

INDEX

- Academic achievement, 101
- Academic readiness skills, 168–169
- Academic skills and potential mediators, 67
- Academic success, 160, 230
- Acculturating youth, SEL for, 151
- Acculturative stress, 149
- Achievement, identity and, 101–103
- Achievement goal theory, 5–6, 27–28
- Acknowledgment, 130–131
- Adolescents, SDT application with, 62
- Adult decision-making, 128–129
- Advance educational equity, 9, 230
- After-school, 214
- Agency, self-efficacy and, 169–170
- Agentic engagement, 71–72
- Aguantar/resiliencia, 14, 147
- American Psychological Association (APA), 165
- Anti-Black racism, 100–101
- Autonomous motivation, 48–49, 52
- Autonomy, 49–51
 - autonomy-supportive practices, 54–55
 - support for SEC, 54
- Autonomy-Supportive Intervention Program (ASIP), 72–73
- Basic psychological needs (BPN), 63–64
 - satisfaction, 66–69
 - universality of BPN across cultures, 68–69
- Before-school, 214
- Behavioral skills, 23–24
- Bidirectional partnership
 - guiding principles in action, 200–206
 - recommendations for future directions for RPPs, 208–209
 - research and practice-based learnings, 207–208
 - research-practice partnership, 199–200
- Black, Indigenous, and people of color (BIPOC), 9–10
- Black students, 103, 128
- Capstone paper, 165
- Care system, cultivating, 84
- Children, SDT application with, 62
- Civic engagement, 116
 - through SEL instruction, 180
- Classroom, 80
- Climate science curriculum, 24–25
- Climate-culture (CC), 199
- Codify promising practices, 205
- Cognitive restructuring skills, 150
- Collaborative for Academic, Social, and Emotional Learning (CASEL), 3–4, 25, 80, 114, 146, 160, 180, 214
 - competencies, 44–45
- Collaborative inquiry projects and processes, 234–237
 - analysis, synthesis, and application, 237
 - artifacts from workgroup-led stakeholder engagement activities, 235–237
 - landscape scan conducted by education Northwest, 234–235
- Collectivism, 147
- Collie’s model, 49
- Color-evasive ideology, 100–101
- Color-evasiveness, 101

- Communal learning experiences, 103
- Community collaboration, 231
- Community participation, 116
- Community-based research assistants (CRAs), 189
 - mutual support through, 189–190
- Communitywide vision for SEL, 239
- Compassion-based approaches, 84–85
- Compassionate leadership, 85–86
- Competence, 49–51
 - beliefs, 5–6
 - competence-supportive practices, 53–54
 - support for SEC, 54
- Complementarity of partners, 186–187
- Complex socioemotional–cognitive processes, 82
- Coping with Acculturative Stress in American Schools (CASAS), 155–156
- Coronavirus pandemic, 2
- Cost, 29
 - cost-reducing interventions, 30–31
 - cost-related interventions, 30–31
 - cost-related motivation, 29
- COVID-19
 - crisis, 86
 - pandemic, 115–116, 161, 199–200
- Critical consciousness, 164
- Cultivating Awareness and Resilience in Education program (CARE program), 81
- Cultural adaptation process (CAP), 153
- Cultural adaptations, 153
- Cultural awareness and knowledge, 165–168
- Cultural competence, 101, 160
- Cultural Orientations Indicator® (COI), 163–164
- Culturally relevant curriculum to support motivation and SEL, 32–35
- Culturally relevant pedagogy (CRP), 100–101
 - developmental appropriateness, 104
 - equity and excellence, 103
 - identity and achievement, 101–103
 - incorporating CRP into teacher training on SEL, 106–108
 - and SEL, 101–105
 - student–teacher relationships, 105
 - teaching whole child, 104–105
- Culturally responsive education, 160
- Culturally responsive SEL strategies
 - culturally adapted SEL for, 154–156
 - for LYOI, 152
- Culturally responsive social emotional education
 - academic and professional readiness skills, 168–169
 - cultural awareness and knowledge, 165, 168, 170–171
 - cultural competence and SEL, 160–161
 - data sources, 163–165
 - international education, 161–163
 - methods, 163–165
 - participants, 163
 - results, 165–170
 - SEL skill sets, 171–172
 - self-efficacy and agency, 169–170
- Culture, grounding in, 9–10
- Data Deep Dives voice, 200–202, 207–208
- Data sharing, 191
 - ongoing data sharing promoted active collaboration, 191–192
- Debunking intervention myths, 31–32
- Decision-making
 - implicit bias role in, 129–130
 - process in school contexts, 140
- Delphi process, 221
- Developmental appropriateness, 104
- Discipline decision, 129–130

- Disproportionality, 132
 identify group with highest, 133
- Dual-process models, 129
- Ecological systems theory, 232–233
- Ecological theory, 7
- Ecological-systems RPP approach, 16
- Ecology validity model (EVM), 153
- Educational equity, 167
 researchers, 44
- Educators, 128
- Effective classroom practices, 128–129
- Effective SEL, 239
- Elevate student voice, 201
- Emancipatory pedagogy, 103
- Emotional development, 2
- Emotional intelligence, 4, 23–24 models, 7
- Emotionally competent behaviors,
 45–47
- Empathy, 105
- English Language Development
 (ELD), 145
- Equitable decision points (EDPs), 134
- Equitable environments, 12
- Equitable SEL
 aligning educator practice and conditions for learning in support of, 225
 connecting research and practice
 through partnership, 216–217
 elevating context and recognizing readiness, 224–225
 implications and future directions for research, practice, and policy, 224–227
 learning from and with each other and sharing, 226–227
 lessons learned from SEL-focused
 RPP, 217–224
 measurement considerations, 225–226
 out-of-school time and SEL,
 214–216
- Equity, 103, 160, 198
 considerations, 54–55 equity-driven classrooms, 103
 equity-driven climate teachers, 103 grounding in, 9–10
 lens intrinsic to RPPs, 183–184
 through motivation interventions, 29–31
 and SEL, 13–15
- Equity-focused RPP, 184–187
 complementarity of partners, 186–187
 mutually beneficial goals, 185–186
 shared interest sparks conversation, 184–185
- Evidence-based practices, 128–129
- Evolutionary motivational systems theory, 85, 89
- Excellence, 103
- Exclusionary discipline practices, 139
- Expectancy-related interventions, 30
- Expectancy-value-costs researchers, 6–7
- Expectancy-value theory, 24–25
- Expectancy-value-cost framework, 24–25
 of motivation, 28–29
- External regulation, 63
- Extrinsic motivation, 63
- Facilitated conversations, 235
- Familismo, 14, 147
- Feedback sessions, 235, 237
- Fixed mindsets, 48
- Foundations for Young Adult
 Success, 4
- Fundamental classes of mental operations, 7
- Goal orientation, 5–6
- Goal valence, 5–6
- Goal-setting theory, 27–28
- Graduate Record Examinations
 (GRE), 30–31

- Grounding in culture and equity, 9–10
 Growth mindsets, 48
- Higher Achievement, 222
 Hispanic/Latino students, 144–145
 Human social behavior, 83
- Identified regulation, 63
 Identity and achievement, 101–103
 development, 180
 identity-related threats, 29
 Immigrants, culturally adapted SEL for, 154–156
 Implicit bias
 identify group with highest disproportionality, 133
 role in decision-making, 129–130
 SEL theory and practice to address, 131–133 teacher stress, leadership style, and,
 88
 Inequity, 116
 Instructional practices, 53–55
 Integrated regulation, 63
 Intentional strategies to foster partnership, 183
 Interest theory, 29
 International education, 161–163
 Interpersonal abilities, 23–24
 Interpersonal inequities, 2
 Intersectionality, 101–102 framework, 108
 Interventionists, 153
 Interventions based on SDT, 66
 Intrapersonal abilities, 23–24
 Intrinsic motivation, 63
 Intrinsic–extrinsic motivation theories, 29
 Introjected regulation, 63
- Jovenes Fuertes* program, 154–156
 Justice-focused SEL instruction,
 114–116
- Justice-oriented SEL instruction,
 116–117
- K-12 policy and practice, 230
 Kindergarten, 106–107
 Knowledge, 4
- Language of participants, 153
 Latino English Language Learners
 (ELLs). See Latino youth of immigration (LYOI)
 Latino Youth and Family
 Empowerment (LYFE),
 154
 Latino Youth of Immigration
 (LYOI), 14, 144–146,
 151 culturally adapted SEL for immigrants, 154–156 culturally responsive SEL strategies for, 152
 Latino youth in US schools,
 144–146
 protective factors, 147–148
 SEL for acculturating youth, 151 trauma-focused SEL for, 146 unique sociocultural and emotional needs and risk factors of, 148–151
 unique sociocultural factors to addressed for, 146 validated models/frameworks for developing cultural adaptations, 151–153
- Leadership styles, 13, 85–86
 teacher stress, leadership style, and
 implicit bias, 88
 teacher stress, leadership style, and student adversity,
 87–88
 teacher stress impact on, 86–88
- Learning, 205–206
 process, 214
 Logic models, 217
 Long-term partnerships, 182

- MAXQDA data analysis software, 118–119
- Metaphors, 153
- Mindfulness-based approaches, 84–85
- Mindsets, 4
- Motivation, 3, 24
 - adopting practical measure of motivation in STEM classrooms, 32–33
 - autonomous motivation, 48–49
 - connections between SEL and motivation, 25–28
 - constructs and theories, 24
 - constructs promote students engagement, 49
 - culturally relevant curriculum to support motivation and SEL, 32–35
 - debunking intervention myths, 31–32
 - future directions, 55–56
 - growth mindsets, 48
 - increasing value through cultural and regional relevance, 33–35
 - linkage between CASEL social and emotional competencies and classic theories and constructs of motivation, 26–27
 - promoting SEL and equity through motivation interventions, 29–31
 - salient motivation constructs and theory, 47–49
 - science, 5–6
 - SDT and, 62–63
 - and SEL, 12–13
 - SEL through lens of
 - expectancy–value–cost framework of motivation, 28–29
 - social goals, 47–48
 - theory and research, 25–32
- Motivation theories, 2, 5, 7, 44
 - intersection between SEL and, 7–9
 - research–practice partnerships, connecting SEL and, 10–11
- Motivational systems from evolutionary perspective, 82–85
- Motives, 83–84
- Multidimensionality of motivation, 5–6
- Multiple instructional strategies, 4–5
- Mutual support through community-based research assistants, 189–190
- Mutualism, 198
 - commitment to, 182–183
- National Character Initiative, 223
- National Commission on Social, Emotional, and Academic Development, 198
- NatureBridge, 221
- Need-supportive practices, 66–69
 - teachers and parents
 - need-supportive behaviors, 72
- Neutralizing routines, 136–137
 - advance research of
 - decision-making process in school contexts, 140
 - approach to increase racial equity in school discipline, 130–131
 - boost social and emotional competencies to interrupt coercive interactions, 139
 - design, 137
 - identify vulnerable decision points, 133–136
 - implicit bias role in
 - decision-making, 129–130
 - leverage inclusion of or changes to social and emotional standards, 139
 - recommendation, 139–140
 - SEL theory and practice to address implicit bias, 131–133

- teach and practice neutralizing
 - routine with educators, 137
- teach and practice stuck points and neutralizing routine with students, 137–138
- NewSchools Venture Fund, 198–199
- Non-classroom-based learning
 - opportunities, 214
- Noncognitive skills, 4, 23–24

- Observational learning, 80
- Office discipline referral (ODR), 131
- Office of Superintendent of Public Instruction (OSPI), 231–232
- On-line survey, 236
 - on OSPI, 235
- One-size-fits-all texts, 33–34
- Online course evaluation survey, 165
- Oregon Social Learning Center (OSLC), 154
- Out-of-school time (OST), 16, 214
 - and SEL, 214–216

- Parent
 - beliefs, 70
 - need-supportive behaviors, 72
- Partners complementarity, 186–187
- Pedagogical approach, 100–101
- Perceived autonomy, 49–51
- Perceived relatedness, 51
- Perceived social and emotional autonomy, 51
- Perceived social and emotional competence, 51
- Perceptions of capacities, 51
- Playworks, 224
- 8-point Likert scale, 34
- Positive ethnic identity, 14, 147
- Postsecondary readiness, 230
- Practice-based learnings, 207–208
- Professional learning communities (PLCs), 186
 - collaborating in, 191
- Professional readiness skills, 168–169

- Prosocial Classroom Model, 13, 80, 82, 87
- Prosocial leadership, 85–86
- Protective factors, 147–148
- Psychological costs, 29–31

- Racial bias, 88, 129
- Racial discrimination, 104
- Racial equity, Assessing data,
 - Culturally responsive behavior strategies and Teaching Project (ReACT Project), 130, 137–138
- Racial equity in school discipline, 130–131
- Racial implicit biases, 131–132
- Racial inequities in education, 101
- Racism, 100–101
 - in student schooling experiences, 108
- Readiness, 225
 - elevating context and recognizing, 224–225
 - postsecondary, 230
- Regional Educational Laboratory (REL), 232
- Relatedness, 49, 51, 63–64
 - support, 54
- Relationship skills, 45, 4, 62, 146, 160
 - competencies, 27–28
- Relationship-building behaviors, 48
- Research design, 181, 193
- Research-practice partnerships (RPPs)
 - bidirectional nature of, 198
 - collaborating in professional learning communities, 191
 - collecting data to reflect multiple voices, 188–189
 - commitment to mutualism, 182–183
 - connecting research and practice through partnership, 216–217

- connecting SEL and motivation, 10–11
- defining problem of practice, 233
- developing shared commitments and strategies, 233–234
- embracing uncertainty as opportunity, 190
- equity lens intrinsic to, 183–184
- equity-focused RPP, 184–187
- examples of RPP grounded in context, 223–224
- focus on problems of practice, 182
- focus on what we can control, 222–223
- individuals and organizations, 218–219
- intentional strategies to foster partnership, 183
- lessons learned from SEL-focused RPP, 217–224
- long-term partnerships, 182 and methods, 233–234
- mutual support through community-based research assistants, 189–190
- ongoing data sharing promoted active collaboration, 191–192
- people at center of work, 217–218
- produce original analyses, 183
- recruiting partners who shared goals, 187–188
- responsive data collection, 188–190
- SEL needs to authentic, aligned, and grounded in context, 219–222
- shared data to address problems of practice, 190–192
- values as behavioral motivators for researchers and educators, 182–183
- values motivated partners, 187–192
- Research–practice partnerships (RPP), 2, 15–16, 180–181, 184, 198–200, 215–216, 230
- ReSource Project, 84–85
- Respeto, 14, 147
- Responding practices, 130–131
- Responsible decision-making, 45, 4, 62, 103, 146, 160
- Restorative practices, 128
- Salient motivation constructs and theory, 47–49
- School and Community Pathways to Engagement (SCoPE)*, 14–15, 116–117, 180, 185
- School culture, 204
- School engagement, 230
- School leaders, 73
 - educators perceptions, 203
 - family feedback, 203
 - from RPP, 202
 - student belonging, 203
- School-based SEL, 232–233
- School-Wide Information System (SWIS), 134
- School-wide neutralizing routine, 136–137
- School-wide positive behavior interventions and supports (SWPBIS), 128
- School-wide systematic approach, 128–129
- School-wide VDP, 136
- Science, technology, engineering, and math fields (STEM fields), 24
 - adopting practical measure of motivation in STEM classrooms, 32–33
- Self-aware behaviors, 45, 47–48
- Self-awareness, 45, 4, 30, 62, 103, 146, 160, 231–232
 - competency, 25
- Self-determination theory (SDT), 5–6
- Self-determination theory (SDT), 29, 49, 51, 62, 183
 - alignment between SDT and student SEL, 69–72
 - factors from above, 71

- factors from below, 71–72
 - factors from within, 70–71
 - future directions for research and practice, 74–75
 - implications for policy and practice, 72–73
 - and motivation, 62–63
 - SDT-based interventions, 66
- Self-efficacy, 5–6, 231–232
 - and agency, 169–170
- Self-management, 45, 4, 30, 62, 105, 146, 160, 231–232
 - competency, 27–28
- Self-regulation, 3, 45, 5–7, 27–28
- Self-regulatory behaviors, 45, 47–48
- Sense of school belonging, 150
- Six-point Likert scale, 164
- Skills, 3
- Social and emotional autonomous motivation, 52
- Social and emotional behaviors, 52–53
- Social and emotional competence (SEC), 44, 47, 80
 - autonomous motivation, 52
 - behaviors, and perceived competence, 46
 - creating virtuous cycle, 53
 - equity considerations, 54–55
 - instructional practices teachers implement to promote SEC development, 53–55
 - School Model, 49–50, 53
 - social and emotional behaviors, 52–53
 - three perceptions of autonomy, competence, and relatedness, 49–51
- Social and emotional competencies and capacities (SECC), 13, 102
 - teachers, 103
- Social and emotional development, 203
- Social and emotional learning (SEL), 2–5, 23–24, 44–45, 62, 80, 100, 114, 128–129, 144, 160, 180, 198, 214, 230
 - for acculturating youth, 151
 - alignment between SDT and student SEL, 69–72
 - connections between motivation and, 25–28
 - CRP and, 101–105
 - cultural competence and, 160–161
 - culturally relevant curriculum to support motivation and, 32–35
 - equity and, 13–15
 - grounding in culture and equity, 9–10
 - incorporating culturally relevant pedagogy into teacher training on, 106–108
 - intersection between SEL and motivation theory, 7–9
 - through lens of expectancy–value–cost framework of motivation, 28–29
 - lessons learned from SEL-focused RPP, 217–224
 - motivation and, 12–13
 - overview of, 3–10
 - present volume, 11–16
 - promoting SEL and equity through motivation interventions, 29–31
 - research–practice partnerships, connecting SEL and motivation, 10–11
 - RPP, 15–16
 - schools need help to ground SEL in community and cultural values, 238–240
 - SEL-centered RPPs, 207–208
 - skill, 164
 - student SEL, 66–69
 - teacher stress impact on SEL Instruction, 87

- theory and practice to address
 - implicit bias, 131–133
 - Social and emotional learning and
 - development, 219
 - Social and emotional skills, 23–24, 68
 - Social awareness, 45, 4, 62, 103,
 - 146–147, 160, 180, 231–232
 - Social cognitive theories, 7
 - Social demonstration-approach goal,
 - 47
 - Social demonstration-avoid goal, 47
 - Social development, 2, 47
 - Social engagement, 231–232
 - Social environment role, 64–66
 - Social goals, 47–48
 - Social inequity, 100–101
 - Social justice framing of SEL, 114
 - Social learning theory, 7
 - Social management, 231–232
 - Social mentalities, 83–84
 - Social psychology, 129
 - Social skills and potential mediators,
 - 68
 - Social-cognitive domain theory, 104
 - Social-cognitive models of
 - motivation, 5–6
 - Social-cognitive perspectives, 182–183
 - Social-cultural factors, 144
 - Sociality, 82
 - Socially competent behaviors, 45–47
 - Sociopolitical consciousness, 101
 - Soft skills, 23–24
 - Staff capacity, 204
 - Stakeholder
 - diverse stakeholder groups in
 - developing systems-level
 - SEL guidance, 240
 - engagement process, 233–234
 - insights, 237–240
 - schools need help to ground SEL in
 - community and cultural
 - values, 238–240
 - build capacity for stakeholder
 - engagement into multiple
 - phases, 240–241
 - collaborative inquiry projects and
 - processes, 234–237
 - convene multisector RPPs to
 - support work, 241–242
 - efforts history in Washington,
 - 231–232
 - engage diverse stakeholder groups
 - in developing systems-level
 - SEL guidance, 240
 - guiding frameworks, 232–233
 - implications and
 - recommendations, 240–242
 - policy context, 230–232
 - research-practice partnership and
 - methods, 233–234
 - stakeholder insights, 237–240
- Stretching, 180
- Stretching in teachers practice, 114
 - forms of stretching, 120
 - gathering preliminary evidence of
 - stretching, 117–119
 - justice-oriented SEL instruction,
 - 116–117
 - stretching curricula, 123–124
 - stretching instructional practices,
 - 124–125
 - stretching policies and frameworks,
 - 120–122
 - stretching relationships, 122–123
 - transformative SEL, 114, 116, 119,
 - 125
- Strong kids intervention with cultural
 - adaptation, 106–107
- Strong Start intervention, 107
- Strong Teens program, 154
- Stuck points, 138
 - teach and practice, 137–138
- Student adversity, teacher stress,
 - leadership style, and, 87–88
- Students
 - agentic engagement, 71–72
 - neutralizing routine with, 137–138
 - perceptions, 44

- SEL, 66, 69, 100
 - student–teacher relationships, 105
- SWPBIS, 130
- Symbiotic credibility, 207
- Systemic inequities, 2
- Systems level initiatives, 231
- Teacher social and emotional
 - competencies
 - CRP and SEL, 101–105
 - implications for policy and practice, 108
 - incorporating CRP into teacher training on SEL, 106–108
 - SECCs, 102
 - strong kids intervention with
 - cultural adaptation, 106–107
 - Turn 2 Us intervention, 107–108
- Teachers, 65, 80
 - beliefs, 70
 - implications for theory, policy, practice, and future research, 89–91
 - leadership, 80
 - leadership styles, 85–86
 - motivational systems from
 - evolutionary perspective, 82–85
 - need-supportive behaviors, 72
 - prosocial classroom model, 80–82
 - SEC, 80
 - teacher stress, leadership style, and student adversity, 87–88
 - teacher stress impact on leadership style, 86–88
 - teacher stress impact on SEL
 - Instruction, 87
- Teaching, 130–131
 - whole child, 104–105
- Theories of motivation, 44
- Theory of Change, 217, 221
- Training Management Corporation© (TMC), 164
- Transformative approach, 180
- Transformative climate teachers, 103
- Transformative SEL, 100–101, 108, 114, 116, 119, 125, 151, 180, 184
- TransformEd, 198–199
- Transforming Education, 28
- Transparency fostered trust, 187–188
- Trauma-focused cognitive behavioral therapy (TF-CBT), 146
- Trauma-focused social and emotional learning (TF-SEL), 145–146
 - for LYOI, 146
- Trust
 - challenges faced, lessons learned on building trust, 188
 - transparency fostered trust, 187–188
- Turn 2 Us intervention, 107–108
- Twenty-first century skills, 23–24
- Universality of BPN across cultures, 68–69
- University of Michigan (UM), 180
- US schools, Latino youth in, 144–146
- Values, 4, 29
 - value-related interventions, 30
 - value-related motivation, 29
- Vulnerable decision points (VDPs), 14, 131–133, 136
 - examine discipline data for patterns, 134–135
 - identify decision states, 135–136
 - reflect on personal experiences and learning histories, 135
 - select one VDPs, 136
- Washington, 231–232
- White students, 128
- Workgroup-led stakeholder engagement
 - activities, 235–237
- Written reflections, 164–165
- Youth, social and emotional
 - development, 2
- Youth development (YD), 214–215, 230
 - OST YD programs, 215