The publisher would like to inform readers that the following special issue paper was mistakenly published as part of a regular issue. This error was introduced as part of the editorial process, and the publisher sincerely apologises for this error. The paper will remain in its current issue. The affected paper is as follows.

The affected paper was originally intended to publish as part of “SCM 4.0: Supply Chain Management in the Digital Age” Guest Edited by Erik Hofmann, Henrik Sternberg, Haozhe Chen, Alexander Pflaum and Gunter Prockl.

The publisher would like to take this opportunity to thank the Guest Editors for their time and effort.

Jenny Chester