

Index

- Academia, 78, 115, 178
- Accountability, 44, 55
- Activist groups, 61, 306
- Activists, 61
 - peace, 12
 - social, 62, 306
 - stakeholder, 309, 316, 361
- Advocacy Groups/NGOs, 120
- Advocacy/NGO groups, 87, 98, 110–112
- Agency theory, 312, 314, 315
- Aggressive behavior, 271
- Agenda Iris 21 (AI21), 163
- Alienation types, 273
- All India Management Association (AIMA), 111
- Anglo-American “liberal-minimalist” concept, 372
- Anglo-American model, 372
- Animalistic dehumanization, 271, 273–274
- Asia, CSR across, 76
 - in China, 114–123
 - contextual framework, 77–78
 - in India, 100–114
 - in Japan, 78–89
 - in Korea, 89–100
- Associated Chambers of Commerce and Industry of India (ASSOCHAM), 111
- Atlantic, The*, 121
- Authenticate microsocial norms, 364
- B Lab, 247, 248–249, 252, 253
- Belgian Network for Social Cohesion, 151
- Belgium, CSR implementation in, 150–151
- Benefit Corporations (B Corps), 247–248, 249, 250, 254, 257–258, 260, 389
- Benefit Movement, 247
 - future research directions, 260–261
 - history, 247–248
 - indicators of movement success, 253–255
 - organizational forms, 248–251
 - practical implications, 259–260
 - social movements and organizations, 251–252
 - sustained contention and types of movement organizations, 255–259
 - theoretical developments, 251
- Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP), 102–103, 109
- Blogs, external media, 164

- Bolster corporate legitimacy,
 - strategic management of communicative space to, 361–363
- Bombay Stock Exchange (BSE), 102
- Boom (see “Dot-com” bubble)
- Brussels Environment, 157, 163
- Brussels municipalities, 159
- Brussels-Capital Region, 149–150, 162, 163, 168
- Business
 - case for CSR, 57–59, 133–134
 - ethics, 48–49, 76, 90, 282
 - firm, 21
 - as instrument of broad societal service, 10
 - and investment practice, 390–393
 - leaders, 289
 - level actions, 49
 - nature, 284
 - objectives, 389
 - role in society, 396–397
 - schools, 275
 - sustainability, 27
- Business & Society field (B&S), 226
 - domain, 230
 - field, 226–227, 356
 - scholar, 406
- Calvinism, 280
- Carnegie Corporation, 11–12
- C-Corp, 249
- Center for Political Accountability, 313
- Centre for Social Markets (CSM), 103
- Chief Movement Organizations, 255–256, 258–259
- China, CSR in (see also Korea, CSR in), 114
 - in academia, 115
 - Chinese managers, 123
 - civil society institutions, 120–121
 - contextual analysis, 116–120
 - in management, 115–116
 - Price Waterhouse study, 122
 - safety net, 121–122
- Chinese Communist Party (CCP), 118, 308–309
- Citizen activism examples, 161
- “Civic republican” model of citizenship, 372
- Civil Rights Movement, 251–252
- Civil society, 34
 - institutions, 86–87, 97–99, 110–114, 120–121
 - stakeholders, 361
- Civilization
 - central values of, 394
 - human, 396
 - threats to, 397
- Claimants, 14
- Classical social sciences, 408–409
- Climate change, 178, 384–385
- Code of Conduct, 19
- Code of Ethics, 19
- Cognitive legitimacy, 362, 365
- Collective value, 395
- Communication, 167
- “Communitarian” model of citizenship, 372
- Community, 183–184
 - engagement, 373
 - programs, 308
 - relations, 212
- Community Chest, 11
- Competition, 387, 388
 - cooperation vs., 162–163
 - geopolitical competition and realignments, 24

- Complementary reciprocity, 286
- COMPUSTAT database, 215, 217
- Conceptualizing stakeholders, 284–285
- Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), 111
- Conflict, 266, 368
- Confucianism, 94, 117
- Connecting component, 155–156
- Conscious capitalism, 41, 53, 54
- Conscious moral judgments, 362
- Contemporary management, 289
- Contextual analysis
 - CSR in China, 116–120
 - CSR in India, 104–110
 - CSR in Japan, 80–88
 - CSR in Korea, 93–97
- Continental model, 372
- Contingency factors, 336–345
 - identified in recent meta-analyses, 329–331
- Contingency factors, 336–345
 - identified in recent meta-analyses, 329–331
- Contributor-claimants, 14
- Control variables, 216–217
- Conventional economic theory, 358
- Cooperation, 162–163
- Corporate, 42
 - avalanche of corporate accounting scandals, 380–381
 - citizenship, 21, 51–52, 183, 372
 - “corporate-centered” structures, 368
 - data, 409
 - elites, 253–254
 - irresponsibility, 407
 - level actions, 49
 - managers, 9–11, 357
 - philanthropy, 406
 - political investments, 310
 - practices, 384–385
 - private sector, 148–149
 - sector, 5
 - social responsiveness, 282–283
- Corporate activism
 - and CSR, 61–62
 - on social issues, 42
- Corporate ecological sustainability (CES), 326, 327
 - CES–CFP meta-analysis, 330
 - CES–CFP theory matrix, 332
 - relatively small positive relationship between CES and CFP, 327–328
- Corporate environmental disclosure (CED), 343
- Corporate financial performance (CFP), 42, 57, 326
 - CSP–CFP relationship, 57–59
 - dimensions, 343
 - relatively small positive relationship between CES and CFP, 327–328
- Corporate Global Citizenship (1990s–2000), 21
 - achieving corporate and planetary sustainability, 21–24
 - drivers, 24
 - policy instruments, 24–26
- Corporate governance, 183–184, 286
 - of firm, 298
 - reforms, 15
 - variables, 312
- Corporate Governance category, 212–213

- Corporate misbehaviour, repeated instances of, 14
- Corporate political activity (CPA), 296, 300, 303–305, 310
and CSR, 296–297
future research possibilities, 317
macro-level factors, 299–309
micro-level factors, 310–315
multi-level factors, 299
nonmarket strategy, 297–298
- Corporate Responsibility (CR), 40, 41, 379
- Corporate social and financial performance (CSP/CFP), 360
- Corporate Social Irresponsibility (CSiR), 42, 62–63, 179 decline, 218, 220–224
empirical tests of trends in over time, 214–224
- Corporate social performance (CSP), 44, 57, 183, 283–284, 406
CSP–CFP relationship, 57–59
- Corporate Social Rectitude, 283
- Corporate social responsibility (CSR) (see also Legislated CSR (LCSR)), 4, 40, 74, 133, 134, 148, 246, 267, 272, 273, 283, 289, 296, 308, 327, 356, 377, 378, 379, 406 business case for, 57–59
business ethics, 48–49
in China, 114–123
and citizenship, 76 committee, 139
and competing and complementary concepts, 48 competing concepts, 52–55
conceptual development and meaning, 42–48 contextual elements for understanding country's CSR, 75 corporate activism and, 61–62
corporate citizenship, 51–52 to corporate system responsibility, 355 and CPA, 296–297
CSI, 62–63
CSP–CFP relationship, 57–59
CSR Meme mentions in Factiva, 382
CSR-related memes in Google Scholar, 381
CSV, 358–359
definition problem, 356–358
dehumanization and, 284–286 doctrine, drivers, policy instruments, 6–9
embracing strategic ambiguity, 367–368
in emerging economies, 60–61
empirical tests of trends, 214–224 evolution, 77
future research possibilities, 317
implementation in EU and Belgium, 150–151
in India, 100–114
ISCT as potential vehicle for value integration within, 363–365
in Japan, 78–89
in Korea, 89–100

- law, 143
- legislation, 134
- legislation analyzing in India, 140–141
- legitimacy, 406–407
- limits, 378–383
- macro-level factors, 299–309
- methods, 409–410
- micro-level factors, 310–315
- multi-level factors, 299
- network approaches to realizing corporate system responsibility, 370–373
- networking, 368–370
- newer research avenues, 55
- nonmarket strategy, 297–298
- parallel evolution of CSR scholarship, 279–284
- PCSR, 56–57
- phases, 9–26
- research, 406, 407
- rise, 378–379
- scholarship, 405
- SEPTE categorization, 408
- speculative Millennial Future, 26
- stakeholder management, 49–50
- sustainability, 50–51
- theory, 408–409
- trends, questions, and prospects, 32–34
- in United States, 5–6
- upstream/downstream, 59–60
- Corporate Social Responsibility Movement, 251–252
- Corporate Social Responsiveness (1960s–1970s), 12
 - drivers of, 14–15
 - policy instruments, 15–16
 - responding to social demands, 12–14
- Corporate Social Stewardship (1950s–1960s), 9
 - corporate managers as public trustees, 9–11
 - drivers, 11
 - policy instruments, 11–12
- Corporate system responsibility, CSR to
 - CSV, 358–359
 - definition problem, 356–358
 - embracing strategic ambiguity, 367–368
 - ISCT as potential vehicle for value integration within CSR, 363–365
 - limitations of “strategic CSR”, 360–361
 - moral hazard of trying to manage moral legitimacy, 365–367
 - network approaches to realizing, 370–373
 - networking as emerging organizational CSR framework, 368–370
 - political CSR, 361–363
- Corporate/Business Ethics (1980s–1990s), 16
 - drivers, 17–19
 - fostering ethical corporate culture, 16–17
 - policy instruments, 19–21
- Cosmos, 290
- Crab mentality, 389–390
- Creating Shared Value (CSV), 52, 91, 358–359
- CSI (see Corporate Social Irresponsibility (CSiR))
 - “CSR pays”, 33

- CSR-Centre of Excellence (CoE), 103
- CSR₄, 290
- Cultural
 anthropologists, 16
 dimensions, 83
- Daashaant practice, 107
- Decision-making process, 154, 159
- “Defeat device”, 381
- Dehumanization, 267, 271–273
 and CSR, 284–286
- Dehumanizing processes, 267
- Deliberative democracy, 366
- Department of Finance (DOF), 136
- Department of Trade and Industry (DTI), 136
- Dependent variables, 215–216
- Descriptive statistics, 218
 correlations, 219
- Dialogism, 367
- Digital technologies, 31
- Dignity, 395–396
- Dimensions of national culture, 340
- Diversity, 183–184
- “Dot-com” bubble, 380
- Dubious social performance, 230
- eBay v. Newmark*, 246
- Economic, Governance, Social, Ethical, and Environmental dimensions (EGSEE dimensions), 28
- Economic bottom line, 50
- Economic payoffs of CES contingency factors identified in recent meta-analyses, 329–331 future research, 336
- in-depth exploration of
 particulars of circumstance, 336–342
- measurement contingencies, 328–329
- meta-analytics, 327
- opportunism, 334
- outbalancing, 336
- overcoming methodological weaknesses, 342–345
- proactive vs. reactive strategic approach, 329
- relationship between CES and CFP, 326–327, 331–332
- relatively small positive relationship between CES and CFP, 327–328
- slack resources, 333
- sustainable value creation, 332–333
- trade-off, 334–335
- vicious circle, 335
- virtuous circle, 333–334
- Economic prosperity, 50
- Economic values, 388
- Economies, 387
- Emerging economies, CSR in, 60–61
- Empirical studies using KLD database, 184–212
- Empirical tests of trends in CSR and CSiR over time, 214
 control variables, 216–217
 dependent variables, 215–216
 descriptive statistics, 218, 219
 findings, 218
 growth of CSR and decline of CSiR, 218, 220–224
 independent variables, 216
 methodology, 214

- research design and analytic method, 217
- sample creation, 214–215
- Employee relations, 183–184
- Employees' Provident Funds & Miscellaneous Provisions Act (EPF & MP Act), 113
- Employees' State Insurance Act (ESI Act), 112
- Environment(al), 183–184
 - bottom line, 50–51
 - quality, 50
 - rule, 182
- Environmental, social, and governance (ESG), 379
- Environmentalists, 12
- Equity, 389
- Essentialism, 364
- Ethical climate, 17
- Ethical issues in society and business, 48
- Ethical relativism, 364
- Ethical rule, 182
- Ethics, 284
 - aspirations and goals, 19
- Ethnic genocide, 271
- European Network for Social Cohesion, 151
- European Union (EU), 150–151
- 'Exemplary' corporate performance, 230
- "Explicit" CSR, 47
- External media, 164, 165
- External websites, external media, 164
- Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative (EITI), 62
- Federalist Papers*, 268
- Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce and Industry (FICCI), 111
- Federation of Korean Industries (FKI), 89, 93
- Financial performance (FP), 407
- Financial value, 395
- Firm
 - ecologizing role, 33
 - economizing role, 33
 - financial performance, 217
 - Firm-level factors, 310–313
 - risk, 216–217
 - size, 216
- Fixed linear effects of time, 218, 222
- "Flagship" report (2016), 396
- Flyers, internal media, 164
- Ford foundation, 11–12
- Formal institutional factors, 299
- Fortune* (magazine), 406, 410
- Foundational management theories, 272–273
- Funding, 160–161
- "Fuzzy-set" qualitative comparative analysis techniques, 59
- Generalized social unrest, 14
- Generational changes, 29–30
- Generic stakeholder theory, 284
- Genuine Progress Indicator (GPI), 395
- Ghoshal's analysis, 274
- Glacial pace of CSR implementation
 - actual growth of CSiR in practice over time, 227
 - contributions, limitations, 230–233

- “differentiated choice”
 - environment, 230
- empirical studies using KLD
 - database, 184–212
- empirical tests of trends in CSR and CSiR over time, 214–224
- growth of CSR and CSiR, 225
- institutional theory, 179–182
- “iron cage” hypothesis, 228
- KLD, 183, 224
- one dimension in isolation, 213
- review of historical data, 182
- stakeholders, 229–230
- theoretical context, 179
- “traditional” method, 226
- Glass Bead Game, The* (Hesse), 411
- Global business citizen, 52
- Global capitalism, 362
- Global Corporate Citizens, 25
- Global corporate citizenship, 52
- “Global Eight” codes, 25
- Global ethical norms, 365
- Global Financial Crisis (GFC), 381
- Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), 361
- Globalization, 22, 362–363
- Golden straightjacket*, 362
- Government
 - data, 409
 - role in CSR, 148
- Greenwashing, 59, 257, 334, 360
- Grounded theory, 408
- Growth, 343–344
- Growth curve modeling, 217
- Growth of CSR and decline of CSiR, 218
 - institutional theory, 223
 - KLD, 222
- R&D expenditure, 224
- RCM using HLM, 220–221
- “Halo” of firms’, 410
- Hegemonic “meta-narratives”, 366
- Hierarchical linear modeling (HLM), 217
- High-polluting industries, 13
- High-risk operations, 13
- Higher-order functioning, 271
- Hindu rate of growth, 106
- Hinduism, 107
- Holistic approach, 284
- Human culture, 31
- Human nature, 271
- Human rights, 183–184, 396
 - advocacy, 18
 - dimension, 212, 225
- Humanity
 - integration into management theory, 287–291
 - of stakeholders, 290
- Humanness, 271, 272
- “Hybrid” political-economic system, 114
- “Implicit” CSR, 47
- In-depth exploration of
 - particulars of circumstance, 336–345
- Independent variables, 216
- India
 - civil society institutions, 110–114
 - contextual analysis, 104
 - CSR, 100, 114
 - CSR in academy, 102–104
 - CSR in management, 104
 - CSR legislation analyzing in, 140–141

- promises and outcomes of
 - India's CSR legislations, 141–143
- Indicators of movement success, 253–255
- Indirect claimants, 14
- Individual factors, 313–315
- Individual life-support units, 22
- Indonesia, CSR in, 136
- Industrial revolution, 266, 280
- Inequality, 384–385, 388
- Informal institutional factors, 299
- Informal network governance mechanisms, 371
- Information, 309
- Infrahumanization, 271, 273–274, 278–279
- Institutional approaches, 365
- Institutional context, 299
 - CPA, 303–305
 - pCSR, 300–303
 - peace through commerce, 305
 - social movement research, 305–307
- Institutional factors, 303
- Institutional legitimacy, 365
- Institutional theory, 179–182, 369
- Instrumental/strategic CSR, 367
- Integration, 289
- Integrative creating shared value, 360–361
- Integrative social contracting theory (ISCT), 363–365
- Integrative typology, 305
- Internal media, 164
- Internet bubble (see “Dot-com” bubble)
- Interplanetary explorations, 30–31
- Investment law, 135
- “Iron cage” hypothesis, 228
- Iron Law of Responsibility, 282
- Isolated component, 154–155
- Japan, CSR in, 78
 - CSR in academia, 78
 - CSR in management, 78–80
 - institutionalization of CSR management, 88
 - Japanese corporations, 89
- Key administrators or politicians, 158
- Key political figures, 147, 158–159, 160
- Kinder, Lydenberg, Domini & Co (KLD), 59, 179, 183, 224
 - empirical studies using KLD database, 184–212
- “Knee jerk”, 13
- Korea, CSR in (see also China, CSR in), 89
 - aspects of Korea's context, 100
 - civil society institutions, 97–99
 - contextual analysis, 93
 - CSR in academy, 90
 - CSR in management, 90–93
- Korea Sustainability Investing Forum (KoSIF), 98
- Labor unions, 86–87, 97–98, 110, 120
- Labor-intensive firms, 13
- Large system change, 384–385
- Law and custom, 21
- Leadership, 288
 - behavior, 362
 - corporate, 302
 - factors, 298
 - of municipality, 153–154
 - paradigms, 289
 - responsible, 315
 - styles, 56

- Legal challenges, 246, 247
- Legislated CSR (LCSR) (see also Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR)), 134
- CSR legislation analyzing in India, 140–141
- evolution and enactment of India's Company Act (2013), 136–140
- promises and outcomes of India's CSR legislations, 141–143
- voluntary vs., 134–136
- Legitimacy, 361
- Bolster corporate, 361–363
- moral hazard of trying to “managing” moral, 365–367
- seeking, 180
- “Liability approach” to CSR, 59
- Liberal CEOs, 206, 314
- Liberal Democratic Party (LDP), 85
- “Liberal-minimalist” concept, 371
- License Raj, 105
- Linear mixed modeling (LMM), 217
- Liquidity, 343, 344
- LLC, 249
- Local Agenda 21 (LA21), 150
- coordinators, 158–160
- and drivers for implementation, 152–156
- as proxy of SR implementation in municipalities, 152
- Local catalyst, 154, 156, 160
- Long-term sustainability strategy, 25
- Low-Engagement Organizations, 257
- M. B. Act, 1961 (M. B. Act) (see Maternity Benefit Act)
- Macro-level factors (see also Micro-level factors), 299
- external factors, 299–307
- political context, 307–309
- relationship between CPA and CSR, 301
- Management theory, 272, 274
- integrating humanity into, 287–291
- Mandated CSR, 135
- Market-based measurement of CFP, 328
- Market-based strategies, 296
- Market-style economy, 4, 5, 10, 11
- Material flow cost-accounting system, 333
- Material wealth, 50, 273, 395
- Maternity Benefit Act, 1961 (M. B. Act), 113
- “Mean CSR” score, 213
- Measurement contingencies, 328–329
- Mechanistic dehumanization, 271, 273, 277, 285
- Media, 87, 98–99, 112, 121
- attention, 165
- impact, 164–165
- Mediators, 58, 316, 340
- Memes, 385–388
- Meta-analytics, 327–331
- Metaphysical quest, 23–24
- Micro-level factors (see also Macro-level factors), 310
- firm-level factors, 310–313
- individual factors, 313–315
- Millennial future (2000–3000), 26
- Millennials, 29, 34
- major characteristics, 29

- newish Quality-of-Life Values, 24
- workplace focus, 29–30
- Mission statements, 19, 394
- Moderators, 58, 316, 328, 340
- Modern era of CSR (1950s–1990s), 281–284
- Monologic exercise, 361
- “Moral free space”, 363–364
- Moral legitimacy, 362
 - of corporate culture and business practices, 363
 - moral hazard of trying to managing, 365–367
- Morality, 370, 371
 - social, 118
 - unnatural separation, 274
- Movement organizations
 - benefit movement
 - organizational forms, 248–251
 - sustained contention and types, 255–259
 - typology, 261
- MSCI ESG Research, 214
- Multinational enterprises (MNEs), 60, 306, 307
- Municipalities
 - LA21 as proxy of SR
 - implementation in, 152
 - local Agenda 21 and drivers for implementation, 152–156
 - social responsibility and, 151
- MyGov, 111
- Names-and-faces approach, 285
- National Association of Software and Services Companies (NASSCOM), 111
- National culture dimensions, 340
- National Old Age Pension Scheme (NOAPS), 113
- Negativity bias, 330
- Neoliberal narrative, 378, 382–383, 389, 397
 - promulgators, 388
- Network/Networking
 - approaches to realizing corporate system responsibility, 370
 - as emerging organizational CSR framework, 368–370
 - governance, 357, 371
 - support, 163–164
- New Socio-Economic Narrative
 - construction, 394–396
- Non-contractual claimants (see Indirect claimants)
- Non-governmental organizations (NGOs), 24, 79
- Non-market strategies, 296, 297–298, 300, 303
- Normative nihilism, 364
- OECD’s Better Life Index, 395
- One Belt, One Road (OBOR), 122
- Opportunism, 334
- Organizational/organizations, 179–180
 - capacity, 255, 259
 - legitimacy, 361
 - redesign and training, 13
 - responsibility, 19
- Outbalancing, 336
- Parallel evolution of CSR
 - scholarship, 279
 - modern era of CSR (1950s–1990s), 281–284
 - Stewards of Society (1920–1950), 280–281

- wealth generators
 - (1800s–1919), 279–280
- Partners in Change (PiC), 103, 104
- Partnerships, 249, 266
- Past performance, control variables, 216
- Payment of Gratuity Act, 1972 (P. G. Act), 113
- Peace activists, 12
- Peace through commerce, 300, 301, 305
- People’s Solidarity for Participatory Democracy (PSPD), 98
- P. G. Act, 1972 (P. G. Act)
 - (see Payment of Gratuity Act)
- Philanthropy, 10, 104, 134
 - corporate, 5, 6, 17, 138
 - private, 357
 - strategic, 11
- Planetary boundaries, 383
- Political context, 307–309
- Political corporate social responsibility (PCSR)
 - (see also Social responsibility (SR)), 41, 55, 56–57, 300–303, 366
 - objective, 302
 - as strategic management of communicative space, 361–363
- Political differences, 162, 167
- Political ties research, 303
- Political-normative approach, 367
- “Political” in pCSR, 302
- Pollution prevention, 341
 - measures, 329
 - strategies, 329
- Pragmatic approaches, 365
- Pragmatic discursive approach of Habermas, 366
- Pragmatic legitimacy, 362
- Principal driver, 9, 11, 15
- Principle of voluntarism, 148–151
- Principles of Scientific Management, The*, 268
- Private property, 359, 387
- Private sector, 15, 148, 168
 - companies, 102
 - influencing, 165–166
 - members, 15–16
 - undertakings in India, 138
- Privatization, 370–371, 387
- Proactive strategic approach, 329
- Proactivity, 168, 330
- Procedural hypernorms, 365
- Profitability, 142, 273, 280, 343
 - CES and, 343
 - CSR and firm, 283
 - financial, 383
- Public affairs departments, 15
- Public Centers for Social Welfare (OCMWs), 163
- Public policy and government regulations, 15
- Public relations departments, 11
- Public responsibility, 283
- Public sector organizations, 148, 167
 - in CSR, 152, 158
 - example role, 167–168
 - SR implementation in, 149
- Public sector undertakings (PSUs), 101, 104
- Public trustees, 10
 - corporate managers as, 9–11
- Purpose-driven businesses, 41, 53–54

- R&D intensity, 217, 219, 220, 223, 342
- Raison d'être*, 19
- Raj, 105
- Random coefficient modeling (RCM), 217, 218
- Random linear effects of time, 222
- Rashtriya Swasthya Bima Yojana (RSBY), 114
- “Rawlsian Veil of ignorance”, 364–365
- Reactive strategic approach, 329
- Religion, 290–291
- ReportAlert* website, 32
- Resource-based view (RBV), 329
- Resource-dependency theory, 311–313
- Responsibility, 43, 44, 51
- Responsible behavior, 285, 286, 291
- Resurgence of religio-ethnic beliefs, 17–18
- Return on assets (ROA), 216, 409
- Revlon v. McAndrews & Forbes Holdings*, 246
- Rockefeller foundation, 11–12
- Safety net, 88, 99–100, 112–114, 121–122
- Sanpo-Yoshi, old merchant’s principle of, 82
- Scandinavian approach, 358, 372
- Science, 290
- Scientific management (see also Top management), 267, 268, 272, 273–279, 286, 291
- dehumanization, 267–268, 271–273
- dehumanization and CSR, 284–286
- field of management, 266–267
- integrating humanity into management theory, 287–291
- management theory and practice, 268–271
- parallel evolution of CSR scholarship, 279–284
- SDGs, 384, 386, 388
- Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), 136
- “Silk Road Economic Belt”, 122
- Slack resources, 333
- Social, 42–43
- arrangements, 371
- audits, 15
- bottom line, 50
- connection approach to CSR, 59
- contracting process, 369
- contribution, 89
- enterprise, 261
- equity, 50
- justice, 394, 396
- policies, 303
- psychology, 271
- responsiveness, 44
- rule, 182
- scientists, 17
- services, 302
- value change inducing by new forms of technology, 18
- Social, economic, political, technological, and ecological environments of business (SEPTE categorization), 408
- Social demands, responding to, 12–14

- Social movement organizations (SMOs), 61, 251–252
- Social movement(s), 40, 247
 research, 305–307
 studies, 300
- Social Responsibilities of Businessman* (Bowen), 281
- Social responsibility (SR) (see also Political corporate social responsibility (PCSR)), 148, 327 within Brussels municipalities, 148
 Brussels-Capital Region, 168
 cooperation vs. competition, 162–163
 CSR implementation in EU and Belgium, 150–151
 findings, 158
 funding, 160–161
 governments in CSR, 166
 key political figures and LA21 coordinators, 158–159
 LA21 as proxy of SR implementation in municipalities, 152 media impact, 164–165
 methodology, 156–157
 and municipalities, 151–156
 municipality, 171
 network support, 163–164
 private sector influence, 165–166
 public sector organizations, 167
 supplementary information for interviews, 174 translated questionnaire, 172–173
- Social responsiveness, assigning strategic priority for, 13
- Social-choice investment advisory (SIA), 58–59
- Social-impact awareness, 12–13
- Society of Entrepreneurs & Ecology (SEE), 116
- Sociopolitical reputation, 308
- Sole proprietorship, 249, 266
- Southern Weekend, The*, 121
- Speculative Millennial Future, 26
 big questions, puzzles, and challenges, 30–32
 generational changes, 29–30
 sustainability, 22–23, 26–29
- Spirituality, 23–24
- Stability, 167, 303
- Stakeholder(s), 14, 20, 21, 82–83, 168, 285, 340, 359, 397
 advocates, 357
 engagement, 358, 372
 management, 49–50, 212–213
 management theory, 357
 mapping and implementation, 13–14 model, 284
 pressure, 361
 scrutiny, 309
 theory, 27, 49, 284
- State-owned enterprises (SOEs), 116, 118
- State-owned enterprises law, 135
- Stewards of Society (1920–1950), 280–281
- Stock market performance, 343, 344
- Strategic ambiguity to cope with paradoxical tensions, 367–368
- Strategic approach, 365 proactive vs. reactive, 329
- Strategic change, 181, 231

- Strategic CSR, 363 framework, 61
 instrumental/strategic CSR, 368
 limitations, 360–361
- Strategic philanthropy, 11
- Substantive hypernorms, 364, 365
- Sullivan Principles, 410
- Supplementary information for interviews, 174
- Support Movement
 Organizations, 256–257,
 258–259
- Supportive component model,
 154, 155
- Sustainability, 22–23, 26–29,
 50–51, 380, 384–385, 394
 corporate and planetary,
 21–24
 network, 163
 strategies, 28
- Sustainable management, 357
- “Sustainable neighborhood” contract, 161
- Sustainable value creation,
 332–333
- Sustained contention, 255–259
- System change, 385, 386
 of systems, 358, 365
- System change, CSR to, 377
 confronting reality, 396–397
 creating powerful new story,
 388–394
 CSR and its limits, 379–383
 CSR Meme mentions in Factiva, 382
 CSR-related memes in Google
 Scholar, 381
 large system change, 383–384
 memes, 383
 narrative and memes, 385–388
 rise and limits of CSR,
 378–379
- Systematic soldiering, 277
- Target Movement Organizations
 (TMOs), 256, 258
- Taylor’s management practices,
 280
- Taylorism, 268, 276, 278, 281, 286
- Tech bubble (see “Dot-com” bubble)
- The Energy Research Institute
 (TERI), 103
- Theory, 408–409
 agency, 312, 314, 315
 CES–CFP theory matrix, 332
 contributions to, 230–231
 conventional economic, 358
 generic stakeholder, 284
 grounded, 408
 institutional, 179–182
 management, 268–271
 resource-dependency, 311–313
 stakeholder management, 357
 trade-off, 334–335
- Third Culture of popular science,
 290–291
- Third-party certification, 250
- Thomson Reuter (ASSET4), 59
- Time, 163, 216
- Time-varying control variables,
 222
- “Tit-for-tat” moves, 369
- Top management, 313, 314 attention and solicitude, 14 decision-making, 316
 opportunity for, 17
 position, 312
- Trade-off theory, 334–335

- Transformative societal pressures, 6
- Triple-bottom line accountability (TBL accountability), 50, 357
- TRIVISI, 151
- “Twenty-First-Century Maritime Silk Road”, 122
- U-shaped relationships, 343
- UN Global Compact, 361, 365
 - crafting, 358
 - principles, 386, 388
- Unionization
 - in India, 110
 - Japan’s unionization rate, 86
- Uniquely human characteristics, 271
- United Arab Emirates (UAE), 134
- United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights, 18
- United States, 29, 47, 74, 108–109, 124, 138, 381
 - Companies in, 87
 - CSR in, 5–6, 9, 40, 47
 - military assistance from, 95
 - political context, 307–309
 - University of Memphis in, 27
- Universalism, 396
- Upstream/downstream CSR, 55, 59–60
- Utility-maximizing individual rationality, 370
- Value integration, ISCT as potential vehicle for, 363–365
- Value(s), 18, 23, 283, 284, 388
 - creation school, 332
 - quality-of-life, 24
- Variance inflation factor (VIF), 218*n*5
- Vicious circle, 335
- Vietnam War, opponents of, 12
- Virtuous circle, 333–334
- Voluntary CSR, 85, 134–136
- W* questions, 337, 339–340
 - what*, 337, 338, 339
 - by what means*, 337, 338, 341–342
 - in what way*, 337, 338, 342
 - when*, 337, 338, 341
 - where*, 337, 338, 340
 - who*, 337, 338, 339
 - why*, 337, 338, 339, 340
- Wealth generators, 279–280
- Wealth maximization, 246
 - interests, 387–388
 - shareholder, 246–247, 260
- Websites
 - of Agenda, 21, 157
 - internal media, 164
- Welfare Work movement, 280
- Wicked complexity, 385, 388
- Wicked problems, 370, 371, 384, 385
- World Trade Organization (WTO), 76, 115*fn*, 119
- World Wide Web (WWW), 24
- Zakaat practice, 107
- Zicklin Index, 313