

INDEX

- AACSB, 17
- Ability, 58–59
- Academic entrepreneurship. See also
Social entrepreneurship
(SE), 3–5
- Accounting, 121, 127–128
and financial issues, 139–140
- Acquaintances, 242–243
- Active learning methodologies, 16
- Agglomeration, 34
- Agreed-upon protocol, 8
- Alignment, 21–22
- Alternate financial reporting mechanisms, 64–65
- AMBA, 17
- Anderson Darling (AD), 204
- Archetypes of hybrid organizations, 121–122
- Aspire, 56–57
- Assembly Partners (AP), 124–126
- Authentic cohesion, 224–226

- Bala Sport, 77–78
- Bandwidth, 39
- Bored capital phenomenon, 44
- Bounce back resilience, 226
- Bounce forward resilience, 226
- Bridging institutional entrepreneurship, 56–57
- Brundtland Report, 196
- BUILD Health Challenge, 86–87
- Business models. See also Sustainable business models (SBMs), 64–65, 121, 145, 196 of cooperatives, 106–107 development, 112

- Capital dessert, 34
- Case cooperatives, 113

- Case method (CM), 16
- Case study approach, 57–58, 237–238
- Causal identity, 176
- Christchurch earthquake, 223
- Chronosystem, 80–81
- Civil society, 120
- Civil society organizations (CSOs), 7–8
- Close family and friends, 241–243
- Collaborations, 83–84
- Collaborative knowledge networks, effectiveness determinants of, 21–24
- Collaborative learning, 20
- Collective entrepreneurship, 176–177
- Collective marketplace, 45
- Commercial institutional logics, 36–37
- Community
community-level food system, 81–82 of crowdfunders, 237
resilience, 226–227
spirit, 222
- Community equity, 47–48
social venture scaling and, 48–49
- Community-based social enterprises (CBSEs), 98, 112–113
- Comparative analysis of average ratings in two panels, 204–205
- Conflict resolution, 62
- Constant dialogue, 111–112
- Consulting services, 54
- Cooperatives, 97–98
challenges of, 130–133
- Corporate social intrapreneurship, 26
- Corporations, 134–135
- Cosmopolitanization, 218
- Covid-19

- crisis, 54, 83–84
 - global pandemic (2020), 221
 - pandemic, 234
- Cranfield Network on International Human Resource Management (CRANET), 25
- Cross-sector collaborations, 12–13
- Crowdfunders, 235
 - community of, 237
- Crowdfunding, 234–235
 - social entrepreneurship and, 236–237
- CSR, 152
- Decent work, 115–116
- Decision-making and leadership, 183–184
- Delphi method, 200
- Disability solutions, 58–59
- Disasters, 217–218, 226
 - background and literature on social entrepreneurship role during, 219–220
 - disaster-induced stress, 227–228
 - disasters, social inequalities, and social entrepreneurship, 221–222
 - and social entrepreneurship, 218
- Distressed communities, scaling social ventures in, 41–47
- Diversification, 155–156
- Diversity, 27
- Due diligence process, 8–9
- Durable network, 41
- Echelons theory, 174–175
- Ecological systems theory, 80–81
- Economic development, 34
- Economic growth, 111–112
- Education, 3
- Effectiveness determinants, 4, 13
 - alignment and motivation, 21–22
 - of collaborative knowledge networks, 21–24
 - financial sustainability, 24
 - governance, 23
 - leadership, 22
 - productivity, 22–23
 - self-evaluation, self-improvement, and mutual learning, 23
 - social capital, 22
 - supporting partners, 23–24
- Embedded management practices, 2
- Emergency entrepreneurship, 224
- Emma Safety Shoes (ESS), 124–126
- Entrepreneurial actions, 220
- Entrepreneurial innovation, 5
- Entrepreneurial origins, 5–6
- Entrepreneurial process, 64
- Entrepreneurial team, 173, 179–180
- Entrepreneurial ventures, 57, 234
- Entrepreneurs, 119–120
- Entrepreneurship, 34, 54, 152
- Environmental sustainability, 195
- EQUIS, 17
- European and Social Innovation Programme (EaSI), 196
- Exosystem, 80–81
- Expanding food delivery platforms, 80–81
- Expanding SE context, 25
- Experiential learning, 16
- Experts' ratings, 204–205, 208
- Exploratory analysis, 200
- Extraordinary environmental turbulence, 83–84
- Family businesses, challenges of, 130–133
- Federally qualified health centers (FQHCs), 86–87
- Figloan, 77–78
- Financial capital, 33–35, 37, 39, 44–45
- Financial crisis, 236
- Financial risk, 198
- Financial sustainability, 17–18, 24
- Food and nutrition sensitive actions, 80–81
- Food assistance programs, 82–83
- Food for Change program, 78–79, 84, 87

- food insecurity and interlinkages, 79–82
 - lessons for social entrepreneurs, 87–91
 - limitations and further research, 92
 - organizational responses to inter-linked social problems, 82–84
- Food insecurity, 78–79
 - and interlinkages, 79–82
- Food Rx program, 87
- Food-insecure adults, 80
- Force majeure* event, 217–218
- Founders team, 173
- Founding team, 173
- Freerange Press, 223–224
- Friesland Campina, 137–138
- Fully state-owned organization, 135–137
- Fundacion Getulio Vargas (FGV), 8–9
- Fundraising activities, 54

- Gateway Arts Center/Art Connection Studio, 59–60
- Gazelle-type social ventures, 36
- Gender, 182–183
- Gender equality, 98, 111–112
- Gender Equality Report, 99–100
- Global Entrepreneurship Monitor (GEM), 181
- Global Project Partners (GPP), 102
- Google Scholar, 173
- Governance, 23, 182–183
- Governments view cooperatives, 97–98

- Harvard Business Publishing (HBP), 8
- Harvard Business School (HBS), 5, 23
- Helper network, 235, 241, 243, 245–246
 - characteristics, 244–245
 - motivation for contribution, 243–244
- Heterogeneous crowd, 236–237

- Hiring and employee involvement, 127, 139
- Houston Food Bank, 78–79, 82–83, 85
- Human capital, 33–34, 37, 39–40, 46
- Human rights abuses, 77–78
- Human services organization
 - Ability, 58–59
 - Vinfen, 59–60
- Humility by organizational leaders, 91
- Hybrid enterprises, 36–37
- Hybrid organizations, 56–57, 98, 119–120
 - archetypes of, 121–122
- Hybridity, 36–37, 120
- Hybridization, 121
 - accounting and financial issues, 139–140
 - archetypes of hybrid organizations, 121–122
 - balancing social enterprises, 127–130
 - case studies, 124, 126–127, 137
 - challenges of cooperatives and family businesses, 130–133
 - corporations, 134–135
 - future directions, 140–141
 - future outlook, 140
 - hiring and employee involvement, 139
 - leadership, 138–139
 - mission and managing divergent goals, 138
 - movement, 119
 - organizational challenges, 122–124
 - partly or fully state-owned, 135–137
- Identified crowdfunding campaigns, 238
- Identity, 184–185
 - conflict, 64–66
- Import financial capital, 44
- In-depth case studies, 57–58
- Inclusive businesses, 13
- Inclusiveness, 27

- Indigenous entrepreneurship, 27
 Individual level SE, 157–158
 Individual rights, 66
 Individualization, 218
 Inequality, 35, 221
 Initial research cycle, 7–11
 consolidation and increased productivity, 9–10 expansion, 8–9
 growing credibility and leveraging network capabilities, 10 moving beyond seed capital, 10 network's cumulative output, 11 new knowledge frontier, 9 new member, new topic, new approach, 10–11
 Innovation, 5–6
 Innovative enterprise-based solutions,
 54
 Input–Mediator–Output–Input framework (IMOI framework), 178
 Institutional complexity, 55–57
 Institutional entrepreneurship, 139
 Institutional level SE, 159
 Institutional logics, 36–37, 56
 Institutional strengthening, 16–18
 Institutionalization process, 17–18
 Instituto Centroamericano de Administración de Empre-sas (INCAE), 6
 Instituto de Estudios Superiores de
 Administración (IESA),
 8–9
 Instituto Tecnológico de Monterrey
 Business School (EGADE),
 6
 Inter-American Development Bank
 (IADB), 8
 Interinstitutional and cross-sector collaboration, 26
 Internal team processes, 183
 International academic research networks, 2
 International alliances, 97–98
 International research collaboration (IRC), 2 advancing field through, 2–4 benefits and challenges of, 4, 18, 21
 International team dynamics, 20–21
 Intrapreneurship. See Institutional
 entrepreneurship
 Isomorphic phenomena, 56
 KEDV, 98, 102, 111–112
 Key performance indicators (KPIs),
 131
 Knowledge acquisition, 107–108
 dissemination, 13–16
 generation, 6, 11, 13
 outcomes, 3
 Knowledge Impact Assessment model, 18
 Knowledge network. See also Helper network, 3
 assessing performance of, 4, 11, 18 benefits and challenges of IRC in, 18–21
 institutional strengthening, 16–18 knowledge dissemination, 13–16 knowledge generation, 11–13 properties, 3
Krismon financial crisis (1997–1998),
 227
 Lead entrepreneur approach, 178–179
 Leader passion, 198
 Leadership, 22, 66, 127, 129–130, 133, 138–139
 decision-making and, 183–184
 Learning experiences, 107–108
 Lebanese social ventures, 174
 Legitimacy conflict, 67–68
 Level of analysis, 3
 Liability of newness, 34
 Location, 34
 Macro level
 business, 145
 crises, 236

- Macrosystem, 80–81
- Management, 121
 - science, 152
- Market, 120
 - acceptance, 36–37
 - market-based frameworks, 55–56
 - market-based hybrid enterprises, 120
- Meso level business, 145
- Mesosystem, 80–81
- Micro level business, 145
- Microsystem, 80–81
- Mission tension, 27
- Mobilizing social entrepreneurship
 - background literature, 235–237
 - data analysis, 241
 - data collection, 238–240
 - findings, 241–246
 - helper network, 241–243
 - method, 237–240
 - social entrepreneurship and crowdfunding, 236–237
- Motivation, 21–22
- Mutual learning, 23

- Negotiating conflicts, 68–69
- Network, 18
 - development, 7
- New venture team, 173
- Nonconventional financial transactional data, 77–78
- Nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), 12–13, 97–98, 120–121
- Nonlocal financial capital, 44
- Nonprofit management
 - data analysis, 61–62
 - data collection, 60–61
 - dominant commercial logic at SSEs, 71
 - findings, 62–69
 - future research directions, 73–74
 - identity conflict, 64–66
 - legitimacy conflict, 67–68, 72
 - methods, 57–62
 - negotiating conflicts, 68–69
 - nonprofits, social enterprise, and institutional complexity, 55–57
 - operating social entrepreneurial ventures, 69–70
 - PNPO–SSE dyads, 73
 - research setting, 58–60
 - vision/mission conflict, 66–67
- Nonprofit organizations (NPOs), 54, 82–83, 112
- Nonprofits, 35
 - enterprises, 36–37
 - social enterprise, 42, 45–46
- Not-for-profit journals, 152
- 20 Nuevos Soles project, 16
- Nutrition specific actions, 80–81

- Off-the-shelf solutions, 36
- Open-ended semistructured interviews, 237–238
- Opportunity, 5–6, 34
- Organization studies, 152
- Organizational environments, 56
- Organizational forms, SE and, 28
- Organizational leaders, 84
 - forethought, courage, and humility by, 91
- Organizational leadership, 79
- Organizational legitimacy, 72
- Organizational level SE, 158–159
- Organizational scholars, 83–84
- Organizational theories, 83

- Panel of experts
 - design of questionnaire with, 202
 - ratings of, 205–207
 - in social entrepreneurship, 196
- Parent nonprofit organization (PNPO), 57–58, 69
- Partly state-owned organization, 135–137
- Partnership selection, 84
- Path dependency, 131
- Pattern matching, 62
- Pepsi Act, 58–59

- Personnel cost, 128
 Physical capital, 33–34, 37, 39, 45
 Postdisaster entrepreneurial ventures, 227
 Poverty, 111–112
 in developing countries, 234
 Private organizations, 120–121
 Process–Output framework, 178
 Productivity, 22–23
 Profit-oriented organizations, 119–121
 Profitability, 196
 Property rights, 35
 Public health researchers, 80–81
 Public policy, 36–37
 Public social intrapreneurship, 26

 Qualitative case study, 235 analysis, 102
 qualitative case study–based approach, 237–238

 Rabobank, 129
 Ratanaplan, 128
 Reconciling divergent logics spheres, 68–69
 Regenerative enterprise, 27
 Regional economic development, 34
 Rehabilitation Act, 58–59
 Research agenda on SETs, 187
 Research cycle theme, 7–8
 Research methodology, 8
 Researchers, 79–80
 Resilience, 226
 Resource accumulation in social ventures, 37–41
 Resource-based view, 197

 Sampling strategy, 102
 Scalability, 110–111
 Scaling
 deep, 155–156
 down, 155–156
 financial capital, 44–45
 human capital, 46
 illustrative case, 42–47
 out, 155–156
 physical capital, 45
 social capital, 46–47
 in social ventures, 37–41
 social ventures in distressed communities, 41–47 strategies, 154–157
 Scattergun approach, 198
 Self-advocacy, 66
 Self-determination, 66
 Self-evaluation, 23
 Self-improvement, 23
 Service learning, 28
 Service-based social ventures, 39
 Shared value, 91
 Ship2B Foundation, 16
 Skepticism, 234
 Skoll Foundation, 195
 Social, Environmental and Ethical content (SEE content), 16
 Social bricolage, 222
 Social businesses, 137
 Social capital, 22, 33–35, 37, 40–41, 46–47
 Social collaborations, 84
 Social enterprise education, 3
 Social Enterprise Initiative (SEI), 5
 Social Enterprise Knowledge Network (SEKN), 3 entrepreneurial origins, 5–6 evolution, 4, 7
 mission, strategy, and Theory of Change, 6–7
 Social enterprises, 5, 36–37, 55, 57, 173
 Social entrepreneurial business models, 145
 Social Entrepreneurial Crowdfunding Campaign 1 (SECC1), 238–240
 Social Entrepreneurial Crowdfunding Campaign 2 (SECC2), 240
 Social Entrepreneurial Crowdfunding Campaign 3 (SECC3), 240
 Social Entrepreneurial Crowdfunding Campaign 4 (SECC4), 240
 Social entrepreneurial identity, 184

- Social entrepreneurial organization (SEO), 98, 111–112 social innovation in, 99–100
- Social entrepreneurial scaling, 41
- Social entrepreneurial teams (SETs), 173–174, 179
 decision-making and leadership, 183–184
 formation, 180–181
 gender, 182–183
 identity, 184–185
 operational definition of, 178–179 research topics, 179–186 reviewing extant literature, 174–178 size and extended team, 181–182
 turnover, 185–186
- Social entrepreneurs (SEs), 77–78, 87, 91, 145, 197–198, 218, 235–236
 challenges of, 157, 159, 171–172 forethought, courage, and humility by organizational leaders, 91 importance of treating clients holistically, 88–89 individual level, 157–158
 institutional level, 159
 organizational level, 158–159 ratings, 204–205, 208 ratings of panel of, 207–208 solving interlinked social problems through partnerships, 89–91
- Social entrepreneurship (SE), 2, 27, 33–34, 54–56, 173, 196, 217–218 as “acts of solidarity” to cope with disaster-induced stress, 227–228 as “acts of solidarity” to increase persistence of authentic cohesion, 224–226 as “acts of solidarity” to meet critical and noncritical needs, 222–224 as “acts of solidarity” to promote community resilience, 226–227 as acts of solidarity, 218 advancing field through international research collaboration, 2–4 assessing performance of knowledge networks, 11–18 background and literature on role, 219–220 benefits and challenges of IRC in knowledge networks, 18–21
 comparative analysis of average ratings in two panels, 204–205 comparative analysis of both panels’ ratings, 208–209 corporate and public social intrapreneurship, 26 and crowdfunding, 236–237
 design of questionnaire with panel of experts, 202 disasters, social inequalities, and, 221–222 effectiveness determinants of collaborative knowledge networks, 21–24 evolution of SEKN, 4–7
 expanding SE context and theory knowledge base, 25 experts’ and social entrepreneurs’ ratings, 204–205, 208 further avenues for future SE research, 24–28 inclusiveness and diversity, 27
 initial research cycle, 7–11
 interinstitutional and cross-sector collaboration, 26
 method, 200–205
 mission tension, 27
 in modern society, 35–36
 obstacles to, 201
 and organizational forms, 28
 results, 205–209
 social innovation, 27

- state of SE practice, 25–26
- sustainability, and regenerative enterprise, 27
- theoretical framework, 198–200
- university programs, 26
- Social goals, achievement of, 108–110
- Social identity theory, 175–176
- Social impact, 147–148
 - challenges of social entrepreneur, 157–159
 - future directions, 160–163
 - methodology, 152–154
 - results, 154–159
 - SBMs, 148–152
 - scaling in searched literature, 161
 - scaling strategies, 154–157
- Social inequalities, 221–222
- Social innovation, 27, 99
 - outcomes and scalability, 102
 - in SEO, 99–100
- Social institutional logics, 36–37
- Social problems, 77–78
- Social return on investment, 146
- Social space, 86, 88
- Social sustainability, 195
- Social value creation, 173
- Social ventures, 33–34, 176–177, 234
 - capitalists, 180–181
 - framework for scaling, 36–41
 - scaling and community equity, 48–49
 - scaling and resource accumulation in social ventures, 37–41
 - scaling of, 47–48
 - scaling social ventures in distressed communities, 41–47
 - social entrepreneurship in modern society, 35–36
 - theoretical review, 34–36
- Social welfare logics, 56
- Social workers, 79–80
- Social-ecological model, 80–81
- Social-oriented enterprises (SEs), 120
- Social-oriented organizations, 119
- Societal triangle, 120–121
- Solidarity, 220
- Sovereign debt crisis, 226
- Start-up team, 173
- State, 120
- Strangers, 242–243
- Subsidiary social enterprises (SSEs), 55
- Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), 81–82
- Supporting partners, 23–24
- Sustainability, 27
- Sustainable business models (SBMs), 10, 146–148, 152, 195
 - requirements of, 150–151
- Sustainable development, 196
- Tabula rasa* hiring approach, 137
- Talent life cycle, 69
- Team
 - composition, 174–175
 - entrepreneurship, 176–177
- The Colour Kitchen (TCK), 126
- Thematic analysis, 241
- Theory knowledge base, 25
- Theory of Change, 6–7, 16–18
- Timing, 224
- Tony's Chocolonely (TC), 128
- Top management team (TMT), 173
- Traditionally profit-oriented enterprises, 120
- Triodos Bank, 129
- Turkey, women's cooperatives in, 100–102
- Turkish social entrepreneurial organization, 98, 110
- Turnover, 185–186
- UJC. See Nonprofit social enterprise
- Urban poverty, 35
- US Department of Agriculture (USDA), 79
- Vertical leadership, 183
- Vinfen, 59–60
- Virtual infrastructure, 39

- Vision/mission conflict, 66–67
- Vocational Proficiency program of Syrian and Turkish Women (TAMEB), 102, 108
- Vulnerability bearers, 78–79
- Wenchuan earthquake, 222–223
- Wi-Fi, 39
- Wilcoxon test, 204
- Win-win solution, 88–89
- Women, Infants, and Children (WIC), 81–82
- Women's cooperatives, 113
- achievement of social goals, 108–110
 - business model of cooperatives, 106–107
 - community-based social enterprises, 112–113
 - data analysis, 105–106
 - data collection, 104–105
 - findings, 106–111
 - implications for future research, 114–115
 - knowledge acquisition and learning experiences, 107–108
 - research methodology, 103–106
 - research setting and sample cases, 103–104
 - scalability, 110–111
 - social entrepreneurial organization, 111–112
 - social innovation in SEO, 99–100
 - social innovation outcomes and scalability, 102
 - theoretical background, 99–102
 - in Turkey, 100–102
 - Turkish social entrepreneurial organization, 110
- Women's empowerment, 98
- World Economic Forum, 195
- World Trade Center attack, 221
- Youth microfranchising, 176–177