

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We extend our thanks to the many people who have worked to make this publication possible. We would like to call attention to the often unseen work of the many individuals whose support has been indispensable in publishing these volumes. Regarding the Communication, Information Technologies, and Media Sociology Section in the American Sociological Association (CITMAS formerly CITASA), we thank the Council for the section's sponsorship of the series. Our thanks also go to our Advisory Board members for their service disseminating our outreach and publicity. In addition, at Emerald Publishing, we deeply appreciate Cristina Irving Turner's unceasing labors in supporting the series and the Emerald editorial staff's contributions bringing the volumes to press. Finally, we recognize the reviewers who provided excellent suggestions for authors to hone their contributions – their expertise and insight was indispensable.
