

Index

- 'A' Players, 71–72, 74
- Academic-practice gap, 35
- Accidental manager, 4, 77–79, 82–83
- AMO theory, 92, 95
- Assessment centres, 58–60, 66–67
- Assessment panels, 65

- Bias, 21, 25, 53, 66, 81, 111, 155

- Canadian government regulation, 147–149
- Canadian legalization, 150
- Cannabis, 151
- Career
 - development, 114, 152, 157
 - management, 83
- Christian narratives, 10
- Compensation, 152
- Competency models, 56–57

- Dark side, 72
 - of personality, 77
 - recruitment and selection, 155
 - of talent pools, 51
 - of TM, 155
- Derailment
 - causes, 71, 73, 75–79
 - gender differences, 80–81
 - implications for talent management, 71, 73, 82–84
 - potential behaviours, 75–77
 - risk, 71, 73, 81
- Development, 147
- Disappointment, 51–52, 63, 111
- Discourse analysis, 130
- Disengagement, 63
- Durkheim, Emile, 24

- Empowering leadership, 91–92, 95–96, 100–102

- Exclusive talent, 107–118
 - management, 107–118

- Feminist poststructuralism, 129–132
- Fourth Industrial Revolution, 34, 53

- Gender and derailment, 80–81
- Gender identity, 130
- Gendered Organization, 129
- Giftedness, 15–17
- Global Talent Management, 33, 42, 112
- Globalisation, 43, 132, 135
- God-given talent, 10–11
- Golem effect, 111

- High performers, 14, 71, 75, 107, 110
- High potential (HiPo), 58, 75, 131
 - employees, 3, 108
 - for leadership, 1
 - people, 14
 - programmes, 58
- HRM practices, 13, 89, 92, 107–108, 113, 152

- Identity, 7–11
- Inclusive organizations, 116
- Inclusive talent, 138
 - management, 107
- Individuality, 9–11
- Inequalities, 4, 112, 135
- Intersectionality, 126, 132–135

- Key roles, 153
- Knowledge production problem, 39, 41

- Leadership, 72, 87–103
 - derailment, 71–84
 - failure, 71–73, 76, 78, 81
 - transitions, 83

- Legitimacy, 149–150
Line managers, 14, 16, 63, 87–103
- Macro Talent Management (MTM), 43
Macro talent management factors,
147–151
Management practice, 8–10
Managerial ability, 18
Managerial anxiety, 51, 62–64
Managerial capability, 64
Masculinist/masculinisation, 4, 125,
127–131, 133
#Metoo, 126, 133
Micro talent management factors, 151–158
- Nine-Box Grid, 19, 57–58
- Objectivity, 21, 51–52, 59, 64, 66
Organizational effectiveness, 53, 82
Organizational justice, 107, 111, 119
- Performance, 155–156
assessment, 57, 60
ratings, 53, 57–58
Politics, 51–66
Postcolonialism, 125–137
Potential, 1, 3, 16–17, 54–57, 65, 72, 82, 145, 156
individual, 17
Power, 1, 15, 56
Practitioners, 4, 36
Psychometric testing, 58, 67
Pygmalion effect, 20, 114
- Rawls, John, 19–20, 24
Recruitment, 153–154
Relevance, of research, 33–44
Reputation, 150–151, 154
Research-practice gap, 36
Retention, 155–157
Return on investment (ROI), 43
Rhetoric of TM, 51–66
Russell, Bertrand, 8
- Selection, 154–155
Semantic emptiness, 7, 9
- Simonton, Keith, 22–23
Social constructivism, 52, 65
exclusion, 108, 126 inclusion, 108
processes, 52–53, 134
Strategic talent management, 75,
82, 84
Strengths, 76, 79, 88
Subjectivity, 51, 66, 132
- Talent, 156–157
actual practices, 54
assessment, 60
attraction, 33, 42, 51, 89, 147, 151–153, 158
deployment, 33, 51
development, 33, 89, 147, 151, 158
as empty signifier, 8–10 engagement, 33
expectations, 24, 61–62, 75, 83 identification, 17–19, 21, 24, 26, 33, 51
innate, 13, 22–23, 25
mobilisation, 100, 102–103
and non-talent identities, 3, 19, 111, 135
nurturing, 51–52
perceived practices, 54
retention, 33, 89, 151, 158
as social construction, 13, 16–21
- Talent management assumptions of, 17
employee reactions to, 87–88, 90, 92, 101, 132
employee voice, 132
ethics of, 56, 112
and firm performance, 90
gender blind, 133
managerialist, 1, 125, 132
performativity, 130–131 process, 89
segmentation, 38, 110–111, 132 stakeholders, 3, 38, 41, 45, 87, 107, 147
unitarist, 132

Toxic leadership, 72

Training, 157

Transnationalism, 126, 132–133

Values, 56, 60–61, 75, 82, 111, 113,
117, 119–120, 129, 132,
149, 152

War for talent, 16, 34, 42–43, 109–110, 119, 153

Wittgenstein, Ludwig, 7–8

Workplace inequality, 108