

INDEX

- Activism. See Occupational activism
- Affect control theory, 200–201
- African-American lawyers, 71
- African American workers, 218–219
- Alternative identities, 12
- Ambient ecology, 46
- American Baptist Theological Seminary (ABTS), 229
- American Community Survey (ACS), 167, 174–175
- American Dream, 114
- American occupational structure, 114
- Artists and repertoire (A&R), 46, 47
- Ascriptive-based social closure, 71
- Asian American men, 200
- Bartenders, 40
 cocktail, 40, 42, 43, 45, 47–49
 salary, 43
- Bernard Lafayette's humanistic activism. See Humanistic activism
- Black men, 93–95, 249–250
 college, 251
 emotions, 199
 professional careers, 253–254
Black Monday's Children, 231, 233
- Black professionals, 199, 252, 256
- Black women
 domestic service, 92 newspaper, 93
 occupational stagnation, 93–94
 queuing theory, 94–96
 racial and gendered stereotypes, 199
- Black workers, 166, 177
- Blue-collar workers, 14
- Bonding social capital, 69, 74–75
- Bottom class, 98
- Boundary maintenance, 70–72, 74
- Boundary work, 41, 49–52
- Brand ambassadors, 51
- Bridging social capital, 69, 75–76
- Canadian law schools, 81
- Categorical distinctions, 67
- Changing jobs, 41, 52–54
- Civil rights movement, 219, 220, 221, 223, 225
 expressive activism, 233–234
 humanistic activism, 228, 230
 policy-making activism, 238
- Claims-making, 66–67
- Cocktail bartenders, 40, 42, 43, 45, 47–49
- Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO), 218–219
- Cool jobs, 38–39
- Coworker social support, 164
- Craft cocktail workers, 38
- Cultural industry, 39
 music, 43–44
 nightlife, 42–43
- Cultural labor markets, 38
- Cultural repertoires, 48
- Cultural workers, 40
- Death and Co., 53–54
- Decision-making authority, 77
- Deep engagement, 41, 46–49
- Demographic variables, 72
- Diversity ideology, 201–202
- Diversity officer
 fulfillment and satisfaction source, 206–208 institutional support, 208–210

- interviews, 204
- racial stress source, 205–206
- research design/methodology, 203–204
- Diversity work, unique status of, 201–203
- Dominant capital, 252
- Downward mobility, 114
 - African American men, 114, 126
 - analytic strategy, 122
 - control variables, 122
 - dependent variable, 120
 - descriptive statistics, 123
 - determinants, 124–126
 - experiences, 14–15
 - human capital credentials, 121
 - job/labor market characteristics, 121
 - logit regressions, 128–129
 - multivariate statistics, 124, 125
 - sectoral variations, 126–130
 - survival curve, 130
 - timing, 126
- Earnings, 64
 - boundary maintenance, 81–82
 - focal measures, 72–77
 - in law, 65
 - of lawyers, 79–80
 - plan of analyses, 77–78
 - race, 78
 - racial gap, 65–66
 - regression model, 78
 - social capital, 81
 - theoretical framework links, 77–78
- Economic prosperity, 94
- Economic recoveries, 169
- Economic, worker commitment, 38–41
- Emotions
 - affect control theory, 200–201
 - Asian American men, 200
 - black men, 199
 - black professionals, 198, 199
 - management, 198–199
 - self-regulation, 198
 - unique status of diversity work, 201–203
 - workplace racial inequality, 201–203
- Employment, 11
- Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, 15
- Exemplary activism, 227, 238–241
- Experiential career, 40
- Expressive activism, 231–234
- Expressive occupations, 226–227
- Fair Labor Standard Acts, 109
- Food and beverage service jobs, 45
- Gender
 - descriptive statistics, 100–104
 - intersectional theory, 92–93
 - multilevel analysis, 104–107
- Good citizen, 11
- Governance occupations, 227
- Great Recession, 14, 166
- Homosocial reproduction, 218
- Hours vary, 173, 175–176
- Human capital
 - earnings, 65–66
 - measures, 73
 - race, 78, 82
- Humanistic activism, 228–231
- Identity
 - alternative, 12
 - reconstruction efforts, 14
 - role, 11
 - social support, 10–11, 13
 - support, 12
 - unemployment, 12
 - void, 12
- Identity-threatening social support, 20–23
 - avoiding interactions, 23–25
 - reframed reciprocity, 26–27
 - rejecting, 25

- Inclusive labor movements, 219
- Industrial capitalism, 219
- Industrial sociologists, 39
- Integrated Public-Use Microdata Samples (IPUMS), 97, 174–175
- Integration and learning model, 211
- Intensity of rankers' preferences, 95
- Intersectional theory, 92–93
- Interview, 15
 - diversity officer, 204
 - qualitative, 17
 - semi-structured, 15, 42, 203
 - transcripts, 16
- IPUMS. See Integrated Public-Use Microdata Samples (IPUMS)
- James Murph's exemplary activism. See Exemplary activism
- Job autonomy, 150, 164
- Job loss, 10, 11, 114
- Job quality control variables, 150–151
- Job security, 151
- Labor force, 99
- Labor markets, 218
- Labor queues, 95
- Lafayette, Bernard. See Humanistic activism
- Latina diversity manager, 205
- Latino workers, 183
- Law, earnings, 65
- Legal profession, 65, 73
- Lewis, John. See Policy-making activism
- Logistic regression coefficients, 192–193
- Loss of job, 10, 11, 114
- Management citizenship behavior (MCB), 145
- Manager social support, 164
- Maxwell Central University (MCU), 255
- Minority power thesis, 171–172
- Minority vulnerability thesis, 116–117
 - expectations, 118–120
 - institutional inertia, 116
 - job level, 119–120
 - proximate causal factors, 117–118
- Mixologists, 43
- Multiple imputation (MI) techniques, 148
- Multivariate method, 98–99
- Music distribution company, 47
- Music industry, 38
 - boundary work, 51–52
 - changing jobs, 53
 - cultural production, 43–44
 - precariousness, 52
 - record company executives, 44
 - workers, 40
- Nashville civil rights movement, 225
- National Bureau of Economic Research (NBER), 172
- National Study of the Changing Workforce (NSCW), 148
- Negative binomial coefficients, 190–191
- Network-based social closure, 70
- Network members, 10
- New sociology of work, 220
- New York Times*, 94
- Nightlife industry, 43, 45
- Nonmonetary rewards, 38–41
- Non-private practice, 77
- Nonviolence, 229
- NVIVO software, 204, 256
- OCCSCORE. See Occupational income score (OCCSCORE)
- Occupation 1950 (OCC1950), 97
 - See also* Black women
- Occupational activism, 221
 - cases of, 227–228
 - desegregationist force, 241–242

- dialogical diffusion of movement praxis, 223–224
 - exemplary, 227
 - exemplary activism, 227, 238–241
 - expressive, 231–234
 - humanistic activism, 228–231
 - policy-making, 227, 236–237
 - typology, 224–227
- Occupational composition
 - American Community Survey, 174–175
 - racial/ethnic, 174, 178–183
 - varying weekly hours, 169–172
- Occupational desegregation, 218
- Occupational income score (OCCSCORE), 97–98
 - control variables, 99–100
 - descriptive statistics, 99–100
 - multivariate method, 98–99
- Occupational stagnation, 93–94
- Ordering of elements, 95
- Ordinary least squares (OLS) estimates, 154
- Organizational context, 67–68
- Organizational managers, 227

- Panel Study of Income Dynamics (PSID), 115, 120
- Policy-making activism, 227
 - internalization of a praxis, 235–236
 - pathway, 234–235
 - racial equality, 237
 - transformative, 236–237
- Population and structural change thesis, 95–96
- Poverty-level job, 98
- Powell, Gloria Johnson. See Expressive activism
- Precariousness, 38–41, 52
- Prestige main area of law practice, 77
- Professional pose
 - black men, 253–255
 - culture, 251–253
 - social mobility, 258
 - theoretical view, 250–251
 - white workplace, 253–255
 - white workspaces, 258
- Professional sponsorship, 76
- Professional workplace, 251–253
- Proximate causal factors, 117–118
- Psychic rewards, 38, 48, 52
- Psychological distress, 148–149, 153, 164
 - ordinary least squares estimates, 154
- Psychological well-being, 139

- Race, 198
 - descriptive statistics, 100–104
 - human capital, 78, 82
 - intersectional theory, 92–93
 - multilevel analysis, 104–107
- Racial composition, 142–143
 - independent variables
 - measurement, 149–150
 - organizational model, 147
- Racial discrimination, 144
- Racial/ethnic disparities, varying weekly hours, 167–169
- Racial inequality, 116, 119
 - at work, 222–223
- Racial minority
 - boundary maintenance, 70–71
 - disadvantage relative, 82
 - gains for lawyers, 83
 - shortfall relative, 82
- Racial stress source, 205–206
- Racism, 92–93
- Reciprocity exchanges, 70, 76
- Record industry, 44
- Recruit Education Process (REP), 255
- Re-enchantment strategy, 46
- Relational demography, 141–144
- Relational inequality theory, 64, 82, 138
 - categorical distinctions, 67
 - claims-making, 66–67
 - organizational context, 67–68
- “Retail Workers Bill of Rights,” 186

- Salary, for bartenders, 43
- Scarring effects, 11
- Self-identity, 14
- Sexism, 93
- Shape of the labor queue, 95
- Social capital
 - approach, 68–69
 - boundary maintenance, 70–72, 74
 - bridging and bonding, 69, 74–76
 - earnings, 81
 - multidimensional analysis, 64
 - race, 82
 - racial minorities, 82
 - reciprocity exchanges and sponsorship, 70
- Social support
 - beneficial effects, 12
 - coworker, 164
 - definition, 12
 - deterioration model, 146
 - identity-bolstering, 13, 17–20
 - identity-threatening, 20–23
 - manager, 164
 - negative social interactions, 13
 - from network members, 10–11
 - Quinn's relationships, 17–18
 - workplace racial discrimination, 150, 151
 - workplace social relations, 145–146
- Sociological research, 218, 220
- Sociologists, industrial, 39
- Sole practitioner, 77
- Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), 230
- Stella's financial situation, 18
- Stress prevention model, 146
- Stress, racial source, 205–206
- Stride Toward Freedom*, 229
- Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), 230
- Subtle interactional mechanisms, 71
- Survey of Income and Program Participation (SIPP), 167, 172, 186
- Sustain enchantment
 - boundary work, 49–52
 - changing jobs, 52–54
 - deep engagement, 46–49
- Tokenism, 141–144, 218, 253
- Transformation, of occupational opportunity, 93–94
- Unemployment, 10–11
 - exacerbating, 20–23
 - identity, 12
 - identity-bolstering social support, 17–20
 - psychological harm, 11
 - social support (see Social support)
- University of Toronto, 78–79
- Uplift and Progress (UP), 255–256
- Varying weekly hours
 - dependent variable, 173
 - occupational composition, 169–172
 - racial/ethnic disparities, 167–169
 - ZINB regression models, 175–176
- Well-being
 - black workers' health, 139
 - conceptual model, 147–148
 - health scholars, 144
 - mediating factors, 144–147
 - psychological, 139
 - racial discrimination, 140
 - workplace social relations, 140, 145–146
- White-collar workers, 14
- White cultural practices, 252
- White workers, 177
- White workplace, 250
- Work context, 77
- Worker agency, 220
- Worker commitment, in economy, 38–41
- Workers of color, 168
- Working class, 114

- dynamics, 115
- jobs, 121
- positions, 115
- Working poverty, 98
- Workplace, 218
- Workplace context, 139
- Workplace racial discrimination, 150
- Workplace racial inequality, 201–203
- Workplace segregation, 138
- Workplace size, 151
- Work schedule, 166
- World War I, 95
- Zero-inflated negative binomial (ZINB) regression models, 175–176
- logistic regression coefficients, 192–193
- negative binomial coefficients, 190–191