

INDEX

- Abhidhamma Pitaka* (Higher Teaching), 33
- abortion, 50, 51, 53
- advanced health directives (AHD), 79
- agency in Buddhism, 39–40
- Analects*, 21–23
- anattā* (non-self), 35–37
- appearance, 124
- Aquinas, T., 69, 70
- Australia, healthcare in, 86. see also National Mutual Acceptance (NMA)
- Australian Human Rights Commission, 71, 79
- Australian Labour Party government, 88–89
- Australian Medical Association (AMA), 57–59
- Australian medical practice, 56, 59
- Australian Psychological Society (APS), 58, 59
- Australian Research Council, 59
- Avant Mutual Group Ltd, 58
- bhāvanā* (meditation), 34–35
- Buddha, 32
- Buddhism
- agency in, 39–40
 - anattā* (non-self), 35–37
 - anonymity and technology, 40
 - appeal of, 36–39
 - bhāvanā* (meditation) in, 34–35
 - Five Aggregates (khandha), 35–36
 - governance and societal issues, 39–40
 - influence of, 37
 - intention (cetanā), 33, 37, 39
 - kamma* and Dependent Origination, 34, 37–39
 - popularity of, 36
 - business ethics, 14
 - role definition, 16–18
 - role identification, 18–19
 - role relativism, 14–16
 - business roles, Confucianism and, 20–21
- Card, R., 50–52
- Catholic Social Teaching (CST), 68
- cetanā* (intention), 32, 33, 37
- classical Confucianism, 21–25, 27
- coercive influence, NMA, 104
- common good, 68
- community engagement, 118, 119, 123–126, 129–130
- Confucianism, 20, 24–25
 - and business roles, 20–21
 - sensitivity, 23–24
 - social life, 21–23
- conscience, 46–48, 50, 52–53
- conscientious objection, 60
- control pillar, 122
- corruption, vulnerability to, 61–62
- Council of Australian Governments (COAG), 88, 99
- Deliberative Democracy Consortium (DDC), 125
- Dependent Origination and kamma, 34, 37–39
- dignity, 68
- dāna* (generosity), 37
- dying (case study), 72–73
- Eightfold Path, 32, 33
- enduring powers of attorney (EPA), 79
- Engage 2 Act, 124–125

- ethics of roles, 13–14
 implications, 19
 role definition, 16–18
 role identification, 18–19
 role relativism, 14–16
- euthanasia, 52, 56
 idea, 62–63
 medicine, 56–57
 non-voluntary, 69, 72, 77–79 signs of change, 57–60
 vulnerability to corruption, 61–62
- euthanasia and physician-assisted suicide (E-PAS), 52
- federalism, 87
- Five Aggregates (khandha), 35–36
- genuineness test, 46
- governance, 85, 87, 89, 90, 91, 110–112
- government endorsement, 101
- Groningen Protocol, 63
- health care, 49–50
 legalized killing in, 59
- Health Practitioner Regulation
 National Law, 60
- health workforce, 85–90, 92
- Independent Regulatory Agency
 (IRA), 90–93
- Independent Samples t-test, 105
- inequality, 48
- Institutional Isomorphism, 101
- institutions regulation, 89–90
- intention (cetanā), 33, 37, 39
- inter alia*, 68
- inter-disciplinary framework, 85
- Intergovernmental Agreement
 (IGA), 85
- International Association of Public Participation (IAP2),
 124–126
- isomorphic influence, NMA, 113–114
- Journal of Public Deliberation*, 123, 125
- kamma* and Dependent Origination,
 34, 37–39
- killing, medicalized, 56, 57, 59, 62–64
- knowledge, 124
- The Lancet*, 60, 63
- Law Institute of Victoria (LIV), 58
- leadership, 109
- liberty of conscience, 50
- medicalized killing, 56, 57, 59, 62–64
- medical practice and reasonableness, 48–50
- medicine, 56–57
- meditation (bhāvanā), 34–35
- Mencius*, 23
- mettā* (loving kindness), 35
- The Mikado* (Gilbert), 18
- mimetic influence, NMA, 104
- moral wisdom, 23
- National Health and Medical Research Council (NHMRC), 100
- National Mutual Acceptance (NMA), 98–101
 clinical trials, 99
 conceptual framework, 101–102 descriptive analysis, 104–105 factor analysis and regression, 105–107
 future of, 112–113
 governance, 113–114
 leadership, 109
 legitimacy, 108–109
 limitations, 113
 literature, 110–112
 methodology, 102
 phases, 102–103, 107
- National Partnership Agreement, 88
- National Scheme, 89–90
- Natural Law model, 67–70, 72, 76–80
- New Public Management (NPM), 120
- Nibbhāna*, 38
- NMA. see National Mutual
 Acceptance (NMA)

- non-self (anattā), 35–36 non-voluntary euthanasia, 69, 72, 77–79 Noordegraaf, M., 120–124, 126, 129 normative influence, NMA, 104
 Organizational Human Research Ethics Committees (HRECs), 100 palliative care, 69, 74, 79 Patīccasamuppāda-vibhaṅga Sūta, 38
phala (fruit/fruition), 35
Pāli Canon, 33, 34, 38
 Pooh-Bah
 failure, 25, 26
 role identification, 18
 practitioner, community engagement, 128–130 principle of double effect (PDE), 68–71, 73–76 Productivity Commission, 85, 88, 89–90 profession, 118–119, 123 professional endorsement, 101 professionalism, 121–122
 tensions, 127–128
 public endorsement, 101 public policy, 78–80
 rationality, 47
 Rawls, J., 46, 52–53
 medical practice, 48–50
 on reasonableness, 46–48 reasonableness, 46–48 and medical practice, 48–50 regression analysis, 105–107 regulation, 84–87
 Independent Regulatory Agency, 90–93
 institutions, 89–90
 regulatory capitalism, 87–89
 regulatory capitalism, 87–89
 regulatory federalism, 87 religion, 49 research governance, 110–112
Research in Ethical Issues in Organisations, 68
 Rhodes, R., 49
 Right (wholesome) Intention, 33
 Right Views (sammā ditthi), 33 role ambiguity, 26 role conflict, 26
 role definition, 16–18
 role identification, 18–19, 26
 role obligation, 17, 19, 25, 26
 role relativism, 14–16, 19
 role responsibility, 15
 Royal Dutch Medical Association, 63
 Scheme's development, 87–88
 sensitivity to context, Confucianism, 23–25
 Sibley, W. M., 47
 social life, Confucianism and, 21–23 solidarity, 68
 systemic inequality, 48
Themiya Jataka, 39
Theravāda Buddhism, 32, 35, 39
 Thought (sammā sankappa), 33
vibhava-taṇh (craving for non-existence), 38 Victorian bill, 56
 virtue ethics, 14, 19, 20, 26, 27, 36
 vulnerability to corruption, 61–62
 Welcome Trust, 59
 Western ethical theory, 36–37
 Zimbardo experiments, 19