

INDEX

- Accidents, 140, 149–150, 152
Ambidexterity, 190
Ambiguity, 165–166
Antonymies, 30, 32
Apollonian form, 151
Australian emergency management,
 69–71
- Baecker's analysis, 145
Belonging paradoxes, 113–115
Birth of Tragedy, The, 150–151
Brisbane flood, 71
Bureaucracies, 32
- Change, 177
 management strategy, 168
Chaos, 150–152
Cognitive dissonance, 88, 91
Communications, 52
Complexity, 177
Comprehensive approach, 72–73
Consilience, 5
Contemporary emergency management, 72 (see also Emergency management) comprehensive emergency management based on PPPR, 73–74
 economic reform, 72–73
Cooperation, 105
Cosmology episodes, 77
Creativity, 124, 126
Cultural belief systems, 19
Cyclone Tracy, 71–72
- Decision paradox, 50 at heart of organization, 52–54 paradox as mundane, everyday persistence located in core operations, 58–59
- Decision premises, 57
Deparadoxification, 55–56
Deparadoxization, 50 concealing and paradox
 latency as active work, 59–60
 need to displace and conceal paradox through, 54–58
Developing paradoxical frames, 32
Dialectics, 40, 181–187
Dialetheism, 30
Differentiation, 152
Digital transformation, 15
Dilemma, 95
Dionysian, 151–153
Disaster years, 71
Discourses in organization theory,
 188–191
Disorganization, 70
Distinction, 145, 147, 167
Dual integrity, 68 Dynamic equilibrium model of
 paradox, 59, 61–62, 96
- Eclecticism, 187–188
Effectiveness, 177
Effortless Mastery (Werner), 124
Embeddedness of linguistic tensions,
 111–115
Embeddness, irony of, 166–168
Emergency management historical embeddness, 69–72
 paradox, 66–67
 ritual and reality in, 92–96
Emergency Management
 Australia, 74
Epistemology, 6–7
Error correction, 96
Explicitness-implicitness linguistic
 paradox, 110–111

- Falsidical paradoxes, 29
 Flexibility, 8–9
 Foreign languages, 6
 Form, 142
 Formal logic, 28 (see also Plural logics)
 map for exploring, 36–41
 and organizational paradoxes, 30–33
 paradoxes and, 28–30
Free Play (Nachmanovitch), 124

 Game of authority, 57
 Generalizability-specificity linguistic paradox, 105–108
 Grabbing hold practice, 131–132

 Harmony, 125–126
 Historical data, 68
 Hybridity organizations, 36

 Icarus Paradox, 164
 Imaginary process, 146–147
 Imperial Conference (1930), 69
 Improvisations, 124, 126–127
 Innovation, 177
 Institutional logics, 35
 Integrated approach, 72–73
 Intentionality, 127–130
 irony of, 163–165
 Interdisciplinary paradox scholarship, approaches to, 5–17
 Interdisciplinary research, 3–4 challenges, 4–6
 possibilities for future paradox studies, 17–19 Irony, 164
 of ambiguity, 165–166 of embeddness, 166–168 of intentionality, 163–165

 Jazz improvisation, 6, 124 intentional aspects, 128–129 intentionality and, 127–130 paradoxes in organizations and, 125–127 practical implications, 134 unintentional aspects, 129–130

 Jazz inspirations, 163–165
 Jazz musicians, 124–125, 128–129
 modulate intentional control, 130–132
 Jung, 141, 149–150

 Labor government, 71
 Language, 29, 101
 embeddedness of linguistic tensions, 111–115
 explicitness-implicitness linguistic paradox, 110–111
 generalizability-specificity linguistic paradox, 105–108
 linguistic paradoxes, 104–105
 nested paradoxes within organizing paradoxes, 115–116
 universalism-particularism linguistic paradox, 108–109
 Latent tensions, 31
Laws of Form, 140–147
 Learning paradoxes, 112–113
 “Letting go” practice, 131–132
 Liar paradox, 27–28
 Linguistic paradoxes, 103–105
 and embedded organizational paradoxes, 106
 Linguistics, 102–103
 inspirations from, 165–166
 Logic(s), 28, 88–92 (see also Formal logic)
 in management and organization theory, 33–36
 map for exploring, 36–41
 of practice, 33–34
 of theory, 33–34
 Logical framing of paradox, 36
 Logical puzzles, 27–28
 Logical tradition, 29
 Logical types, 87
 Luhmann’s deparadoxization approach, 61–62
 Luhmann’s system theory, 10
 Luhmann’s writings on organizational paradox, 50–51 decision paradox at heart of organization, 52–54

- implications, 58–62
 - need to displace and conceal paradox through deparadoxization, 54–58
- Marxist dialectics, 186
- Mathematics, inspirations from, 166–168
- Melody, 125–126
- Meta-language, 30
- Methodology, 12–13
- Methodological approach, 67–69
- Methodological bricolage, 14–15
- Methodological integrity, 67–68
- Metonymy, 107–108
- Mitigation, 67
- Moore's paradox, 104
- Multi-level paradox research
 - design, 16
- Multiplicity, 187–188
- Music, 5–6, 125
- National Disaster Relief Committee, 72
- Natural disasters, organizational response to, 71–72
- Natural Disasters Organization (NDO), 71
- Nested paradoxes within organizing paradoxes, 115–116
- Nietzsche, 150–152
- Nothing, 147–150, 154–156
- Ontological assumptions, 4
- Ontology, 11
- Organization(al) theory, 17, 33–36, 126, 181
 - discourses in, 188–191
 - inspirations, 189–190
- Organization(al), 102–103, 141–147
 - history, 66
 - response to natural disasters, 71–72
 - scholars, 5
 - scripts, 71
- Organizational paradox, 28, 37, 50, 66
 - contemporary emergency management, 72–75
 - emergency management paradox, 66–67
 - emergency management's historical embeddedness, 69–72
 - formal logic and, 30–33
 - methodological approach, 67–69
 - rituals and realities, 78–81
 - uncertainty and, 77–78
- Organizational paradox scholarship, 176
 - conversations to surface recommendations for future, 191–193
 - paradox theory, 193–194
 - past inspirations and future possibilities, 176–191
- Paradox, 27–28, 87–92, 164–165, 166
 - of embedded agency, 167
 - and formal logic, 28–30
 - in management and organization theory, 33–36
 - mindsets, 31, 42
 - in organizations, 125–127
 - organizing, 115
 - of paradox, 68
 - research, 50
 - scholars, 50
 - theory, 4–5, 14, 50, 176, 193–194
 - as way of reflecting complex realities, 177–181
- Partisanship, 181
- Performing paradoxes, 111–112
- Phenomenon-driven discovery within organizational paradox research, 178–180
- Phenomenon-driven research approach, 14
- Philosophy, 4
- Plural logics, 34–36
 - of practice, 40–41
 - of theory, 38–39
- Plurality, 177
- Poetry, inspirations from, 166–168
- Political fragmentation, 181
- Political polarization, 181
- Political science, 4
- Post-heroic management, 145–146

- Practice theory, 34
 Pragmatic paradoxes, 40
 Prepared community approach, 73
 Preparedness, 67
 Prevention, preparedness, response and recovery approach (PPPR approach), 73 comprehensive emergency management based on, 73–74
 Prototypicality, 107–108
 Psychology, 181–187
 Psychology, 4
 Puzzle of recursiveness, 167
- Rationality, 35
 Re-entry, 144–145
 into organization studies, 152–154 Reality, 6
 in emergency management, 92–96
 in organizational paradox, 78–81
 Recovery, 67
 Red Cross Disaster Services Department, 72
 Reflexivity, 8–9
 Response, 67
 Rhetorical tradition, 29
 Rhythm, 125–126
 Risk, 68–69
 management, 76
 risk-driven approach, 73 risk-related paradoxes, 76 Rituals
 in emergency management, 92–96
 in organizational paradox, 78–81
 Russel's paradox, 30
- Security paradox, 66
 Semantic paradoxes, 29, 31
 Seminal organizational paradox scholars, conversation provoking questions for, 200
 Set-theoretic paradoxes, 30, 32
Seven Sermons of Death (Jung), 149
 Sexual harassment, 181
- Singular/logic, 34–36
 of practice, 39–40
 of theory, 38
 Social embeddedness, 167
 Social paradoxes, 10
 Social structure, paradox of, 87–96
 Sociological conceptualization, 68
 Sounds, 102
 Specific Purpose Payments (SPPs), 72
 Sterile supercoherence, 5
 Strategic ambiguity, 165
 Structural paradoxes, 50
 Superficiality, 4–5
 System complexity, 31
- Tasmanian Black Tuesday bushfires, 71
 Tensions, 5, 8–9, 30
 Theory
 Luhmann's system, 10 of observation, 55
 organization(al), 17, 33–36, 126, 181
 of social systems, 51 “Third ear” practice, 131–132
 Traditional emergency management approach, 72
 Tried-and-trusted method, 33
- Ubuntu theory, 10
 Uncertainty, 66, 68–69, 75–76
 degree of, 93
 domain, 76
 and organizational paradoxes, 77–78
 source, 39
 Unexpected events, 68
 Unified diversity, 165
 Universalism-particularism linguistic paradox, 108–109
 Veridical paradoxes, 29
 Violence, 141, 149
- Words, 102, 105, 109
 Zeno's paradox of motion, 29