

INDEX

- ABN AMRO (Dutch bank), 20
- Academic advances, 133
- Active-learning movement, 151–152
- Adaptation, 45
- Adaptive leadership, 198–199
- Adaptive systems, 192
- Adaptive transformational system leadership approach, 192, 198–202
- Adidas (German clothing company), 20
- Adult learning, 96
- Advising, 46–47
- Advocacy, 45, 74–75, 80–81
- Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez (AOC), 234–236
- Alibaba company, 165
- Allostasis, 58
- Amazon, 8
- Ambiguity, 251–253
- American business leadership, 165
- Ancient Chinese teachings, 118
- Andragogy learning principles, 99
- Anti-industrial culture, 168
- Anxiety, 22
- Arden, Jacinda, 237–238
- Artificial intelligence, 62, 64
- Asperger Syndrome, 232
- Authentic collaboration, 100
- Axial Age (700–200 BCE), 51, 60
- Behavioral approach, 5
- Behavioral Revolution, 5
- Bibliographies, 4
- Big data, 54, 56
- Binary opposition, 252
- Binary rhetoric, 252
- Binary thinking, 252
- Brexit chaos, 230–231
- Brin, Sergey, (co-founder of Google), 221
- “Brutal awakenings”, 203
- Business Leadership Program (BLP), 150–151
- Business management, 169
- Business Roundtable, 172
- C.E.O., 8
- Capacity, 70
- “Case-in-point” teaching, 180
- Centralization of power, 10
- Charismatic authority, 171
- Charismatic leaders, 9
- “China Way”, 169
- Chinese business leaders, 169–170
- Chinese business leadership, 170–172
- Chinese companies, 170–171
- Claudia, Mirza, (co-founded Akorbi), 222
- Climate
 - AOC and New Green Deal, 234–236
 - in crisis, 231
 - emergency, 240
 - Greta Thunberg, 232–234
 - inequity, 54
- Co-creating, 80
- Coaching during intensive residencies, 102
- Coercive power, 38, 43
- Cohesive theory of leadership, 6
- Collaboration, 257
 - assumptions and ideological barriers to global leadership, 249–254
 - authentic, 100
- Collaborative framework, 256
- Collective leadership, 36, 199, 200, 202
- Collectivism, 71
- College leadership education
 - active-learning movement, 151–152
 - beginning, 149–150
 - businesses started to recognize leadership without authority, 152
 - dawn of, 152–153

- in Japan, 149
 - national survey of college leadership
 - education institution, 153–154
 - preliminary analysis, 154–157
 - struggle for legitimacy, 150–151
 - College of Business (COB), 149–150
 - Colonialism, 11, 118
 - Colorful rays of hope, 231
 - “Common enemy identity politics”
 - approach, 255
 - Communal reciprocity, 74
 - Communication, 13, 35, 257
 - Comparative research, 81
 - Compassion, 23
 - Competency
 - assessment of student progress, 102
 - framework guides learning outcomes, 101
 - Complex interconnectedness, 253–254
 - Complexity, 35, 254
 - dynamics of, 253
 - Comprehensive model, 81
 - Comprehensive shared leadership, 37
 - Confirmation bias, 58–59
 - Confucianism, 118
 - Connection consciousness, 206–207
 - Conscious receptivity, 78
 - Consciousness
 - connection, 206–207
 - expanding, 206–207
 - global identity, 206–207
 - intentionality, 206–207
 - and leadership, 202–204
 - post-postmodern, 206
 - postmodern, 204–205
 - Contemporary leader, 257
 - Contemporary literature, 70–71
 - Context, 7
 - Contingency Approach, 5
 - Corporate commitment, 171
 - Corporate social responsibility (CSR), 15
 - “Cosmocentric” stage of consciousness, 205
 - Courageous consciousness, 80–81
 - Critical Incident Interview technique, 42
 - Cross-border crime, 193
 - Cross-cultural interactions, 136
 - Crucible moments, 186
 - Cultivate space for discovery, 79–80
 - Cultural/culture, 21, 97–98
 - attributes, 117
 - backlash, 13
 - competencies, 91
 - conflict in workplace, 28–29
 - contact zones, 68–69
 - cultural tightness-looseness scale, 27
 - dimensions in workplace, 21–22
 - diversity, 30
 - imperialism, 9
 - intelligence, 75
 - mental models, 118
 - narratives on leadership, 27–28
 - norms/values, 7
 - shifts, 13
 - Curriculum
 - content domains, 103
 - flexible curriculum with consistent
 - critical features, 101–102
 - leadership, 126–127
 - and programmatic level elements, 179–181
 - Cycle of Culture Shock*, 186–188
 - Cynefin framework, 256
 - Daoism, 118
 - Darwin, Charles, 58
 - Deep design, 23
 - Defining, 46
 - Degree of leader’s effectiveness, 5
 - Democracy, 230
 - Democracy in America*, 171
 - Democratic systems of governance, 195
 - Developmental readiness, 81
 - Dialogue mapping technique, 255
 - Dialogue methods, 255–256
 - Digital revolution, 53
 - Discourses of leadership and
 - relationship, 184–186
 - Disruptive moments, 186–188
 - Distributed shared leadership, 37
 - Diversity, 19, 57, 94, 97
 - cultural, 30
 - in organizations, 29
 - of students, 106
 - thinking and recognizing, 79
 - in workplace, 26, 30
 - Domains of curriculum content, 103
 - Dominance of one mental model, 250–251

- Dominant logics, 250
- Dynamic economic power, 8
- Ebola epidemic, 193
- Ecological space, 196
- Economic space, 196
- Education, 126
 - global leadership, 95–96
 - international, 126, 128
 - leadership, 115
- Effective intercultural leadership, 24
- Effective leaders, 5
- Effective leadership styles, 19
- Egalitarianism, 225–226
- Emotional intelligence, 93
- Empathy, 184, 225
- Enemies, 195
- Environmental inequity, 54
- Erosion of culture, 92
- Ethical reasoning, 93
- “Evolutionary baggage”, 62
- Executives, 171
- “Exemplary leaders”, 23
- Expanding consciousness, 206–207
- Experiential learning, 156
- Expert power, 38–39
- Face-to-face residency, 102
- Facebook, 8
- Faculty member, 132
- Faculty support, 137
- Faculty-led programs, 131
- Fear, voluntary engagement with, 56–57
- Feedback, 102, 133
 - loops, 51, 254
 - social, 59
- ‘Fellows’ network, 177
- “Feminization”, 61
- Fieldwork, 131
- Financial revenues, 119
- First Industrial Revolution, 53
- Flexible tightness, 27
- Focus, 24
- Follower, 7
- Followership, 6
- Food inequity, 54
- Ford Motor Company, 20
- Formal interactions, 136
- Formal networks, 182
- Fourth Industrial Revolution, 53–54, 62–63
- Fragmentation, 250, 252–254
 - overcoming, 254–257
- Fragmentation, 9
- Fridays for Future* (Gould), 233, 240
- Futuring, 23
- Generation Study Abroad commitment partners (GSA partners), 127
- Global cultural competency, 92
- Global dimension of leadership, 3, 9–15
- Global framing, 163
- Global identity
 - advocacy, 74–75, 80–81
 - co-create, 80
 - conscious receptivity, 78
 - consciousness, 206–207
 - cultivate space for discovery, 79–80
 - expanded conceptualization of, 72
 - expect brilliance, 79
 - global leader’s knowing-doing-becoming cycle, 78
 - Global Resonance, 75
 - intent, 76–77
 - interdependency, 73–74
 - multidimensionality, 72–73
 - symbiotic cycle of knowing-doing-becoming, 76
- Global leaders, 3, 14–15, 213–214
 - benevolence, 225
 - egalitarianism, 225–226
 - general characteristics of immigrant leaders in small, 219
 - humility, 224–225
 - identity, 67, 70
 - immigrant, 217–219
 - immigration as leadership crucible for, 220–222
 - immigration crucible influence on leadership styles of, 222
 - selected categories in leadership, 224
 - twenty prominent global immigrant leaders in large, 218
 - Ulukaya case, 222–223
- Global leadership, 3–4, 6, 8, 35, 67, 69, 77, 93, 229–231
 - bases of power in, 37–39
 - building capacity for, 181
 - education, 95–96
 - empirical evidence of shared leadership, 39–47
 - global challenges and, 231–241

- intervention, 182
- rays of hope in re-imagining, 241–242
- from sea of grey to sky of blue, 229
- shared leadership, 36–37, 47–49
- and shifting geopolitics, 239
- Global Leadership and Organizational Behavior Effectiveness Research Program Project (GLOBE Project), 25
- Global leadership collaboration
 - ambiguity, 251–253
 - assumptions and ideological barriers to, 249
 - complex interconnectedness, 253–254
 - dominance of one mental model, 250–251
- Global Leadership Program, 90
- Global mindset, 75
- Global Resonance, 68, 75–81, 207
- “Global way” of company leadership, 162
- Global women leaders, 231
- Globalism, 9
- Globality, 90, 92
- Globalization, 6, 9, 11, 13–14, 19, 35–36, 48, 67, 68–7, 126–127, 213
 - adaptive transformational system leadership, 198–202
 - challenges in international development, 194–197
 - consciousness and leadership, 202–204
 - depends on connections and relationships, 90–91
 - forces of, 91–92
 - Globalization 1.0, 11–12
 - Globalization 2.0, 12
 - Globalization 3.0, 11–13, 13, 14
 - impact on leadership, 193
 - tangible effects of, 214
 - transformative change of international development and aid, 197–198
- Goal, 7
 - achievement, 5
- Google, 8
- Graduate degree programs, 130
- Graduate leadership education (see also College leadership education in Japan; University-based leadership education)
 - research process and sample, 130–131
 - short-term study abroad in, 130
 - types of short-term study-abroad programs, 131–133
- Great Man Theory, 4
- Greta Thunberg (Skolstrejk for climate), 232–234
- “Greta Thunberg effect”, 234
- Grounded Theory, 42
- Hankook Tire and Technology Group, 20
- Harnessing Ubuntu in future of great disruption and distributed everything, 54–56
- HIV/AIDS pandemic, 193
- Hofstede, Geert, 21
- Holocracy, 53
- Homo sapiens*, 58–61
- Homo ubuntu*, 51, 54, 58–61
 - harnessing Ubuntu in future of great disruption and distributed everything, 54–56
 - interconnectedness and fourth industrial revolution, 53–54
 - leadership, 57
 - sustainably addressing current challenges, 61–64
 - voluntary engagement with fear, 56–57
- Hope, 23
- “Horizontal leadership”, 63
- Human biology, 51
- Human brain, 51
- Human mind, 58
- Humanness (see Ubuntu)
- Humility, 224–225
- Hybridity literature, 71
- Idea of liminality, 180
- Identity politics, 252, 254–255
- Identity-reconstruction-and-development-in-context process, 72
- Ideological maps, 251
- Ideologies of management, 168

- Immigrant leaders, 214
- Immigration, 214
 - crucible influence on leadership
 - styles of global leaders, 220–224
 - immigrant global leaders, 217–219
 - as leadership crucible for global leaders, 220–222
 - leadership crucibles, 215–217
- Impersonal reward power, 38
- Inclusion, 74, 183–184
- Independence Referendum in Scotland (2014), 240
- “India Way”, 169, 171
- Indian business leaders, 169–170
- Indian business leadership, 170–172
- Indian enterprises leaders, 171
- Indigenous leadership styles, 200
- Individualism, 71
- Individualism-collectivism, 22
- Industrial Revolution, 12
- Informal interactions, 136
- Informal networks, 182
- Information power, 39
- Infosys, 165
- Institute of International Education (IIE), 127
- Integrated shared leadership, 37
- Integration, 9, 13
- Integrative leadership, 256–257
- Intellectual advances, 133
- Intensive learning, 102
- Intent, 76–77
- Intentionality, 206–207
- Interconnectedness, 53–54
- Intercultural competence, 75, 93
- Intercultural Development Inventory (IDI), 180
 - assessment, 180
- Intercultural group facilitation, 98
- Intercultural interaction and communication, 98
- Intercultural learning process, 186
- Intercultural sensitivity models, 70, 133
- Interdependency, 73–74
- International branch campuses (IBCs), 114
- International development
 - challenges, 192–196
 - transformative change of, 197–198
- International education, 126, 128
- International immersions for graduate students
 - design and planning considerations for short-term study abroad, 133–138
 - globalization and leadership curriculum, 126–127
 - Leadership Studies, 125
 - need for short-term study-abroad programs for graduate students, 127–130
 - short-term study abroad in graduate leadership education, 130–133
- International leaders, 14–15
- International Research and Exchanges Board (IREX), 177
- Internet, 12
- Internet of things, 64
- Interpretation, 184
- Iron Age, 51
- “Isomorphic” behavior, 162
- “Joined up” approach, 257
- Kansas Leadership Center (KLC), 187
- Knowing, 24, 75
- Knowing doing-becoming cycle, 76–78
- Knowledge of international organization systems and change strategies, 99
- Laissez-faire approach, 27
- Language barriers, 135–136
- Leader(s), 7, 19, 23, 193, 197–198, 202–203, 207
 - leader power bases, 38
 - leader-centric approach, 5
 - leader-follower relationship, 5–6
 - programs, 149
- Leadership, 3–4, 6, 36, 62, 92, 114–115, 117, 126, 184–185 (see also Global leadership)
 - approach, 198–199
 - assumptions and ideological barriers to global leadership
 - collaboration, 249–254
 - challenges in global crisis context, 247
 - characteristics, 22–24
 - components of leadership model, 7
 - consciousness and, 202–207

- crucibles, 215–217
- curriculum, 126–127
- education, 115, 126
- empirical study of, 4
- evolution of theory-building, 4–6
- global dimension of, 3, 9
- for global leaders, 220–222
- of global leaders, immigration
 - crucible influence on, 222–224
- identity, 179
- leader's checklist, 163
- leading in new millennium, 13–15
- mindset, 179
- nature of problem, 248–249
- need for salient leadership, 249
- and organizational culture, 24–25
- orientations, 188
- overcoming fragmentation,
 - 252–255
- practice, 179
- principles, 162
 - as relational practice, 185–186
 - rise of globalization 3.0, 11–13
 - style, 5, 23, 198, 200
 - styles, 214–215
- team leader's checklist, 163
- time-consuming areas for American,
 - Chinese, and India business leaders, 167
- Westphalian International System,
 - 10–11
- Leadership Educators, 119
- Leadership in Civic Engagement
 - Institute, 182
- Leadership Studies programs, 114,
 - 119–120, 125
- Leadership-as-Practice (LaP), 178
- Leadership-without-authority models,
 - 152
- Leading corporations in US
 - Chinese and Indian business leadership, 170–172
 - leadership principles, 162–167
 - learning, 169
 - national ways, 167–169
 - shareholder value, 169–170
- Lean operating system, 171
- Learning, 169, 186–188
 - authentic collaboration, 100
 - blended online courses and intensive residencies, 101
 - competency assessment of student progress, 102
 - competency framework guides
 - learning outcomes, 101
 - flexible curriculum with consistent critical features, 101–102
 - intensive learning, feedback and coaching during intensive residencies, 102
 - principles for MAGL program, 99
- Legitimate power, 5, 38
 - of dependence, 38
 - of position, 38
 - of position, 43
- Lenovo, 165
- Life experiences, 94
- Linnaeus, Carl, 58
- Local leaders, 14–15
- Ly, Andrew, (founder and CEO of Sugar Bowl Bakery), 220
- MA in Global Leadership program
 - (MAGL program), 96, 104
 - competencies underlying Royal Roads University MAGL, 96
 - curriculum, 103–105
 - instructors as scholar practitioners, 107
 - leading in diverse global context, 97–98
 - leading sustained change in complex environments, 98–99
 - learning principles for, 99–102
 - personal leadership working in global context, 96–97
 - students in, 102–103
- Managerial competence, 20
- Mandela Washington fellowship,
 - 177–178
- Masculinity-femininity, 22
- “Mental complexity”, 204
- Meta-narrative of leaders, 249, 251
- Mid-level framing of leadership learning
 - and development, 178–179
- Mindfulness, 23
- Ministry of Education (MOE), 114, 151
- Mintzberg's methods, 47
- Mobile tech, 64
- Model predictive controller, 58–59
- “Models of management”, 168
- Modern leadership theories, 53

- Modus operandi, 58
- Moore's Law, 64
- Moral reasoning, 93
- Multidimensionality, 72–73
- Multinational corporations (MNCs), 12, 19–20, 126
- Multinational enterprises (MNEs), 19
- Multinational organizations prevalence in world, 21
- Mutual decision-making, 45
- Nadella, Satya, (CEO of Microsoft), 222
- National identity, 11, 208
- National leaders, 14–15
- Nationalism, 9
- Neo-liberal capitalism, 193
- Neocolonialism, 117
- Neolithic period, 61
- Networked intelligence, 23
- New Green Deal, 234–236
- Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), 14
- Open-ended responses, 182
- Oppressive social hierarchy, 62
- Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC), 234
- Organizational behavior, 149
- Organizational culture, leadership and, 24–25
- Paleolithic legacy, 63
- Pan-Africanism, 180
- Patriarchy, 63
- Peace of Westphalia, 10
- People-centered Ubuntu principles, 55
- Personal adaptability, 97
- Personal goals, 133
- Personal leadership competencies, 94
- working in global context, 96–97
- Philosophical commitments & orientation, 178
- Place, 70
- Political inequity, 54
- Political space, 196
- Polity, 195
- Post-modern theoretical perspectives, 71
- Post-postmodern consciousness, 206
- Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), 216
- Postmodern consciousness, 204–205
- Poverty, 194
- Power, 37–38
- bases, 37–39
- Practice theory, 178
- Practice-driven education, 125
- Practicums, 131–132
- Pre-dispositional traits, 95
- Preliminary analysis, 154–157
- Process factors, 135, 136–138
- Professional benefits, 134
- Professional development, 131–132
- Project implementation process, 201
- Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Capitalism*, The (Weber), 167
- Reconciliation, 55, 72
- Referent power, 38
- Regional Vice President (RVP), 45–46
- Relationship, 180
- Relatively less social behavior, 60
- Reliance, 165
- Remote sensing, 64
- Renewable energy, 64
- Resilience, 97
- Resonance, 75
- Resonant leadership, 23
- Responsible leadership, 253
- Revising, 46–47
- Reward power, 38
- Risks, 195
- Roman Catholic Church, 10
- Rotated shared leadership, 37
- Scholarship, 126
- Schwab, Klaus (Founder and Executive Chairman of World Economic Forum), 53
- Science, technology, engineering, and math fields (STEM fields), 13
- Scientific management, 168
- Scottish National Party, 239–241
- Second Industrial Revolution, 53
- “Second-tier being” stage of consciousness, 205
- “Self-authoring mind”, 205
- Self-deprecation functioning program, 169
- Self-fulfillment, 60

- Self-identity, 203–206
- Self-improvement, 60
- Self-in-systems management capability, 97
- Self-reflective practice, 97
- Self-sufficiency, 60
- “Self-transforming mind”, 206
- Sensemaking, 255
- Servant leadership, 53
- Service learning, 131–132
- Shared leadership, 36–37, 150
 - in action, 44–47
 - and bases of power, 42–44
 - empirical evidence of shared leadership, 39
 - for global future, 47–49
 - nature of global leaders’ work, 39–42
- Shared narrative of leadership
 - creating shared narrative, 29–30
 - cultural conflict in workplace, 28–29
 - cultural dimensions in workplace, 21–22
 - cultural narratives on leadership, 27–28
 - increasingly diverse organizations, 19–20
 - leadership and organizational culture, 24–25
 - leadership characteristics, 22–24
 - narrative role on leadership, 25–26
 - prevalence of multinational organizations in world, 21
- Shareholder
 - activism, 170
 - value, 169–170
- Short-term study-abroad programs (see also MA in Global Leadership program (MAGL program))
 - challenges and benefits of study abroad for graduate students, 128
 - design and planning considerations for, 133
 - dimensions influence design and experience, 134
 - in graduate leadership education, 130
 - graduate student demographics and interests in short-term study abroad, 128–130
 - for graduate students, 127
 - objectives for students, 133–134
 - process factors, 136–138
 - research process and sample, 130–131
 - structural factors, 135–136
 - types, 131–133
- Smart manufacturing, 64
- “Social Brain” hypothesis, 59
- Social discourse, 253
- Social space, 196
- SONY Group, 20
- Space, 70
- Sponsorship requirements and other partnerships, 103
- Stakeholders, 198–199, 201
- Strategic navigation, 23
- Structural factors, 134–135, 135–136
- Structured looseness, 27
- Student learning community creation, 105–107
- Student progress, competency assessment of, 102
- Students in MAGL program, 102–103
- Study-abroad programs, 149
- Surgeon, Nicola, 239–241
- Sub-Saharan context, leadership in
 - building capacity for global leadership, 181
 - context, 177–178
 - curriculum and programmatic level, 179–181
 - discourses of leadership and relationship, 184–186
 - inclusion, 183–184
 - learning, disruptive moments, and cycle of culture shock, 186–188
 - mid-level framing of leadership learning and development, 178–179
 - philosophical commitments and orientation, 178
 - research study, 181–182
- Supraterritorial relations, 90
- Supremacy of business, 168
- Sustainability Development Goals (SDGs), 193
- System leadership, 201–202
- Tanzanian process of interdependency, 74
- Tata Group, 165–166

- Taylorism, 168
- Teacher-centered educational culture, 117
- Technological innovation, 3
- “Technologies of self”, 179
- Technology, 35
- Tension, 72
- Territorial elements, 70
- Theory U, 207
- Theory-building, evolution of, 4–6
- “Think and act strategically” principle, 163
- Third Industrial Revolution, 53
- 3D printing, 64
- Time* magazine, 234
- Trade, 11
- Traditional leadership, 69
- Traffic congestion, 250
- Trait Approach, 4
- Transform socio-economic political systems, 192
- Transformational leadership, 5, 53, 198, 200
- Transformative dialogue, 79–80
- Transitional countries, 193
- Transnational higher education (TNE), 114
- Transportation, 64
- “Tripod Ontology of Leadership”, 180
- Trump administration, 230–231
- Ubuntu*, 51, 63
- Ubuntu leadership, 55
- Ukama, 52
- Ulukaya, Hamdi, (founder and CEO of Chobani Yogurt), 222
- UN Climate Action Summit, 234
- United Nations Development Programme (2015), 194
- University education programs, 95
- University leadership programs, 95–96
- University-based leadership education competencies underlying Royal Roads University MAGL, 96–99
 - creating student learning community, 105–107
 - forces of globalization, 91–92
 - global leadership education, 95–96
 - globalization depends on connections and relationships, 90–91
 - learning principles for MAGL program, 99–102
 - MAGL curriculum, 103–105
 - MAGL instructors as scholar practitioners, 107
 - relationship building competencies required of global leaders, 92–94
 - sponsorship requirements and other partnerships, 103
 - students in MAGL program, 102–103
 - university programs, 107–108
- US Department of State, 177–178
- Values, 28
- Vanke, 165
- “Vertical leadership”, 63
- Virtual immersions, 133
- Visioning, 46
- Volatile, uncertain, complex and ambiguous (VUCA), 152, 193, 198
- Voluntary engagement with fear, 56–57
- “War on Terror”, 253
- WaterOrg, 44–45
- Western course design, 118
- Western leader-centric approach, 6
- Western Leadership Studies Programs in China
 - in opposition of, 116–119
 - in support of, 115–116
- Western national-security agencies, 234
- Westphalian International System, 10–11
- White power ideology, 236
 - Jacinda Ardern, 237–238
- “Whole of government” leadership approaches, 257
- Wicked problem, 253
- Workplace
 - cultural conflict in, 28–29
 - cultural dimensions in, 21–22
 - diversity in, 26, 30
- “Worldcentric” stage of consciousness, 204
- X-Culture program, 132

- Yin and Yang concept, 113
 - call, 120–121
 - in opposition of Western Leadership Studies Programs in China, 116–119
 - in support of Western Leadership Studies Programs in China, 115–116
- weighing balance, 119–120
- Western ideologies, 114–115
- Zoom app, 13