Erratum

287

It has been brought to the attention of the publisher that the article “L'Aquila, Central Italy, and the ‘disaster cycle’, 2009–2017”, David E. Alexander (2019), published in Disaster Prevention and Management: An International Journal, Vol. 28 No. 2 was published ahead of the intended special issue due to an editorial error.

The article has now been removed from Disaster Prevention and Management: An International Journal 28.2 and will instead be published in an upcoming special issue.

Emerald sincerely apologises to the authors for any inconvenience caused.
