INDEX

Accidental leaders, 126
ACE. See American Council on Education (ACE)
Action, 98 motivating, 102
Aristotle, 36–37, 40–41
view of communication, 37–38, 50–51 Aspiring leaders and agents of social influence, relationship between, 125–128
and potentially engaged followers, relationship between, 124–125
Attention, 97
capturing, 101
Attitudes, 86
Authentic leadership,
29–30, 122–123
Authority, 88
Beliefs, 86
Blake and Mouton’s
Leadership Grid, 24
Caesar, Julius, 38–39
Capability, 87
CCO. See Communication as constitutive of organization (CCO)
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, 82–83
Channel, 41
Choice to follow,
157–158
Classical approaches to leadership, 21
Communication,
1, 3–12
approaches to leadership, 22
digital media and Information Age,
47–48
effective, 35–36
goals of, 110
iceberg, 58
interactional and systems perspectives of, 46–47
interdisciplinary theories, 39–40
invisibility of. See Invisibility of leadership
communication journalism, 38–39
Katz and Lazarsfeld’s
model, 43–44
Lasswell’s view of communication, 40–41
leadership, 1, 3–12, 14–15
linear, 49–50
orientation,
55–56
rhetoric and speech, 36–38
Shannon and Weaver’s
model, 41–43
theory, evolution of, 49–53
visibility of. See Visibility of leadership
communication
Westley and Maclean’s
model, 44–46
See also individual entries

Communication as constitutive of organization (CCO), 52 Communication competencies of followership, 146–147
of leadership, 130, 132, 133, 137–138
Competency approaches to leadership, 21–22
Competition, 88
Consistency, 88
Contemporary approaches to leadership, 21
Contingency theory, 25–26
Credibility, 87–88
Cultivation, 13–14, 79–81, 92–93, 119–120, 121, 124, 134–135
anticipated use, 87
capability, 87
credibility, perceived motivation, intent, 87–88
definition of, 57
factors of, 85–88
failures of, 93–96
functionality of, 81–85
message repetition, consistency, and competition, 88 needs, attitudes, beliefs, and values, 86
obstructions of, 93–96
role in change process, 98–100 setbacks of, 93–96
source attractiveness and similarity, 87
source status, power, or authority, 88 Culture, 67–68
role of, 112–113
Decision to lead, 155–156
Diffusion theory, 44
Digital media, 47–48
Disciplinary competencies of leadership, 130
Dual identity of leadership, 10–11
Educational attainment, intellectual capabilities and, 15
Effective communication, 35–36
Effective leadership, 16–17 characteristics of, 18–19
definition of, 18–20
Engagement, 97–98
fostering, 101–102
Ethics, 70, 147–150
Evidence-based leadership, 157
Federal Cigarette Labeling and Advertising Act of 1965, 82–83
Followership, 68–69, 88
definition of, 57
ef cacy, 140–147
and leadership,
distinction between, 15–16
Followership competencies, 140–147
analytic competencies, 144–145
communication
competencies, 146–147
organizational competencies, 147
personal competencies, 145–146
positional competencies, 144

Homer, 35–36
Honesty, 122
Hooks, Benjamin, 15–16
Humility, 122

Iliad, 35–36
Inevitability, 70–71
Information Age, 47–48
Integration, 98
Integrity, 122
Intellectual capabilities, and educational attainment, 15
Intent, 87–88
Interacting contexts and
levels, 68
Interactional perspectives of communication, 46–47

Interdisciplinary theories, 39–40
International Leadership Association, 9,
123–124
Invisibility of leadership
communication, 64–71
culture, 67–68
ethics, 70
inevitability, 70–71
interacting contexts and levels, 68
learning, 65–66
meaning, 65
negotiation, 66–67
self-reference, 68–69
self-reflexivity, 69
subjectivity, 66

Journalism, 38–39

Katz and Lazarsfeld’s model of communication, 43–44

Language and framing, 108–116
culture, role of, 112–113
integrated approach, 114–115
progress and outcomes,
monitoring, 113–114
stages of planned change, leadership communication strategies for, 109–112
Lasswell’s view of communication, 40–41
Leader–member exchange theory, 27
Leadership, 1, 3–12
art perspective of, 17–18
Author’s view of, 20 capabilities, 14, 31–32
definition of, 18–19, 57, 127
dichotomous perspectives of, 14–18
dual identity of, 10–11
efficacy, 128–140
and followership, distinction between, 15–16 longer-term, 6–7
and management, distinction between, 16–17
orientation, 55–56
popularity of, 8–11
scientific perspective of, 17–18
S->M->C->R = E view of, 5–6
See also individual entries
Leadership behavior recommended practices for, 121–125 theories and, 121–125
Leadership communication, 4–5, 14–15, 47, 50–51, 52, 104–108, 127 visibility and invisibility of, 58–71 Leadership competencies, 128–140
analytic competencies, 130, 132, 133, 136
communication competencies, 130, 132, 133, 137–138
definition of, 129
disciplinary competencies, 130
organizational competencies, 130, 132, 133, 138
personal competencies, 130, 131, 132, 136–137
positional competencies, 130–131, 132, 135–136
Leadership/followership educators, 150–152
Learning, 65–66
Linear communication, 49–50
Loyalty, in toxic leadership behaviors, 118–121
Management and leadership, distinction between, 16–17
Meaning, 65
Message repetition, 88
Multiple approaches to leadership, 21–33
authentic leadership, 29–30
contingency theory, 25–26
leader–member exchange theory, 27
path–goal theory, 26–27
servant leadership, 28–29
situational approach, 25 skills approach, 23–24
style approach, 24–25
team leadership, 30–31
trait approach, 23
transformational leadership, 27–28

National Communication Association (NCA), 9
NCA. See National Communication Association (NCA)
NCCI. See Network for Change and Continuous Innovation in Higher Education (NCCI) Needs, 86
Negotiation, 66–67
Network for Change and Continuous Innovation in Higher Education (NCCI), 9

Ohio State University, 24
Opinion leaders, 51, 126

Orator-to-listener view of communication, 50–51
Organizational competencies of followership, 147
of leadership, 130, 132, 133, 138
Paradigm, 49–50
Participation, 14–15
Path–goal theory, 26–27
People, 61
Perceived motivation, 87–88
Personal competencies of followership, 145–146
of leadership, 130, 131, 132, 136–137
Personal Influence (Katz and Lazarsfeld), 43–44
Planned change activation and cultivation, role of, 98–100 dynamics of, 96–100
stages of, leadership communication strategies for, 109–112 successful, facilitating, 100–104
Plato, 36–37
Political Tribes: Group Instinct and the Fate of Nations, 67
Spellings Commission on Higher Education, 96–97
Style approach to leadership, 24–25
Subjectivity, 66
Successful planned change, facilitating, 100–104
action, motivating, 102
attention, capturing, 101
engagement, fostering, 101–102 integration, promoting, 103–104
resolve, developing, 102
Symbols, 61–63
Systems perspectives of communication, 46–47
Team leadership, 30–31
Technology, 63–64
Thought leaders, 126
Toxic leadership behaviors, loyalty in, 118–121
Trait approach to leadership, 23
Trait theories, 122
Transformational leadership, 27–28, 107, 122–123
Underground leaders, 126, 127
University of Michigan, 24
University Professional and Continuing Education Association (UPCEA), 9
UPCEA. See University Professional and Continuing Education Association (UPCEA) Value-based leadership, 157
Values, 86
Visibility of leadership communication, 61–64
people, 61
symbols, 61–63
technology, 63–64
Westley and Maclean’s model of communication, 44–46
Zone of resonance. See Resonance