

INDEX

- “Abstinence-only-until marriage” programs, 262
- Activism, 230, 246, 248–250
- Activist mothers/mothering, 246, 247, 256–257, 267–269
 - demands for justice or emotive calls, 253–254
 - strategies, 6
- Adolescent pregnancy, 43–44, 48, 51, 262
 - policies, 263
- Adolescent sexuality, 262
- Advocacy, 221–223
- Affluent, married mothers of color and child-centric support systems, 183–185
- African context, motherhood in, 144–145
- Age in intersectional analyses of state, 263
- Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC), 260
- American Association for Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities (AAIDD), 77
- American citizenship, 98
- American self-reliance, 237
- Anchor babies, 92, 95–96, 98–99, 266
- Anti-Chinese sentiments, 94
- Anti-immigrant groups, 96
- Archetypal female Bodhisattvas, 144
- Archetypal White, middle-class nuclear family, 144
- Asian Americans, 95
- Asian femininity, 95
- Aspirations, 63–66
- Attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD), 63, 80
- Austerity discourse, 264–266
- Autism, 62
- Bad Black mother (see Matriarch)
- Battle Hymn of the Tiger Mother* (Chua), 103
- Beyond Entitlement* (Mead), 14
- “Birth tourism”, 93
- Birthright citizenship, 92
- Black Americans, 223
- Black community, 85
- Black families, 223
- Black feminist (see also Feminist) theorists, 247
 - theory, 250
- Black homeschooling mothers, 215
- Black households, 223
- “Black Lives Matter”, 251
- Black milk sharers, 231
- Black mothers/mothering, 246, 247
- Black single mothers, 14
- Blue Chip Black, 225
- “Blue-collar American”, 100
- Bolsa Familia*, 50
- Brazilian concept of good mothering, 42
- Breadwinning as mothering, 127, 133–134, 148–149, 198–199
- Breastfeeding, 27
- Breastmilk sharing, 230
 - counter discourses, 234–241
 - milk sharing and risk narratives, 231–232
 - Bucket-brigade-style co-operative of milk sharers, 238
- CalWORKs program, 12, 19
- “Capacity to care”, 27
- Capitalizing capital, 21–22
- Care for children, 166–169
- Caregivers, 143, 230
- Carework strategies, 196
 - culture of work enforcement, 199
 - discourses of motherhood, 197–199

- protecting children, 204–207
- securing resources, 207–208
- structuring employment and non-employment, 202–204
- timing out, 197
- Cerebral palsy, 62
- “Chav mum”, 28
- Child disability, employment and education of, 60–61
- Child mental health disabilities, 60
- Child Protective Services (CPS), 68, 205
- Child-centric support, 185–187
- Childcare, 58–62, 65, 66, 112, 118, 121, 122, 132, 137, 143, 145–147, 150–153, 167, 170, 171, 180, 186, 189
- Children, 92
 - constructed as legal loopholes and anchor babies, 98–99
 - protection, 204–207
 - transnational mothers’ relationship with, 133–134
- Chinese Exclusion Act (1882), 94, 102
- Chinese maternity tourists/tourism, 93, 98
 - children constructed as legal loopholes and anchor babies, 98–99
 - digital birth of “anchor babies”, 95–96
 - era of exclusion, 94–95
 - maternity tourism or birth tourism, 93
 - racialized anxieties or racialized conditional acceptance, 101–103
 - relational sympathies, 99–101
- Citing Page Act (1875), 94
- City of New York Youth Division, 262
- Civil Rights movement, 94
- Class-based othering practices, 28
- Client–caseworker interactions, 116–117
- Collective action, 267–269
- Communal mothering, 241
- Community
 - care, 240–241
 - community-based childcare systems, 145
 - networks, 146–147
- Community Action Programs, 267
- Compensating amenities, 202
- Conceptual diversification of mothering, 158
- “Concerted cultivation” approach, 178, 179
- Constant comparative method, 77
- Contextualising family life in South Africa, 144
- Controlling images, 216
 - overcoming, 218–220
- Counter discourses, 234
 - community care, 240–241
 - crunchy milk sharing, 234–235
 - legacy reclamation, 238–239
 - mutual trust, 235–237
 - self-reliance, 237–238
 - spiritual embodiment, 239–240
- Counter-frames, 216
- Courtesy stigma, 74, 75, 85
- Covert resistance, 200
- Criticism, 131–132, 143
- “Crunchiness”, 232, 235
- Crunchy milk sharing, 234–235
- Cultural capital, 21
- Cultural imperatives of good mothering, 43
- Cumulative disadvantage, 69–70
- Customary Marriages Act, 144–145
- Dallas Morning News, The*, 246, 249
- Data analysis, 63
- “Dear Mama:Extended Children Letters” project, 252
- Decision-making process, 119
- Developmental disabilities (DD), 4, 74, 77
- Digital birth of “anchor babies”, 95–96
- Disability, 4, 50, 58–59, 60–62, 74–76, 208

- Disability-based stigmatization, 74
- Discourses of motherhood, 197–199
- Distance parenting, 142
- Distress, 80
- “Domestic goddess”, 27
- Domestic violence, 120
- Dominant western model, 42
- Down syndrome, 62, 79
- Economic
 - migrants, 128
 - mobility, 59
 - necessity, 148–149
 - precarious families, 51
 - spectrum, 58
 - survival strategies, 117–118
- Economic survival strategies
 - data sources, coding, and analysis, 114–115
 - low-income urban mothers, 109
 - Mexican-immigrant low-income mothers, 108
 - migration and welfare reconstruct gender expectations, 117–118
 - oppression, 110
 - United States–Mexico immigration systems and power relations, 115–116
 - welfare system and power relations in client–caseworker interactions, 116–117
 - women, men, and United States–Mexico immigration and welfare systems, 111–112
- Education, 65–66
 - aspirations, 64–65
 - of parents and child disability, 60–61
- Emotional labor, 143
- Employment of parents and child disability, 60–61
- Empowerment, homeschooling as, 223–225
- English mothers, 267
- ESRC-funded study, 160
- Ethnographers, 232
- Ethnographic/ethnography, 16, 21, 26, 62, 108, 114
 - within-group analysis, 108
- Everyday resistance, 199–200
- Family comorbidity, 58–59, 61–62, 69–70
- “Family ethic”, 260
- Federation of American Immigration Reform, 95–96
- Femininities, 26
- Feminist (see also Black feminist), 110
 - approach, 160
 - gender theory, 109
 - narrative approaches, 158
 - scholarship, 110
- “Folk devils”, 29
- Fort Worth Star-Telegram*, 246, 249, 255
- Fourteenth Amendment of US Constitution, 92
- “Freezer stashes”, 237
- Gender discourse, 108
- “Gender performance”, 110
- Gendered work, 221–223
- General Educational Development (GED), 63
- Gift-giving, 266
- Good mothering, 159, 161, 180, 231
 - in Europe, 135–136
- Grounded theory analysis of data, 183
- Groupe antiraciste
 - d’Accompagnement et de Défense des Étrangers et Migrants (GADEM), 126
- Hardship, contours of, 197
- Health behaviors, 27
- Hegemonic motherhood, 2
- Higher education, 15

- Homeschoolers, 215
- Homeschooling, 214, 268
- challenge and resolution, 218–225
 - community, 214
 - as empowerment, 223–225
 - gendered work and advocacy, 221–223
 - ideal family type and controlling images, 216
 - mothers, 218
 - overcoming controlling images, 218–220
 - single mothers, 220–221
 - systemic gendered racism and intersectionality, 216
 - theoretical framework, 215–216
- Honesty as best policy, 161–162
- Human Milk Banking Association of North America (HMBANA), 230
- Ideal family type, 216
- Immigrants, 64, 92, 126, 138
- Immigration policy, 266
- Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act (IIRIRA), 116
- Imprisonment, 158, 162–163
- Inability to fulfill role of mothers in Morocco, 134–135
- Individualized Education Plan (IEP), 206
- Inequality in educational attainment, 59
- Information-sharing meetings, 160
- Institutional Review Board (IRB), 232
- Intellectual and developmental disabilities (IDD), 74
- Intellectual disabilities, 77
- Intensive mothering, 43, 46, 143, 146, 197–198, 230
- Intergenerational aspirations, 65
- Intergenerational poverty, 43
- Intersectionality, 2–3, 74, 76, 109, 110, 216
- Keynesian economic approach, 260
- Labour Relations Act, 145–146
- Laissez-faire approach, 179
- Latina/Hispanic mothers, 108
- Legacy reclamation, 238–239
- Less-privileged mothering, 185–187
- LGBTQ community, 85, 236
- Liquid gold, 240
- Losing Ground* (Murray), 14
- Low-income adolescent mothers, 44
- adolescent pregnancy, 43–44
 - aspirations and expectations for future, 47–51
 - economic circumstances, 42–43
 - maternal identity, 45–47
- Low-income families, 59
- Low-income immigrant mothers, 108
- Low-income mothers, 198
- aspirations, 63–66
 - barriers to mobility, 66–69
 - employment and education of parents, 60–61
 - family comorbidity, 58–59
 - maternal health, family comorbidity, and cumulative disadvantage, 69–70
 - mother's health and comorbidity, 61–62
 - socioeconomic mobility, 59–60
 - socioeconomic mobility aspirations, 60
- Low-income Welsh mothers, 262
- Low-income women juggle, 12
- Low-paying jobs, 197
- Mama's Village (MV), 188
- Marginalization, 75–76, 85, 214, 216, 264–266
- experiences of, 80–82
 - intersections of, 82–84
 - of mothers, 2–3, 85
- Marginalized identities, 76, 84
- Marginalized mothering in college, 15–16
- Marginalized mothers, 178

- affluent, married mothers of color and child-centric support, 183–185
- challenging racial and maternal ideologies, 187–190
- contemporary society, 27–28
- in-depth interview participant demographics, 182
- less-privileged mothering, 185–187
- othering, 30–31
- parenthood accentuates, 26–27
- policing from professionals, 31–34
- policing from publics, 34–36
- studies, 28–30
- Marginalized Mothers, Mothering From the Margins*, 259
- Marginalizing mothers through biopower of state and social institutions, 261–264
- “Masculine worker-citizen”, 199
- Masculinities, 26
- Maternal
 - employment, 198
 - health, 69–70
 - identity, 45–47
 - moral transformations, 42
 - support, 178, 179
- Maternity hotels, 93
- Maternity tourism, 93
- Matriarch, 219
- “Maximum feasible participation”, 268
- Media coverage, 254–256
- Mental health problems, 63
- Mexican-immigrant low-income mothers, 108
- Mexican-immigrant mothers, 4
- Middle-class Black groups, 225
- Middleclass mothers, 198
- Migrant nannies, 142
- Migration and welfare reconstruct
 - gender expectations, 117–118
- Milk banks (see also Nonprofit breastmilk banks), 231, 232, 235–236
- Milk collectives, 232
- Milk sharers, 234, 235, 238
 - Black milk sharers, 231, 241–242
 - Latinx milk sharers, 242
 - Middle-class White milk sharers, 241
 - White milk sharers, 6, 242
- Milk sharing, 231–232, 235
- Mobility, barriers to, 66–69
- “Moral panics”, 29, 43
- “Moral reform”, 42
- Moral transformation, 42
- Mother and baby units, 29, 31–32, 167
- Mother-centric support, 268
- Mother’s health and comorbidity, 61–62
- Mother–child relationship, 151–152
- Motherhood (see also Parental experience with DD children), 26, 27, 42, 48–49, 142, 158, 159, 230, 231
 - in African context, 144–145
 - discourses of, 197–199
 - expectations, 127
 - and mothering, 142–143
- Mothering (see also Parental experience with DD children), 2, 158, 159, 259
 - community, 247
 - marginalizing mothers through biopower of state and social institutions, 261–264
 - mothering while studying, 17–19
 - nannies making sense of, 145–147
 - post-liberalization, austerity discourse, and marginalization, 264–266
 - resistance, collective action, and activist mothering, 267–269
 - shifting role of state, 260–261
 - theorizing about motherhood and, 142–143
 - uniqueness of, 164
 - welfare reform and assumptions on, 13–14

- Mothers (see also Nannies as mothers; Parental experience of mothers; Prison, mothers in), 230 of color, 178, 180
 responding to criticism, 131–132
 Mothers Against Illegal Aliens, 95–96
 Mothers Against Police Brutality (MAPB), 246, 248
 media coverage, 254–256
 website, 249–254
 Mothers Helping Mothers (MHM), 178, 187
 Multimodal techniques, 30
 Mutual trust, 235–237
- Nannies as mothers (see also Parental experience of mothers)
 contextualising family life in South Africa, 144
 economic necessity, 148–149
 motherhood in African context, 144–145
 nannies making sense of mothering, 145–147
 negotiating care of “other people’s children”, 150–152
 reconceptualising motherhood—complexities of distance, 149–150
 theorizing about motherhood and mothering, 142–143
 National Offender Management Service (NOMS), 158
 Native Labour Relations Act, 145–146
 Natural mothering, 234–235
 Negotiating care of “other people’s children”, 150–152
 Neo-liberalism, 260
 structural adjustment policies, 265
 New Deal programs, 260
 Non-citizen reproduction, 94
 Non-disclosures, 161–163
 Non-employment, 202–204
 Nonprofit breastmilk banks, 230
- Not Our Kind of Girl* (Kaplan), 14
 “Nurtured growth” strategy, 178 lower income mothers, 185–187
- Oppression, 2–3, 74, 110–112, 215–216
 Oshun, 239
 “Otherhood”, 28
 Othering, 28, 30–31
 “Othermothering”, 247
 Othermothers, 143, 186
- Parental empowerment, 223
 Parental experience of mothers (see also Mothering), 86 children with DD/IDD, 86
 DD, 84–85
 disability, 74
 experiences of marginalization, 80–82
 family impact, 77–80
 intersections of marginalization, 82–84
 with multiple marginalized identities, 85–86
- Parenthood accentuates, 26–27
 “Parenting White”, 178, 187–190
 Parents/parenting, 12 distance, 142
 employment and education of, 60–61
 Paternal care, 169
 Paternalism, 3
 Pediatrics, 231
 Peer-based support group (PSG), 180
 Personal responsibility, 14
 Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act (PRWORA), 13, 95, 116, 196
 Personal Responsibility Work Opportunity, 260
 Perverse anti-citizen, 96
 Photoelicitation, 29, 30
Pimping the Welfare System (Woodward), 22

- Policing, 248
 - from professionals, 31–34
 - from publics, 34–36
- Political lobbying communities, 223
- Poor mothers, 109, 111
- poor women do gender in
 - romantic unions, 118–119
- poor women undo patriarchy and
 - undo/redo gender, 120–121
- poor women undo patriarchy only to
 - redo gender, 119–120
- Post-liberalism, 261
- Post-liberalization, 264–266
- Poverty, 15, 23, 268
- Pragmatic needs barriers, 66
- Primacy of child, 46
- Prison, mothers in, 158
 - care for children, 166–167
 - difficult disclosures, 161
 - double-edged sword, 163
 - honesty as best policy, 161–162
 - maintaining contact, 164
 - managing care, 167–168
 - managing contact, 164–165
 - managing relationships, 168–169
 - secrecy in best interests of child, 162–163
 - storying mothering and imprisonment, 159–160
 - studies, 160
 - suspending contact, 165–166
- Prison Reform Trust, 158
- Prisons, 264
- Private behaviors, 36
- Professionals, policing from, 31–34
- Psychic unity, 239
- Public
 - policies, 86
 - policing from, 34–36
- Racialized anxieties, 101–103
- “Racialized conditional acceptance”, 94, 101–103
- Racism, 247, 248, 254, 259–260
- Reciprocally constructing phenomena, 85
- Recognition of Customary Marriages Act, 144–145
- Reconceptualising motherhood—complexities of distance, 149–150
- Reconciliation Act, 260
- Relational sympathies, 99–101
- “Relations of ruling”, 259–260
- Relationship and social liabilities, 67
- Reproductive control technologies, 261–262
- Reproductive labor, 126
- Resilience, 80, 267–269
- Risk, 230–232
- Ruling relations, 202
- San Diego County Health and Human Services Agency (SDCHHSA), 200
- Scholarship on birthright citizenship, 93
- Secrecy in best interests of child, 162–163
- Sectoral Determination 7 (SD7), 145–146
- Securing resources, 207–208
- Self-affirming
 - mothering, 178
 - practices, 187–190
- Self-fulfilling prophecy, 33
- Self-initiated participant (SIP), 21
- Self-reliance, 237–238
- Self-sacrifice, 46
- Sensory processing disorder (SPD), 79
- Sexism, 259–260
- Shadow mothers, 143
- Single mothers, 22, 185–186, 188–189, 220–221
 - Black single mothers, 14, 85, 179, 209
 - diversity, 16
 - families, 61
 - low-income, 23, 191–192
- Smoking during pregnancy, 35
- Social capital, 21
- Social constructionist arguments, 110
- Social science research, 14

- Social Security Act (1935), 196
- Social stigma, 268
- Societal factors, 142
- Socio-emotional barriers, 68
- Socioeconomic mobility
 - aspirations of low-income mothers, 60
 - with low-income families, 59–60
- South Africa, contextualising family life in, 144
- Southern African Development Community region (SADC region), 147
- “Spatial folk devils”, 29
- Spina binifida, 62
- Spiritual embodiment, 239–240
- Stay-and-play provision, 33
- Stratified reproduction, 198, 230
- Structuring employment, 202–204
- Sub-Saharan African transnational mothers
 - “good” mom in Europe, 135–136
 - inability to fulfill role of mothers in Morocco, 134–135
 - mothers responding to criticism, 131–132
 - Sub-Saharan Africans in Morocco, 128–129
 - transnational mothers’ relationship with children, 133–134
 - underemployment and effects on transnational children, 132–133
- Surveillance, 3–4, 28–29, 31, 33, 120, 231, 242, 262–264
- “Symbolic annihilation”, 268
- Systemic gendered racism, 216
- Teen mothering
- Teen mothers/mothering, 46, 52
- Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), 13, 15, 62, 113, 196, 200, 203, 260
- Three-City Study (TCS), 4, 59
 - ethnography, 108, 113
 - participants, 112
- Time limits, 13, 116, 196, 260, 269
- Timing out, 196, 197, 201
- Traditional gender norms, 61
- Transit migrants, 126, 128
- Transnational children, 132–133
- Transnational mothers, 126–127, 131
- Transnational mothers’ relationship with children, 133–134
- U.S. v. Wong Kim Ark* case, 92
- Unchecked health issues, 61
- Underemployment and effects on transnational children, 132–133
- Uniqueness of mothering, 164
- United States–Mexico immigration system, 108
 - and power relations in romantic unions, 115–116
 - and welfare systems, 111–112
- Upward socioeconomic mobility, 58, 63, 67
- US homeschooled population, 215
- US welfare system, 13
- Valerie’s online community, 235
- Vigilantes, 76, 85
- Visual ethnographic methods, 4
- Wales Institute of Social & Economic Research, Data & Methods (WISERD), 37
- War on Poverty Community Action Program, 267
- “We must summon the courage”, 253
- Welfare, 17
 - reconstruct gender expectations, 117–118
 - reform policy, 112
 - system and power relations, 116–117
- Welfare mother (see also Parental experience of mothers), 13, 14, 198
 - capitalizing capital, 21–22

- low-income women juggle, 12
- marginalized mothering in college, 15–16
- mothering while studying, 17–19
- negotiating identities, 16–17
- reliance necessitates compliance, 19–21
- welfare reform and assumptions on mothering, 13–14
- “Welfare queen” caricature, 14
- Welfare Reform (see Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act (PRWORA))
- Welsh low-income locales, marginalized mothers in, 26–34
- “Welsh Mam”, 27
- Western hyper-sexualization of breast, 27
- Women, Infants, and Children program (WIC program), 112
- Work
 - and career aspirations, 63–64
 - enforcement culture, 199
 - work-related stress, 61
- “Work Plan” ideology, 199
- Working-class women, 28
- Xenophobia, 259–260, 266
- Yellow Peril, 94
 - and model minority, 101–103
- Yoruba African Traditional religion, 239