

INDEX

- Achievement, 22–23
Affection, 32
Agenda Setting, 45
Agenda Surfing. See Agenda Setting
Ambassadors, 118
Appreciation, 104, 105–106
Appreciative inquiry (AI), 161–165
Aspirational talk, 41
Assertiveness, clear language, positivity model (ACP model), 205–207
Assertiveness (A), 203
Association of Pension Funds, 184
Attention, 47
Attitudes, 23
Average variance extracted values
 (AVE values), 82
- Behavioural flexibility, 203–204
Being love (B-love), 14–15
Benevolence, 59, 64–65
Blindfolding procedure, 87
Boundary spanning, 171
Brand advocate, 117–118
 ambassador, 117–118
 evangelists, 117–118
 testimonials, 117–118
 values, 24
 worlds, 46
Brand love, 6 relationship marketing research on, 6–8
Business reality, 161–165
Business Source Complete database, 120
- Case studies, 179
Charity projects, 44
Clarity of language (C), 203
- Coconstructed leadership, 99, 100–103
 communication behaviour on ISM,
 108–109
Commitment, 7, 13 relationship management research
 on, 8–9
Communal relationships, 15 Communication. See also Strategic communication, 59–60, 66
 activities, 22, 32–33
 competences, 203–205 consultants, 138 departments, 121–128 effectiveness, 31
 engagement, 9
 findings, 176–178
 literature review, 171–174
 management's societal contribution, 171–173 managers, 138
 method, 174–176
 objectives, 23 practitioners, 116, 170
 professionals, 124–128, 144–145 recommendations, 178 and relationship management, 170
Communication, options, alternatives, standards and trust (COAST), 204
Communication and Mass Media
 Complete database, 120
Communicative acts
 communicative leadership as, 111–112
 formal leadership, 104, 105–106
 peer leadership, 107, 110–111
Communicative leaders, 97
Communicative leadership, 94, 97–98,
 99, 100–102, 109–111

- as coconstructive communicative acts, 104–107
 - as communicative acts, 111–112
 - roles on ISM, 103–104, 112
- Communicative organization, 116–117
- Companionate love, 7–8, 11–12
- Competence, 58–59, 64–65
- Complete love, 7–8, 11–12
- Composite reliability (CR), 82
- Confidence, 60, 64–65
- Congruence, 27
- Consultation, 202
- Consumer-oriented CSR
 - communication, 185–186
- Consumers' love for organizations, 6–9
 - relationship management research on intimacy, passion and commitment, 8–9
 - relationship marketing research on brand love, 6–8
- Consummate love, 7–8, 11–12
- Content, 38
- Control, 32
- Corporate ambassadors, 116–118, 124–128
 - findings from interdisciplinary literature review, 121–124
 - implications for practice, 130
 - limitations, 129–130
 - methodological approach, 120–121
 - results of empirical study, 124–128
 - theoretical perspectives on employees as communicators, 117–119
- Corporate communication, 116, 117
- Corporate greenwashing, 5
- Corporate influencer, 118
- Corporate or brand identity, 24
- Corporate or brand image, 24
- Corporate responsibility, 48
- Crisis communication, 9
 - studies, 17
- Critical engagement with study material, 179
- Croatia
 - financial and retirement literacy levels in, 188–189
 - pension fund system in, 187–188
- Croatian National Bank (CNB), 185
- Croatian pension funds, 184
- Cronbach's alpha, 82
- Cross-industry perspective, 138–139
- Cultural
 - competence, 170
 - diversity, 170
 - intermediaries, 171–172
 - sensitivity, 170–171, 177–178
- Culturally sensitive communication
 - management education, 173–174
 - practitioners, 172
- Dance, 156
- Dancing CEO, 157, 159, 165
 - case description, 157–159
 - conceptual clarifications, 161–165
 - reactions, 158–159
 - reputational impact and future expectations, 165–166
 - theoretical framework, 160–161
- Danish media, 159
- Decision-making, 104–106
- Decoupling, 38–39, 41, 46–49
- Deficiency love (D-love), 14–15
- Delegated listening, 104, 105–106
- Dependability, 58
- Dialogic engagement, 5
- Dialogue theory, 15
- Discredibility, 60–61, 65
- Discursive leadership, 96–97
- Distrust, 65
 - quantifying, 60–61
- Doctor–patient communication
 - relation, 202–203

- Dramaturgical understanding of strategic communication, 165
- Education, 185
 consumer-oriented CSR communication, 185–186 financial and retirement literacy levels in Croatia, 188–189 pension fund system in Croatia, 187–188 project description and results, 189–197 as tool of strategic communication in raising financial literacy, 186–187
- Effective CSR communication, 186
- Elaboration Likelihood Model, 23
- Emotional engagement, 9
- Emotionalization, 48
- Emotions in stakeholder relations, 9
- Employee(s)
 engagement, 75–77, 81, 94, 121–124
 happiness, 76
 speaking for organizations, 121–124
- Employer branding, 141
- Engagement, 112
- Escape, 32
- Ethical communication and relationship management, 177
- Ethical public relations, 15
- European Communication Monitor (ECM), 138
- Exclamation, 62–64
- Expectancy motivation theory, 140
- External brand worlds, 46
- External organizations and events, 44–45
- External persons, 45
- External topics, 45–46
- Extrinsic motivation differences, 144–145
- Fake news, 5, 56
- #FeesMustFall campaign, 174–175
- ‘Finance for everyone’ microsite, 190
- Financial education, 186
- Financial literacy, 184–185, 187 levels in Croatia, 188–189
- First-order measurement model, assessment of, 82
- Focus groups (FGs), 202–203
- Formal leadership, 99, 100–102, 104
 communicative acts, 104–106
- Fornell-Larcker’s criterion, 82
- Foundational OSR, 9
- Framing, 104, 105–106
- Gender differences in future perspectives, 145
- Generations, 140–141
 Generation X, 140–142
 Generation Y, 140–142
 Generation Z, 143
- German Social Democratic Party (SPD), 45–46
- Happiness, 21–22, 161
 analysis method, 81 data collection, 78–80 limitations and future research, 89 measurement, 80–81
 mediating effect of work engagement, 78
 method, 78–81
 results, 82–87
 theoretical perspectives and research questions, 76–78 at work, 76–77
- Hashtags, 62–64
- ‘Health is wealth’, 203–205
- Health professionals’ communication competences, 202
 ACP model, 205–207

- communication competences, 203–205
- data, 208–209
- empirical research, 208–209
- evaluation by health specialists, 209–213
- health communication model, 213–214
- patient's well-being–ACP model, 213–214
- 'Health', 203
 - communication, 203–204, 213–214
- Humour, 104–106
- Hypocrisy, 41

- Identity construction process, 96
- Image, 48
- Inclusion, 32
- Infatuated love, 7–8
- Influence, 56–57
- Inside-out content, 38, 40–43
- Integrated communication, 119
- Integrated marketing
 - communications, 119
- Integrity, 58–59, 64–65
- Internal communication, 75–77, 94
- Internal communication satisfaction (ICS), 76, 80–81
- Internal Communication Satisfaction Questionnaire (UPZIK), 80–81
- Internal social media (ISM), 94
 - analytical procedure, 98–99
 - collecting empirical material, 98
 - findings, 99–107
 - method, 98–99
 - theoretical framework, 95–98
- International Network on Financial Education (INFE), 187
- Interpersonal
 - communication, 32
 - competence, 203–204
 - love, 6
- Interviews, 117, 120

- Intimacy, 6, 7, 13
 - relationship management research on, 8–9
- Intrinsic motivation differences, 144–145
- Issues management, 40

- Job satisfaction, 138–139
- Journalism, 41–42
- Joy, 4, 55–56, 146, 156
- Jutarnji list*, 190

- Leadership, 94
 - communication, 161–165
 - as communication behaviour, 96–97
 - as identity construction, 96
 - lack of, 99, 100–102, 104
 - roles, 161–165
 - as social construction, 95–96
- LEGO Movie, 159
- Liking, 7–8, 11–12
- Links, 62–64
- Listening, 59, 66, 104–106
- Long-term savings and investments (LTSI), 187
- Love, 4–6

- Malevolence, 60–61, 65
- Mass media, 187
- Means-end chain, 24
- Measurement model, 56, 82–84
 - assessment of first-order measurement model, 82
 - assessment of second-order measurement model, 82–84
- Media journalism, 42
- Mediation analysis, 87
- Mediatization, 161–165
- Mere-exposure approach, 44
- Message length, 62–64
- Millennial communication
 - professionals (MCPs), 144–145

- Millennials, 143
- Motivation model, 140, 145–146
- Motivators, 140
- Multimodal understanding of
strategic communication, 165
- Mutually beneficial OSR, 9
- Negative emotions, 161
- Neither-true-nor-false content, 48
- Netlytic, 61–62
- Netnographic study, 98
- Non-judgemental dialogue, 180
- Nonlove, 7–8
- Openness, 58, 64–65
- Organization(al)
ambassador, 118
context, 121–128
engagement' orientation, 14
love and ethics in public relations, 13–15
organization–public distrust, 60–61 orientation, 5 success, 138–139 theory, 40–41
trust, 58
- Organization(s)–other(s) relationship(s) (OsOsRs), 11
- Organization–public relationships
(OPRs), 4
- Organization–stakeholder love (OSL), 4–5, 9–13
future OSL–related research, 16–17
- Organization–stakeholder partnership, 9
- Organization–stakeholder relationships (OSRs), 4, 11–12
consumers' love for organizations, 6–9 development, 9
future OSL–related research, 16–17
maintenance, 9
organizational love and ethics in public relations, 13–15 organizations' love for stakeholders, 9–13
practical implications, 16
- Outside-in-content, 38, 40–43
and decoupling, 46–49 practices of, 43–46
- Partial least squares structural equation modelling
(PLS-SEM), 81
- Partial mediation, 88
- Participative action research, 175
- Passion, 7
relationship management research
on, 8–9
- Peer leadership, 99, 100–103
communicative acts, 107, 110–111
- Pension Fund Insurance Companies, 184
- Pension fund system in Croatia, 187–188
- Perceptions of motivators of different generations, 144–145
- Perceptual flexibility, 203–204
- Personal finance, 184
- Personal reflection, 179–180
- Philanthropic giving, 44, 45
- Phrases, 62–64
- Plain language, 205
- Pleasure, 32
- Polyphony, 116–117, 119
- Positive emotions, 161
- Positive experiences, 161–165
- Positive individual traits, 161–165
- Positive institutions, 161–165
- Positive organizational behaviour
(POB), 161–165
- Positive organizational scholarship
(POS), 161–165
- Positivity (P), 203
- Privacy breaches, 56
- Proxies, 56, 57

- PsychINFO database, 120
- Public discourse, 172–173
- Public relation (PR), 143
 - cross-industry perspective, 138–139
 - data collection, sample and results, 146–151
 - job satisfaction, 138–139
 - literature review, 139–146
 - organizational success, 138–139
 - research questions and definitions, 145–146
 - studies, 4–5, 9–10, 14
- Purpose-driven PR, 138, 145–146
- Quasi experiment, 194, 194
- Question marks, 62–64
- Relationship(s), 4
 - management research on intimacy, passion and commitment, 8–9
 - marketing research on brand love, 6–8
 - relationship-building process, 141
- Relaxation, 32
- Reliability, 59, 64–65
- Research-based communication management, 171
- Retirement literacy levels in Croatia, 188–189
- Retweets, 62–64
- Role-play, 179
- Romantic love, 7–8
- Schwartz's theory, 28–29
- Second-order measurement model, assessment of, 82–84
- Self-acceptance, 203–204
- Self-awareness, 203–204
- Self-depiction, 41–42, 47
- Self-perception, 203–204
- Self-vision, 144–145
- Sense-making, 104–106
- Setting directions, 104–106
- Sing, 156
- Sixt, 46
- Smart PLS 3 software, 81
- Social cohesion, 171–172
- Social identity theory, 96, 109
- Social media. See also Internal social media (ISM), 56
 - metrics in trust research, 56–57
- Social media influencer (SMI), 118
- South Africa, 170
- Specialist leadership, 99–103
- Spin, 5
- Sponsorship, 44
- Stereotyping, 176
- Sternberg's theory of love, 6–7
- Strategic communication. See also Communication, 38, 156, 184
 - inside-out content, 41–43
 - literature review, 39–41
 - outside-in-content, 41–43, 46–49
 - practices of outside-in-content, 43–46
- Strategic internal communication, 75–76
- Structural model. See also Measurement model, 86–87
- Subjective happiness, 76, 81
- Subjective Happiness Scale, 81
- Subjective well-being, 22, 25–26
- Sustainable OSR, 9
- Swedish 'Communicative Organization' research project, 119, 121–124
- Talk-action inconsistency, 38–39
- Task leadership, 99–103
- Teaching modalities, 171, 179
- Therapeutic relationship, 202
- Topic leadership, 99, 100–103
- Topic management, 40
- Transparency, 58
- Trust, 56–57
 - building actions, 64

- level, 57
- quantifying, 57–60
- trust-related behaviors, 60
- Twitter, 56
 - data collection procedures and evaluation framework, 61–62
 - findings, 62–64
 - methodology, 61–62
 - as popular social media platform, 57
 - review of literature, 57–61
- Two-way communication and relationship management, 176
- Utrecht Work Engagement Scale (UWES-9), 81
- Value Compass, 29, 30
- Value(s), 22–26
 - congruence, 26–31
 - implications and suggestions, 32–34
 - model, 31–32
 - operationalization of values concept, 28–31
 - values-based communication, 22
 - values-based educational approach, 174
- Vampire effect, 47, 48
- Variance inflation factor (VIF), 82–84
- Well-being, 203
- Words, 62–64
- Workplace values, 144–145