Index

Adaptability, 57
Architecture, engineering and construction (AEC), 43, 142
Association for Project Management (APM), 111

Budget, 100
  benefits of excellent budgeting, 104
  benefits of sustainable construction, 102–103
  construction, 100–101
  sustainable construction, 101–102
  as tool to measure project success, 103–104
Building Information Modelling (BIM), 137
Business/company, 129

Collaboration
  elements of collaboration agreement and/or contract, 89–90
  organisation and, 90–91
Communication, 67–68
  importance of communication in construction industry, 69 methods of communication in construction industry, 68–69 plan, 91
Competence, 41–42
Competition, 10
Construction, 15–17, 19, 68
  budget, 100–101
  cost of, 25–26
  development, 41–43
  effective collaboration, 84–85
  health and safety, 77
  meaning, 16–17
  project costs, 28–29
  stakeholders’ engagement, 154

sustainability, 83–84
Construction industry, 3–4, 17, 19 categories, 6–7
  competition, 10
depreciation, 9–10
effective collaboration, 84–85
effective communication in, 71–72 features, 4–6
health and safety, 77
importance of communication in, 69 methods of communication in, 68–69
participant satisfaction, 34
preservation and extinction, 11
profitability, 116–117
project value, 62
risk, 9
security requirements, 149
stakeholders’ engagement, 154
sustainability in, 7–8, 11
value, 11
Construction projects, 107, 115
team, 44–45
Consumer loyalty, 51
Contact labour. See Direct labour
Contractors, 118–119
Cost, 15–16, 56–57
  constituents, 25
  of construction, 25–26, 28
  construction and construction industry, 17–19
direct expenses, 24
direct labour, 24
direct material, 23
elements, 20–21
expenses, 22–23
factors, 26
indirect expenses, 24
indirect labour, 24
indirect material, 23–24
as measure of project success, 29
overhead, 24–25
principles, 21–22
sustainable construction, 19–20
Critical success factors (CSFs), 139
Customer satisfaction, 51, 130–131
materials, 53
requirements for, 55–57
strategies, 53–54
sustainable construction, 52
Customer-supplier relationships, 93
Customers, 54–55, 130

Decision-making, 3–4
Depreciation, 9–10
Dialogue, 156
Direct costs, 16
of construction project, 28–29
Direct expenses, 22, 24
Direct labour, 20, 24
cost, 22
Direct material, 23
costs, 21
Discounting future costs, 64
Dissemination overhead, 25

Economics, 7–8
Effective collaboration, 86
constituents, 89
in construction, 91–92
construction and construction
industry, 84–85
elements/principles, 86–89
as measure of project success, 92–94
sustainable construction, 85
Effective communication, 68–69 barriers, 70–71
in construction industry, 71–72
Effort, 47
Emotional health, 78
Employee satisfaction, 131
Energy consumption, 34
Environment, 7–8
Environment-friendly construction principle, 125
Environmental Impact Assessment
(EIA), 127
Environmental Impacts, 124
Environmental Indicator, 124
Environmental performance. See also Operational performance, 123–125
principles, 125
Environmental Performance
Assessment (EPA), 123–124
Environmental Performance
Evaluation (EPE), 124
Environmental protection superiority principle, 125
and sustainable construction, 125–127
Environmental Protection Agency
(EPA), 37–38
Environmental sustainability, 132
Expenses, 22–23
Extinction, 11

Factory cost, 25
Factory overhead, 22–24
Financial performance index,
131–132
Formal communication, 71
Fulfilment, 38
Functional analysis, 142
Functionality
functional requirements in
construction projects, 141–142
implementation of sustainability, 137 performance + capability = function, 142
social sustainability, 140–141
sustainability assessment, 137–140
sustainability in construction, 136–137

General overhead costs, 29
Gratitude display, 46 Greenhouse gas emissions (GHG emissions), 34, 83
Gross domestic product (GDP), 4, 77, 100–101, 116–117
Gross National Product (GNP), 18

Hazard distribution/evasion, 57
Health, 78
constituents, 78–79
Health, safety and environment (HSE), 126
Health and safety (H&S), 76, 78, 149
construction, 77, 79–80
construction industry, 77
elements/principles, 78
as measure of project success, 80
sustainability, 76
sustainable construction, 77–78
and sustainable project delivery, 81

Indirect costs, 16
of construction project, 29
Indirect expenses, 22, 24
Indirect labour, 20, 24
cost, 22
Indirect material, 23–24
costs, 21
Informal communication, 71
Intellectual health, 78
Internal process quality, 131
Intricacy, 57

Job satisfaction, 45

Key performance indicator (KPI), 130
Known risk, 109

Labour, 20
cost, 22
Leadership in Energy and Environmental Designs
(LEED), 149–150
Likelihood, 108

Maintainable development, 34, 37–38
Material costs, 20–21
Materials, 35

Millennium Development Goals
(MDGs), 132
Morale, 47
Net present values (NPV), 64, 133
New risk or discovered risk, 109

Obligation, 57
Office and administration overhead, 23
Office cost, 25
Operational performance, 129–130
indicators, 130
sustainable construction, 132–133
Organisation and collaboration, 90–91
Organisation overhead, 24
Organisational commitments, 90
Overhead costs, 20, 24–25

Participant satisfaction, 34, 38
challenges of sustainable
construction, 36
constituents, 38
in construction, 38–39
construction industry, 34
materials, 35
significance of sustainable
construction, 36–38
sustainable construction, 34
techniques, 35–36
Performance indicators, 130–132
Performance measurement systems, 130
Period costs, 20–21
Personal health, 78
Physical barrier, 70–71
Physical health, 78
Present value (PV), 64
Preservation, 11
Prime cost, 25
Processes barrier, 70
Profit, 115
in construction, 118–119
meaning, 118
as measure of project success, 119
Index

and sustainable project delivery, 119–120
Profitability, 119
construction industry, 116–117
sustainable construction, 117
Project (s), 6–8
communication, 71
delivery, 7, 93
functionality, 142–143
management, 3–4, 99, 111
overhead costs, 29
performance, 43–44, 93
risk, 111
Project Management Institute (PMI), 111
Project success, 38, 63, 92, 94, 103–104, 131, 136
value creation, 111–112
Project value, 61–62
construction industry, 62
deliberation and management, 62–63 value and sustainable construction, 64–65
value for money, 63–64
Psychosocial barrier, 71
Public sector organisations (PSOs), 133
Quality level, 57
Quality of work, 47
Rate of returns, 133
Residual risk, 109
Risk, 9, 107–109
influences of project, product, and business risks, 109–110 types, 109
Risk management (RM), 110–111
in relation with project success, 111–112
Secondary risk, 109
Security requirements, 148
in construction industry, 149
sustainable construction, 148–149
and sustainable construction projects, 149–150
Selling and distribution overhead, 23
Selling overhead, 25
Semantic barrier, 71
Sinking fund (SF), 133
Social, economic and environmental sectors. SEE sectors, 135
Social health, 78
Social learning, 156
Social sustainability, 140–141
Society, 7–8
Speed, 55
Spiritual health, 78
Stakeholders’ engagement, 153–154
case for sustainability and construction industry, 154
as dialogue of values and opportunity for social learning, 156 ethical perspective on stakeholder engagement, 155–156
as management technique, 155
Strategic management, 153–154 assessment, 137–140
in construction, 7–8, 11
in construction, 136–137
implementation of, 137
Sustainable activity, 77
Sustainable building, 126
industry, 19
budget, 101–102
challenges of, 36
customer satisfaction, 52
effective collaboration, 85
environmental protection and, 125–127 growth of, 43
health and safety, 77–78
operational performance, 132–133
profitability, 117
project performance, 43–44
projects, 149–150
security requirements, 148–149
significance of, 36–38
value and, 64–65
Sustainable development (SD), 7, 42–43, 138, 147–148
Sustainable development ability (SDA), 137–139
Sustainable development esteem (SDV), 137–139
Sustainable project design, 148
Systematic risk, 108

Team effectiveness, 46
Team leader, 47
Team performance, 46
Team satisfaction, 42, 45
construction project team, 44–45 growth of sustainable construction, 43

sustainable construction project performance, 43–44 sustainable development and construction, 42–43
team effectiveness, 46

effect of team satisfaction on performance, 46–47

Time, 55–56
Total cost, 25

Triple bottom line (TBL), 135, 139

United States of America (USA), 101
Unknown risk, 109

Value, 11
management, 62–63

for money, 63–64

Works overhead, 22–23