INDEX

Note: Page numbers followed by "n" with numbers indicate notes.

Ableism, 154–155
Active job seeking carries, 114
Activity-based systems, 134
Advertising, 30
  platforms, 15, 65
  strategists, 30
Affordances, 6, 70, 81
  critique, 69
Aggregators, 95
Agricultural occupations, 55
Airbnb, 2, 10, 26, 146
Amazon, 17, 19, 23–24, 35*n*3
Amazon Mechanical Turk (AMT), 2, 7, 26, 125–126, 131
Amazon Publisher Services, 27, 29–30
Amazon Web Services, 15
Amazon's Echo, 48
Analytic memos, 97–98
Analytical categorization, 17
Apollo lunar missions, 48
App economy, 29
App stores, 27
App-based restaurant delivery service Foodora, 158
AppAnnie, 30
Apple, 19
Apple App Store, 28
Applicant tracking system (ATS), 99 software systems, 114
Artificial intelligence (AI), 2, 4, 48
ATM machines, 51–52, 58*n*9
Augmented reality, 49
Automated Hiring Platform (AHP), 62–64, 66, 69, 72–73, 76, 78, 80–81 becomes web platform, 76–78
  CDA of, 73
Automated scheduling platforms, 84
Automated society, 44–45
"Automating inequality" effect, 7
Automation process, 48
Automobile, 50
Autonomous learning game, 171–172

"Bad jobs", 166
Be your Own Boss (slogan-triad of emancipatory resonance), 169 Belgian labor market, 150–152, 160*n*4 workers equally in, 157–160
Belgian system platform revolution in, 9 of self-regulation, 147
  social reproduction, 155
"Black Hole" of mass posting sites, 98 going with flow, 98–100 low skill and high competition, 100–101
  Répondez S'il Vous Plaît, 101
Blogs, 30
Bottlenecks, appreciation of, 52
British National Health System, 46
Bullet-speed trains, 50
Burn-out, 30
Business model, 146, 157
  of platform-based firms, 153–155
Business risks, 153

Cadcrowd for engineering, 26
Capital, 153–154
  accumulation, 155–156 gains, 20
  platforms, 68
Capitalism, 153–154
Capitalistic production, 154

CAPTCHA method of testing, 33
CareerBuilder, 74–75, 94–95, 98
Casual drivers, 25
Chief executive officers (CEOs), 129
ChoicePoint (data broker), 78–79
Classical business models, 155
Classical firms, 148
"Classical" capital, 155, 160
"Classical" firms, 155–156
Cloud platforms, 15, 65
Cloud-based SalesForce, 85
Collaborative economy (see Sharing economy)
Communication from Commission (2016), 148–149
Communication platforms, 47 Community, 126–127
  as control, 137
  forums, 130
  macrotask platforms, 138–139
  microtask platforms, 137–138
Compensation, 17
Competition, 124
Computer gaming industry, 51
Consensus-based model, 156
Conservative commentators, 44
Consignment content producers, 27–31
Constitutive elements of work-games, 171–172
Consumer purchasing behavior, 24
Consumers, 178
Content analysis, 69 creators, 28
Contest
  contest-based macrotask platforms, 135 contest-based platforms, 139
  platforms, 124
Context-sensitive methodology, 70
Contractor-provided systems, 7
Contradictions within capitalism as historical opportunity to recover self-regulation, 155–157
Control on crowdwork platforms, 125–126 community as control, 137–139
  control through reputation and ranking systems, 133–137
  direct control, 130–133 variety of, 130
Control regimes, 128
Coordinated market economies, 156
Corporatist industrial relations, 167
Cost externalization of social reproduction of labor, 153–155
Craigslist, 23, 34
Credit cards, 51
Critical discourse analysis (CDA), 69–70 of AHP, 73, 83
CrowdFlower platform, 2, 125
Crowdsourcing firms, 146
Crowdwork platform, 122 control on, 125–126
  crowd, community, and social engineering, 126–127 crowdworking sites, 7 data and methods, 127–130 digital Taylorism, 122–123
  as new work model, 123–125 performance regulation, 122, 128–129, 133, 141 variety of control within, 130–139
Cruise-control, 49
Cultural signaling, 114
Cumbersome legislation on platforms, 148–149
Customer relationship management (CRM), 84–85
Cybervetting, 114

Data collection firms, 30
Data janitors, 22
Data-processing power, 51
Decision Point Systems, 75–76
Deeleconomie, 148
Deliveroo, 123, 146

Design of AHPs, 69, 76 decisions, 68
tasks, 132
of work platforms, 64
99Design for design, 26
Digital economy, 3–4
ethnography of software, 84 evaluation processes, 114 infrastructures, 123 operations, 4
platforms, 14, 25, 27
reputations and rankings, 133 revolution, 2–4, 9 signifiers, 113 systems, 7
Taylorism, 7, 122–123
Digitalization, 122
Direct control on crowdwork platforms, 130
macrotask platforms, 132–133
microtask platforms, 130–132
Direct digital control, 123
Diverse labor, 148
sharing economy as strategy to activating, 148–150
Diverse labor, sharing economy as strategy to activating, 148–150
Diverse workers, 148
Diversity, 158–159
"Double-edged" character of online job finding, 96
Drone aircraft, 51
Dynamex, 24
Dynamic pricing, 175, 184

E-lance, 2
Earning coins game, 179
virtual work-game of, 173–178
Earning stars, 176–177
eBay, 17, 23
Economic graph, 69
Economic theory of SBTC, 97
Économie collaborative, 148
"Ecosystem" design, 64
Elance platform (see Upwork platform)
Empirical analysis, 5
Employee, 166
Employment, 155
LSDs about, 49–52
Entertainment Software Association, 58*n*8
Entrepreneurial ideology, 166, 178
Equifax, 62
Ethnographic study, 166, 178
Ethnography of audience analytics work, 68, 71
Etsy, 17, 23
European economic governance, 147
European Trade Union Institute (ETUI), 150
Evaluative infrastructures, 126
Expedia, 23

Facebook, 19–20, 63–64, 138 apps, 30, 33
videos, 30
"Facilitation" mode, 159
Fee-for-placement model, 74
"Fissuring of work place" process, 15
Flappy Birds game, 29
Flexibilization of Belgian labor market, 150–152
"Follower-based" real-time enterprises, 30
Ford Motor Company, 166
Fordism, 166
Formal employment, 167
Fourth industrial revolution, 153
Freelancer. com, 26
Full-time employment, 25
"Fun mode", 167, 179
Fundidora, 168

"Gales of creative destruction", 2–3
Gamification, 139
Gender, 154–155
segregation of occupations and college majors, 54

General Motors, window washer working for, 17–18
Gig economy, 18, 47
  changes in labor market of monterrey, 167–169
  constitutive elements of work-games, 171–172
  different modes of playing for different players, 178–185
  factory to app, 172–173
  logging-in, 173–178
  research design, 169–171
Gig work, 141*n*1
GitHub, 32–33
Global economy, 146
Global labor markets, 149
Global political economy, 167
Global positioning system technologies, 9
Google, 19–20, 22, 31, 65
Google Play site, 28
Great Recession, 52–53, 113, 149
Greeting task, 57*n*3
Grounded Theory, 70, 97
GrubHub, 26

Handoff problem, 58*n*5
Head's up display (HUD), 49
Headhunting, 96, 113
"Heat wave", 166
Heterogeneity, 5
Hidden management structure, 177–178
High-performing crowdworkers, 124–125
High-skill online platforms, 122
HirePro software, 75, 77
Hiring practices, 97
Homogeneous group, 5
Human resource (HR) management, 152 professionals, 94, 98
  recruiters, 7

"Ideal performativity", 96, 112
"Imagined affordances" concept, 71
Import substitution industrialization model (ISI model), 167
Import Substitution Model, 168, 173, 181
In-person gig work, 25
Inclusive labor market policy, 159–160
Income, 155
Indeed website, 94–95, 98, 111
"Independent contracting" labor, 3
Independent contractor, 166
Indeterminacy, 122
"Indirect control", 166
Indirect digital control, 123
Inductive analysis, 72 Industrial
  platforms, 17, 65
  players, 181–183 sector, 170
InnoCentives, 26
Insecurity culture, 11*n*1
Instagram, 32
Institutional data imperative, 96
Intelligence augmentation (IA), 48
Intensification, 155
Internet, 32, 115, 122
  Internet-based application, 173
  Internet-based forums, 158
  Internet-based independent publishing, 28
  Internet-based job searchers, 95
  Internet-based search capacities, 7 search and recruitment, 94–97 technologies, 96
Interviewee characteristics, 119–120

Job-searchers, 171–172
"Job-searching" game, 171–172
Job(s), 46–47
  applications, 6 creation, 50
  displacement, 44 markets, 94
  search websites, 94
Jobless future critics, 44
  predictions, 44

Jobless recoveries, 113
Jornada laboral, 173–174

Kaggle, 26
Kiosk, 75–76
Kiva Systems, 36*n*9

Labor, 14, 153–154
  externalizing cost of social reproduction of, 153–155 force distinctions in platform economy, 16
  platforms, 3
  social reproduction, 160
  standardized forms of labor control, 7
Labor market, 147
  of monterrey, changes in, 167–169 polarization, 96–97, 112
  self-regulation, 156
Labor process, 123, 166 theorists, 169 theory, 8, 127
Labor-saving devices (LSDs), 5, 49 about employment, 49–52 short-run effects, 51
Lean platforms, 65
Learning games, 126, 172
LinkedIn, 32
LinkedIn, 6, 33, 68, 94–95, 98, 149
"Living wage", 154
Localizer, 169
Log-in application, 182
Log-off application, 182
Logging-in, 173–178
Logistics platforms, 17
London-based Guardian, 28–29
Low-skill online work, 122
Lyft app, 10, 19, 25, 125

Macrotasks platforms, 122, 124
  community as control, 138–139
  control through reputation and ranking systems, 135–137
  direct control on crowdwork platforms, 132–133
Management analysts, 47
Managerial strategies, 127
Manufacturing Consent (Burawoy), 172
Market for passive candidates, 101–111
Market-competition process, 20
Market-tipping dynamics, 20
"Marketplace" platforms, 124
Mass posting sites, "black hole" of, 98–101
"Matching" mechanisms, 133
McKinsey Global Institute, 18, 32
Mediocrity, 102
Micro-tasks, 26
Microsoft Azure, 15
Microtasks platforms, 122, 124
  community as control, 137–138
  control through reputation and ranking systems, 133–135
  direct control on crowdwork platforms, 130–132
Middle-ground practices, 111–112
Minimalist fashion, 127
Mobility, 94
Moderate beneficiaries, 17
Monetization methods, 30
Monster website, 94–95, 98, 111
Monster.com, 6, 74
Monterrey, changes in labor market of, 167–169
Movimiento, 175–176, 184

National economic growth, 167
Neoliberal capitalism, 154
Neoliberal model, 168
Netflix, 17
Network logics, 115
Neutral Union of Self-Employed, 159
New industries creation, 50
New York City, Uber in, 25–26
New York Times, 30
Nike on Google, 31–32
Non-platform organization content producers, 31–32
Norm-backed control, 67
Normative control, 127

O*Net, 46
"Objective" mediator, 178
Occupational change, rate of, 53–56
Occupational information, 53
Offshoring, 26
On demand economy, 17
  "gig work", 122 work, 141*n*1
One profile rule, 6
Online gaming firms, 30
Online labor markets
  "black hole" of mass posting sites, 98–101
  data and methodology, 97–98 implications, 112–115 internet search and recruitment, 94–97
  interviewee characteristics, 119–120
  market for passive candidates, 101–111
  middle-ground practices, 111–112
Online labour, 141*n*1 Online marketplaces, 23 for contingent work, 147
Online platforms, 123
Online retailing, 24
Organizational actors, 96
Organizational psychologists, 47
Our Robots, Ourselves (Mindell), 48
Outsourcing, 26

Participation economy, 33
Passive brokers, 8
Passive candidates, market for, 101–111 fishing for passive talent, 106–108 hunting for purple squirrels, 109–111 stigma of active search, 103–104 variation in targeted recruitment, 104–106 wooing passive candidates, 108–109 work of filling job openings, 101–102
Path-dependent network effects, 20
Patreon (crowd-funding website), 30
Performance regulation in crowdwork, 122, 128–129, 133, 141
Personal assistants, 48
Personal conversations, 48
Physical retail, 24
Pinterest postings, 30
Platform capitalism, 2–4, 63–64, 67 advocates, 2–3 critics of, 3
  future paths for research, 9–11 Platform economy (see also Sharing economy), 3, 14, 122, 155–157 analytic framework/taxonomy, 15–19 evidence of racialization, 9 impeded analysis, 5 labor force distinctions in, 16 platform-mediated content creation, 27–33 platform-mediated work, 23–27
  work at platform firms, 19–22 Platform firms, 2, 15–16, 19, 148 contractors, 21–22 employees, 19–21 employment, revenue, and revenue per employee, 21 work at, 19–22
Platform workers, 5–6 active or agentic features, 8
Platform-based "sharing economy", 68
Platform-based firms, 147, 153–155, 157
Platform-based income, 18
Platform-created ecosystems, 17
Platform-dependent workers, 17
Platform-mediated content creation, 27
  consignment content producers, 27–31
  non-platform organization content producers, 31–32
  user-generated content, 32–33

Platform-mediated work, 23, 147
  platform-mediated in-person service provision, 24–26 platform-mediated marketplaces, 23–24 platform-mediated remote contracting, 26–27
Platforms, 63, 122, 128, 134
  AHP, 63–64
  application policies for 2017 Fortune 500 list, 90–91 authoritarianism, 7, 10, 62, 66 automated hiring becomes web platform, 76–78 CDA, 69–70 contemporary work platform vendors, 83 data analysis, 72–73 data collection, 71–72
  Decision Point Systems and Kiosk, 75–76 findings, 73 future research directions, 83–85 increased retention, 80 job boards and experimental software, 74 loss prevention, 78–79 methodology, 69
  new classified sections, 74 reduced hiring bias, 79 reduced hiring time, 79–80 reducing friction, increasing fragmentation, 80–81 reputational system, 8 revolution in Belgium, 9
  sociology of work, 62–63, 64–69
  triangulating claimed benefits, 78 Playing modes for different players, 178 divergences in work-games according to employment trajectory of drivers, 180 industrial players, 181–183 playing game, 185 precarious players, 183–184
  professional players, 179, 181
  students, 184–185
Polarity, 48
Polarization-inducing effect, 7
Policy responses, 53
"Polite but not talkative" type passenger, 177
Positive disruption, 149
Post-capitalism, 166
Post-Fordism, 166
PostMates, 25–26
Power, 123
"Pre-emption" laws, 10
Pre-Web Bulletin Board Services, 74
Precarious players, 183–184
Priceline, 23
Product platforms, 17, 65
Professional knowledge, 124
Professional players, 179, 181
Professional social media websites, 94
Profiler, 76
Purple squirrels, 109–111

Race, 154–155
Raison d'être of platforms, 63
Random surfers, 17
Ranking systems, 133–137
Raterhub, 22
ReCAPTCHA service, 33
Recruiters, 103
Recruiting websites, 94
Redistributive state–citizen relationship, 167
"Regular" workers, 149
Remote labor-sourcing, 27
Remuneration, 124
Répondez S'il Vous Plaît, 101
Reputation systems, 126 control through, 133
  macrotask platforms, 135–137
  microtask platforms, 133–135
Reputational controls, 7
Retail apocalypse, 5
RingDNA, 85
Risk society, 11*n*1
"Robot exposed" industrial workers, 45
Robots, 45
"Rude but not talkative" type passenger, 177
"Rule enforcers", 178

"Rule makers", 178
"Rules of game", 172, 183

Salesforce, 85
  lease digital services, 65
Scandinavian systems, 156
Secular stagnation, 113
Self-driving vehicles, 49
Self-employed individuals, 153
Self-employment, 158
Self-regulation, 147, 156
Sensor-assisted systems, 49
Sequencing, 52–53
Service vouchers, 149
Service work, 176
Set your own Schedule and Earn Instant Money (slogan-triad of emancipatory resonance), 169 Shadow Work (Lambert), 58*n*4
Sharing economy (see also Platform economy), 2, 17, 35*n*1, 146, 148, 156–157, 159–160 business model of platform-based firms, 153–155 as recent step in flexibilization of Belgian labor market, 150–152 as strategy to activate diverse labor, 148–150 workers equally in Belgian labor market, 157–160
Single-site ethnographies, 85
Siri (Apple), 48
Skill-biased technological change (SBTC), 97
Slack, 36*n*14
#Slaveroo movement, 8
SMart, 159
Snap, 19
Snapchat, 32–33
Social
  capital, 83, 137
  consultation, 156
  dialog, 151 engineering, 126–127 insurance safety net, 155 media networks, 138 media platforms, 63
  networking websites, 95 partners, 156
  reproduction of labor, 147, 153–155, 154 security contributions, 155 stratification, 94
Socio-demographics, 160
Socio-economic process, 154
Socio-ideological control, 127
Socio-technical work system, 123
Sociology of work, 62–64, 85
  platform studies, 64–65 sociology of platforms at work, 65–69
Space-bound astronauts, 49
Specter of automation, 44
"Speedup" hypothesis, 53
Spotify, 17, 19
Srnicek notes, 65
"Standard" employment de facto, 158
Star creators, 29
State-driven economic model, 167
State-led industrialization, 167–168
Stigma of active search, 103–104
Stock theft reduction, 78 Structured data fields, 74–75
"Summer agreement", 156
Superchat, 30
Surveillance, 51, 67, 125, 131
Survival mode, 167, 179, 182–183

Talent management division, 77
Talent poaching, 96
"Talkative and rude" type passenger, 177
"Talkative type" passenger, 176–177
Task complementarity, 48–49
Task-replacement framework, 45–47, 58*n*7 task complementarity vs., 48–49 unstated assumptions, 47–48
Task-substitution method (Frey and Osborne), 46

Taskification, 3
TaskRabbit, 2, 26, 36*n*12, 147
Tax breaks, provision of, 9
Tax filings, 18
Taxis, 169
Taylorist management, 66
Technical control, 66 Technology, 66–67
  technological systems, 52 technology-based performance control, 131
TELCEL (monopolistic telecommunication corporation in Mexico), 181
Thematic codes, 69
Theoretical sampling strategies, 98
Timing, 52–53
Trade unions, 156
Traditional employees, 157
Traditional job surveys, 18
Traditional media, 32
Traditional organizational forms, 166
Transformative power vis-á-vis "traditional" economy, 3
Transportation service provider, 169–170
TubeMogul, 30
Tumblr, 64
Twitch ecosystem, 30–31
Twitch gaming network, 27
Twitter, 20, 30, 32, 35, 63

Uber, 2, 6, 9–10, 19, 25, 36*n*8, 65, 68, 123, 146, 166 app, 125, 176 corporation, 178 drivers, 169–170 model, 166 service, 170
  Uer lacks management structure, 173
  virtualized management system, 172–173
Uber-work game, 179–180
"Ubercapital", 113, 115*n*3
Uncertainty, 6, 155, 172, 183, 184
  labor market, 8
Unemployment, 115*n*4, 155
UNI Global Union (2017), 159
Unicru, 72, 76–78, 80
Union of Independent Entrepreneurs, 159
Upwork platform, 26, 125–126, 147, 150
User-generated content (UGC), 17, 32–33, 64

Value creation, 14 activities, 17
Venture labor, 19–21
Vidcon franchise, 36*n*19
Virtual work-game of earning coins, 173 accepting rides, 174
  earning stars, 176–177
  hidden management structure, 177–178
  locating Movimiento, 175–176
Visibility, 138
Vitro, 168

Waiting mode, 179, 181–182
Web platform, automated hiring becomes, 76–78
Welfare state insurance and services, 155
WhatsApp, 20, 137
"Winner take all" labor markets, 96, 113 principle, 133
Word processing, 50
Work, 14, 17
  diary, 125
  future of work, 44, 46 games, 166
  at platform firms, 19–22
Work platforms, 17, 62, 147 design of, 64
Work-games in Gig-economy
  changes in labor market of Monterrey, 167–169

constitutive elements, 171–172
different modes of playing for different players, 178–185
factory to app, 172–173
logging-in, 173–178
research design, 169–171
Workers protection in Belgian labor market, 157–160
Workforce science, 63
World Wide Web, 27, 48, 94–95, 107
Xerox copying machine, 50
Yelp!, 19, 32
YouTube, 17, 27–29, 64
creators, 30–31
videos, 18
YouTubers, sources of income for, 31
Zynga (Internet game firm), 20