

Index

- “Add-on”, 251
- Agency theory, 90, 102, 252
 - conventional, 77
 - of value creation, 80–82, 89
- Altruism, 78, 81, 227, 260
 - reciprocal, 236, 237
- American social-economic
 - revolution, 135
- Appraisive in nature, ECC, 26–27
- Aspirational justification, 14

- “Balanced scorecard”, 11
- Bandwagon effect, 144
- Barney’s arguments, 149
- B corporation, 84
- Behavioral stakeholder theory
 - challenge, 11–12
- Betweenness centrality, 117–118
- Big Three of ethical theories, 16
- Bilateral monopoly, 87
- Brokerage, 118
- Business, 2–3, 6, 11, 49, 81
 - “business as relational”
 - approach, 3
 - decisions, 53
 - ethics, 18
 - executives and directors, 75
 - model, 8, 9
 - models project, 13
 - for pragmatist, 17
 - supply chain from customers to suppliers, 4

- Capitalism, 3, 6, 12, 16, 17, 69
 - free market, 91, 290
- Caring, 65
- Case selection, 165–166

- Character, argument from, 16
- Chronology of stakeholder salience
 - research, 128–134
- Claimant group, 29–30
- Claimant stakeholder, 34–35
- Classification systems, 28
 - classification model of
 - stakeholder theory
 - definitions, 36–37
 - examples of approaches to sort
 - stakeholder definitions, 29
 - MPD of stakeholder
 - identification, 32
 - MPRA of stakeholder
 - identification, 33
 - SPD and SPRA of stakeholder
 - identification, 31
 - stakeholder hyponyms, 34–35
 - systematic and comprehensive
 - classification, 30
 - typology of stakeholder
 - definitions, 38
 - unclassifiable definitions, 39
 - See also* Stakeholder theory
- Classification theory, 30
- Closeness centrality, 117
- Co-creation of value, 84–86
- Coercive power, 141
- Collaborator stakeholder, 35
- Colonial experiences, 174
- Combinatory definition, 38
- Combinatory group, 30
- Common core, 26
- Common ground, 252–254
 - between strategy and stakeholder
 - theory, 255–258
- Communities, 4, 5, 167, 193

- Conceptual enquiry, 23, 26
- Conceptualizations of relationships, 108
- Consequences
 argument from, 14–15
 to society. See Social consequences
- Consumer surplus, 78
- Consumer–producer interaction, 79
- Contestability, 26
- Context
 context-based moderators of salience, 142
 data collection, 166
 design, case selection, and data, 165–166 research on salience in, 141–143
 transferability and generalization, 166–167
- Continental philosophers, 16
- Contractarian ethics, 60–64
- Contractarian stakeholder theories, 61–62
- “Contractualist fallacy”, 63
- “Contributors”, 254–255
- Conventional accounting systems, 7
- Convergence, 252–254
- Corporate citizenship, 135
- Corporate social performance (CSP), 82
- Corporate social responsibility (CSR), 15, 81, 125, 127, 135, 251
- Corporate social responsiveness, 125
- Corporate stakeholder responsibility, 15
- Corporate strategy, 254
- Creating shared value (CSV), 76, 84–86
- Creative destruction, 80
- CSP. See Corporate social performance (CSP)
- CSR. See Corporate social responsibility (CSR)
- CSV. See Creating shared value (CSV)
- Customers, 4
- Data, 165–166
 collection, 166
- “Definitive” organizational stakeholder, 164
- Degree centrality, 115–117
- Deontology, 68
- Dependent stakeholders, 195
- Derivative stakeholders, 192
- Descriptive approach, 163
- Descriptive justification, 14
- Descriptive theories, 27, 90
- Design, 165–166
- “Dichotomize” business, 52–53
- Differentiation, 266
- Dimensions of salience, 164
- Discourse of business and ethics, 52
 insights from discourse ethics, 208–210 about stakeholder theory, 190
- Discretionary stakeholders, 195
- Discretionary supportive behaviour. See Prosocial behaviour
- “Divide and rule” approach, 165
- Dominant model
 normative stakeholder theory and intrinsic worth, 54–56
 separation fallacy, 51–54
- Dominant stakeholders, 195
- ECC. See Essentially contested concept (ECC)
- Economic assumptions, 144–145
- Economic theory, 50

- Economic value, 79
- Economic value added (EVA), 76, 87–88
- Effort-performance expectancy (E-P expectancy), 230, 231
- Egocentric martyrdom, 198
- Empirical judgments, 50–51
- Employees, 4
- Entitleds*, 199
- “Entity convention”, 10
- Entrepreneurial theory of value creation, 82
- Environmental harm, 198
- E-P expectancy. See Effort-performance expectancy (E-P expectancy)
- Equal treatment, 55–56
- Equity sensitivity in stakeholder behaviour, 223–228
- Essentialism, 30
- Essentially contested concept (ECC), 23
stakeholder as, 26–28
- Ethical theory challenge, 14
- Ethics, 35, 78, 260
- EVA. See Economic value added (EVA)
- Evil stakeholder strategies, 262–264
- Exchange ideology and stakeholder behaviour, 228–230
- Executives, 5
compensation, 13
- Expectancy theory and stakeholder behaviour, 230–231
- Expectations-based approach, 162, 176–178
- Explicit claimant, 25
- Extensive knowledge of field, 30–31
- “Factual” decisions, 53
- Fairness, 200–203
as normative foundation, 195–200
- Fairness-based perspective
loosening assumptions, 222–223
equity sensitivity in stakeholder behaviour, 223–228
on stakeholder behaviour, 219–222
- Feminist ethics, 64–66
- Firm, 79, 80, 81, 216
stakeholder action against, 217, 220, 221
constraint on, 230–231
theory of, 76
- Focalness, 113
- Free market capitalism, 91, 290
- Frooman’s approach, 232
- “Future-forward” approach, 3
- Generalization, 166–167
- “Generosity”, 163
- Goodwill, 261
- Great Complex. See Hydropower James Bay project
- Great Whale Project, 160–161, 171
- Human nature, stakeholders and, 260–262
- Hume’s analysis, 52
- Hydro-Québec and Cree case study, 167
announcement of world’s largest hydroelectric systems, 168–170 crisis around second phase of James Bay hydroelectric project, 171–173 deterioration of relations, 170–171 episodes, 167–168
- Hydroelectric project, 165

- Hydropower James Bay project, 168
- Hypernorms, 62–64
- IABS. See International Association for Business and Society (IABS)
- IC. See Intellectual capital (IC)
- IG. See Interest Group (IG)
- Illegitimate stakeholder, 191
- “Impact investing”, 251
- Impartiality criterion, 201
- Implicit claimant, 25
- Inclusiveness, 145–146
- Influencer group, 29–30
 influencer-based definitions, 37
 stakeholder, 34
- Instrumental
 approach, 162–163
 justification, 14
 stakeholder theory, 215
 theories, 27, 90
- Integration opportunities, 146, 148
- Integrative social contracts theory (ISCT), 62
- Intellectual capital (IC), 79
- Intellectual tension, 258
- Interactive framework, 137–139
- Interactive salience, 143
- Interest Group (IG), 255
- Interest-based view of stakeholder action, 218–219
- Interest-related influences
 stakeholder behaviour, 230
- Internally complex, 26–27
- International Association for Business and Society (IABS), 124
- International law, 50–51
- Interorganizational field, 103
- “Intra-corporate marketplace”, 144–145
- Intrinsic worth, 54–56
- “Investor centered” approach, 11
- “Iron Law of Responsibility”, 135
- ISCT. See Integrative social contracts theory (ISCT)
- James Bay and Northern Quebec Agreement (JBNQA), 169
- “Joint value creation”, 259
- Justice, 200–203
- Kant’s Second Formulation of the Categorical Imperatives, 57
- Kantian ethics, 57–60
- Kantian moral theory, 55–56
- Kantian stakeholder theory, 58–60
- KPMG, 88
- Leavitt–Scott conceptualization, 138
- Legality, 176
- Legitimacy, 126, 163, 176
 Phillips on, 203–205
- Legitimate, 192
- Local communities, 167
- Mainstream stakeholder theory, 165
- Managerial justification, 14
- Managerial perceived determinants (MPD), 31
- Managerial Perceived Relationship Attributes (MPRA), 31, 33
- Managerial stakeholder theory, 77
 of value creation, 82–84
- “Managing for stakeholders”, 3
- Marginal stakeholders, 190–192, 196

- business attitudes towards, 198–199
- case study, 206–208
- fairness, 200–203
 - as normative foundation, 195–200
- insights from discourse ethics, 208–210
- justice, 200–203
- morality of stakeholder theory, 192–195
- Phillips on legitimacy, 203–205
- reciprocity, 200–203
- See also* Stakeholder(s)
- Mere means, 53, 55, 58
- Meta-theory, 23
- Microsocial norms, 62
- Ministry of Health and Family Welfare (MoHFW), 111
- Ministry of Women and Child Development (MowCD), 111
- Morality of stakeholder theory, 192–195
- MPD. See Managerial perceived determinants (MPD)
- MPRA. See Managerial Perceived Relationship Attributes (MPRA)
- “Names and faces” approach, 260
- Negotiated-order
 - perspective, 174–176
 - theory, 161
- Negotiations, 174
- Nestlé’s Maggi noodles product, 112
- Net benefits, array of, 82–83
- Net operating profit after taxes (NOPAT), 88
- “Net societal value”, 82
- Network brokers, 118
- Network density influences stakeholder, 126
- Network status, 118
- New York Power Authority (NYPA), 172
- Non-action, 232
- ‘Non-facilitating’ behaviour, 221
- Non-governmental agencies, 208
- ‘Non-improving’ behaviour, 221
- Non-stakeholder, 191
- “Non-state market-driven” governance systems, 208
- Nonprice buyer value, 79
- “Nonsense on stilts”, 204
- NOPAT. See Net operating profit after taxes (NOPAT)
- Normative approach, 162–163
- “Normative core”, 51, 56, 195, 265–266
 - contractarian ethics, 60–64
 - feminist ethics, 64–66
 - Kantian ethics, 57–60
 - pragmatism, 67–70
- Normative criticisms
 - normative stakeholder theory and intrinsic worth, 54–56
 - separation fallacy, 51–54
- Normative foundation, fairness as, 195–200
- Normative judgments, 50–51
- Normative justification, 14
- Normative power, 141
- Normative stakeholder theory, 49
 - contractarian ethics, 60–64
 - feminist ethics, 64–66
 - Kantian ethics, 57–60
 - normative cores, 56
 - normative criticisms of
 - shareholder-centric, dominant model, 51–56
 - pragmatism, 67–70
 - stakeholder theorists, 50–51
- See also* Stakeholder theory

- Normative theories, 27, 90
- Normatively legitimate stakeholder, 197
- Nutrition Stakeholder Network in India (2012), 112
- NYPA. See New York Power Authority (NYPA)
- “Occupy Wall Street” movement, 250
- Odeyak, 171–172
- Open in character, 27
- Optimal development, 28
- Organizations
- organizational management theory, 35
 - organizational wealth, 83
 - stakeholders, 216
- Organization–stakeholder relationship, 26
- Original exemplar of stakeholder theory, 37
- Pareto optimality standard, 148–149
- Performance–outcome expectancy (P–O expectancy), 230, 231
- Philosophical pragmatism, 70
- Pluralistic society, 67–68
- Porter and Kramer theory, 85
- Power, 126, 140, 163
- Pragmatism, 67–70
- pragmatists, 67
 - argument, 16–18
- Present-day mobilization, 231
- prima facie*, 200
- Principles of stakeholder capitalism, 193
- “Prisoner’s dilemma”, 15
- Producer surplus theory, 80, 82
- Proper incentives, 13
- Proprietary convention, 10
- Prosocial behaviour, 217, 221, 222, 226–228, 230, 233
- Proximity, 139
- principle, 66
- Public policy challenge, 12–13
- Punitive stakeholder behaviour, 222, 236, 240
- Quid pro quo*, 202
- Recipient stakeholder, 35
- Reciprocal altruism, 236
- Reciprocity, 191, 197, 200–203, 228
- Redistributor, 13
- Regulator, 13
- Relational approach, 262
- Relational legacies, 173
- Relational principle, 66
- Rent, 87
- seeking, 80
- Reporting, 11
- Resource dependence
- in stakeholder behaviour, 231–234
 - theory, 140
- Rights, argument from, 15–16
- Risk management, 216
- Salience assumptions, research on, 141
- Sarbanes–Oxley Act, 13
- Satisfaction measure, 13
- Scholars, 135
- Self-restraint, 261
- Semi-structured interviews, 166
- “Sentience”, 55–56
- Separation fallacy, 51
- “Separation thesis”, 51–52, 54–55, 192
- Shareholder theory, 54, 265
- Shareholder value, 89

- Shareholder-centric model normative stakeholder theory and intrinsic worth, 54–56
 separation fallacy, 51–54
- SIM. See Social Issues and Management (SIM)
- Simpliciter, 199
- Single theory, 265–266
- SMS. See Strategic Management
 Society (SMS)
- “Social accounting”, 11
- Social capital, 104, 115
- Social consequences, 15
- Social contract, 60–61
 theory, 61
- Social identity in stakeholder behaviour, 234–235
- Social Issues and Management
 (SIM), 253
- Social network, 102
 approach, 175
 power for stakeholders, 114
 betweenness centrality,
 117–118
 closeness centrality, 117
 degree centrality, 115–117
 network status, 118
 research, 109
 researchers, 103
 theory, 141
 and tools, 102
 thinking enhancing stakeholder
 research, 106
- “Social Responsibility of Business is to Increase Profits”,
 The (1970), 50
- Social value, 76
- SPD. See Stakeholder perceived determinants (SPD)
- Spirit of capitalism, 17
- SPRA. See Stakeholder perceived relationship attributes
 (SPRA)
- SSIG. See Stakeholder Strategy
 Interest Group (SSIG)
- “Stake”, 35
 options, 13
- Stakeholder “genre”, 69
- Stakeholder action, 216 against firm, 217, 220, 221
 constraint on, 230–231
 future directions, 238–241
 interest-based view, 218–219 interest-driven view, 234 punitive, 240
- Stakeholder attributes, 135, 143
 cumulation approach, 143–144
 research on, 139–140
- Stakeholder behaviour
 equity sensitivity in, 223–228 exchange ideology and, 228–230 expectancy theory and, 230–231
 fairness-based perspective,
 219–222
 interest-related influences, 230 resource dependence in, 231–234 social identity in, 234–235 strong reciprocity in, 236–237
- Stakeholder management, 1–2, 160
 model, 165
 theory, 161
- Stakeholder mobilization. See
 Stakeholder action
- Stakeholder perceived determinants
 (SPD), 31
- Stakeholder perceived relationship
 attributes (SPRA), 31
- Stakeholder prioritization work,
 123–124, 135–136
- Stakeholder salience, 135, 139–143,
 159, 179–183
 context and method, 165
 data collection, 166
 design, case selection, and
 data, 165–166

- transferability and generalization, 166–167
- economic assumptions, 144–145
- framework, 160–161
- Great Whale Project, 160
- Hydro-Québec and Cree case study, 167–173
- inclusiveness, 145–146
- integration opportunities, 146
- model, 141
- positioning stakeholder thinking, 173–174
- possibilities, 146–149
- research, 123–124
 - chronology of, 128–134
 - integrating stakeholder prioritization work, 147
- in review, 143–149
- shifting focus from stakeholders to expectations-based approach, 176–178
- stakeholder prioritization work and, 139
- interactive salience, 143
- research on salience
 - assumptions, 141
 - research on salience attributes, 139–140
 - research on salience in context, 141–143
- stakeholder thinking, 159–160
- static view of stakeholders, 174–176
- strengths and contributions, 143–144
- theoretical background, 162–165
- Stakeholder Strategy Interest Group (SSIG), 255
- Stakeholder theory, 1, 2, 22, 56, 62–63, 65, 89, 125, 164–165, 190, 194–195, 216, 251
 - argument from character, 16
 - argument from consequences, 14–15
 - argument from rights, 15–16
 - behavioral stakeholder theory challenge, 11–12
 - business, 3
 - common ground with strategy theory, 255–258
 - discourse about, 190
 - ethical theory challenge, 14
 - as “genre” rather than single theory, 265–266
 - meta-theory for, 23
 - morality, 192–195
 - Pragmatist’s argument, 16–18
 - public policy challenge, 12–13
 - stakeholder accounting challenge, 10–11
 - stakes, 3–6
 - tensions with strategy theory, 258–265
 - total performance challenge, 7–10
 - value creation, 3
 - See also* Classification systems; Normative stakeholder theory
- Stakeholder work, 124–125, 138
 - chronology of stakeholder salience research, 128–134
 - interactive framework, 137–139
 - stakeholder awareness work, 125–126
 - stakeholder engagement work, 136–137
 - stakeholder identification work, 126–127
 - stakeholder understanding work, 127–135
 - study of work, 124

- Stakeholder(s), 24–26, 55, 64, 191, 218
- accounting challenge, 10–11
 - awareness work, 125–126
 - benefits and harms, 191
 - cooperation, 193
 - definitions, 22, 29–30
 - dependent, 195
 - discretionary, 195
 - as ECC, 26–28
 - engagement, 136–137, 193
 - expectations, 177
 - and human nature, 260–262
 - identification work, 126–127
 - illegitimate, 191
 - legitimacy, 140
 - literature, 51, 193–194, 252–253
 - power, 140
 - principles of stakeholder capitalism, 193
 - responsibility, 193
 - stakeholder research, value creation theory in, 89–91
 - static view of, 174–176
 - themes in strategic management research, 254–255
 - theorists, 50–51
 - thinking, 159–160
 - positioning, 173–174
 - understanding work, 127–135
 - urgency, 139
 - and value creation, 258–260
 - See also* Marginal stakeholders
- Stakeholders and networks, 101–103
- embracing multiple, interdependent stakeholder interactions, 110–113
 - environmental view, 104–106
 - power of, 103
 - advantages for some actors, 103–104
 - organizations exist within external network of relationships, 103
 - to strategic actions, 104
 - power of social networks for stakeholders, 114–118
 - social network thinking enhancing stakeholder research, 106
 - transforming focal from assumption to variable, 113–114
 - understanding of relationships, 106–110
- Stakes, 3–6
- Strategic management, 252, 262–263
- common ground, 252–254
 - between strategy and stakeholder theory, 255–258
 - convergence, 252–254
 - stakeholder themes in strategic management research, 254–255
 - tensions, 252–254
 - between strategy and stakeholder theory, 258–265
- Strategic Management Society (SMS), 136–137
- Strategy, 260
- common ground with stakeholder theory, 255–258
 - tensions with stakeholder theory, 258–265
- Strong reciprocity in stakeholder behaviour, 236–237
- Structural context, 174
- Suppliers, 4

- Supportive stakeholder behaviour.
 - See* Punitive stakeholder behaviour
- TBL. See Triple bottom line (TBL)
- Tensions, 252–254
 - between strategy and stakeholder theory, 258–265
- Theoretical boundary conditions, 264–265
- Theory of firm, 76
- Ties, 106–110
 - multiplexity, 107
- Total performance challenge, 7
 - conditions, 8
 - conventional accounting systems, 7
 - getting to and redefining trade-offs, 10
- Total Value Created (TVC), 7
- “Trade-off functions”, 9
- Traditional moral theory, 64, 67
- Transferability, 166–167
- Tripartite agreement, 169
- Triple bottom line (TBL), 11, 76, 83
- True Total Cost of Ownership (True TCO), 88
- True total cost of ownership, 87–88
- TVC. See Total Value Created (TVC)

- Urgency, 126, 163
 - principle, 66
- Utilitarianism, 68
 - utilitarian power, 141
 - utilitarians, 56

- Value, 77–80, 266
 - appropriation, 86–87
 - capture, 86–87
 - co-creation. See “Joint value creation”
 - destruction, 76
 - theory, 77
- Value creation, 76
 - agency theory of, 80–82
 - managerial stakeholder theory of, 82–84
 - stakeholders, 258–260
 - engagement, 136
 - theory, 3
- Value creation theory
 - agency theory of value creation, 80–82
 - co-creation of value, 84–86
 - CSV, 84–86
 - EVA, 87–88
 - managerial stakeholder theory of value creation, 82–84
 - in stakeholder research, 89–91
 - true total cost of ownership, 87–88
- Value-balance-accountability (VBA), 82
- Value-based management (VBM), 87
- Variously describable ECC, 27
- “Veil of ignorance”, 201
- Voluntariness, 197

- Wealth, 83
- “Weapons of the weak”, 167