

INDEX

- AbleData, 255
- Ableist attitudes, of employees, 161
- Accelerated technological change, 251
- Accelerating transformation, 134
- Accessibility, 250–251, 254, 255, 263
- Accommodations, 168
 - actual and unknown costs, 172
 - lack of, 183
 - uncertainty of, 159
- Activities of daily living (ADLs), 207, 214
- ADLs. See Activities of daily living (ADLs)
- Adolescent, results of studies, 195
- AHS data, 71
- American Community Survey (ACS), 12, 250
- American economy, 251
- American Housing Survey (AHS), 37, 39
- Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 4, 83, 158, 252, 254
- Artificial intelligence (AI), 261
- Asthma, 84
- Autism spectrum disorder (ASD), 198
- Average marginal effects (AME), 12
- Awareness program, 148
- Behavioral concerns, 159
- Best practices, 157, 160, 164, 166, 168, 169, 172
- Biopsychological model, 132
- Black employees, 139, 148
- Business Administration, 137
- Canada's employment rate, 156
- Canadian Association for Community Living 2010, 183
- Canadian business leaders, 159
- Census Region, 40
- Center for Epidemiological Studies Depression Scale (CES-D), 213
- Certificate
 - primary school, 101
 - secondary school, 93, 104
- Chronic diseases, 84, 112
 - disabilities, 91
 - women with, 102
- Civil Rights Act of 1964, 4, 252
- Climate diversity, 162
- Collective beliefs, 160
- Commission on Employment Equity (CEE), 129
- Community inclusion, 227
- Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities (CRPD), 149, 165
- Corporate commitment, 168
- Corporate culture change, 160, 161, 168, 174
 - beliefs and culture, 158–163
 - business case for hiring persons with disabilities, 163–164
 - coworker attitudes, 168–171

- disability employment
 - improvement, 173
- employees, 172–173
- implications for research, 174
- integrating employees with
 - disabilities, 156
- leadership, from top, 167–168
- methodology, 157–158
- organizational values, 158–163
- recruitment, 171–172
- supervisor attitudes, 168–171
- Corporate social responsibility
 - (CSR), 157, 164–167
- Corporate values, 162
- Currently Population Survey (CPS), 6
 - analyses of, 8
 - Annual Social and Economic Supplement
 - data, 12
 - descriptive statistics, 13
- Demographic variables, 228
- Department of Labor, 36
- Depressive symptoms, 207, 209, 213, 220
 - partial correlation matrix, 215
 - structural equation model, 217
- Disabilities, 84, 250–251
 - attitudes, 256–257
 - binaries, 128
 - bio-psycho-physio-pathology of, 147
 - and complexity, 258–261
 - definitions of, 16
 - and earned income, 51–52
 - and employment, 251
 - enhanced telecommunications, 255–256
 - experienced labor market
 - disadvantages, 16
 - future of work, 261–263
 - gendered effects of, 8, 10–12
 - identification, 229–230
 - increasing demands, for human
 - capital, 257–258
 - inequality, 9
 - labor market outcomes, 7
 - legal changes impact/technological
 - advances, 250
 - men, employment/income, 16
 - rights movement, 259
 - role of technology, 255
 - self-care, 40
 - by sex, 90
 - Social Model approach, 227
 - status, 213
 - structural equation model, 217
 - supply and demand side, 6
 - types of, 142
 - women
 - economic inequalities, 4
 - employment and income, 16
 - equal rights and
 - antidiscrimination
 - legislation, 4
 - labor market barriers, 4
 - work limiting, 12
 - persons reporting percentage, 15
- Disability awareness, 138
 - committees, 175
- Disability Visibility Project, 23
- Disabled participants report, 233
- Disabled workers, 168
- Discrimination, legal protections, 252
- Diversity management, 161, 169
- Dunedin Committee on Aging
 - (DCoA), 228
- Dunedin residents, 242
- Dunedin study participants
 - characteristics and
 - representativeness, 229
- Earned income, 37, 38, 40, 41, 44–51, 52–55, 62–66, 68–69
 - car ownership, 55–57

- children under age, 5, 52–54
- demographic profile, 41–44
- and disabled children, 55
- Earnings
 - employed men/women with disabilities
 - disadvantages, 20
 - gaps, 4
 - income (See Earned income)
 - linear regression models, 20
 - disability status and gender, 21–22
 - percent difference, by disability status and gender, 23
 - women with disabilities, earnings of, 210
- Economic dependency, 36
- Economic disadvantage, 227, 239, 240, 241, 243, 245
- Economic inequality, gender/disability, role of, 9
- Economic resources, 232, 233, 239, 241, 242
 - discretionary spending, money for, 232
 - home rental vs. ownership, 233
 - household income, 232
 - mediating effects of, 242
- Economic self-sufficiency, 71
- Educational attainment, 15, 26, 57
- Education levels, 101
 - and cause of daily limits, 94
- EEO laws, 252
- Employer preferences, 6
- Employers' attitude, 84
- Employment
 - agencies, 171
 - benefits of, 182
 - circumstances, 206
 - disability, 251
 - indicator of successful transition, 182
 - logistic regression models, 16
 - by disability status and gender, 17–18
 - rates by disability status and gender, 19
 - rates for women without disabilities, 16
 - social and economic level, 182
- Employment Equity Act (EEA), 129, 130, 149
- Employment opportunities, 147
- Employment rates, 16, 95, 156
- Employment strategies, 169
- Employment trends
 - of persons with disabilities, 141
- Equal employment opportunity (EEO) policies, 252
- Equity employees, 149
- European Network for Corporate Social Responsibility and Disability, 166
- Experience, lack of, 183
- Family Employment Awareness Training (FEAT) program, 191
- Federal Housing Administration (FHA), 38
- Feminization of employment norms, 10
- Firm size, 15
- Florida, community-wide survey, 227
- Functional impairment, vii, viii, ix, x, 227, 229, 230, 241, 243, 244
- Gender
 - disabilities by, 140
 - disadvantage of, 10–11
 - employment, quantitative labor market research, 8
 - earnings gap, 4, 23, 92
 - employment relations, 10
 - hypothesized associations, 216
 - as moderator, 209–210

- supply and demand side, 6
- General Managers, 167
- Government employee, 15
- GPS, 261
- Great Recession, 36, 41
- Gross domestic product (GDP), 129, 183
- Guidelines for Critical Review Form – Quantitative Studies*, 186
- Handicapped Children Act, 256
- Health care, 251
- Health/disability, demographic profile, 51–52
- Health problems, daily activities, 91
- High school diploma, 104
- Hiring persons, 171
 - with disabilities, 165
- Households, earned income of, 52
- Housing and Urban Development (HUD), 36
 - administrative data, 69
 - administrative records, 38
 - assisted housing, 36
 - programs, 38
 - assisted housing work, 37, 38–39
 - car ownership, 55
 - demographic profile, 41–44
 - demonstrations, 37
 - earned income for household heads, 66
 - economic self-sufficiency, 71
 - health/disability status, 65
 - predictors of receipt of earned income, 69
 - SNAP (food stamp) benefits, 58
 - socioeconomic status (SES), 70
 - young adults, 41
 - average educational attainment of, 41
 - characteristics of, 58–63
 - earned income receipt, predictors of, 63–67
 - young householders, 53
 - comparison of, 53–54
- Housing assistance, 39
- Housing subsidy, 38
- HUD. See Housing and Urban Development (HUD)
- Human capital, 257
- IDL. See Independent living or self-care (IDL)
- Independent living or self-care (IDL), 14
 - limitation, 14
- Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA), 256, 262
- Information and communication technology (ICT), 253
- Institutional Review Board (IRB), 228
- Instrumental activities (IADLs), 207, 214
- Internal human resource systems, 138
- International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health (ICF), 81, 132
 - capability approach, 82
- Internet medium, 256
- Intersectionality, 8–12
 - disadvantage, multiple dimensions of, 9
 - labor market inequalities, 8
- Italian National Institute of Statistics (ISTAT), 86
 - ISTAT, 2004, 93
- IT- SILC, 2004, 83, 92–94
- Job market
 - conceptual framework, 81–82
 - data source, 86–87
 - disability, and employment, 93–97
 - disabled people, sub-sample of, 103

- multinomial/sequential logit models, 110–114
 - sequential logit model, for working conditions, 104–110
 - disabled population in Italy, 115
 - estimation results, probit regression model, 97–102
 - evidence, 89–93
 - Italy, legislation on disability, 85–86
 - literature review, 82–84
 - methodology, 87–89
- Jobs, 263
 - autonomy, 207, 214, 215, 218, 221
 - characteristics, 209
 - structural equation model, 217
 - choice, 8
 - composition and educational requirements of, 253
 - creativity, 214, 218, 221
 - market (See Job market)
 - placements, in labor market, 199
 - position, for disability people, 96
 - switch, 253
- Knowledge gained, 194, 196, 197
- Labor force participation, 4, 6
- Labour force, 102
 - employment, 80
 - multinomial logit model, 89
 - participation, 97
 - willingness to participate, 82
- Labour market, 10, 80, 253
 - activity, 10
 - British, 103
 - disability laws, implementation of, 109
 - disadvantage for
 - people with mental health, 82
 - double discrimination, 101
 - full-time/part-time, 107
 - impact of disability on willingness, 85
 - inequalities, 8
 - Italian data set, 81
 - needs, 262
 - outcomes, 7, 8
 - disability, gendered effect of, 8
 - outcomes of persons, 81, 82
 - participation, 80
 - research, 25
 - worse education, outcome of, 102
- Larry Greiner's Model, 131
- Learnerships, 135, 137, 147
- Legal protections, against discrimination, 252
- Legislation concerning employment protection, 85
- Lewin's model, 131, 132
- LGBTQ status, 10
- Limited awareness, 168
- Linear regression models, 20
- Living in Ireland Survey, 2000, 82
- Location, demographic profile, 44–51
- Logistic regression models, 63
- Low-wage jobs, 37
- Management practices, 157, 161, 162
- Managerial commitment, 173
- Marital status, 15, 88, 101, 103, 120
- Maximum Likelihood, 65–67
 - estimates, analysis of, 67, 69
 - function, 88
- Medical advances, 251
- Mental health, 207, 210
- Mentors, 159, 170
 - skills of, 171
- Mentorship, 197
- Miami-Dade County demographic structure, 211
- Miami-Dade County population, 211

- Miami-Dade County residents, 211
- Mobility, 11, 40, 84, 87, 90, 93, 103, 115, 157, 214, 253, 255, 256, 258, 260, 263
- Mobility impairments, 87, 90, 255, 256
- Modern discrimination, 5
- Mplus software, 214
- Multidisciplinary vocational rehabilitation intervention, 191
- Multinomial logit model, 110, 111–112
 - alternative, 113–114
- Multinomial logit tree, 110, 113
- Multiple disabilities, 6, 9, 12, 14, 16, 20, 22, 24
- Multiple regression, 240
- National Health Interview Survey (NHIS), 12
- National Longitudinal Transition Study of Special Education Students, 71
- National Qualifications Framework (NQF), 137
- Netcare, 139
 - case study, 134
 - disability integration program, 144
 - draft disability strategy, 135
 - education, 148
 - processes, 131
- New York City, 39
- Nondisabled group, 84
- Nondisabled people, in strict sense, 92
- Non-Hispanic black/white, 13, 15, 18, 21, 211, 214
- Non-standard work arrangements, 7
- Occupational therapist, 189, 191
- OECD countries, 85
- Online survey, 228
- Ordinary least squares (OLS) regression, 12
- Organizational citizenship behaviors, 160
- Organizational culture, 145–147, 161, 260
- Organizational development (OD) model, 131
- Organizational justice, 144, 145
- Participation, in social recreational, 227
- Partnerships, 138
- Partnership status, 231
 - who do/do not identify, as disabled, 236–237
 - with/without functional impairments, 234
- Part-time employment, 107
- Physical disabilities, 207, 208, 209, 210, 212, 215, 218–221.
 - See also* Vocational intervention
 - future research, 200
 - limitations, 199
 - participant characteristics, 187
 - review of, 198–199
 - skills/knowledge gained, 197
 - studies
 - characteristics, 187
 - characteristics/overview of, 188
 - results of, 194–196
 - vocational intervention
 - characteristics, 187
 - vocational programs
 - common components of, 192–197
 - employment achievement, 197
 - employment, knowledge/perceptions of, 198
 - youth, vocational interventions, 182

- Physical impairments, 141
- Physical/mental disability, 82
- Planned behavior theory, 158
- Poverty, 36–38, 40, 129, 146, 253
 - AHS data, 71
 - deep, 41
 - Great Recession, 41
 - for women, 10
- Predicted probability, 12
- Preferred Reporting Items for Systematic Reviews and Meta Analysis (PRISMA), 184
- Pre-labor market inequalities, 26
- Pre-work training, 172
- Principles on Business and Human Rights, 165
- Probit models, marginal effects, 99–100
- Probit regression model, 97
- PsychInfo, 184
- Psychological disabilities, 170
- Public assistance, 5
- Public Housing Authorities (PHAs), 37, 38
 - admission policies, 71
- Public policies, 259
- Quantitative labor market, 8
- Race, 5, 9, 25, 26, 63, 64, 68, 70, 128, 133, 136, 139, 140, 146, 148, 161, 210–214, 217, 228, 243, 252
 - disabilities by, 140
 - ethnicity, 214
- Reasonable accommodation, 142, 143
- Recruiting policy, 171
- Rehabilitation Act of, 1973, 252, 256
- Rental housing, 45, 51
- Response, categories, 232
- Retention rates per program, 137
- Rust Belt, 71
- Safety, pre-employment training, 173
- Scholars interest, 9
- Scopus, 184
- Search terms, overview of, 186
- Self-sufficiency, 36, 37
 - economic, 36
- Self-sufficiency programs, 70
- SEM analysis, 216
- Senior management, 167
- Sensitive groups, 162
- Sensory, 87
 - limitations, 16
- Sequential logit model, 88, 89, 97, 104, 105–106
 - multinomial, comparison, 110–114
 - for working conditions, 104–110
- Sequential logit tree, 88
 - alternative, 107–109
- Siebers theory, 133
- Sinako initiative, 145
- Sinako Project, 137
- Skilled labor, 258
- Skills, 197
 - employment-related, 198
 - through learnerships, 147
- Skills Development Act (SDA), 129, 130
- Smart phones, 261
- SNAP (food stamp) benefits
 - assistance, 44
 - housing and urban development, 58–60
 - program, 70
- Social activities, 182
- Social disadvantage, 227
- Social inclusion, 233, 241, 242
 - level of social/recreational/community participation, 231–232
 - mediating effects of, 241, 242
 - partnership status, 231
 - perceived stigma, 232
- Social interaction, 170

- Socializing, with friends/neighbors, 231
- Social justice, 128
- Social model, 81, 244
 - approach, to disability, 227
 - claims, 227
 - of disability, 226, 258
- Social participation, 262
- Social practices, 9
- Social relationships, 169, 182
- Social responsibility, 128
- Socioeconomic disadvantage, 8
- Socioeconomic status (SES), 70
- South Africa
 - democratically elected government, postcolonial-post-apartheid, 129
 - Integrated National Disability Strategy, 130
 - with Netcare, 138
 - South African organizations, 147
- South African Qualification Authority's (SAQA), 137
- SSSI eligibility, 83
- Stereotyping, 168
- Subjective well-being, 227, 230–231, 233, 240, 241, 242, 243
- Survey of Income and Program Participation (SIPP), 39
- Systematic review process, flow of studies, 185
- Tech Act, 255
- Technology Assistance for Individuals with Disabilities Act of 1988, 255
- TedWomen Talk, 5
- Time limits, 71
- Total household income, 239
- Training
 - applicants, 172
 - to develop employable skills, 183
 - employment or vocational, 184
- Transformational leadership, Netcare CEO, 145
- Transition probabilities, 81
- t*-tests, 233
- Turkish hospitality industry, 163
- Uberization, 251
- Uber's smartphone app, 251
- United States
 - institutional, demographic and economic changes, 252
 - post-industrial information-based economy, 250
 - technological innovation, 251
 - US Business Leadership Network's Disability Equality Index, 166
 - U.S. Census Bureau, 250
 - US Census estimates from 2010, 206
- University degree, 104
- Variables, 12, 14, 16, 19, 20, 38, 62, 64, 65, 68, 70, 80, 83, 89, 97, 98, 101, 103–105, 110, 112, 211, 213–215, 227–229, 233, 238, 240, 244, 259, 260, 263
 - description, 98
 - explanatory, 98
- Vocational agencies, 173
- Vocational interventions, 183, 186. See also Physical disabilities
 - characteristics, 187
 - search terms, overview of, 186
 - study characteristics, 187

- vocational programs
 - common components of, 192–197
 - employment achievement, 197
 - employment, knowledge/perceptions of, 198
- Vocational programs, 198
- Vocational rehabilitation program, 189–190
 - physical disabilities, youth, 182
- Voluntary transition, 7
- Wage gap, gender, 4
- Washington Group Series, 230, 244
- Web of Science, 184
- Welfare, demographic profile, 51–52
- Well-being, 227
 - participants who do/do not identify, as disabled, 236–237
 - participants with/without functional impairments, 234
- psychological, 208, 209
 - analytic strategy, 214–215
 - covariates, 214
 - depressive symptoms, 213
 - disability status, 213
 - functional limitation, 213
 - gender, 214
 - job autonomy, 214
 - job creativity, 214
 - limitations of, 220, 221
 - measures, 213
 - study procedures/sample, 210–212
 - work characteristics, 218, 219
- subjective, 230–231, 240, 241, 242, 243, 245
- WGS
 - functional impairments, 238, 239
 - functional limitation, 233
- Windows, 95, 256
- Wisconsin Center for Education Research, 260
- Within-group disparities, 9
- Women experience, disadvantages, 7
- Work
 - characteristics, 216, 218
 - supply and demand side, 6
 - work-effort, 6
- Workforce access, 263
- Workforce participation, 231, 233, 250, 252, 260
- Workforce risks, 253
- Working conditions, 209, 210, 212, 219, 220, 221
- Working environments, 85
- Working hours, by sex, 95
- Working situations, 88
- Work, in post-industrial society, 252–254
- Work-limiting disabilities, 12, 14, 19, 20
 - percentage of persons reporting, 15
- Workplace, disability inclusion
 - complexity
 - definition, 132–134
 - implications for practice, 149–151
 - Lewin's change model, 132
 - methodology, 130–131
 - Netcare case, 134–149
 - contradictions of, 144
 - disabilities, types of, 139–144
 - education and awareness program, 148
 - monitoring/evaluation, 138–139

- persons, challenges limiting employment of, 135–136
- question of intersectionality, 148–149
- refreezing, 139
- transforming, 137–138
- unfreezing, 135
- policy-practice gaps, 130
- postcolonial-post-apartheid South Africa, 129
- social justice issues, 128
- Workplace discrimination, 244
- Work requirements, 71
- Work schedules, 254
- World Health Organization's (WHO), 130, 156
- World Health Survey, 156
- Young Millennials, 70
- Youth
 - with disabilities, 182
 - with physical disabilities, 182, 183
 - survey participants, 238
 - vocational interventions with physical disabilities, 182