

INDEX

Note: Page numbers followed by “n” indicate notes.

- Acculturation, 58
- Adolescent characteristics, 62–63
- Age, 117
  - cohort generations, 2
- Age Discrimination Employment Act (1967), 105
- Ageism, 106–107
- Aging in place, 156
- Ahmedabad, 37–38
- Ancient Law*, 20–21
- Aspirations, 36
- Assimilation, 58
- Authenticity, life course perspective on, 116–118

- Baby Boom generation (See Baby Boomers).
- Baby Boomers, 7, 77–78, 89, 95–96, 101–103, 140, 144
- Bidi*, 48n3
- Birth cohorts, 95–96, 135, 140 (see also Cohort(s))

- Capitalism, 39–40
- Care dyads, 135
- Caregivers, 134, 158, 161, 166, 168–169
- Caregiving, 10, 156 (see also Paid caregiving)
  - age, 138–139
  - by context, 135–139
  - experiences, 134, 158
  - gender, 137–138
  - and generationality, 139–142
  - primary condition, 136–137
  - theory, 163–165

- Child(ren)/childhood
  - of humanity, 20–22
  - labor, 25–28
  - rights governance, 16, 26
  - working for children’s education, 41–43
- Children of the NLSY79 (C-NLSY79), 55, 60–61, 66
- Civil Rights Act (1964), 102
- Cohort(s), 2
  - cohort replacement, 74
  - cohort-defining events, 118
- Comparative theory, 20
- Conjugal generations, 140
- Consanguineal generations, 140
- Corpus iuris civilis*, 17–18
- Cultural/culture, 68
  - change, 76
  - dissimilarity, 160
  - frameworks, 67

- Democracy, 16
- Distrust, 160
- Division of labor, 22
- Domestic femininity, 40
- Dominant life narrative, 126–128

- Education, 46
- Elder care, 135
- Emotional labor, 164
- Ethnicity, 159–160

- Familial generations, 140
- Familial metaphors, 17
- Family, 75, 134
  - caregiving, 135
  - generations, 1–2

- Family Attitudes Scale, 61
 FEFAM, 80
 Feminism, 23
 FEPOL, 79–80, 82
 FEPRESCH, 79–80
 Foreign-born caregivers, 160
- Gender, 26, 36, 116, 134
   egalitarianism, 57 expression, 116
   gender-role attitudes of country of origin and immigrants, 56–57
   in home healthcare, 162
   socialization, 56
   stereotypes, 100
- Gender attitudes, 74
   and beliefs, 2 measures, 79–80
   in United States, 57–58
- Gender identity life course perspective on, 116–118 questions, 121
- Gender ideology, 54–55, 61–62
   hypotheses, 60
   immigration in United States, 56 intergenerational acculturation of gender attitudes, 58–60
   intergenerational transmission, 54 methodology, 60–64
   results, 64–66
   shift in gender ideology climate, 56–58
   socialization process, 55–56
- Gender role beliefs or attitudes (see Gender ideology)
- Gendered caregiving, 156
- Genealogical generations, 140
- General Social Survey (GSS), 57, 75, 78–79
- Generation gaps in gender attitudes, 74–76
   current study, 77–78
   descriptive trends, 81–82
   by dimension and over time, 89
   methods, 78–81
- multidimensionality of gender attitudes, 76–77
   results, 81–89
   toward division of public and private sphere labor, 87–89 toward women's leadership, 82–85 toward working mothers, 85–87
- Generation(al), 1, 135
   caregiving, 156
   concept as used outside of academia, 3–4 differences in language, 120–126 generation X, 140 generation Xers, 75, 77–78, 89
   in home healthcare, 162
   positions, 4–9
   profile of early twentieth-century, 97–99
   silent generation, 99
   study of, 96–97
   twentieth-century, 3 variation, 2
- Generationality, 134–135, 149 age and relative age, 139–141 care research and generational research, 141–142
   caregiving and, 139–142
- Good warriors, 97–99
- Good work, 43–45
- Hard timers, 97–99
- Hart–Celler Act, 3, 56, 106
- Herzberg's two-factor theory, 168
- Heterosexuality, 118
- Hindutva, 37–38
- Historical time, 117–118
- Home caregiving, 158
- Home health caregivers, 156, 159–160
- Home-based work(ers), 36, 40, 46
   in India, 37
   methods, 41
- Homosexuality, 118
- Identity, 116
- Immigration Act (1965) See Hart-
 Celler Act

- Immigration and Nationality Act
(1965) See Hart-Celler Act
- Immigration in United States, 56
- India informal economy and home-based workers in, 37 modern India and notions of mobility, 38–39
women's work and mobility in Indian, 39–40
- Informal care dyads
caregiving and generationality, 139–142
caregiving by context, 135–139
- Informal economy, 37
- Informalization, 37–38
- Intergenerational
acculturation of gender attitudes, 58–60
care, 135
transmission of gender ideology, 54, 59
- International Labor Organization
(ILO), 25, 36
- Ivy League colleges, 2
- Job satisfaction, 168–169
- Kinship, 163–165
generations, 140
- LGBTQ communities and spaces, 116 life course perspective on gender identity, sexual identity, and authenticity, 116–118 relations, 6
results, 120–128
status, 128
study limitations and directions, 129–130
- Life course perspective, 95–97 on gender identity, sexual identity, and authenticity, 116–118
- Loving v. Virginia* (1967), 102
- Lucky Few, 99–101
- “Man of the Year” cohort, 102
- Maternal characteristics, 63
- Maternal nativity, 63
- Matriarchal social order, 21
- Matriarchy, 20–22
- Medicaid, 171*n*1
- Millennials, 4, 75, 77–78, 89, 144, 146
- Miscommunication, 160
- Mobility, 38–39
- Motherhood, 74
- Mothers, 54
- Multidimensionality of gender
attitudes, 76–77
- National Longitudinal Survey of Youth 1979 (NLSY79), 55, 60–61, 66
- New sociology of childhood, 25
- Nonlegal caregivers, 160–161
- Older LGBTQ sample, 119
- Orientation, 116
- Outward mobility, 37
for daughters, 45–47
- Paid caregivers, 159
- Paid caregiving, 165–166
caregiving experience, 158
caregiving theory and kinship, 163–165
caveat of COVID-19, 170–171
ethnicity and home health
caregivers, 159–160
gender and generation in home healthcare, 162
global and regional aging, 156–157
job satisfaction, 168–169
methods, 157–158
turnover, 166–168
United States as context, 160–162
- Parcellation of power, 29
- Part-time work, 166
- Pater familias*, 18

- Patriarchal Family, 21
- Patriarchal theory of social evolution, 20
- Patriarchalism, 18
- Patriarchy, 1, 16, 39–40
  - against brotherhood of men, 18–19
  - child labor, 25–28
  - matriarchy, and childhood of humanity, 20–22
  - patrimonialism, 28–29
  - Roman law, 17–18
  - thinking with, 16–17
  - and women's oppression, 23–25
- Patrimonialism, 28–29
- Pew Research Center, 4
- Politeness, 162
- Pre-Baby Boomers, 75–78, 83, 89
- Prehistory, 20
- Princeton Senior Resource Center (PSRC), 108–109
- Professionalism, 161–162
- Purdah*, 42
- Racial discrimination, 161
- Racial/ethnic intermarriage, 4
- Retirement, 3, 96
  - Boomers moving into, 104–106
  - evolving concept of, 103–104
  - studies, 100–101
  - trends of retirement experiences of Boomers and younger Lucky Few, 107–111
- Right to Education Act (2009), 38
- Roe v. Wade* (1973), 102
- Roman law, 17–18
- Russian-born caregivers, 161
- Sanskritization, 39
- Savage and primitive peoples, 20
- Scheduled Castes (SC), 41
- Secondary data, 135
- Segmented assimilation, 58
- Self-Employed Women Academy (SEWA), 41, 48*n*7
- Service Employees International Union (SEIU), 165
- Sexual identity, life course perspective on, 116–118
- Sexual orientation, 116
- Sexuality identity, 116
- Silent Generation, 2–3, 99
- Social learning theory, 55
- Social mobility, 40
- Socialization process, 55–56
- Structural equation modeling (SEM), 63–64
- Terman Women Cohort, 98
- United States as context, 160–162
- Upward mobility, 36–37
  - for daughters, 45–47
- US military academies, 2
- Women's oppression, 23–25
- Women's work and mobility in India, 39–40
- Work, 76
- Work Investment Programs (WIO), 170
- Working children, 27
- Younger LGBTQ sample, 119