

TRUMP AND THE DEEPER CRISIS

POLITICAL POWER AND SOCIAL THEORY

Series Editor: Julian Go

Political Power and Social Theory is a peer-reviewed journal committed to advancing the interdisciplinary understanding of the linkages between political power, social relations, and historical development. The journal welcomes both empirical and theoretical work and is willing to consider papers of substantial length. Publication decisions are made by the editor in consultation with members of the editorial board and anonymous reviewers. For information on submissions, and a full list of volumes, please see the journal website at www.emeraldgroupublishing.com/tk/ppst

INVESTOR IN PEOPLE

While preparing this volume we lost our friend, colleague, and coeditor Richard Lachmann, who died unexpectedly as the chapters were arriving. He had just completed the first draft of his own chapter, which appears here in revised and updated form. In this project as always, Richard was insightful, meticulous, generous, and guided by a strong moral compass. His death is an immense loss to his friends and family, to the field of sociology, and to the fight for a humane world. The volume is dedicated to him.
