

INDEX

- “Accumulation by dispossession”, 180, 214
- Aggressive governance, 189–191
- Agrarian change, 37
- Agricultural/agriculture agricultural liberalization, 213 commodity markets, 40
exit from, 42–46
- Alcohol, 8 abuse effect, 16 brewing and consumption, 5 participants’ solutions to effects of alcohol use, 24
- Amalwa*. See Home-brewed beer
- Amatwa*. See Home-brewed beer
- Americanists, 89
- Ancient America, 89
- Andes, 92, 99
- Archeological evidence documents, 91
- Artisan risk reducing through relationships, 122–124
- Aztec empire, 96–99
- Aztec troops, 98
- Bad credit. See Nogud kaon
- Baki*, 237
- Bandhua mazdoor* (bonded labor), 244
- Beach vendors, 206–207, 215–216, 219–222
- Beer brewing
in contemporary Maragoli society, 9–13
impact on women’s agricultural production, 21–23
in indigenous Maragoli society, 5–8 in Kenyan society, 5 study site description, research approach, and methods, 8–9
- Beer consumption, 7–8 consequences on producers’ and sellers’ households, 18–20
in contemporary Maragoli society, 9–13
effects on consumers’ household members, 14–18
impact on women’s agricultural production, 21–23
- Beer-selling households, 20
- Boom-bust fashion, 41
- Border Industrialization Program, 207–208
- Bracero Program, 207–208
- Cacao, 106
- Calpolli*, 97
- Campesinos*, 206–207 sons of, 215–222
- Capitalism, 34, 116, 120, 172
economic agency in face of, 118–119
free-market, 122 global, 125
- Caribbean tourist, 258
- “Cat-and-mouse” games, 191, 194
- Central Andes, 93
- Centrality of beer libations, 13
- Chamelecón, 103
- Chengguan*. See Urban inspectors

- China, street vendors in, 180 background characteristics of interviewed vendors, 203–204
 daily regulation, 192
 economic reforms, 183
 foundation of People's Republic of China, 181–182 political campaigns and government institutions, 186–188
 Sluggish urban inspectors, 193–194
 street markets, 182
 street vending in Sanya City, 184–186
 street vendors' strategies, 194–196 suppression during political campaigns, 189–192
- Chincha merchants, 93, 94, 95
- Circuit of commerce, 234, 240 embeddedness and, 235–239
- Climate change, 206, 208, 210, 215, 219, 220
- Çoçumba's agents, 105
- Coevolution of foraging and sharing, 72–73
- Coffee production, historic context of, 38–39
- Commission
 Agra's entrepreneurs, 241–243 alliances between showroom owners and tour guides, 241 proliferation of risks through commission alliances, 243
- Commodification of beer-brewing evident, 12–13
- Common sharing, 71
- Comunidades agrarias*, 211, 212
- Contemporary Maragoli society, beer brewing and consumption in, 9–13
- Conventional grocery stores, 148
- Cultivation, 69–70
- Cultural biography, 238
- Cultural Revolution, 183, 208
- Cuzco core, 92, 93
- Darwinian vision, 66
- De-agrarianization, 35–37
- Debt circulation, 244 circulation of bad debt and implications, 247
 Clandestine debt, 247 costs and risks for showroom owners, 250–252
 obligations of bad debts for tour guides, 247–249 person's financial condition, 245 relations between tour guides and tourists, 249–250 young tour guides, 246
Zarooratmand guides, 244
- Debt-to-GDP ratio, 259
- Demand-sharing compatible logics of kinship and market values, 170–171
 domestic tradestores, 165–166
 economy of Gilbert Camp,
 161–164
 Kinship, 159
 outdoor tradestores, 167–169
 Solomon Islands, 156, 160
- Diet Breath Model (DBM), 69
- Dietary habits, 51
- Diversified coffee markets, 47–49
- Diversion of agricultural credit into beer drinking, 22
 of household resources into beer
 drinking, 14
- Dog domestication, 69
- Domestic tradestores, 165–166
- Domestication
 and cultivation, 69–70
 free environment to initial, 68–69
- Double-dealing, 243
- Dumping, 213

- Economic agency in face of “capitalism”, 118–119
- Economy of Gilbert Camp, 161–164
- Ejidatarios*, 209, 211
- Ejido*, 206–207, 211
- Ekigingi*, 6
- Elite/specialty markets, 148
- Embeddedness, 90, 108, 235–239
- Emotional atyachaar, 246
- Empowerment, 25
- Ethical dangers of “fairwashing”, 126–130
- Ethnic Tensions, 161
- Ethnohistorians, 89
- Exclusive property rights, 73, 74
- Fair trade consumers, 131
- Fair Trade International (FLO), 127
- Fair-trade mission of Ten Thousand Villages, 117
- Fair-trade vendors, 128
- FairTrade, 48
- “Fairwashing”, ethical dangers of, 126–130
- Family farming, 52–56
- Family-operated fruit transport business, 51
- Farming, 35, 73–74
- diversification, 49–52
- family, 52–56
- Female sex tourism, 258, 262–264
- Food tourism, 147
- Foraging behaviour, 65
- Free markets. See Street markets
- Gastro-tourism, 147
- Generalized reciprocity, 71
- Gilbert Camp, 156, 157, 159, 161, 165
- economy of, 161–164
- outdoor tradestore in, 167
- topography of, 163
- Gold buttons (chagual), 95
- Good credit. See Gud kaon
- Good’ life (gud laef), 157
- Gourmet market, 47
- Green Revolution, 208–210
- Greenhouses, 50
- Gross domestic product (GDP), 259
- Gud kaon*, 167
- Guild-like groups, 97
- Health risks, 258
- HIV/AIDS, 18, 20, 268
- Home (hom), 157, 158
- Home-brew dynamics, 8–9
- Home-brewed beer, 5, 7
- efforts to reducing detrimental ramifications of consumption, 23–27
- participants’ solutions to effects of alcohol use, 24
- persistence and change in brewing and consumption, 10
- Homo oeconomicus*, 72, 74
- Honiara, 156, 157, 158
- Hortalizas*, 50
- Hotel Aid Law, 260
- Hotel Incentives Act (1968), 260
- Human Behavioural Ecology (HBE), 69
- Human foraging behaviour, multiple and evolving goals of, 65–67
- Human manipulation evolution of environment, 76–77
- Human/environment interaction, 67
- domestication and cultivation, 69–70
- from free environment to initial domestication, 68–69
- NCT, 67–68
- Hunter-Gatherers (HG), 62, 64–66, 68, 71–74, 76
- pre-Neolithic, 66
- Immigration Reform and Control Act (IRCA), 220

- Imperial uniformity, 92
 Indebtedness engineering, 237
 Indigenous beer brewing in African societies, 4
 Indigenous Maragoli society, beer brewing in, 5–8
 Informal economy, 207, 213, 216
 Inka Empire, 92–96
 Inka rule, 94
 Inter-American Development Bank (IDB), 259
 International Coffee Agreements (ICAs), 40
 International Monetary Fund (IMF), 211, 259
 International tourism, 261
 International Year of Family Farming (IYFF), 35 Interviewed vendors, background characteristics of, 203–204
- Jamaica
 economy, 259 methods, 263–264
 risky behaviors, 267–270
 setting, 261–263
 sex tourism and resilience, 264–267
 STI/HIV education, 258 tourism in, 259–261
- Jamaica AIDS Support for Life (JASL), 268
 Jamaica Hotel and Tourist Association (JHTA), 260
 Jamaica Tourist Board, 260–262
- Kaon*, 167
Khipu records, 95
 Kinship, 159
 compatible logics of, 170–171
 traditional kinship principles, 166
- Latin America, peasantry in, 215 Leisure, 151 productive, 139–140, 152
Linguae francae, 102–103
 Livelihood diversification, 35–37
 Long-distance exchange, 89, 90
 Central Andes, 93
 without centralized political power and social stratification, 100–106 in late prehispanic states, 92
 Maya Kingdoms of Northern Yucatan, 99–100
 Tawantinsuyu, 92–96
 triple alliance, 96–99
 Long-distance trade, 90
 Lower Ulúa valley, 91, 101
- Maket haus*, 162, 163, 166, 170
 Malnutrition, 14
 affecting women farmers' energy levels, 22
 Malthusian conclusion, 64
Mamon chino trees, 50
 Manley, Michael, 259, 260
Maquiladoras, 207–208
 Maragoli, 8
amatwa, 5
 using beer to mobilize work groups, 12 commodification of beer-brewing evident, 12–13 longitudinal ethnographic data from, 5 violence against women among, 16
- Marginal profit, 166
 Market values
 compatible logics of, 170–171
 concretion of, 166
 Maya Kingdoms of Northern Yucatan, 99–100
 Members of Ten Thousand Villages, 120

- Men who have sex with men (MSM), 268
- Mennonite Central Committee, 117
- Mennonite Christian values, 120
- Mesoamerica, 96, 100
- Mexican peasantry, 206, 208
- Micro beneficios*, 47
- Migration, 207, 209, 212
 circular migration of peasants, 221 rural-to-urban, 210
- Miller's theory of shopping, 139–140
- Mindalá, 95, 96
- Minifundia*, 43
- Ministry of Health (MOH), 187, 190, 267, 269–270
- Mixed economies, 62
- Mono-causal factors, 62, 65
- Mountainous environment, 43
- Multiple data collection methods, 8–9
- Mumtaz Mahal, 239
- National Civilized City, 181, 186, 187, 190–191
- National Environmental Protection Agency, 262
- National Excellent Tourism City, 190–191
- National HIV/STI Programme, 267
- National markets, 51
- National Sanitary City, 181, 186, 187, 189, 190
- Natufian settlements, 78
- Negril, 261–262, 264
- Neoliberalism, 166, 172, 211 and discontents, 210–214
- Neolithization process, 62
- Niche construction theory (NCT), 67–68
- Nogud kaon*, 167
- Nomadism, 72
- Non-farm employment, 37
- Non-governmental organizations (NGOs), 263
- North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA), 206, 213
- North Market, shopping at, 138 analysis, 145 collection of vendors, 141 in Columbus, Ohio, 138 customers and spending at, 142–145 data, 142
 Five Merchants, 146
 Miller's theory of shopping, 139–140
 permanent vendors, 141
 productive leisure, 152
 provisioning, 147–148
 public market, 140
 thrift, 148–151
 treat, 151–152
- Northern Yucatan, Maya Kingdoms of, 99–100
- Obsidian, 99, 102, 104–106, 108
- Occupational multiplicity, 36, 42–46
- Ohio, 138, 140
- Open-access resources to exclusive property rights, 71–72
- Optimal foraging theory, 69
- Orejones*, 94
- Outdoor tradestores, 167–169
- Ownership, 70, 71
 evolution of forms of, 78–79
- Peasants, 182
- PéRez Zeledón, Costa Rica, 35
 de-agrarianization, 35–37
 diversification farming, 49–52
 diversified coffee markets, 47–49
 livelihood diversification, 35–37
 occupational multiplicity and exit from agriculture, 42–46

- primary occupation of
 - economically active adult children, 43
 - smallholder agriculture in, 38–41
 - smallholders, 34
 - transformative synergies and family farming, 52–56
- Performance theory, 195
- Pochteca*, 97, 98, 99
- Political campaigns
 - and government institutions, 186–188
 - suppression during, 189–192
- Political centralization, 100
- Population pressure, 64
- Post World War II Green Revolution, 206
- Pre-Neolithic foragers, 66
- Pre-Neolithic societies, 70
- Precolumbian America, 92
- Principal–agent problem, 91
- Productive leisure, 139–140, 152
- Program for Certification of Ejidal Rights (PROCEDE), 212, 219
- Program for Direct Assistance in Agriculture. See Programa de Apoyos Directos al Campo (PROCAMPO)
- Programa de Apoyos Directos al Campo (PROCAMPO)*, 214, 221
- Property rights, 73–74
- Provisioning, 139, 147–148
- Public market, 140
- Puerto Rican Model, 260
- Pull explanations, 74
 - evolution of forms of ownership, 78–79
 - evolutionary sequence, 75
 - human manipulation evolution of environment, 76–77
 - recent theories and Levantine archaeological evidence support, 74–79
- ‘Pull’ models, 62, 64
- ‘Push’ models, 62, 64
- Qualitative data, 9
- Quitamay, 103
- Quitola. See Ticamaya
- Rancho Irés, 103
- Resilience, 258, 264–267
- Resource
 - harvesting, 72
 - pooling systems, 71
- Risk reduction, 72
- Risky behaviors, 267–270
- Rural development, 35
- Rural-to-urban migration, 210
- San Isidro, 44, 45
- Sanya City, 181
 - street vending in, 184–186
- Sanya City Administrative Law Executing Bureau (SCALEB), 187, 188
- Scarcity, 170
- Selling on credit. See Kaon
- Semi-proletarianization, 209, 222
- Semi-structured interviews, 263
- Sex tourism, 258, 264–267
- Sexually transmitted diseases (STDs), 18, 20
- Sexually transmitted infections (STIs), 258
- Sharing, 71, 73
- Show-off hypothesis, 66
- Showroom owners, 247
 - costs and risks for, 250–252
 - and tour guides, 241–243
- Sluggish urban inspectors, 193–194
- Smallholder agriculture in PêRez Zeledón, 38
 - coffee and smallholders, 39–41
 - historic context of coffee production, 38–39

- Smallholders, 34
- Social and cultural practices, 11
- Social dynamics of public markets, 140–141
- “Social embeddedness”, 235
- Social justice, 128, 129
- Social organization and institutions, 70
- coevolution of foraging and sharing, 72–73
 - open-access resources to exclusive property rights, 71–72
 - ownership, 70
 - property rights and farming, 73–74
- Socio-cultural goal, 66
- Solomon Islands, 156
- demand-sharing, 156, 159–171
 - geography and demography, 160
 - kaon*, 167
 - kinship, 159, 170–171
 - Pidgin, 170
 - traditional kinship principles, 166
- Solomon Islands Dollars (SBD), 161
- Sons of peasants on beach
- beach vendors, 215–216, 219–222
 - Green Revolution, 208–210
 - Mexican Miracle, 207
 - neoliberalism and discontents, 210–214
 - peasants in Mexico, 206
 - shocks to peasants/small farmers in Mexico, 208
 - sons of campesinos, 215–222
- Spondylus*, 93, 94, 105
- STI/AIDS programs, 268
- Street markets, 182
- Street vending, 193
- Street vendors in China, 180
- background characteristics of interviewed vendors, 203–204
 - daily regulation, 192
 - economic reforms, 183
 - foundation of People’s Republic of China, 181–182
 - political campaigns and government institutions, 186–188
 - Sluggish urban inspectors, 193–194
 - street markets, 182
 - street vending in Sanya City, 184–186
 - strategies, 194–196
 - suppression during political campaigns, 189–192
- Strombus*, 105
- “Subjectivation”, 125
- Subsuming system, 125–126
- Suppression during political campaigns, 189–192
- Taj Mahal. See Mumtaz Mahal
- Tawantinsuyu, 92–96
- Ten Thousand Villages, 116
- artisan-group liaisons and Villages’ corporate leadership, 130
 - challenges for, 132
 - challenging “normal” trade, 124
 - economic agency in face of “capitalism”, 118–119
 - ethical dangers of “fairwashing”, 126–130
 - marketing of fair-trade products, 131
 - reducing artisan risk through relationships, 122–124
 - subsuming system, 125–126
 - values, 117–118
 - vulnerabilities visibility, 119–122
- “Third World agrarian imaginary”, 129
- Thrift, 139, 148–151
- Ticamaya, 103
- Tlatoani*, 97, 98, 99

- Tour guides, 241
 obligations of bad debts for, 247–249 relations between tourists and, 249–250 showroom owners and, 241–243
- Tourism entrepreneurs in Agra circulating debt, 244–247 circulation of bad debt and implications, 247–252 commission alliances between showroom owners and tour guides, 241–243 markets in circulation, 234–235 social relations and economic activities, 235–239 tourism in Agra, 239–240
- Tourism in Jamaica, 259–261
- Tourism Product Development Company (TPDCo), 263, 267, 270
- Traditional Ecological Knowledge (TEK), 73
- Traditional kinship principles, 166
- Transformative synergies, 52–56
- Transition from foraging to farming, 62
 human/environment interaction, 67–70
 multiple and evolving goals of human foraging behaviour, 65–67 push' and 'pull' models, 62
 social organization and institutions, 70–74 theories and Levantine archaeological evidence support 'pull explanations', 74–79 traditional theories and limits, 64–65
- "Treat", 139, 151–152
- Triple alliance, 96–99
- "Triple bottom line" models, 116
- Ulúa region, 102
- Urban inspectors, 187–188, 193–194
- Urban Melanesia, 160
- Urban revanchism, 180
- Vendor dynamics, 141
- Western Region, 268–269
- Western Regional Health Authority, 270
- Westmoreland Health Department, 263
- White-tailed deer (Odocoileus virginianus), 68
- Women brewers, 4, 11 efforts to reducing detrimental ramifications of consumption, 23–27 in Law and Development in Africa, 16 roles in food and cash-crops production, 21
- World Bank, 211, 259
- Zarooratmand* guides, 244