

INDEX

Note: Page numbers followed by “n” indicate notes.

- Al-Qaida (see also 9/11 terrorist attacks; Terrorism), 29, 31
- American MNEs, 29
- Apathy, 122
- Attack Oil, 43
- Aviation, 78

- Beverages Pakistan (Beverages-P), 68–71, 114–117, 127–128, 142
- Beverages Turkey (Beverages-T), 63, 96–100, 127–128, 141–142
  - adjustments in strategies, 64–66
  - analysis of company strategies, 100–101
  - constraints/limitations, 67
  - future plans, 67–68
  - interaction with host government, 66–67
  - realization of post-9/11 terrorism impacts, 63–64
  - terrorism in EMs and institutional factors, 63
- “Bottom-up” approach, 156<sup>n4</sup>
- Business, 15
  - continuity, 141
  - utility plans, 78, 141
- Bypassing, 37

- Chemical, biological, nuclear, and radiological attacks (CBNR attacks), 58, 96, 154
- Clinical-focused interviews, 48
- Coercive isomorphism, 35
- Comeback strategy, 23
- Comparative analysis, 124
  - analysis on MNE basis, 125–131
  - consolidated analysis, 131–136
- Consolidated analysis, 131–136
- Constructivism–interpretivism, 42
- Contingency
  - plan, 65, 73, 93
  - view of strategy, 27
- Corporate risk manager, 73
- Corporate security manager, 151–152
- Counterterrorism, 146
  - countering impacts of terrorism, 27–28
  - proactive role of MNEs to, 27–28
- Country risk, 19, 24
- Craft strategies, 102
- Criminal acts, 21
- Crisis Management Strategy, 65
- Cross-country studies, 25
- Cultural–cognitive elements, 36
- Culture, 15

- Daesh (see Islamic State (IS))
- Disinvestment, 90, 96

- Economic losses, 23
- Emerging and growth-leading economies group (“Eagle” group), 95
- Emerging markets (EMs), 1, 5–7, 13–14, 33, 43, 92, 137
  - comparison between developed and EMs dimensions, 15
  - comparison of developed markets and, 2–3
  - consumption, 5
  - economic characteristics, 16
  - economies, 14
  - in international business, 16–17
  - physical characteristics, 16
  - potentials and peculiarities, 18

- significance, 1–5
- sociopolitical characteristics, 16
- terrorism in, 137–138
- Environments, 15
- Fast Food Pakistan (Fast Food-P), 85–90, 120–123, 130–131, 138, 145–146
- Fast Food Turkey (Fast Food-T), 81–85, 103–107, 130–131, 138
  - analysis of company strategies, 107
- Fear, 150
- Foreign direct investment (FDI), 4
- FTSE index, 14
- General Manager (GM), 68–69, 71
- Global Peace Index Score, 43
- Global terrorism, 25, 29, 85
- Global Terrorism Index (GTI), 8, 43
- Global Terrorism Rank, 43
- Gross domestic product (GDP), 1, 3–4, 16
- Habitualizing process, 37–38
- Human resource policy (HR policy), 59
- Imprinting, 37
- Incident Management and Crisis Resolution program (IMCR program), 64
- Incident management teams (IMTs), 65
- Institute for Economics and Peace (IEP), 25
- Institutional factors, 39, 137–138
- Institutional forces, 34
- Institutional processes, 37–38
- Institutional theory, 33–34, 149
  - institutional pillars and carriers pillar, 37
  - isomorphic pressures, 36
  - working, 35–37
- Institutions, 14
- Insurance, 87, 110
- International businesses (IBs) (see also Multinational enterprises (MNEs)), 4, 26, 91
  - EMs in, 16–17
  - qualitative studies in, 41
  - terrorism on, 7
- International firms, 25
- Interviewees selection, 47–49
- Irish Republican Army (IRA), 28
- Islamic State (IS), 6, 29, 46, 73, 92
- Islamist militancy, 26
- Kurdistan Workers' Party (PKK), 54
- Law enforcement agencies (LEAs), 54, 99, 145–147
- Legitimacy, 146
- Litmus test, 6
- Local laws, 99
- Markets, 15
- Methodology, 41
  - analysis criteria, 50
  - case selection, 42–49
  - case study, 42–49
  - data analysis, 49–50
  - data collection, 42
  - process measure for analysis, 50
  - research design, 41–42
- Mimetic isomorphism, 35
- Multinational corporations, 29
- Multinational enterprises (MNEs), 1, 4–7, 13, 33, 41, 53, 91, 137
  - analysis on MNE basis, 125–131
  - case study, 8
  - comparison between developed and emerging market dimensions, 15
  - impacts of terrorism on, 23–27, 30
  - limitations, 153
  - managerial implications, 151–153
  - in Pakistan, 48, 108–123, 139
  - processes and controls, 35
  - role playing by, 27–28
  - selection, 46–47

- suggestions for future research, 154–155
  - synthesis, 28–31
  - theoretical implications, 149–151
  - in Turkey, 48, 91–108, 138–139
- Multiple case study method, 42–43
- National institutional environments, 151
- Negligence, 122
- Neo-institutional theory, 34
- Nest Pakistan (Nest-P), 58, 108–113, 125–127, 144
  - adjustment in strategies, 59–62
  - constraints/limitations, 62–63
  - future plans, 63
  - interaction with host government, 62
  - realization of post-9/11 terrorism threat, 58–59
  - terrorism in EMs and institutional factors, 58
- Nest Turkey (Nest-T), 53, 91–96, 125–127, 144, 147
  - adjustments in strategies, 54–56
  - analysis of company strategies, 97
  - constraints/limitations, 57–58
  - future plans, 58
  - interaction with host government, 56–57
  - realization of post-9/11 terrorism threat, 54
  - terrorism in EMs and institutional factors, 53–54
- Newly industrializing countries, 14
- 9/11 terrorist attacks, 24, 31
- Normative elements, 36
- Normative isomorphism, 36
- Normative pressures, 36
- NVivo, 49
- Oil Co. Pakistan (Oil Co. -P), 76, 117–119, 128–129, 140–141
  - adjustments in strategies, 77–80
  - constraints/limitations, 80
  - future plans, 80–81
  - interaction with host government, 80
  - realization of post-9/11 terrorism threat, 77
  - terrorism in EMs and institutional factors, 76–77
- Oil Co. -Turkey (Oil Co. -T), 72, 100–103, 128–129, 139, 145
  - adjustment of business strategies, 73–75
  - analysis of company strategies, 104
  - constraints/limitations, 75–76
  - future plans, 76
  - interaction with host government, 75
  - realization of post-9/11 terrorism threat, 72–73
  - terrorism in EMs and institutional factors, 72
- Open source intelligence, 143
- Organizations, 33–34
- Pakistan
  - country-wise FDI inflows in, 45
  - MNEs in, 48, 108–125, 139
  - terrorism in, 43–44
  - terrorist incidents and fatalities in, 46
- Phenomenology, 42, 47
- Political instability, 25
- Political risk, 19
- Post-9/11 terrorism, 137, 149
  - post-9/11 international terrorism, 20
  - post-9/11 terrorist global phenomenon, 54
  - realization, 138
- Qualitative research approach, 41–42
- Regulating process, 37–38
- Regulative elements, 36
- Research design, 41–42
- Risk assessment, 28
- Security, 138
  - booklet, 93
  - manager, 64, 73–74, 143–144
  - plans, 146
  - risk, 23

- Semi-structured interviews, 48–49
- Shared culture of security, 121
- Situation-specific view of strategy, 27
- Social order, 140
- Solid Disaster Recovery Plans, 144
- Stakeholders, 15
- Standard operating procedures (SOPs), 54, 73, 93
- Stratfor, 55, 66, 94
- Stress management, 62

- Tehreek-e-Taliban Pakistan (TTP), 69, 139
- Terrorism, 1, 5–7, 13, 17, 33–34, 92, 137, 140, 149
  - casualties caused by, 18
  - countering impacts, 27–28
  - effects, 7
  - high casualty terrorist bombings, 19
  - on IB, 7
  - impacts on MNEs, 23–27, 30
  - research aims and research questions, 8–10
  - risk, 23
  - studies, 29

- Terrorist
  - activities, 22
  - offences, 21
  - risks, 24
- Theoretical lens, 33
  - conceptual framework, 38–39
  - institutional processes, 37–38
  - institutional theory working, 35–37
- Top management team (TMT), 55, 65, 95
- “Top-down” approach, 155n4
- Turkey
  - MNEs in, 48, 91–109, 138–139
  - number of terrorist attacks with fatalities in, 47
  - terrorism in, 44

- Universal view of strategy, 27
- US Department of Defense (DoD), 20

- Validating process, 37–38

- Western MNEs, 29
- World Economic Outlook (WEO), 2