

INDEX

- Academia, 4
Aggregate effect, 15
Analysis vs. practice, 106–113
Anti-Drug Abuse Acts, 42–43
Antiauthoritarian idealism, 82
“Antiregime” citizens, 127
- “Bazaar”, 122–123
Bildungsbürgertum, 115
Black domestic workers, 193
Black Lives Matter, 3–4
“Black Plague”, 41
Black radical challenge, 12–15
Black Radical Tradition (BRT), 156–165 analyzing racial character of inter-and intraclass alliances/conflicts, 161–163
    class analyses of development, 166–172
    ethnicity and development, 172–175
    integrated attention to class and racialization, 158–160
    recognizing colonized racialized subjects as agents, 163–165
    and reinvigorating social scientific theories of development, 175–176
Black trash drug, 44–45
“Breaking bad” in rural America, 44–45
Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS), 34–35
Bureaucratization of capitalism, 115
- Call Off Your Old Tired Ethics
(COYOTE), 138–139
Capitalism, 11, 13, 15, 17–19, 158–159
Capitalist development, 158, 160
    market processes, 15
Carceral state geographic disparities and, 32–34
    shifting demographics of, 29–32
Caste into sex work, 142–151
Citizenship, 9
Class, 2, 158
    divide scholarship, 84–88 erosion of class identity, 74 inequality, 81–82
    nationalism and disarticulation of, 72–76
    pervasiveness, 5
    primacy, 3, 5–8 reductionist, 8
    in sex work, 138–140, 142–151
Class analyses of development, 166–172
    countries create and maintain democratic institutions, 170–172
    methods for countries achieve industrialization and economic growth,
    166–170
Classical Marxism, 158
Classification, 117
Colonialism, 158, 158, 190–191
Colonized racialized subjects as agents of social change and development, 163–165
Combat Methamphetamine Epidemic
Act, 45
Communist, 85

- Community-based organization (CBO), 142
- Companions, 197–199
- Competition, 15
- Computers, 84–85
- Conservative political elites, 124
- Contemporary nationalist movements, 64
- Contingencies, 16–17
- Control, 84
- Corrupt elite, 63
- “Cosmopolitanism versus communitarianism” frame, 64
- Crack, 41
- Crime of poverty in rural America, 37–40
- Criminal justice reform, 26
- Cross-national research, 107
- Culture
  - of control, 44
  - primacy of, 8–9
- “Culture of poverty” argument, 35, 37–40
- Cyber proletariats, 94

- Dedemonization. See Dédiabolisation
- Dédiabolisation*, 55–56, 59–60, 62, 66–70
  - of NF, 57–60
- Democratic capitalist development, 164
- Democratizing election, 129
- Dependency theory, 167
- Differentiation, 14–15
- Digital activism, 90–93
- Digital content, 88–90
- Digital divide, 19, 83–88
  - scholarship, 83
- Digital inequality, 86–87
- Digital Internet technology, 81–82
- Digital work, 93–95
- Disarticulation of class, 72–76
- Disempowerment, 92–93

- Disposables, 48
- Domestic bourgeoisie, 106–107
- Domestic work, 186
- Domestic Worker Bill of Rights (DWBR), 186–188, 197–198
- Domestic workers, 191–192
  - New York city’s domestic workers, 192–194
  - racialized histories of domestic workers’ legal exclusion, 196–197
- Dot-com gold rush, 85
- Drugs, urban war on, 40–44
- Dynamic asymmetry, 5, 6, 15–19

- Earned Safe and Sick Time Act, 187–188
- Economic anxiety, 2, 54
- Electoral logic, 66
- Embedded autonomy, 169–170
- Embeddedness of law, 188
  - law, at home, 203–206
  - law, for whom, 199–203
  - methods, 194–196
  - New York city’s domestic workers, 192–194
  - racialized histories of domestic workers’ legal exclusion, 196–197
  - and regulation of difference, 197–206
  - research on complexities of paid domestic work, 189–192
- Emerging culture of control
  - in countryside, 34–37
- Emotion-focusing device, 122
- Employee, 187–188
- Ethnic diversity, 173
- Ethnic fractionalization index, 174
- Ethnicity, 172
  - and development, 172–175
- Europeanization, 64

- Exclusion, 117
- Exploitation, 10, 117, 137–138
struggling against, 118
- Fair Deal, 129–130
- Fair Labor Standards Act (1937), 197
- False particularisms, 141
- Fear, 84 of repression, 92–93
- France, 54–55, 57–58, 61–62, 69
- French Communist Party (PCF), 75
- French working class, 71 electoral realignment, 73–74
- Front National (FN), 19
- Full sovereignty, 63
- Gauche-lepénisme*, 62, 70
- Gender, 9
into sex work, 142–151
- Gendered marginalization, 136
- Geographic disparities and Carceral state, 32–34
- Global South, 157
- Globalization backlash, 64
- “Governing through crime”, 44
- Great Recession, 36–37
- 2009 Green Movement, 128
- Haitian Revolution, 163
- Hart–Celler Immigration Act (1965), 193
- Hegemonic professionals, 120, 128
- Identity, 2, 3, 9
- Ideology, 14
- Immigrant workers, 193
- Imperialism, 190–191
- Imprisonment rates for black and white women, 32
- Incarceration rates, 31–32
- Indian feminism, 140–142
- Indigenous people, 155–156
- Individualized capitalism, 82
- Industrialization, 158
- Inequality
class, 81–82
digital, 86, 87
overcoming, 84
social, 86–87
- Informal economy, 121
- Informal workers, 191
- Inter-class alliances/conflicts,
analyzing racial character
of, 161–163
- Interdependence, multicausal approach of, 9–12
- International Domestic Worker
Federation (2013), 186–187
- Internet, 82–83, 88
- Interpretive pathologies, 28–29
- Intersectionality, 4, 140–142, 192
multicausal approach of, 9–12
- Intraclass alliances/conflicts,
analyzing racial character
of, 161–163
- Iran after 1979 revolution, 122–129
- Iranian middle class, 106–113
occupational structure of Iranian Labor Force, 125
- Islamic Republic, 121, 123–124
- Islamic Republic of Iran, 104
- Labor laws, 186
- Late developer modernization, 119–120
- Latinx, 26
- “Leftist” economic program, 55
- LGBTQ people, 26
- Marxism, 157–159
- Mass imprisonment, 28
- Mass incarceration, 26
- Massive mobilization, 128
- Matrix of domination, 10
- Middle class, 104–105
differentiating theories of middle-class formation, 114–121

- invocation, 104
- Iranian middle class, 106–113
- making and unmaking, 122–129
- protest in hegemonic decline era, 129–130
- Middle classness, 110
- Middling classes, 118–119
- Minimum wage coverage, 214
- Modified snowball sampling approach, 194
- “Mosque”, 122–123
- “Mosque–bazaar” sociopolitical base, 123
- Moynihan report, 37–39
- Multicausal approach of interdependence and intersectionality, 9–12
- National Domestic Workers Alliance (NDWA), 194–196
- National Front (FN), 54–55
  - accounting for shift in working-class vote, 70–72
  - dédiabolisation* if, 57–60
  - Republic against, 62–69
  - and working class, 61–62
- National Labor Relations Act (NLRA), 186–187, 197
- National preference, 67, 71
- National-populist, 63
- Nationalism, 64
  - of class, 72–76
- Neoliberal capitalism, 155–156
- Neoliberalism, 64–66
- New Radical Right, 57, 59–60
- New York city’s domestic workers, 192–194
- New York Domestic Worker Bill Of Rights (2010)
  - additional rights, 214
  - minimum wage coverage, 214
  - overtime rate coverage, 214
- New York State Employment Relations Act, 197
- Occupational Safety and Health Act (1970), 197–198
- Opportunity hoarding, 84, 87–88
- Oppression, 3, 4, 10, 11
- Overtime rate coverage, 214
- Paid domestic work, 186
  - long-organized “unorganizable”, 191–192
  - research on complexities of, 189–192
- Penal developments in rural areas, 26
- Pew Foundation, 88–89
- Pluralism, 6
- Political articulation, 56, 73
- Political power and social theory, 189
- Populist, 63–64
- Poverty, crime, punishment, and culture of, 37–40
- Primacy of culture, 8–9
- Prison construction boom
  - in countryside, 45–46
- Privilege, 186
- Prostitution, 138–139
- Provincial “economy of favors”, 122
- Public Internet users, 85
- Punishment of poverty in rural America, 37–40
- Race, 9, 14, 158, 173
- Racial
  - animus, 26
  - capitalism, 13, 159–160
  - disparities gap, 30–31
  - ideology, 14
  - justifications, 190
  - mobilization, 163
  - racial disparities lens, limitations of, 27–29
  - resentment, 54

- Racialized histories of domestic workers' legal exclusion, 196–197
- Racisms, 173
- Racist retaliation, 92
- Red Queen effect, 118–119
- Reinvigorating social scientific theories of development, 175–176
- Republic, 56
 against National Front, 62–69
- Republican defense, 55–56, 68–69
- Republican Front, 69
- Ressentiment, 127
- Rising middle class, 19–20
- Risk, 84
 tolerance, 95
- Ritual exile, 43–44
- Routine partisan process, 66
- Rural America
 “breaking bad” in, 44–45 crime, punishment, and culture of poverty in, 37–40 emerging culture of control in countryside, 34–37 geographic disparities and Carceral state, 32–34 prison construction boom in countryside, 45–46
 racial disparities lens, limitations of, 27–29
 shifting demographics of Carceral state, 29–32
 urban war on drugs, 40–44
- Rural areas, penal developments in, 26
- Rural mid-sized producers, 120–121
- Scholarship, 86
- Sex work, 20, 135–136
 gender, class, caste, and multiple paths into, 142–151 intersectionality and Indian feminism, 140–142 scholarship and activism, 137–138 theorizing class in, 138–140
- Sex worker activism and scholarship, 139–140
- Sexuality, 9
- Shifting demographics of Carceral state, 29–32
- Slavery, 190–191
- Social
 compact, 76
 contract, 76
 illegality, 193–194
 inequality, 86–87
 power, 120, 130
- Social class, 2
 black radical challenge, 12–15
 class pervasiveness, 5
 class primacy, 3, 5–8
 dynamic asymmetry, 5–6, 15–19
 multicausal approach of interdependence and intersectionality, 9–12
 primacy of culture, 8–9
- Social Security Act (1935), 197
- Socialist Party (PS), 75
- Specialized examinations, 115
- State investment, 120
- State-building intelligentsia, 119–120
- Stratification theory, 6
- Structural functionalism, 6
- Technological determinism, 82
- Time, 92–93
- United States, 30
- Urban service providers, 121
- Urban war on drugs, 40–44
- Urban–rural shift, 26
- US Patriot Act, 45
- Usenet, 85
- Victimization, 34–35
- Violence, 137–138

Wage Theft Protection Act,
187–188

Wagner Act (1935), 186–187, 196

Web 1.0, 86

Welfare chauvinism, 59–60

Wirtschaftsbürgertum, 115

Working class accounting for shift in working-class vote, 70–72

mobilization, 171–172

National Front and, 61–62

Wright, Erik Olin, 84