

INDEX

- Academic entrepreneurship, 117, 120
- Academic scholarship, 75
- Accelerator(s), 129, 134 (see also Business accelerators)
  - accelerator Z, 135
  - accelerator-hopping, 135
- Adaptive mechanisms, 97–99
- African/Asian food store, 43–44, 48
- Albanian migration, 112–113
- Albanian transnational entrepreneurs, 110, 112–115, 120

- Barely Survivors*, 96–99
- Birmingham Chinese Quarter, 149–150
- Block mobility theory, 38
- Blocked mobility theory, 170, 174
- Boundary-fluid entrepreneurs, 132, 135
- Breakout, 140–142
  - framework for breakout process in superdiverse contexts, 144–146
  - multicultural hybrid construction, 152–154
  - opportunity recognition towards, 150–152
  - opportunity structure, 147–150
- British mainstream markets, 141, 147, 153, 155
- British takeaway industry, 43–44, 48
- Business
  - creation, 169–171
  - incubator, 129
  - location strategy, 189
- Business accelerators, 126
  - and capital, 129
  - findings, 132–135
  - methodology, 130–132
  - migrant entrepreneurship and capital, 127–128
  - tech entrepreneurship and capital, 128

- Capital, 132
  - business accelerators and, 129
  - migrant entrepreneurship and, 127–128
  - tech entrepreneurship and, 128
- Challenged-based entrepreneurship model (CBE model), 90
  - adaptive requirements and mechanisms, 97–99
  - challenges in terms of conditions and experiences, 94–97
  - findings, 94–100
  - literature review, 91–92
  - methodology, 92–94
  - outcomes, 99–100
- Chinese entrepreneurs, 5, 148
- Chinese immigrants, 82
- Chinese migrant communities, 146
- Chinese STEs, 72
- Chocolate City, 42
- Co-ethnics, network of, 164
- Co-migrant, 174
- Constructivist GT approach, 180
- Content analysis, 93
- Context, 178
- Convergence hypothesis, 189
- Corner shop migrant entrepreneur, 73
- Corporate accelerators, 134
- Cosmopolitans, 55–58
  - disposition, 56, 58
  - entrepreneurs, 4
  - and entrepreneurship, 58–59
  - narrative study on cosmopolitan entrepreneurs, 59–62
- Cosmoscape, 56, 63–64

- Cultural
  - attitudes, 75
  - capital, 169–171
  - heritage and capital, 41
  - theory, 38
- Deductive approach, 90, 94
- Demo Day, 129, 133
- Development of migrants, 110
- Diaspora
  - enterprises, 20
  - entrepreneurship, 20
  - networks, 5, 127–128, 162
  - opportunity-driven entrepreneurs, 20
  - ventures, 20
- Diasporic networks, 135, 173
- Digitalisation, 59
- Disadvantage theory, 38
- Disengaged scholarship and narratives
  - of othering, 44
  - academic cliché, 45–46
  - legitimise discrimination, 47
  - resistance, 47
  - social construct to limit
    - entrepreneurialism, 46–47
- Diversification, 5
  - of diversity in society, 196, 200
  - through migrant-led diversity, 203–205
  - strategies of migrant entrepreneurs, 203, 205–207
- Diversity, 5, 72–73, 196–197
  - of business conditions through migration contexts, 201–203
  - in types of migrant and ethnic minority entrepreneurs, 197–201
- Double transition, 113–114
- Economic development, 112, 119, 169
- Emotions, 4, 74–75, 80
- Enclave economy, 39, 205
- Enclave-Market Entrepreneurs, 143–144
- Enterprise, 72–73
- Entrepreneur, 110
- Entrepreneurial activity, 21
- Entrepreneurial behaviour, 59
- Entrepreneurial capital, 19
- Entrepreneurial diversity, 204
- Entrepreneurial experience of
  - ethnic women, 19
- Entrepreneurial identity, 41
- Entrepreneurial rates, 14
- Entrepreneurial resources, 16
- Entrepreneurial Superdiversity
  - Index, 204
- Entrepreneurship, 1, 50, 74, 90, 146
  - cosmopolitans and, 58–59
  - forms, 2
  - mainstreaming concept of, 47–48
  - motivations for, 114–116
  - scholars, 2, 36–37, 49, 57–58
  - and TE, 77–78
- Entry strategies for Mexican
  - immigrant entrepreneurs, 187–189
- Ethnic diversity, 14, 19, 204
- Ethnic economy, 39–40, 164
- Ethnic enclaves, 42, 164
- Ethnic entrepreneurs, 3
  - documented specific characteristics of, 20
- Ethnic entrepreneurship, 18–20, 36–37, 200
  - findings, 44–48
  - literature review, 37–42
  - methodology, 42–44
  - primary data, 42–43
  - secondary data, 43–44
  - traditional approaches to, 2
- Ethnic firms, 38, 40
- Ethnic identity, 41
- Ethnic managerialism, 15
- Ethnic minority entrepreneurship, 198
- Ethnic networks, 172–173
- Ethnic positioning, 189–191
- Ethnic resources theory, 38
- Ethnic stereotypes, 20
- Ethnic ties, 19
- Ethnic-enclave ventures, 79
- Ethnicity, 19, 41, 49

- Ethnocultural approach, 38
- European Economic Agreement (EEA), 130
- European School of Entrepreneurship, 90
- Expat-preneurs, 58
- Female immigrant entrepreneurs, 17
- Financial capital, 132
- Firms, 80, 129
- First-generation immigrants, 17
- First-generation Mainland Chinese entrepreneurs, 147, 160
- Fluidity and diversity of transnational exchanges, 127
- Geographical inequalities, 163
- Getting Along*, 95–98
- Global migration, 1, 90
- Global mobility, 63
- Globalisation, 4
- Grounded theory (GT), 180
- Growth Potential, 144
- High-skilled migrants, 127
- High-tech innovation, 127
- Higher entrepreneurship rates, 14
- Highflyers*, 94–95, 97
- Hispanics in USA, 15
- Human-cultural capital, 126
- Hybridity in transnationalism, 147–154
- Identity, 41, 58, 63, 77
  - identity-based entrepreneurship, 49
- Immigrant enterprises (IE), 72, 75–76, 78 (see also Migrant enterprises (ME))
- Immigrant(s), 13–14, 178
  - entrepreneurs, 15–17
  - entrepreneurship, 15–17, 77, 179
- Innovator Visa, 126
- Institutional theory, 74
- Inter-level analytical framework, 16
- Interactionist approach, 79
- Interactive model of opportunity structures, or market environment, 165
- Intersectional entrepreneurs, 201
- Intersectionality, 200
- Learning skills, 113
- Lesbian, gay, Bisexual and Trans entrepreneurship (LGBT entrepreneurship), 200
- Liability of foreignness, 38
- Lifestyle immigrants, 16
- Linguistic ethnography, 79–80
- Local networks, 172–173
- Low-skilled migrants, 16
- Mainstream economy, 39–40, 48
- Mainstream Market Entrepreneurs, 144
- Markets, 204, 206
- Metaphors for entrepreneurship studies, 180
- Mexican(s), 178–179
  - entry strategies for Mexican immigrant entrepreneurs, 187–189
  - ethnic positioning, 189–191
  - experience, 185
  - immigrants, 5
  - inheriting business culture, 184–185
  - methodology, 180–182
  - opening doors, 183–184
  - in Quebec, 179–180
  - results, 182–183
  - threshold, 185–187
- Middleman Entrepreneurs, 144
- Middlemen minorities, 2
- Migrant Chinese entrepreneurs, 72
- Migrant enterprises (ME), 72, 76
  - business, 82
  - contextualising everyday entrepreneurial practices, 78–79
  - entrepreneurship and TE, 77–78
  - future aspirations, 82–83
  - learning ropes, 81–82
  - methodology, 79–81

- migration and self-employment, 72–74
  - superdiversity and TE, 76–77
  - unveiling institutional perspective, 74–75
- Migrant entrepreneurs, 4, 73, 206–207
- Migrant entrepreneurship, 2–3, 6, 12, 57, 165 (see also Transnational migrant entrepreneurship)
  - and capital, 127–128
  - individual level of analysis, 21
  - institutional level of analysis, 22–23
  - inter-level studies, 23
  - method, 13
  - organisational level of analysis, 21–22
  - potential research directions, 24–25
  - process studies, 23–24
  - specificity of, 197
- Migrant(s), 110, 163
  - integration, 126–127
  - migrant-led diversification of societies, 204
  - migrant-led diversity, 197
  - networks, 15
  - technology inventors, 127–128
  - transnational entrepreneurship, 110
- Migration, 72–74, 110, 120, 163
  - context, 198
  - journeys, 168–169
- Mixed-embeddedness, 127, 141, 163, 165, 178
  - approach, 189–191
  - theory, 142
- Mixed-method approach, 110–111
- Motivations for entrepreneurship, 114–116
- Multi-cultural societies, 114
- Multicultural hybridism, 140
  - dynamic concept, 141–142
  - framework for breakout process in superdiverse contexts, 144–146
  - individual and firm-level cultural diversity, 141
  - research context, 146
  - research design, 146–147
  - research findings, 147–154
  - typology of transnational migrant entrepreneurs, 143–144
- Native entrepreneurs, 16
- Necessity entrepreneurs, 110–111, 119
- Network(ing), 18
  - of co-ethnics, 164
  - in migration, business creation and entrepreneurial development, 172–174
- New immigrant entrepreneurs, 17
- Niche-Market Entrepreneurs, 144
- Non-financial motivation, 15
- Non-governmental organisation (NGO), 93
- Opportunity entrepreneurs, 110–111, 114–115, 119
- Opportunity hypothesis, 178
- Opportunity structures theory, 38, 147–150
- Othering
  - disengaged scholarship and narratives, 44–47
  - narratives and discourses of, 1
- Outsourcing, 185
- Personal loans, 189
- Place, 56
- Poland, 162, 165–166, 169–170, 172
- Polish immigration law, 166
- Polish IT shop, 206–207
- Polish labour market, 166
- Polish–Ukrainian Chamber of Commerce (PUCC), 167
- Prejudices, 20
- QSR-NVivo, 147
- Qualitative content analysis, 93
- Quebec, 179

- entrepreneurship of Mexican immigrants in, 184
- entry strategies for Mexican immigrant entrepreneurs, 187–189
- Mexicans in, 179–180, 182
- Quebeckers wives, 183
- Reflection, 80
- Refugee(s), 90
  - entrepreneurs, 91, 93
  - entrepreneurship, 91–92, 94
- Reputational capital, 128
- Returnee entrepreneurs, 58
- Returnees, 110–113
- Sampling strategy, 93
- Scopus, 13
- Second-generation immigrants, 17
- Second-generation migrants, 15, 18
- Self-employed immigrants, 19
- Self-employment, 72–74
- Small transnational enterprises (STEs), 72
- Social capital, 164, 169–171
- Social embeddedness, 75
- Social identities, 19, 77
- Social networks, 18, 172
- Sojourner, 58
- Spanish ‘tandas’, 189
- Spatial Clustering, 144
- Spatiality of ME, 82
- Spillover effect, 20
- Spontaneous financing, 189
- Starbucks, 40
- Startups, 129
  - Visa, 126
- Structural approach, 163
- Superdiversity, 4, 48–49, 72, 140, 145, 196
  - and TE, 76–77
- Symbolic capital, 18, 126, 128, 190
- Tech entrepreneurship and capital, 128
- Tech funding, 128
- Third party certifications, 128
- Threshold, 185–187
- Tight-knit community relations, 73
- Time, 56, 64
- Transformational potential of in-migrant businesses, 14
- Translocational positionality of individuals, 3
- Transnational academic entrepreneurship, 117
- Transnational Capital, 144
- Transnational Enclaved Entrepreneurs, 144
- Transnational enterprises (TE), 18, 72
  - entrepreneurship and, 77–78
  - superdiversity and, 76–77
- Transnational entrepreneurs, 18, 57, 111, 118–119, 165
- Transnational entrepreneurship, 2, 4, 17–18
- Transnational immigrant entrepreneurship, potential impact of, 117–119
- Transnational institutional complexity, 18
- Transnational Mainstream Entrepreneurs, 144
- Transnational Middleman Entrepreneurs, 144
- Transnational migrant entrepreneurs, typology of, 143–144
- Transnational migrant entrepreneurship, 111–112
  - double transition, 113–114
  - methodology and data, 112–113
  - motivations for entrepreneurship, 114–116
  - policy recommendations, 119–121
- Transnational practices of Chinese migrants, 72
- Transnational spaces, 18
- Transnationalism, 2, 77, 135, 143, 173–174
- Ukrainian entrepreneurs, 162
  - data analysis, 168
  - data generation, 167

- empirical context, 165–167
- findings, 168–174
- methodological approach, 165–168
- sample characteristics, 167–168
- theoretical considerations, 163–165
- Ukrainian migration to Poland, 174
- Ukrainians, 5, 162, 173–174
- Underdog entrepreneurship model, 90
- United Kingdom (UK), 126
- Vacancy-chain openings, 144
- Venture Capital investors (VC investors), 128
- Ventures/business, 75
- Virtual cosmoscape, 64
- Web of Science, 13
- Y Combinator, 129