

INDEX

- Accountability, four areas of, 168
- Accountancy board composition
  - additional analyses, 30
  - background, 21–23
  - descriptive statistics by state, 25–26
  - descriptive statistics of models’ variables, 28
  - method, 23
  - models, 23–24
  - regression results, 29
  - results, 24–30
  - sample, 24
- Accounting, 22
  - accreditation, 24
  - change in accounting rules for leases, 81
  - concepts, 106
  - courses, 80
  - department, 56
  - educators, 20, 105
  - faculty, 38
  - information systems, 243, 257
  - internship, 41
  - profession in United States, 20
  - programs, 34
  - regulators, 15
  - systems, 261
  - terminology, 75
- “Accounting Academic, Professional Engagement, and Professional Interactions”, 124
- Accounting Case Search website, 82
- Accounting curriculum, 210, 239
  - background and general observations, 257–259
  - digital data streaming, 260
  - distributed trust mechanisms, 261–262
  - internet of things, 259–260
  - robotic process automation, 260–261
  - teaching information systems courses in, 257
  - typology of trends, 259
- Accounting education, 257–258. See also Online education
  - experiential learning in, 125–126
  - journals, 176
  - literature, 175, 191
- Accounting Education Change Commission (AECC), 106
- ACCT_MAJOR* (variable), 63, 67
- Activity/profitability, 94, 97
- Actuarial sciences, 56
- Add-backs, 109
- Advisory Board, 126
- Agency theory, 22
- Airline On-Time Performance Data, 222
- Airlines, 222, 225
  - schedule planning, 222
- Alternative career paths (ACP), 34, 39
- American Accounting Association, 105, 124
- American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), 5, 20, 35, 48, 80, 124, 244
  - core competencies, 80
  - data, 34
  - Digital Asset Working Group, 235
- American Investor Report (2016), 150
- Analytical/critical thinking, 126
- Annotated bibliography, 192, 200–206
- Annual financial data, 214
- Apple (company), 178
- Artificial intelligence (AI), 256

- ASC 840, 81
 ASC 842, 85
 Assessment rubric, 161
 Assignments, 84–86
 Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB), 40, 80
   AACSB-accredited accounting program, 21, 23–24, 27, 30
   International website, 24, 124
 Asynchronous classes, 56
 Auditing (AUD), 6, 240
 Auditors, 261–262
- BBB Wise Giving Alliance
   criteria, 157–158
   database, 168–169
   guidelines, 160
BD#CPA coefficient, 29
BD#MIN variable, 27
 Better Business Bureau (BBB), 156
 (Big) complex dataset, 221–223
   highest frequency routes by number of flights, 224 merged datasets, 225–226
 Big data, 212
 Bilateral tax planning, 193
 Blockchains, 240, 261–262
 Bloom’s taxonomy (1956), 80, 84
 Bond liabilities and investments accounting for, 105
   end of semester survey results, 115 evaluating, 114–116
   motivation, 107
   overall framework, 108–114
 Bonds
   accounting for, 108
   life cycle of, 107
 “Bonus” education, 179
 Boxplot geometry, 217
 Business
   curriculum, 235
   entity taxation, 193
 Business environment and concepts (BEC), 6
- Capitalized amount, 95–96
 Capture at source” technologies, 212
 Career readiness, 39, 41
 Case (s), 160, 176
   analysis/student working session case analysis, 129
   background, 168
   BBB Wise Giving Alliance Database, 168–169 elements, 161
   GuideStar database, 168
   materials, 168
   regularity, 181
   requirements, 169
   standards for charitable accountability, 169–173
   writers, 178
 Cash flows, accounting for, 108
 Certificate programs, 37
 Certified Public Accountant exam (CPA exam), 4, 20, 24, 34, 80 career factors, 39–41
   cost factors, 37–38
   empirical results, 10–15
   evolution model, 5, 20
   factors, 37
   fees, 37
   literature and hypotheses, 5–8 methodology, 8–10
   and private institutions, 35–37
   regression model, 29
   support factors, 38
 Charitable accountability, standards for, 169–173
 Charities, 168
 Class attendance, 56
CLASSVL model, 63, 67, 69–70
 College Factual website, 24
 College students, 138, 142
   tax literacy among, 139–140
 Commodity Futures Trading Commission (CFTC), 235 Communication skills, 127
   and technology, 126

- Company's ratios, 84–85
- Complex data, 211–212
- Complex dataset, 217
  - descriptive modeling, 218–220
  - predictive modeling, 220–221
  - simple task, 217–218
- Complex tasks, 215–217
- Composite global customer, 238
- Composite variable, 149
- Core innovation team, 238
- Corporate boards, 21
- Coverage/solvency, 95, 98
- COVID pandemic, 256
- CPAFT model, 23–24
- 150 Credit Hour Requirement, 37
- 150 credit hours for licensure, 35
- Criminal justice, 56
- Cronbach's alpha, 144, 149
- Cross-functional team, 239
- Cryptography, 235
- CryptoKitties, 234
- CryptoPunks, 234
- CURRENT* tax concepts, 149
- Customer-value-to-business-cost ratio, 238

- Data analysis, 67–70
- Data analytics, 210
- Data analytics approach to student
  - advising and scheduling
    - additional analysis, 70
    - applying findings, 70
    - class level by students summary, 67
    - class selection, scheduling, and performance, 61
    - data analysis, 67–70
    - descriptive statistics, 64–67
    - DFW rates by year, delivery method, and course, 64
    - introductory accounting course, 58–59
    - key findings, 57–58
    - literature review and research
      - question development, 58
    - online accounting education, 60
    - online learning, 59–60
    - regression results, 68
    - research design, 62–63
    - research method, 62
    - research questions, 61
    - results, 64
    - sample construction, 62
    - setting, 56–57
    - summary of DFW rates by year
      - and delivery method, 61
- Data cleaning processes, 258
- Data collection, 143
- Dataset complexity, 212, 214
  - complex dataset, 217–226
  - simple dataset, 214–217
- Decentralized finance (DeFi), 234
- Decision-making process, 131
- Deductions, 109
- “Déjà-vu” exercise, 115
- Descriptive assessment statistics, 163
- Descriptive modeling, 218–220
- Descriptive statistics, 146
- Design thinking (DT), 234–235
  - background and literature review, 235
  - digital assets to NFTs, 235–236
  - and NFTs, 236–237
  - pedagogical paradigm, 237
- DFW, 57
- Digital assets to NFTs, 235–236
- Digital certificate” of ownership or authenticity, 236
- “Digital collectibles” of ownership or authenticity, 236
- Digital data streaming, 260
- Digital NFTs, 233
- Direct approach in teaching, 112–113
- Direct CPA exam costs, 34, 37
- Distributed trust mechanisms, 261–262
- Diversity variables, 29–30
- Donor, 160, 171
- Dummy variables, 219

- E-commerce, 178
- Education for CPA licensure, 5

- Educational tax cases, 195
  - data analytics cases, 195
  - discussion of cases, 192
  - educational value of tax cases, 183–185
  - entity cases, 193
  - individual cases, 192–193
  - international cases, 194–195
  - observations, 195–196
  - research cases, 193–194
- Educational theories, 141
- Effectiveness measurement, 170
- Employer incentives, 39–40
- Entity cases, 193
- Ernst & Young Foundation (EY Foundation), 127
- Estate taxes, 196
- Ethics, 194
- Experiential learning, 138, 141
  - in accounting education, 125–126
  - opportunity overview and mapping in IPP, 127–128
- Experiential tax learning
  - background, 139
  - descriptive statistics for tax awareness question understanding scores, 144
  - discussion, limitations, and future research, 149–152
  - experiential learning and situated learning, 140–141
  - experimental design, 143
  - hypotheses, 141–143
  - list of variables and descriptions, 145
  - model, 144–145
  - participants, 143–144
  - results, 145–149
  - results of regression analyses for component tax understanding variables, 148
  - results of regression analysis for overall tax understanding variable, 147
  - tax literacy among college students, 139–140
- Experiential theory, 138
- Experimental design, 143–149
- External auditors, 260
- External feedback, 133
- EY Academic Resource Center (EYARC), 127
- FAA Aircraft Registration database, 222
- Faculty support, 38–41
- Faculty teaching, 56
- Family support, 38, 41
- Fashion merchandising, 56
- Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), 222
- Finances, 170, 185
- Financial & non-financial performance measures, 171–173
- Financial accounting (Fin-Acct), 62, 64, 75, 176–177
  - concepts, 56
  - interface, 180
- Financial accounting and reporting (FAR), 6, 240
- Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB), 81
- Financial Literacy and Education Commission, 139
- Financial measures, 171
- Financial need (FIN_NEED), 63
- Financial performance measures, 169
- Financial statements of 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, 168
- First-generation college students (FIRSTGEN), 63
- Five areas of performance, 157
  - BBB Wise Giving Alliance criteria in, 157–158
- FiveThirtyEight website, 217
- Fixed effects (FE), 62
- Fundraising and informational materials, 171
- FUTURE* tax concepts, 149
- Future tax issues, understanding of, 149
- Gamification process, 259
- General tax issues, understanding of, 147

- Generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP), 80
- Generation X, 150
- Generic assignment template, 100
  - background and purpose of assignment, 100–103
  - grading Rubric, 103
  - instructions and overview, 100
- ggplot, 216
- Gift taxes, 196
- Global composite customer, 239
- Global Perspectives on Accounting Education*, 185
- Governance and oversight, 169–170
- Government/nonprofit (GNP), 158
- Grade point average (GPA), 40, 58
- Grading rubric, 103
- Graduate, 9–10, 37
  - degrees, 4, 6
  - education, 7
  - programs, 8
- GuideStar, 156
  - data, 158
  - database, 157, 168
  - transparency rating, 168
- Hasselback Directory (2013), 8
- Hawaii's SAB, 27
- Holder perspectives on journal entries, 110
- Hotel dataset variables, list and brief description of, 230–232
- 150-hour requirement, 5
- Hypothesis tests, 147
- Ignatian pedagogy paradigm (IPP), 124–125
  - advice from practice, 126
  - background, 125
  - deliverable, 130
  - experiential learning in accounting education, 125–126
  - external feedback, 133
  - mapping in, 127–130
  - observations, reflections, and feedback, 130–133
  - practitioner reflections, 132–133
  - student reflections, 131–132
  - subsequent learning opportunity, 130
- Ignatian reflection, 125, 128
- Incentive, 41
- Indirect approach in teaching, 112
- Individual cases, 192–193
- Individual taxation, 192
- Industry, government, and education (IDEO), 234
- Information systems, 256, 261
- Information technology, 257
- Innovative technology platforms, 258
- Input controls, 260
- Institutional Research Department, 57, 62
- Institutions, 37
- Interactive professional learning experience (IPLE), 124
- Intermediate accounting courses, 106–107, 114
  - change in accounting rules for leases, 81
  - excerpt from Walgreens 2018 annual report on future expected lease payments, 83
  - incorporating assignment and teaching notes, 84–86
  - learning objectives, 84
  - limitations and future applications, 88–89
  - overview of assignment, 82–83
  - related literature, 81–82
  - summary of student responses, 86–88
  - survey results, 87
- Internal Revenue Service (IRS), 139, 156
- International cases, 194–195
- International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS), 82
- International relations, 185
- International students (INTL students), 63, 69
- International tax, 194
- International taxation, 179

- Internet of things, 259–260
- Interpretive Guidance (2020), 80
- Introductory accounting
  - courses, 56, 58–59
  - principles courses, 58
- Introductory Managerial Accounting, 75
- Issuer perspectives on journal entries, 110
- Iterative concepting process, 239
- Iterative leapfrog concepting process (ILFC process), 238

- Jesuit Institute (JI), 125
- John Carroll University (JCU), 124
- Journal entries, 110–111, 121
  - for bond sales and retirements, 119–120

- Kaiser–Meyer–Olkin test, 42
- Kolb’s four-stage learning cycle, 141
- KPMG professional judgment framework, 128
- Kruskal–Wallis test, 42

- Lattice, 216
- Learning. See also Experiential learning
  - management system, 57
  - opportunity, 130
  - process, 138
  - statistics, 210
- Learning objectives (LO), 80, 84, 157–158
- Lease assignment, 92
  - background and purpose of, 93–99
  - instructions and overview, 92
- Leases
  - accounting rules, 81, 93
  - disclosures, 85–86
- Likert scale, 114
- Linear regression model, 219
- Liquidity, 94, 97
  - measures, 171
- Logical reasoning, 106
- Logit regression model, 62

- Management accountant, 222
- Management Discussion and Analysis (MD&A), 82
- Managerial accounting (Mgr-Acct), 56, 62, 64, 177, 240
- Managerial auditing, 177
- Mapping in IPP, 127
  - best practices, 129–130
  - experiential learning opportunity overview and, 127–128
- Master of Accounting (MSA), 4
- Master of Taxation/JD in Taxation (MST), 4
- Matrix model, 106
- MBA, 4
  - accounting course, 60
  - group, 10
- Merging datasets, 223–226
- Microsoft Access database, 195
- Modes, 235
- MSA, 8–9
- MST, 9

- National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA), 5–6, 20, 36, 244
- National Center for Charitable Statistics (NCCS), 156
- National Center for Education Statistics (NCES), 36, 59
- National Taxonomy of Exempt Entities (NTEE), 160, 168
- Net Income, 112
- New CPA licensure model, 5
- Non-accounting graduates, 256
- Non-business majors, 56
- Non-CPA, 20
- Non-financial data, 161, 214
- Non-financial measures, 160, 173
- Non-financial performance measures, 169
- Non-fungible tokens (NFTs), 233–234
  - design thinking and, 236
  - digital assets to, 235–236
- NON_BMAJ* (variable), 70
- Nonprofit organizations, 156, 159, 168

- Obligatory recitation, 182
- Odds ratio analysis, 42
- Off-balance sheet operating lease payments, 82
- OLS regression models, 23
- Online accounting education, 60
- Online asynchronous education, 59
- Online education, 56. See also
  - Accounting education offerings, 59
  - student achievements in, 59
- Online learning, 59–60
- Online registration system, 61
- Online survey, 40
- Open-ended responses, 86
- Open-source data analysis software program, 210
- Operating lease cash flows, 88
- Operating leases, 81–82, 93, 99
- Optimum board size, 21
- Ordered logistic regression, 42, 44
- 501(C)(3) Organizations
  - assessment of effectiveness, 158
  - learning objectives, 157–158
  - summary of student responses, 159
  - teaching notes, 158–164
- Organization, selection of, 159–160
- Output controls, 260

- Pathways Commission (2012), 125, 158–159, 258
- Pedagogy, 235
  - development, 239
- Perceived ease of use (PEOU), 258
- Perceived usefulness (PU), 258
- Pharmacy, 56
- Philanthropy project, 157
- Plan of Action, 107–112
- Plan to sit for CPA exam, 34, 40
- Political science, 185
- Political theory of corporate governance, 22
- Population data, 24
- Potential creditor, 160
- Power-wielding “C-suite” executives, 186

- Practitioner reflections, 132–133
- Practitioner working session, 129
- Predictive modeling, 220–221
- Present value
  - calculations, 84
  - charts, 88
  - method, 88
- Prior grade point average (PRIORGPA), 63
- Private institution student’s plan to sit, 36
  - CPA exam and, 35–37
  - demographic characteristics, 40
  - descriptive statistics, 41–42
  - discussion, 46
  - implications, 47–48
  - limitations, 48
  - literature review, research question, and hypotheses, 35
  - model, 42–43
  - ordinal logistic regression results and odds ratio, 44
  - research method, 40
  - results, 44–46
  - Spearman’s Correlation Matrix, 43
  - summary of results, 46–47
  - survey data, 40
  - variables, 40–41
- Process controls, 260
- Process modules, 235
- Professional judgment, 129
  - introduction/review, 129
- Profit per Available Room (ProfitPAR), 216
- Programming languages, 210
- Public administration, 56
- Public interest, 22
- Published tax cases
  - description of, 176–180
  - educational value of, 183–185
  - elements of, 180
  - future of, 185
  - review of, 176

- Quality Matters* certification, 57
- Qualtrics Survey Software, 143

- “R” programming, 210–211
  - (big) complex dataset, 221–223
  - background, 211–212
  - dataset complexity, 214–226
  - expanding framework, 221
  - framework, 212–214
  - framework for integrating R<sup>a</sup> into
    - accounting curricula, 213
  - illustrating merged datasets,
    - 223–226
- Ratio, 93
  - analysis, 86, 100
- Reflection, 125, 130
- Regression analysis, 144
- Regression models, 30
- Regulation (REG), 6
- Research cases, 193–194
- Research model, 42
- Robotic process automation, 260–260
- “Rules-of-thumb” approach, 106

- Scatterplot, 217
- Scheduling process, 71
- Scholarship of teaching, 177
- School of Accountancy, 124
- School of Accounting and Finance (SAF), 210
- Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), 81
- Self-employment tax, 180
- Self-experiment, 236
- Signature pedagogy, 124
- Silicon Valley PropTech Company, 234
- Simple dataset, 214
  - complex task, 215–217
  - simple task, 214–215
- Simple task, 214–215
- “Simulated” socratic dialogue on
  - teaching module, 109
- Situated learning, 140–141
- Smart contracts, 237
- Smart device capabilities, 259
- Sociological Theory of Cognitive Development (Vygotsky), 142
- Socratic method, 109

- Soft skills, 193
- Software, 178
- Spearman’s correlation coefficients, 42
- Sports management, 56
- Standard deviation (SD), 66
- Starbucks’ tax minimization strategies, 194
- State Accountancy Boards (SABs), 20, 24, 35
  - composition, 20–21
  - jurisdiction, 23
  - members of, 20
  - membership, 20
  - societies, 20
  - websites, 24
- State sales taxes, 196
- Statement of cash flows (SCF), 106–107
  - in skeleton form, 119
  - structure of, 106
- Stewardship theory, 22
- Student-centered activities for large
  - enrollment undergraduate programs (SCALE-UP), 59
- Students, 4, 83, 88, 127, 130, 157
  - demographics, 57
  - handouts to, 119
  - income tax expense to income tax paid, 122
  - interest expense to interest paid, 120–121
  - interest revenue to interest received, 121–122
  - journal entries for bond sales and retirements, 119–120
  - plan to sit for CPA exam, 34
  - reflections, 131–132
  - satisfaction scores, 183
  - SCF in Skeleton Form, 119
  - student–parent relationship, 47
  - working session, 129
- Supplemental analyses, 147
- Supply of future accounting
  - professionals, 21, 23, 27
- Survey instrument, 143
- Synchronous classes, 56

- T-accounts, 109
  - direct method with, 113–114
- Tax act, 178
- Tax cases, collection of, 186
- Tax concepts, 151
- Tax content, 176
- Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (TCJA), 195
- Tax educators, 180
- Tax knowledge acquisition, 138
- Tax literacy, 139
  - among college students, 139–140
- Tax planning, 138
  - for pensions and retirement, 146
- Tax preparation, 141
- Tax research cases, 193
- Tax software, 259
- Tax textbooks, 183–184
- Taxation, 138–139, 149
  - of capital gains, 243
- Teaching approach
  - direct approach, 112–113
  - direct method with T-Accounts, 113–114
  - indirect approach, 112
  - plan of action, 109–112
  - “simulated” socratic dialogue on teaching module, 109
  - steps in, 108
- Teaching notes, 84–86, 158
  - altering project, 164
  - assessment rubric, 161
  - excel file, 161–163
  - grading rubric, 162
  - implementation guidance, 160–161
  - intended audience and time requirements, 159
  - selection of organization, 159–160
  - solution, 161
- Technology, 127, 258
- Technology adoption (TA), 258
- Technology readiness (TR), 258
- Traditional college students (TRA_COL_STU), 63
- Traditional synchronous versions of classes, 56
- Undergraduate education, 7
- Undergraduate program, 34, 40
- #UNDG model, 23–24
- United Airlines mainline aircraft, 223
- University of Baltimore Business Report Rubric, 161
- University of Waterloo, 210
- University’s instructional designers, 57
- Value/cost ratio, 239
- Variables, 40–41, 67, 69–70, 145
- Voluntary financial statement disclosures, 82
- Web classes, 70
- Web-based asynchronous versions of classes, 56
- “What-if” calculation, 83
- Whole-system improvements, 239
- Writing, 193