
- Service quality, 7
- Shelter-in-place orders, 116–117
- Slovakia, importance and management of reviews in online reputation of selected spa enterprises in, 185–189
- Small museums (SMs), 152–154
 - platforms, 154
- Snapchat, 168
- Social distance rules, 116–117
- Social listening, 7
- Social media, 6–7, 164, 214–215
 - companies, 93
 - issues of social media use in travel planning process, 166
 - marketing, 165
 - research design, 168–169
 - research findings, 169–171
 - tools, 13
 - in tourism and hospitality, 164–165
 - usage in Finland, 167–168
- Spa tourism enterprises, 176–178
- Spearman correlation coefficient, 139
- Speed of responses, 11
- Strategic planning, 121–122

- Technical quality, 7
- Thematic analysis, 118
- Tour operators, 95–97
- Tourism, 73
 - entrepreneurship in, 78–79
 - flow management, 200
 - implication, limitation, and suggestion for future research, 84
 - importance of online reputation in, 7–9
 - intermediaries and role in distribution chain, 94–99
 - online reputation and empowerment, 76–78

- online reputation management, 75–76
- reputation management, 74–75
- social media in, 164–165
- Tourism 4.0 technologies, 123
- Tourism academics, 202
- Tourism businesses, 81
- Tourism companies reputation, 92–94
 - aim and methodology, 94
- Tourism destination, 29–31, 112
 - managers, 83
- Tourist pressure, 198
 - influence of tourism pressure on
 - online reputation of destinations, 200–201
- Tourists-based proximity preferences, 114
- Tourists' behavior, changes in, 133–136
- Trans States Airlines, 116–117
- Transportation patterns, 135
- Travel, 95
 - agent/agency, 98
 - decision process, 166
 - issues of social media use in travel
 - planning process, 166
 - restrictions, 116–117
- Travel management company (TMC), 95, 99
- Travelers' behavior, 52
 - findings, 60–64
 - limitations and future research, 66–67
 - managerial implications, 66
 - methodology, 59–60
 - research questions, 59
 - theoretical background, 53–59
 - theoretical contribution, 65–66
- TripAdvisor, 14–15, 32, 93, 100–103
- Twitter, 199
- Twitter Vigilance tool, 203–204
- Uffizi Gallery, 198
 - data overview and metric analysis, 203–204
 - literature review and hypotheses development, 200–203
 - verification of hypotheses, 204–208
- User-generated content (UGC), 6–7, 13, 56–57, 75, 165, 198–199, 217–218
 - initiatives, 77
- Vertical cognitive alignment, 226
- Virgin Airlines, 116–117
- Visitor satisfaction and destinations' online reputations, 202–203
- Visitors engagement, 152
- Web 2.0 technology, 5–6, 75–76
- Word-of-mouth (WOM), 4–5, 55–56, 214–215
- Xenophobia, 116–117
- Yelp, 32, 93
- You-Tube, 168, 184–185