

INDEX

- Abusive supervision, 159–162
- Active coping, 2
- Adaptive qualities, 142–143
- Adaptive resilience, 42
- Adversity, 34–35
- Affective commitment, 92
- Aggression, 152–153
- Agreeableness, 141
- Airline employees, 53
- Amazon Mechanical Turk (MTurk), 114
- Anger, 13, 59, 133
- Anxiety, 59, 132–133
- Appraisal, 93
- Appraising, 84
- Approach orientation, 142
- Attrition analyses, 114
- Autonomous motivation, 81–82
- Avoidance-orientation, 143

- Between-domain interactions, 141
- Between-person level coping, 11–12
- Boundary conditions, 64
  - individual characteristics, 65–66
  - work characteristics, 66–68
- Breaking character, 53–54, 58–64
- Bullying, 155–159
- Burnout, 84, 131
  - cynicism toward work, 85–86
  - exhaustion, 85
  - professional efficacy, 86

- Challenge stressors, 84
- Challenge-hindrance approach, 84
- Challenge-hindrance stress
  - conceptualization, 84
- Challenge-hindrance theory, 108
- Chef identity, 97–98
- Cognitive activation theory of stress, 6

- Cognitive appraisal, 84
  - paradox, 109–110
- Commitment, 91–92
- Concealment, 95–96
- Conceptual clarity, 26
- Conduct, 30
- Conscientiousness, 141
- Conscious self-regulation, 32
- Conservation of resources theory (COR), 55–56, 163
- Constructive resistance, 161
- Controlled motivation, 82
- Coping, 2, 7–8, 38
  - complexities, 4–5
  - flexibility, 12
  - options, 84
  - paradox, 12–14
  - repertoire, 11
  - styles, 2
  - within-and between-person level coping, 11–12
  - as within-person process and learning, 5–10
  - at work, 3–5
- Counterproductive work behaviors (CWBs), 60
- Credibility interval (CI), 83
- Cross-sectional studies, 13
- Customer mistreatment, 56–57
- Customer sabotage, 59
- Customer-facing jobs, 52, 56
- Cynicism toward work, 85–86

- “Dark side” of passion, 80
- Deep acting, 53, 57
- Dependence, 133
- Depersonalization. See Cynicism toward work
- Depression, 59, 65, 132–133
- Derogation, 95

- Deviance, 59
- Disappointment, 57
- Discrepancy, 35
- Discriminant validity for resilience, 37–41
- Display rules, 52, 57–58, 64
- Disturbances, 35
- Dual-mediation process, 142
- Dualistic Model of Passion (DMP), 80–82, 86, 99
  - and identity, 87
- Dynamic resilience, 37
- Dysfunctional resistance, 161

- Emotion-focused coping, 4
- Emotional exhaustion, 56
- Emotional intelligence, 65–66
- Emotional labor, 52, 56–58
  - stress of, 54
- Emotional stability, 65
- Emotions, 13
- Enactment-related threat, 94
- Episodic processes, 140
- Eudemonic psychological well-being, 92
- Exhaustion, 85
- Experimentation, 9
- Exploitation, 9
- Exploration, 9

- Facet approach, 133–134
- Faking in bad faith. See Surface acting
- Fear, 57
- Frustration, 13, 57

- Goal, 30–31
  - frustration, 34–35
  - striving, 35–36, 43–44
- Grit, 112, 115
- Guilt, 57

- Harassment, 153
- Harm, 94
- Harmonious passion (HP), 80, 82, 92
- Health, 154

- Hedonic psychological well-being, 92
- Hindrance appraisals, 111
- Hindrance stressors, 7–8, 13, 84
- Hope, 113, 115
- Hurt, 57

- Identity, 80
  - exit, 97–98
  - protection responses, 95–96
  - restructuring responses, 97–99
  - salience, 90–91
  - theory, 81, 87–93, 90
  - threat, 81, 93–99
- Incivility, 162–163
- Influential theory on experiential learning, 6
- Insecurity, 133
- Interactional commitment, 92
- Involuntariness, 113

- Job characteristics approach, 137–138
- Job insecurity, 108
  - appraisal profiles, 110–112
  - appraisals, 109, 115
  - cognitive appraisal paradox, 109–110
  - positive psychological predictors, 112–114
- Job stressors, 5

- Latent Change Score model, 17
- Latent class
  - analysis, 111
  - estimation, 116–118
  - membership, 118
- Latent profile analysis, 17
- Latent profiles, 111
- Learning, 5–10
  - organizational culture, 67
  - paradox, 12–14
  - processes, 8–9
  - theoretical approaches to, 6–7

- Maladaptive resilience, 42
- Malicious leadership, 155
- Meaning-related threat appraisals, 94

- Misconduct, 152–153
- Motivation, 30–33
- Multilevel perspective, 2–3
- Necessary causality, 135
- Necessary conditions analysis (NCA), 135–137
- Negative emotions, 57–58, 60
- Neuroticism, 130–131
  - mediators of neuroticism–vigilance relationship, 142–144
  - moderators of neuroticism–vigilance relationship, 139–142
  - as predictor of vigilance performance, 132–133
  - studies based in integrated perspectives, 138–139
- Normal functioning, 56
- Obsessive passion (OP), 80, 82, 92
- Occupational stress, 53–54
- Optimism, 113, 115
- Organizational citizenship behaviors (OCBs), 161
- Organizational psychology, studies in, 8
- Ostracism, 153, 163–164
- Outcomes, 152
- Overcoming/positive adaptation, 35–36
- Overidentification, 88
- Paradox, 154
  - classification, 154
  - methods, 154–155
- Paradoxical relationships, 152
- Paranoia, 130, 138
- Passion, 80
  - dualistic model of passion and identity, 87
  - identity theory and work passion, 87–93
  - identity threat and work passion, 93–99
  - paradox of passion, 86–89
- Performance, 130
- Perpetrator, 159
- Persistence domain, resilience within, 38–41
- Personal accomplishment. See Professional efficacy
- Personality, 65
- Physical well-being, 82–83
- Positive affect, 66
- Positive distinctiveness, 95
- Positive emotions, 58
- Positive psychological predictors, 112–114
- Positive psychology, 109
- Post-adversity persistence, 41
- Prevention-focused coping, 7
- Primary appraisal, 109–110, 112
- Primary appraising, 84
- Problem-focused coping, 3
- Problem-solving, 2
- Procrastination, 143
- Professional efficacy, 86
- Promotion-focused coping, 7
- Psychological well-being, 82
- Psychopathology, 11
- Psychosocial stressor, 108
- Random Intercept Cross-lagged Panel model, 17
- Reappraisal, 4
- Reflection, 8
- Regulation processes, 32
- Regulatory focus theory, 7
- Resilience, 26, 54, 112–113, 115, 158
  - conceptual characteristics, 37
  - conceptualization, 29, 41–42
  - discriminant validity for resilience, 37–41
  - high-impact resilience definitions and sources, 27–28
  - integration of resilience into motivation domain, 30–33
  - necessary conditions for, 33–36
  - nomological network structure, 29
- Review, 152
- Risk, 34–35
- Role commitment, 91–93

- Role identity, 88–89
- Rumination, 58
- Sabotage, 59
  - behaviors, 61
- Sadness, 62–63
- Second-order factor model, 140
- Secondary appraisal process, 94, 113
- Secondary appraising, 84
- Self-determination theory, 81
- Self-efficacy, 113, 115
- Self-evaluation, 87–88
- Self-regulation, 32–33
  - framing, 41
- Service workers, 59
- “Shadow side” resilience, 35
- Shame, 57
- Social functioning, 83, 88, 91–92, 98
- Statistical methods, 17
- Strategic bullying, 160
- Stress, 83–84
  - of emotional labor, 54
  - process, 5
  - resilience and, 37–38
- Stressors, 109
  - theoretical approaches to, 6–7
- Sufficient causality, 135
- Suppression of emotions, 4
- Surface acting, 52, 57
- Time, 37
  - pressure, 13
- “Too much of a good thing” effect, 81, 86, 100–101
- Training, 67–68
- Trait activation approach, 134–135
- Trait resiliency, 33, 36
- Transactional theory of stress, 38, 83, 111, 163
- Tripartite model, 43
- Unit-centered/controlled resilience, 37
- Vigilance, 130
  - tasks, 130
- Vigilance work, 130, 137
  - performance in, 131
- Well-being, 12–14, 80, 82–83, 154
- Within-domain interactions, 140–141
- Within-person level coping, 11–12
- Within-person process, 5–10
- Work passion, 81, 87–99
- Work-related well-being, 82
- Workload, 13
- Workplace mistreatment, 152
  - common consequences, 153–154
  - definition and forms, 152–153
  - specific forms of mistreatment, 155–164
- Workplace resilience, 54–56
- Workplace resiliency, 54