INDEX

Academic inequalities in rankings and metrics, 90–92
Adorno, Theodor W., 3–4, 29–30, 202–203
Alienation, 31–32, 38, 146
Anthropocene, 57–58
Anthropocentrism, 57–58
Anthropology, 113
Anthropomorphic robots, 117–118
Anti-Humanism, 23–24
Article processing charges (APCs), 90
Artificial Intelligence (AI), 1–2, 48–49, 111–112, 155–156, 217
China’s AI strategy, 164–168
comparison of EU, Trump, China AI strategy, 168–170
cybernanthrope, 113–120
in digital capitalism, 120–145
EU’S AI strategy, 157–158 and smart robots, 156 systems, 117
Trump, Donald: AI strategy, 159–164
Austerity politics, 6–9
Authoritarianism, 1–2
Automated computer programmes, 223
Axiology, 18–19
Digital Humanism, 51
humanism, 19
Radical Digital Humanism, 54–55
Radical Humanism, 32–33
Barbarism. See Socialism
Binary number systems, 123–124
Capitalism, 3–4, 6, 9, 146, 175–176, 185, 197–200, 202
Capitalist academic publishing, 90
Capitalist automation, 143–145
Capitalist necropower, 196–204
  in age of COVID-19, 204–210
  in COVID-capitalism, 196–210
Capitalist necropower, 217–218
Capitalist production, 28–29
Capitalist university as neo-colonialism, 102
China’s AI strategy, 164–168
  comparison of EU, Trump, China AI strategy, 168–170
Classical colonialism, 77–79
  to neo-colonialism, 85–87
Cognizing, communicating, cooperating (Three Cs), 74
Colonial capitalism, 203
Colonialism, 77–78
  and racism, 78–80
Commonification, 104
Communication in COVID-19 pandemic, 186–196
  empirical studies, 177–180
  in quality of life and dying, 177–186
  theoretical interpretation, 180–186
Computer technologies, 50
Computing, 124
  robots, 145–152
Contemporary capitalism, 86–87
Convivial society, 75
Conviviality, 72–76
COVID-19 pandemic, 1–2, 173–174 dying and communication in, 186–196 COVID-capitalism, 174 capitalist necropower in, 196–210 communication’s role in quality of life and dying, 177–186 death and dying in, 174–177
Cultural imperialism, 70–71
Culture, 118
Cybernanthrope, 113–120
Cybernetics, 113
Cyborg Manifesto, 114, 126–127
Cyborgs, 113–114
  politics, 126–127
De-colonisation of academia, 63–65, 216–217
  (neo-)colonialism, 76–87
  academia’s relations to society, 105–106
  academic inequalities in rankings and metrics, 90–92 access to university and academic knowledge, 106–107
capitalist academic publishing, 90
capitalist university as neo-colonialism, 102
class and higher education, 94–101
conviviality, 72–76
governance, 109–110
management hierarchies, 101
neoliberal colonisation of university and academia, 87–89
pluriversality as unity in plurality, 67–72 production of content and knowledge, 107–108 radical humanist and political economy perspective, 87–102 research methods, 108–109
in study of media, communication and digital, 64–76 trans-disciplinarity, 66–67
unequal reputation and opportunities, 92 wealth inequalities in academia, 94
De-globalisation, 64–65
De-internationalisation, 64–65
De-Westernisation, 64–65
Death and dying in capitalism, 174–177
Deep-ecological anti-Humanism, 23
Democracy, 218–219
Democratisation, 104
Deprovincialisation, 64–65, 70
Destructive forces, 203–204
Dialectical approaches, 125, 131–132
Digital acceleration, 223
Digital authoritarianism, 215–216
Digital capitalism, 215–216
robots, AI and ideology in, 120–145
Digital communication in COVID-19 pandemic, 191–196
Digital culture industry, 223
Digital determinism, 124
Digital Humanism, 1, 15–16, 45–46, 215
foundations of, 46–52
objections to, 56–59
radical digital humanism, 52–56
wage share as percent of GDP, 8
Digital Humanism Initiative, 49–50
Digital individualism, 222
Digital machines, 53
Digital surveillance, 1–2
Digital tabloids, 223
Digital warfare, 1–2
Digitalisation, 2–3
Diplomacy, 220
Dying in COVID-19 pandemic, 186–196
Electronic waste, 1–2
Emotional capitalism, 149
Empirical studies, 177–180
Enlightenment Humanism, 26–27, 215
Epistemology
  Digital Humanism, 50
  humanism, 19
  Radical Digital Humanism, 53
Epistemology, Radical Humanism, 30–31
Ethics, 18–19
Eurocentrism, 19–20
European Commission, 157
European Union (EU), 155–156
  AI strategy, 157–158
  comparison of EU, Trump, China AI strategy, 168–170
Evolutionary Humanism, 24–25
Fascism, 203–204
Fatalism, 25
Fetishism, 163–164
For-profit open-access models, 106
Fossil capitalism, 203–204
Fourth generation computing, 123–124
Fragmented online publics, 223
French Revolution, 3
Fromm, Erich: Radical Humanism, 35–36
Full automation, 139–140
Fully Automated Luxury Communism (FALC), 137
Gesellschaftsformation, 197–198
Global South, 73
Globalisation, 104–105
Good Death Inventory, 179
Habermas, Jürgen, 14, 181, 211
Harari, Yuval Noah, 11, 15–16, 23–25
Harvey, David: Radical Humanism, 38–42
Humanism. See also Post-humanism, 1, 47–48, 216, 218–219
axiology, 19
definitions of, 16–19
digital surveillance, 15
epistemology, 19
ontology, 19
radical, 26, 33, 42
transculturality, 19–23
Yuval Noah Harari’s critique of, 23–25
Humanity, 2–3
Idiomorphic robots, 117–118
Immortality, 176
Imperialism, 80–81
Imperialist capitalism, 203
Indian Institute of Technology, 91–92
Influencer capitalism, 223
Internal and external colonies, 81
International Standard of Organisation (ISO), 116
Liberal Humanism, 24–25, 27–28, 30
Liberalism, 29
Luxemburg, Rosa, 80–81, 218
Management hierarchies, 101
Mano, Winston, 65–70, 72
Marxian class analysis, 98–99
Marxist Humanism, 22–23
Marx, Karl: Radical Humanism, 34–35
Mbembe, Achille, 14, 174, 196–198
Metaphilosophy, 124
Militarism, 77–78
milton, viola c., 65–70, 72
Modern anti-Semitism, 202–203
Mourning, 195–196
Nabudere, Dani Wadada, 65–66, 68–69
Nationalism, 1–2, 160, 162–164
Necrocapitalism, 201
Necrophilia, 200
Necropolitics, 197–198
Necropower, 217–218
Neo-colonialism, 76, 83, 85, 87
capitalist university as, 102
classical colonialism, 77–78
from classical colonialism to, 85–87 colonialism and racism, 78–80 colonies and ongoing primitive accumulation, 80–83
Neoliberal capitalism, 4–5, 81–82
Neoliberal colonisation of university and academia, 87–89
Neoliberalism, 4–6
Neuralink, 134–135
Non-capitalist milieux and strata, 80–81 organisations, 80–81
Not-for-profit media, 220
Ontology, 18–19
Digital Humanism, 50
humanism, 19
Radical Digital Humanism, 53–54
Radical Humanism, 31–32
Participatory socialism, 75–76
Physiomorph robots, 117–118
Plurality, pluriversality as unity in, 67–72
Pluriversality as unity in plurality, 67–72
Post-factual politics and false news, 223
Post-humanism, 23–24
 technological determinism in, 126–132
wired brain as post-humanist, 132–136
Primitive accumulation, 78
Primitive accumulation, ongoing, 80–83
Public service internet, 221–225
Manifesto, 221–222
Public Service Media (PSM), 221–222
Public-private partnerships, 159–160
Racial capitalism, 203
Racism, 203–204
colonialism and, 78–80
Radical digital humanism, 215–218
foundations of, 52–56
axiology, 32–33
robots, 145–152
Reflective perception, 182
Relational epistemologies, 70
Religious Humanisms, 22–23
Reputation and opportunities, unequal, 92
Robotic automation, 140
Robotic psycho-therapists, 139–140
Robots, 1–2, 111–112, 116
critique of social constructivism, 136–145 critique of technological determinism, 126–136

cybernanthrope, 113–120

in digital capitalism, 120–145

in economy and society, 126–136 radical humanism, computing, 145–152 typology of, 121

Russell Group universities, 101

Santos, Boaventura de Sousa, 65–66, 69–70, 103, 105

Second generation computing, 123–124

Self-destruction of enlightenment, 29

Self-management, 104

Smart home, 111–112

Smart robots, 156

Social agents, 51

Social constructivism, 136–145

Social media, 222

Social production, 183–184

Social relations, 183–184

Socialism, 32–33, 218–219

Socialist Humanism, 22–25, 30, 33, 151–152, 216

Society, 2–3, 118

robots in, 126–136

Socio-psychological study, 25

State-capitalist system, 197

Structuralism, 123

Tax capital, 219–220

Technological determinism, 53–54, 126, 136

in post-humanism and transhumanism, 126–132

Theocentric anti-Humanism, 23

Theomorphic robots, 117–118

Theoretical anti-Humanism, 23

Theoretical interpretation, 180–186

Third generation computing, 123–124

Trans-disciplinarity, 66–67, 72

Transculturality, humanism, 19–23

Transhumanism, 23–24
technological determinism in, 126–132

wired brain as transhumanist, 132–136

Trump, Donald: AI strategy, 159–164
comparison of EU, Trump, China AI strategy, 168–170
Turing machine, 123–124
Ubuntu, 20
Unity in diversity, 71–72
University capitalism, 103
Wang, Ruoshui, 33–34, 37–38
Wang, Ruoshui: Radical Humanism, 37–38
Wealth inequalities in academia, 94
Wired brain as post-humanist and transhumanist, 132–136
Wiredu, Kwasi, 14, 181–184
Zoomorphic robots, 117–118